THE RESULTS OF THE PINAL RACES

WASHINGTON, July 20.-The bicyclists had delightful weather for the last day of the thirteenth annual meet of the L. A. W. Some of the wheelmen left town for home to-day, and all except comparatively few of the visitors will get away to-night. A run to Cabin John bridge over the best road leading out of Washington was the first thing on the programme to-day. The ladies were tired out with continuous sightseeing, and the ladies' run at 10:30 o'clock was a small affair. The Zoological Park, ex-President Cleveland's former country home at Oak View, and Tenleytown were visited. The Illinois division kept open house at the Ebbitt and entertained all comers. The punch bowl was never empty and never deserted.

and never deserted.

Lewis J. Berger, of the Bearings, issued at Chicago, and James Cartwright, of the Bulletin, published at Boston, engaged in a road race during the morning. The race grew out of an exchange of personalities in their respective papers. The course lay from Lower Reservoir, near the Potomac to Cabin John bridge and return, a dis tance of 12 miles. Berger won by about 75 yards in 1 hour and 37 minutes, including a rest of 30 minutes allowed at Cabin John The races at Analostan Island resulted as follows:

One mile, safety, three-minute class, open heats, won by Ward, of Washington. Best time, 2:57 2-5. Half mile, ordinary, L. A. W. championship, won by Draper, of Philadelphia, Time, 1:18 2-5. Two mile, safety, handleap, open, won by Githens, of Chicago, Time, 5:08 4-5.

Quarter mile, safety, L. A. W. championship, won by Barretta, of Chicago, Time, 37 seconds. One mile, safety team race, open, was a walkover for the Chicago Cycle Club, Mile, safety, L. A. W. championship, won by Taylor, of New York; Munger, of Chicago, second; Dortoge, of Buffalo, third, Time, 2:46.

G. W. Johnson Adds Another Stake to His Credit and Yale '91 Breaks a Record. Caicago, July 20.-J. M. Brown's Iroquois, brunette colt, G.W. Johnson, added another stake to his credit to-day at Washingto Park. The quickstep at half a mile which brought 12 youngsters to the post and was worth $3,450 net to the winner was merely a gallop for him. The fast Faustus filly, Quiver, ran a good race and secured the place. Maid Marion made the best of a poor start, and, making up considerable lost ground, ran third. The field was I hour and 13 minutes at the post. This was G. W. Johnson's second start, and he has earned for his owne ond start, and he has earned for his owner $15,000 in stakes. He is regarded as the best 2-year-old in the West and is engaged in the uturity.

The sulking and uncertain Ormie took a notion to run, and, upsetting the calcula tions of the talent, beat out Nolus in the tions of the talent, beat out Noius in the mile and 20 yards and clipped a quarter of a second off the record for this irregular distance, which was formerly 1:45, credited to Rorka over the Latonia track. Ormie's record was shortlived. In the last race of the day, at the same distance, Yale, '91, showed the way home in 1:41%, going the mile from flag to flag in 1:40. The favorites fared poorly.

EXCITING BACES AT DETROIT. An Accident and a Judge's Error Among the Incidents of the Day. Dernorr, July 20 .- The races at the Detroit Driving Club to-day were of a more exciting character than those of the two previous days. Hulds, the second choice in the first race, took the first two heats and was then taken sick and drawn. Muta Wilkes, the favorite, easily took the next three heats and the race. In the free-for-all pace, Mas-cott was a strong favorite, and, after losing two heats, jogged around the track alone in the next, Abdallah and Boy Wilkes being left at the post through an error of the starting judge. After Honest George had taken two heats and Hazel Wilkes one in the third event, the race went over until to-morrow. Summaries:

The trust has not always had its own way in controlling the market lately, its competitors being aggressive, and the attempts to advance prices for leases is met with determined resistance. A dispatch from Cincinnati says: W. N. Hobart, Treasurer of the Distillers' Cattle Feeders' Company, was asked to-day conperning the statement that the Whisky Trust is encountering new trouble in demands for increased rentals of plants whose leases are now expiring. Mr. Hobart was not in the least troubled by this apparent nroad upon the company's treasury.

"It is all provided for in the lease," he said, 'that contains a provision for a revaluation every five years when either party demands it. The leases are just now beginning to exit. The leases are just now beginning to expire, and instead of the owners of plants demanding higher rentals, so far the only action has been on the part of the trust, which demands revaluation on the ground that the rentals are too high.

"The lease provides a mode of determining the revaluation in case either party desires it, so that no trouble may be looked for on that account. The trust is by no means compelled, in renewing leases, to concede whatever terms the owners may demand."

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. BALTIMORE, July 20.-Manager Hanlon had only a patched-up team to pit against the Pittsburgs to-day, and a slaughter of the innocents was generally expected. After the game was over, cranks on the grandstand and bleachers were saying it might be a good thing to play this team regularly. Shoch broke his arm near the elbow this mernng, and Van Haltren and Sutcliffe are on the sick list, so all-around Substitute Mc-Graw was sent to center, Halligan, who has his ten days' notice in his pocket, was put on first, Ward was shoved out to right, and O'Rourke, the new man from Omaha, was but at short field.

The unexpected happened, and the subs.

as well as the regulars, hammered the ball in a way to dishearten the Pittsburgs, who began the game with a good deal of vim, and seemed to have gotten a firm grip on it in the second inning. The Slaughter of the Innocents, The tide began to turn in the third, and an entirely different face was put on the situation in the fourth, when Baldwin was situation in the fourth, when Baldwin was batted out of the box, and the Pittsburgs, who had up to this time played with the confidence of winners, lost heart.

The slaughter was continued when Elmer Smith took Baldwin's place, the poor work of both ends of the battery helping the Orioles along considerably. Stovey did the hardest hitting, fattening his batting average with a triple and three singles. Hallian following closely with a double and three singles, while Robinson had four sin-gles, two of which came in one inning. Even McMahon, who makes an average of one hit per month, surprised everybody including himself, by getting in three sin gles, one of which was the funniest kind of gies, one of which was the runniest kind of a little bunt. Mr. McMahon was also hit very freely by the Pittsburgs, Miller, Dono-van and Elmer Smith especially taking a fancy to his delivery. His stone wall support, however, helped him along remarkably except in the sec inning, when their only two errors of the game were made by Captain Cub Stricker, which were responsible for the five runs scored in that inning. O'Rourke especially distinguished himself, while the discharged Halligan played a game at first seldom seen. Miller's work behind the bat and Shugart's work at short were the redeeming features of the day for Pittsburg. After the first inning was over, both sides started in with honors even. The Orioles got a run after two hands were out on Halliin's double and Stovey's infield hit Pittsburg's got theirs on a hit by Miller, who went to third on Bierbauer's single and scored on Shugart's fly to McGraw. The Orioles made two hits in their second, but could not score, while the Pittsburgs got what was thought to be the winning lead.
