

NEW ELECTRIC ROAD

To Operate Partly Over the Present Tracks of the Central Traction.

WILL GO TO WILKINSBURG.

Opening Up a Large Tract of Hitherto Undeveloped Property.

A PERCENTAGE CONTRACT MADE

On a Track Mileage Basis With the Duquesne Company.

ONLY WAITING FOR AN ORDINANCE

The next move on the street railway checker board will be made by the Central Passenger Railway Company, when it will try to get into the king row.

An Independent Electric System.

As everybody will remember who has ever ridden on its bold curves, which suggest the gravity roads at the summer resorts, the Central Traction Company is that cable road which runs from the station on Thirty-third street and Herron avenue down Wylie avenue to High street, down Sixth to Wood and then up Fourth avenue to Grant, to Webster and back up Wylie.

It is now proposed to run an independent electric system over the whole road, without interference with the cable, except that the new cars will go over the Center avenue route and leave Wylie avenue above Fulton street to the cable alone.

Will Build a New Motor House.

The electric cars will be operated from a new power house, the site for which has not yet been selected, but which will probably be somewhere on the plateau beyond Fulton street. It will be equipped with the most improved and powerful machinery, and the cars themselves will be furnished with the Westinghouse apparatus.

Merely Made an Exchange. Detectives Steele and Aiken, of Allegheny, yesterday afternoon arrested Charles Patterson.

Paid His Bill in Blows.

Thomas Blair, a plumber of Federal street, Allegheny, is charged with assaulting Robert Gribbin, who lives on Rebecca street.

original corporation under which the franchise is held by less to the Central Traction. It is understood that the Duquesne road will offer no opposition to the passage of the ordinance required for the new project. It already is under contract with the Central Traction to allow the extension and use of its tracks in return for the use of the Central's tracks on Sixth avenue, Wood street, Fourth avenue and Grant street.

BIRMINGHAM SHORT LINE

Will Have Electric Cars Running Within a Few Days. The Birmingham Traction Company expects to have the electric cars on the short line route in operation within the next ten days.

MAINED A NEWSBOY.

Little Eddie Gallagher a Victim of the Birmingham Traction Line—Two Fatalities in Yesterday's Accident.

Edward Gallagher, aged 12 years, of the Southside, was struck by Birmingham car No. 2 on Carson, near Twentieth street, last evening.

Upon examination he was found to have been terribly cut and bruised. His head had been cut open and a large portion of the skull was exposed.

The accident occurred shortly after 8 o'clock just as he with a number of companions had finished selling their evening papers and were returning home.

In addition to the above yesterday's list includes two fatalities and several other accidents of a less serious character.

MURDER—Benjamin Muser, of No. 1 Bedford street, employed as brakeman on the Pennsylvania Railroad, was instantly killed yesterday morning while switching some cars near Twentieth street.

WUNDERLICH—Charles Wunderlich, residing with his parents in Christy Park, above McKeesport, died yesterday from injuries sustained by being run over by a road wagon.

ISRAEL—Charles Israel, of 69 South Seventeenth street, had his foot crushed by having a large building stone fall on it in front of Slaughter's wagon shop on the same street, yesterday afternoon.

EXPOSURE—August Eger, a laborer employed in Fife's laundry, Southside, was caught by a piece of falling metal yesterday forenoon and had his hand crushed.

Merely Made an Exchange. Detectives Steele and Aiken, of Allegheny, yesterday afternoon arrested Charles Patterson.

WILL PUT UP A TICKET.

Followers of the People's Party to Hold a Mass Meeting Here.

THE CALL IS ALREADY ISSUED.

It is to Be a Party That Will Foster the Workingman's Cause.

LEADERS SAY IT IS A HEALTHY INFANT

A People's Party Mass Convention has been called, with C. A. Burrows, of Sharpburg, as Chairman, and Thomas J. Roney, of Allegheny, as Secretary pro tem. The call reads:

Citizens of Allegheny county, irrespective of their local political affiliations, who will at the next Presidential election vote for the People's party nominees, and thus endorse the second Declaration of Independence, are invited to attend a mass convention in the city of Pittsburgh, Saturday, July 30, 1922, at 6 o'clock p. m., at Curry University Hall, corner Sixth street and Penn avenue, to nominate a People's party county ticket, and otherwise organize for the campaign now in progress.

A DISPATCH reporter called on Mr. Burrows at his residence in Sharpburg last night. Mr. Burrows is a highly educated and refined gentleman, and his conversation evidenced that he has thoroughly studied the social problems of the day and is conversant with the opinions and writings of all the great reformers.

Other Issues Than the Tariff. "We are only a few of the very many people who are dissatisfied with the way matters are going, and appreciate that there are other issues than the tariff to be looked after."

"We are aware that our movement is exceedingly young and verdant yet, but everything must have a beginning, and we think that ours has commenced just at the proper time. After the meetings we held here to elect a delegate to the State Convention this idea of entering the county campaign with a People's ticket was formulated and discussed at several subsequent meetings."

"This is simply a preliminary mass meeting, at which all those matters will be settled."

"Have you any persons in view as likely to be named as candidates?"

"We have not discussed that at all. The movement will be spontaneous and we think we have held no caucus. At no one of our private meetings have we ever had as many as ten present. No, we want the people themselves to name their choice."

"On whom do you rely for the strength of your party?"

"A Party for the Workingmen. "On the workingmen principally, but then we expect to have the support of any element that has made up its mind not to vote for the old parties. You would be surprised to know the amount of encouragement we have received in our work. Several trades associations have called upon us and pledged themselves to our cause. Only yesterday I received a letter from a pattern maker who represented a large faction of his fellow-workmen who had decided to vote no more for the old parties."

"Will you give the names of the people interested with you in this movement?"

"I hardly think it would be proper to give the names of those actively engaged, as they are all workingmen and it would endanger their positions, for times have not changed much from when the now great Republican party was in its infancy. A Republican on those days was a 'black Republican' and was ostracized generally as the negro's friend. It might result the same with the workingmen if it was thought they were conflicting with the old party."

Mr. Burrows is what might be termed a Bellamite. Two years ago he joined the Nationalists and he has naturally fallen into the People's party.

A NEW REPUBLICAN CLUB

Prominent Welsh Citizens Unite to Help Elect Harrison and Reid.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of Welsh citizens was held last night in St. David's Hall on Fourth avenue, for the purpose of forming a Welsh Republican Club. Mr. D. W. Lewis, of Wylie, was elected President. The other officers elected were: Vice Presidents, John Jarrett, Jonas B. Hughes and Joseph D. Jones; Secretary, David A. Jones; Treasurer, W. J. Jones; Executive Committee, D. J. Evans, Edward W. Davis, D. W. Lewis, Thomas E. Jones, John L. Lewis, David D. Roberts, Howell Powell and David Price; Captain, Charles A. Jones.

The object of the meeting was the promulgation of Republican principles and the election of Harrison and Reid. The club selected the name of the Cambrian Republican Club, and 75 of the most prominent Welsh citizens signed the enrollment paper.

AN ARCH ABBOT.

Rev. Father Leander Scherr Chosen for That High Position—The Rector of St. Mary's Church, Allegheny, Elected by the Chapter.

The Rt. Rev. Andreas Hintenach, of St. Vincents, who recently resigned the high office of Arch Abbot of the Order of St. Benedict, will be succeeded by Rev. Father Leander Scherr, rector of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Allegheny. For the purpose of filling the vacancy made by the resignation of Father Hintenach, a meeting was held recently at the Benedictine Monastery, St. Vincents, Westmoreland county, and Father Leander was elected on the second ballot. The chapter was conducted by the Rt. Rev. Leo Haid, President of the American Cagliene Congregation.

The new Arch Abbot is a very large man and is 36 years old. His mother was a protestant, but his father was a Catholic, and he was reared in the Catholic faith. When only a youth he entered the Benedictine order, where he was educated. At 23 years of age he was ordained a priest. During the great fire in Chicago he was rector of St. Joseph's Church, which was then standing at Chicago avenue, but has been removed to Market and Hill streets, where it is still in charge of the Benedictine priests. Early in 1872 Father Leander was called from Chicago by the late Arch Abbot, Rt. Rev. Boniface Wimmer, to fill other missions in Pennsylvania and Indiana. For some years he filled a mission at Johnstown Pa., from which place he came to Allegheny, where he has been rector of St. Mary's Church for about 14 years.

Not Offered a Bit of Gobbler. When asked if he had not been offered a little gobbler the gentleman denied it, and he had entered into no agreement with any other county.

If such is the case, some peculiar affliction will be affected then, if the impression is true, to-morrow will see a settlement. The interesting feature of the day occurred this afternoon, soon after the conference had assembled. All day long the conferees had been scattering their votes far and near, but not in the least coming near a solution of the question. It was on the forty-fourth ballot that Jefferson led off by giving Nesbitt his solid vote. Westmoreland followed and Nesbitt secured another. Armstrong came next, voting 2 for Heiner and 1 for Huff. Indiana was the last called. She raised Nesbitt to 6, then all was on the tip of expectancy. The last man in the delegation cast his vote in another direction, and thus was Nesbitt's advent into public life checked, or, at least, that is what some of the people thought.

A Verster From Armstrong County.

An Armstrong county man has a version which seems to be a proper one. He says the Senatorial fight was back of the voting ticket. The Indiana county man is the wish of Indiana county to secure the nomination of Nesbitt, but she wants to hand the goods over to Mr. Bond. "I think," said he, "the fourteenth ballot was the conferees had been scattering their votes far and near, but not in the least coming near a solution of the question. It was on the forty-fourth ballot that Jefferson led off by giving Nesbitt his solid vote. Westmoreland followed and Nesbitt secured another. Armstrong came next, voting 2 for Heiner and 1 for Huff. M'CLURE'S GREAT PRIVILEGE

Alderman Kerr Holds That Law and Order Men May Work on Sunday.

Alderman Kerr yesterday gave his decision in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Harry Horne, the land Law Order Society detective charged with performing worldly employment on Sunday. The information against Horne was made by Constable J. W. Jack, on information received. At the hearing only one witness, Charles Clinton, testified. His testimony was to the effect that he had worked with Horne on several different Sundays.

Alderman Kerr withheld his decision until yesterday, when he discharged Horne. Alderman Kerr said, in speaking of the case, that the court had decided that Agent McClure had a right to engage in his work on the Sabbath, and that he was of the opinion that anybody having a commission from McClure had the same right.

Suit by a Contractor Growing Out of the Bricklayers' Strike.

Thomas Buchanan entered a suit for $30,000 damages yesterday against President H. A. Barnes and James Bradshaw, John Carr and William Van, other members of the Builders' Exchange.

HUFF IS STILL IN IT,

And Nesbitt's Chances for Nomination Are Subject to Discount.

FLUCTUATIONS IN CONFERENCE

That Are Taken as Signs That a Selection Will Be Made To-Day.

OTHER FIGHTS FAR MORE EXPEDITIOUS

(FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) PITTSBURG, Pa., July 21.—All signs will fall if the Republican nominee for Congress in the Twenty-first district is not nominated to-morrow. Who that man will be is a trifle undecided, with the exception that Mr. Nesbitt's chances are considered slight. Without doubt every effort is being made to settle on a man, and that Nesbitt is not considered as the man comes from more than one camp.

From the apparent relaxation of consultation about 11 o'clock to-night it was evident that a winner had been decided upon. Not an interested party would talk. They would smile and cheerfully say that things would soon be righted and the choice of the district would be acceptable to all.

Although strongly denied by the parties interested, the Indiana Senatorial contest is playing a large part in the selection of a Congressman. Armstrong county has changed her tactics to-night. Mr. Heiner said the Armstrong delegation was willing to meet any county half way. He said propositions were offered him, but in each case he received buzzard, while the other man would get juicy slices of turkey.

Not Offered a Bit of Gobbler. When asked if he had not been offered a little gobbler the gentleman denied it, and he had entered into no agreement with any other county.

CLEVELAND AND HIS CAL'IBRA

New York Politicians Looking After Their End of the Campaign.

NEW YORK, July 21.—From the Whitney mansion, Mr. Cleveland was this morning driven to the Fifth Avenue Hotel, where parlor B, on the first floor of the hotel on the Twenty-third street corner, had been engaged for his accommodation. Among the first callers was Lieutenant Governor Sheehan. Following the Lieutenant Governor came several members of the Democratic National Committee, among the number being William F. Harrity, of Pennsylvania. Mr. Cleveland, Mr. Whitney, Mr. Sheehan and Mr. Harrity were chatting together when Mr. Bryce came in. These gentlemen were alone for some time. It is understood that Mr. Sheehan represented in a measure the sentiment of the New York faction, and was there to express his opinion upon the selection of a Chairman. Mr. Whitney said Mr. Cleveland is not here at any conference. He is simply here to receive members of the National Committee and other gentlemen who desire to call upon him. Nearly all the members of the National Committee and a good many Democrats from other States, as well as local celebrities, called and shook Mr. Cleveland's hand and chatted about the campaign. General Stevenson, meantime, was receiving callers at his apartments in the Hoffman House. "I had no idea," said he, "that the demonstration last night would be so enthusiastic. Mr. Cleveland's popularity is unbounded."

A RECEPTION IN HARLEM

Tendered to the Democratic Nominee, Who Makes Speeches and Dine Together.

NEW YORK, July 21.—Grover Cleveland and Adlai Stevenson smoked to-night the calumet with the Sagamores of Harlem, where a reception was tendered the leaders of the Democracy. It was a great time for the people of Harlem, and not a Democrat of note in the district was absent. All grasped the hand of Cleveland and Stevenson. Outside the clubroom the streets were ablaze with fireworks, and in many-hued incandescent lights the facade bore the name of the club and the names of Cleveland and Stevenson. When Cleveland and Stevenson arrived a mighty shout went up from thousands of throats, the flights of rockets were more frequent, and colored fires added to the general enthusiasm. Inside the clubroom was packed, a string band played patriotic airs and the portrait of Richard Croker stood down from one of the walls on many familiar faces among them. The two guests were welcomed by Judge Andrew J. White, President of the club. Without loss of time Thomas F. Gilroy called for order, made a brief speech and was followed by the candidates, after which a banquet was enjoyed.

THE FARMER A WINNER.

Mayor Pingree Knocked Out as a Candidate for Michigan's Governor.

SAGINAW, Mich., July 21.—The Republican State convention, which has been in session for the past few days, during which there has been a hard contest for the Governorship between the farmer candidate, John T. Rich, of Elba, and Mayor Hasen S. Pingree, of Detroit, adjourned sine die at a late hour this afternoon, after adopting a strong platform and nominating a full State ticket as follows: Governor, John T. Rich, of Elba; Lieutenant Governor, J. Wright Giddings, of Cadillac; Secretary of State, John W. Jochim, of Marquette; Treasurer, John C. Hambling, of Hancock; Auditor, General Stanley W. Turner, of Rosebush county; Attorney General, both candidates, Dickerson, of Otsego county; Commissioner of General Land Office, Senator John G. Barry, of Otsego county; Superintendent of Public Instruction, J. F. Patterson, of Ingham county; Member of Board of Public Instruction, Prof. E. A. Wilson, of Pawnee.

The platform embraces the Omaha national platform in its entirety, and condemns the National House of Representatives for its failure to pass the Tom Watson anti-Pinkerton bill.

LITTLE JOHNSON CONTINUES HER TESTIMONY IN THE MITCHELL TRIAL—FATHERS BOWED DOWN WITH GRIEF—ALICE HAD A BASEBALL NINE AT SCHOOL.

MEMPHIS, July 21.—[Special.]—In the Mitchell case to-day Lillie Johnson resumed the witness stand, and was subjected to a long and searching cross-examination by Attorney General Peters. She stood the ordeal much better than was expected of her after her breakdown yesterday.

She answered all questions promptly and emphatically, especially when any guilty knowledge of Alice's purpose was implied in the questions, and was entirely free from any embarrassment, even when she heard read one of her own foolish letters to a correspondent personally unknown to her, and when she frankly confessed to making the acquaintance of an opera singer by commencing a flirtation with him on a suburban dummy line and of sending notes and bouquets to him.

Her father and two brothers were in the courtroom and heard the confession of folly, but as she finished her father helped her from the stand, one arm about her waist, with ineffable tenderness.

Her father sits in the courtroom day after day with bowed head, which he rarely raises. He has a listless air and he and Mr. Mitchell are the objects of universal sympathy. Meantime, Alice Mitchell is as chipper as a meadow lark, a very cheerful young creature among the gloom of her relatives who surround her. The trial is no ordeal to her, and she comes up fresh every morning. During an interval of court to-day she conversed in an animated manner with her brother Robert, and smiled in the happiest way imaginable.

At school Alice had a baseball nine and was very fond of sport. Alice was very high tempered, wanted to have her own way, and generally had it.
