and uninteresting are moderate terms when ap-Brooklyn - Pittsburg contest at Eastern Park today. After the second inning. when the Brooklvns had the game, every man who struck out did a great service to the crowd of wearied on-lookers. If the Pittsburg Blues hadn't put up a good article of baseball on Monday, no one, from their fielding yesterday, would hesitate for a moment in classing them with the rockiest lot of grasseaters in existence. That they managed to hit Haddock once in awhile is their only excuse for living at all. Terry was in the box for the visitors, and it was the first appearance of the old Brooklyn favorite here this season. Painful to relate, the Adonis did not cover himself with glory. The Brooklyns failed to hit him very much, but his gifts of six bases go far toward telling the story.

Very Bad Support for Terry.

There were mitigating circumstances however, for four of the wildest kind of errors don't particularly encourage a pitcher and Terry was without question plainly disheartened. Gumbert took his place in the fourth inning. The home team made only five hits off his delivery, but Mack and Miller vied with each other in error making; and the runs were plentiful. Tom Burns, of the Brooklyns, went into the game very lame, and in the third inning Con Dailey took his place. The latter is always slow when in the outfield, and Burns, on account of his lameness, couldn't get around. That why three of the Pittsburgs' hits are ored as three-baggers. There are redeemen features to every disagreeable thing, d there were three such features in to-y's farce. In the first inning Ward made eat stop of Bierbauer's bounder and by a reat throw caught Shugart at the plate.

Tom Daly made the second fine play by catching an extremely hot fly tip from off Beckley's bat in the seventh inning. Con Dailey atoned for his slowness in the previeus innings by running at full tilt for and catching Beckley's fly close to the foul line. This was in the last inning.

Ward evidently anticipated a "pudding" for he again sent the visitors to the field.

Their first chance at the bat netted the home team just three runs; and they duplicated this in the third inning. To get these six runs the Brooklyns were only required to hit the ball safely three times. Brouthers knocked two of these, a single and a two-bagger, and Ward made the third on a short and skillful bunt to the front of the plate. The Pittsburgs' runs in the second inning were made on singles by Smith and Farrell and Kelley's three-base hit. It took just 45 minutes to play these two innings. The 45 minutes to play these two innings. The only inning in which the Pittsburgs attempted to play ball at all was in the fourth. Gumbert gave Griffin a base on balls as a starter. Corcoran hit to Bierbauer, and Griffin was forced out at second, while Tommy was doubled up at first. Brouthers made the third out, Miller to Beckley.

Some Very Wretched Fielding. After this, however, they gave elever fielding the go by, and the Brooklyns bad only to hit the ball safely now and then and the Pittsburgs' fielding did the rest. As for the visitors they made a run in the third on Bierbauer's three-bagger, which Dailev fielded very slowly, and on a sacri-fice fly to center field by Beckley. With one man out they scored two runs in the ninth inning on a base on balls and Shupart's triple and Bierbauer's sacrifice fly to Dalley. Aside from the three brilliant plays mentioned above the Brooklyns' fielding was exceptionally good, Haddock's fumble in the third inning being the only error and this wasn't costly. The Brooklyns' base running was such as to cause more than a little favorable comment, Brouthers' running being especially fast and with judgment. Ward made a second bunt in the ninth and by a wonderful burst of speed beat the ball to first. The BALTIMORE, July 26.—A few hits, coupled with daring base running, gave the visitors the winning run. Weather clear. Attendtough, -Exchange.

An opportunity was yesterday presented to Umpire Emsile to declare Bierbauer out under peculiar circumstances. Hart pitched in a moderately swift ball, and it hit the Pittsburger's but when he tried to avoid it. The result was that Bierbauer lost his footing and sat down, while the bat rolled a few feet in front of the base. Hart became puzzled as Bierbauer regained his feat, and picking up the ball tossed it to Brouthers. All this time Bierbauer had not stirred from the batter's box and Emsile had remained silent. But as Brouthers' hand went up Emsile nearly sent Hierbauer into a fit by declaring him out. Miller kicked goodnaturedly, but it was of no use, -New York Sun BALTIMORE R B P A E CHICAGO R B P A I Shindle, 3... 0 1 0 4 0 Ryan, m, ... 1 1 4 0 0 VanHal'n, m 2 4 1 0 0 Parrott, 3... 1 0 3 1 0 Sutcliffe, 1... 0 1 13 1 0 Dahlen, s... 1 1 4 5 1 Stovey, 1... 0 0 2 0 0 Anson, 1... 0 1 8 1 0 Halligan, r. 0 0 0 0 0 1 Wilmot, 1... 0 1 2 0 0 O'Rourke, s. 0 2 0 4 0 Canavan, 2... 0 0 1 1 2 Stricker, 2... 0 1 5 3 0 Decker, r. ... 0 0 0 0 0 Vickery, p. 0 0 1 0 0 Schriver, c. 0 1 3 1 0

LYNCH AND GRIFFIN.

Lynch, the 122-pound champion pugilist, started in yesterday to train for his fight with Johnny Griffin, which is to come off during the latter part of September. Jimmy has abandoned his old training quarters at Linden, and will get ready this time at the Atlantic Highlands. The principal cause for the change is that at the Highlands he can bathe in salt water, which he could not do at Linden. Jack Quinn will be his Lynch begins thus early to work because Lynch begins thus early to work because he is very big just now. He weighs 150 pounds, and it is generally hard flesh and difficult to work off. He has been taking care of himself for some time. He wants to begin moderately and reduce gradually. He will put in the last three weeks of his course in dead earnest, and fit himself for that sort of business during the interim.

The $250 that Rod McMahon, Lynch's backer, posted in the Rivarrated News office to make a side bet of $1,000 on the contest has not been covered by Griffin. McMahon, by the way, is in great distress. Every sporting man will sympathize with this honest and generous fellow when it is known that his wife is lying dangerously ill with consumption in the Catskill Mountains.

"All persons interested in the formation of an association football club in this city are Choynski in Germany. New York, July 26.—Joe Choynski has been enjoying himself in Germany. He writes to a friend from Berlin that his trip has been delightful. Among other things he says: "Our German-Davies and mine-is not up to the standard, but we manage to is not up to the standard, but we manage to make ourselves understood at all times. Jackson's hand is still pretty bad. Jim Hall is training hard for his fight with Pritchard, and there is no doubt that the contest will take place on August 22, notwithstanding the fact that no club has yet offered a purse. O'Brien, who is to meet Fitzsimmons, I have never seen, but experts say he would make a tough go with Pritchard, and that it would be hard to pick the winner. We expect to be home in time to see the Sullivan-Corbett fight."

Quite a Long Walk, New York, July 26.—[Special.]—Zoe Gayton, the long-distance pedestrienne, who about 12 months ago walked from San Francisco to this city, a distance of 3,398 miles, in 218 days, walking 167 days an average of 19 miles days, walking 157 days an average of 12 miles a day, is off on another trip. She intends to make the trip in 150 days. She will have to travel 400 miles further this trip than she did when she walked from San Francisco to New York, as she is going by the way of New Orleans. Zoe wants to break the record made by Edward Stone, who recently wilked the trip in 172 days. She will be accompanied on her trip by her faithful dog and her manager.

Looks Lake Costello, has not yet received an answer from either Pritchard or Hall, and it looks now as if Costello would be secured to meet Fitzsimmons in September. Captain Williams, the club's representative now in New York, has been instructed to visit McAuliffe, and the attempt will be made to bring both McAuliffe and Myer to this locality to train. McAuliffe will probably be assigned to Bay St. Louis and Myer will go to his old quarters at Carrollton.

Bicycling at Newark. NEWARE, July 26.-[Special.]-The first of three road bicycle races of ten miles arranged by the Young Men's Christian Association for $35 gold medal, a $15 silver medal and an ice cream dish, was run this evening with nine starters on a poor road. J. J. Daniels won first in 38 minutes and 4½ seconds; P. P. Scott second, in 39 minutes and 40 seconds, and George Boyles third, in 39 minutes and 50 seconds. An immense crowd witnessed the start and finish.

Billiard Experts Sick.

New York, July 26-The Herald's Paris cable says: Both Schaeffer and Slosson are on the sick list and are only playing exhibition games. Schaeffer leaves in a fortnight, Slosson going to Marienbad to take the waters. No important matches are yet arranged with Ives, who intends cabling the Brunswick-Balk Company claiming Schaeffer's foriest money in the world's championship match.

NEW ORLEANS, July 26.-[Special.]-The Olympic Ciub is making strenuous efforts to get a good man to fight Fitzsimmons, and fo-night the general desire is to have either Hall or Pritchard face him or nobody. GREAT RACE HORSE. Horsemen All Over the Country Are Interested in Yo Tambien.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] LOUISVILLE, July 26 .- The horse that is at present attracting more attention than any other, not even excepting Tammany, the great Eastern crack, is Yo Tambien. The great desire of the sporting world today is to see these two horses meet. It would be a great battle between the East and the West. Yo Tambien would be allowed weight for sex, and there is not a horse in the country that can give her weight and beat her.

Yo Tambien is a chestnut filly, and was foaled in 1889. She was bred by Theodore Winters and is by Joe Hooker, son of Mon day, by Colton, by Lexington, and May-flower, by imp. Eclipse, son of Orlando, by Touchstone. Yo Tambien's dam, Marian, Touchstone. Yo Tambien's dam, Marian, the dam of King of Norfolk, Emperor of Norfolk, El Rio Rey, Rey-del-Rey, etc., by Malcolm, son of imp. Bonnie Scotland, and Lady Lancaster, by imp. Monarch, granddam Maggie Mitchell, by imp. Yorkshire, out of Charmer, the best daughter of imp. Glencoe, she out of the noted Betsey Malone, by Stockholder.

What the Horse's Name Means, Yo Tambien is a chestnut with stripe of white down her face and white around the coronet of the near front foot. The name of Yo Tambien means "I Also" or "Me Too." She is one of the best of her famous Too." She is one of the best of her famous dam's produce, and has already won this season nearly $30,000. She has a distinguished turf lineage, and she is from winning and producing families on both sides. As a 2-year-old she started 13 times, of which she won eight races. This year she has shown marked improvement, and has proved that she is not only fleet of foot, but a stayer for her was tor the Great Western a stayer, for her race for the Great Western Handican, at a mile and a half, which she ran in 2:33%, is only half a second behind Firenzi's record. Her performance is better in every way than Firenzi's, as the lastnamed mare was 6 years old and carried less than weight for age (117), while Yo Tambien carried a penalty.

She has started as a 3-year-old nine times, and has suffered only one defeat, when Bashford beat her for the Merchants' Stakes at Latonia, but she was conceding him ten pounds and sex allowance. She was on this occasion beaten only half a length, the mile and an eighth being made in 1:5314.

A Good Record This Year. Yo Tambien's eight victories this year comprise a sweepstake for 3-year-olds at Latonia, the Tobacco Stakes and a purse race at the same meeting, all of which were at a mile. She next won the Garfield Park Derby at a mile and a quarter, carrying 127 pounds, and beating Wadaworth, Azra and a good field in 2:40%, but the track was in such terrible condition that no estimate of merit can be gained from the time made. Her next win was in the Boulevard Stakes, for all ages, at Washington Park, Chicago, which she won easily from Faraday, Santiago, etc., running the mile in 1:43. At the same meeting a few days later she won the Drexei Stakes, also at a mile, beating Ga-lindo, Chief Justice and Carlsbad, and winwith great ease in 1:42, with 122 ds up. This victory she followed by pounds up. This victory she followed by winning the Great Western handicap, also at the same meeting on July 14, when she accomplished the feat already referred to Local football players are beginning to get together to make preparations for the fall.

Mr. John Matthews, Secretary of the Pittsburg Football Club, has issued the following burg Football Club, has issued the following second, the best previous record at the dissecond, the best previous record at the dissecond at the disseco tance being 1:46. These performances stamp her as a dangerous rival to the best 3-year-old fillies of the East,

SOME WELL CONTESTED RACES.

Durnan's Entry Rejected and the Argonauts Are Disqualified.

PERMANENT COURSE PROBABLE

PRECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH, 1

SARATOGA, July 26.—The largest collection of oarsmen seen together at a national regatta for the past eight years was that assembled here to-day to witness the first day's programme of races in the twentieth annual regatta of the associations. The regatta was held under the auspices of the Saratoga Athletic Association, whose officers took charge of and made all arrangements for the carrying out of the programme for the accommodation of the con-testants. In all there were about 3,000 spectators. There were two points in this regatta of vital interest to oarsmen, namely, whether Saratoga should be selected as a permanent course and whether turning races shall hereafter be adopted by the asso races shall hereafter be adopted by the association, as this is the first time turning races have been rowed in a national regatta. It was announced this morning that several well-known, residents here have offered inducements to the association in the way of building boat houses and a fast steam launch to follow the races to the association if they will select the lake for a permanent course, and, as the feeling is at present that a permanent course should be selected, there is little doubt that the association will accept the offer. ciation will accept the offer.

A Little Too Rough to Start.

At 2 P. M. the water was too rough to start, and meanwhile the committee held a meeting in the Lake Shore House. It was announced that information had been re-ceived from Canada that the Sunnyside Boat Club has suspended three of its mem bers for wrong doing in connection with the single scull race which Durnan is supposed to have thrown, therefore the Regat-ta Committee decided to reject Durnan's entry. It was also decided that in conseentry. It was also decided that in consequence of Hawkins' rowing under protest, the man finishing third in the heat should be allowed to row in the finals.

At 5:10 the first event, the first heat of the senior singles was started. The contestants were: C. F. Bulger, Albany; H. W. Janssen, Staten Island; E. Hedley, Philadelphia; F. Hawkins, New York; W. S. McDowell, Chicago. Hedley won, Hawkins second, Bulger third. Time, 10:35.

Second heat—E. A. Thompson, Canada; W. Caffrey, Boston; J. Wright, Canada. Caffrey won easily in 10:26.

Third heat—J. J. Ryan, Canada; H. Campbell, Albany; E. N. Atherton, New York; R. Evans, Baltimore; J. W. Bergen, Cambridge, Mass. It was a close race to Cambridge, Mass. It was a close race to the turn buoy, which Ryan rounded first. The home journey was a procession, Ryan winning in 10:26%, Bergen and Vansant third, Atherton third.

The Juntor Single Scallers,

Junior single sculls, first heat—J. Hur-ley, Canada; A. W. Bensley, Rhode Island; H. T. Seaton, Newark; M. A. Sullivan, Central B. C. Hurley turned his stake boat first in 5:10, Bensley, Seaton and Sullivan fouling, the two latter being out of their water. Hurley won in 11:06, with Sullivan second in 11:37.

second in 11:37.

Second hest—P. Lehaney, Albany; J. S. Berry, Aquacknock B. C.; H. S. Matthews, Island City, Texas; J. Coughlin, Brooklyn. Lehaney was the first to reach his stake boat, which he turned in 5:07. Great sympathy was felt with Matthews, as he had been sick here for the past week, and he was roundly cheered when it was found he was not last. Lehaney won in 10:421. Coughlin second. 10:42½, Coughlin second.
Third heat—C. Barrett, St. Joseph; H. C. Blackinton, Narragansett; H. W. Cady, New York. Cady went to the front from the start, turning his stake boat in 5:14 and the start, turning his stake boat in 5:14 and winning easily in 11:00. Barrett missed his stake and was thus distanced.

Double sculls, first heat—This heat was contested by crews representing the Albany, Varuna, New York A. C. and Vesper B. C. The crews were nip and tuck to the three-quarters, where the Varunas drew a little ahead, turning first in 4:24, Vesper second, New York A. C. third, making a poor turn which lost them any chance they had of winning. On the home run the Vespers took the lead and won in 9:24, Varuna second in 9:29.

second in 9:29. The Argonauts Were Disqualified.

Second heat—Argonaut B. C., Institute, Manhattans A. C., Catlin and Pawtucket Boat Clubs' crews came to the line. Man-hattan got the best of the start, but the Catlins were the first to turn the stake boat in 4:25. Here the Institutes fouled the Manhattans, while the Argonauts failed to thurn their stake and, though they came in first, were disqualified, the race going to the Catlins, with the Pawtuckets second. Time, 9:28%.
This left only the trials in the senior fours to be rowed to-morrow. As it was get-ting late the Regatta Committee decided to start the regatta to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock in order to finish up on the two days selected and allow the carsmen to get home. Each of the events rowed to-day were well contested, and all the arrangements first-class. Walter Stimpson, President of the New England Amateur Rowing Association, was referee.

NARROWLY ESCAPED DEATH.

A Duquesno Car Runs Into a Buggy With Serious Results.

There was an ugly accident on Ellsworth avenue last night between College avenue and the bridge. Car 29, of the Duquesne and the bridge. Car 29, of the Duquesne line, was running along Ellsworth at full speed. A team attached to a buggy in which were scated a lady and gentleman was being driven along the thoroughfare, and near the bridge became unmanageable. The driver jumped out of the buggy to catch the horses by the heads. Before he could catch them the horses had jumped discretely agrees the car tracks and were hith. rectly across the car tracks and were hit by the car. Both horses were badly injured and one of them may have to be killed.

Died of Beart Disease. John C. Goettman, employed as a janitos at the postoffice, dropped dead while at work in that building yesterday afternoon. It is thought that the man's death was due to heart trouble. The deceased was 19 years old and lived on Nelson street, East End. An inquest will be held to-day.

The barometer continues highest over the South Atlantic States. It has fallen on the Atiantic coast and in the Lower Missouri valley, and has risen rapidly at Northern Rocky Mountain stations. It is generally warm on the Atlantic coast and slightly cooler in the Lake regions and the Onio valley. It is decidedly cooler in Montana.

Light local showers are reported from Southern New England, the Upper Ohio valley, the Lake regions and Minnesota. Showers are also reported from the Central Gulf coast. Local showers are indicated for the Lake region, Middle Atlantic States and Ohio valley on Wednesday, with warm, southerly winds. It is probable that cooler weather will prevail Thursday throughout the Northern States.

When the storm arose about half the campers commenced to care for the tents to prevent them being blown away. In several cases it became necessary for the boys to remain outside and stand upon the canvass to keep it in their possession, and the pelting rain quickly soaked through their clothing.

About a dozen young men started for a barn-like structure not far away, and getting inside, disposed themselves upon a large pile of sawdust which occupied most of the space. Here they slept all night. Upon arising yesterday morning they were surprised to find themselves stiff and sore and almost overcome with cold. One of the young men, who was of inquiring mind, took a shovel and dug down into the mass of sawdust.

Der Boss St. Louis Manager Gets the Best of George Wagner. WASHINGTON, July 26 .- [Specia!.]-While in St. Louis the other day George Wagner was up against Chris Von der Ahe and the ghost of the Cincinnati-Pendleton American Association venture. Chris holds the lease on the Pendleton grounds. He is responsible for the $1,200 annual rental. He has a $6,000 indemnity bond, signed by C. A. Prince, George W. Wagner, Henry Bennett and Harry Van

W. Wagner, Henry Bennett and Harry Van Der Horst to protect him. He gave notice to Mr. Wagner of an assessment of $228 on behalf of the Philadelphia Association Club, and for the same amount on account of the Washington Club.

Mr. Wagner paid the Philadelphia assessment, but kicked on the Washington bill. His reason for doing so was that when he bought out the local club he was assured that President Bennett had not obligated the Washington Club in the matter, and as a further guarantee he received an indemnity bond of $5,000 to protect him against any back indebtedness of the club not accounted for at the time of his purchase. Mr. Wagner now claims this bond is responsible for Washington's assessment. The old Board of Directors of the local club declare that they never authorized Bennett to sign any paper obligating Washington in the matter of the Pendleton venture. The trouble was settled amicably here to-day, Chris coming out ahead.

Another Rumor Denied. BALTIMORE, July 26.-President Von der Horst says of the rumor that Kansas City will buy the Baltimore baseball franchise: "It is very exasperating to have these false rumors constantly circulated about the Baltimore franchise, particularly when the Baltimore franchise, particularly when the management has done all in its power to place a first-class team in the field. No expense has been spared to secure good men, and to-day the Baltimore Club has as large a pay roll as any club in the League, and larger than most of them.

"The only reason we were successful in procuring these new players was because we were willing to pay more money for them than any other club. The Baltimore Club is here to stay, and it would be but an act of justice on the part of the baseball public of this city to accept this denial as final.
