SUICIDE OR MURDER?

The Strange Case of Mrs. Cutkisky Now Being Investigated.

HER HUSBAND UNDER ARREST.

Suspicion Aroused by a Conversation Overheard by an Officer

NOW LOOKING FOR A COLORED WOMAN

Max Cutkisky was arrested last evening on a charge of murdering his young wife, whose body now fills a suicide's grave. Last Saturday morning Cutkisky returned from church and entered his little store at 2834 Penn avenue. A few moments later he startled the neighborhood by announcing that his wife had hauged herself. The woman was found hanging by a noose running under her chin and over the top of her head. She was dead when cut down. The Coroner held an inquest, and, from the evi-dence then produced, returned a verdict of suicide by hanging.

The dead woman's maiden name was Bessie Leberman, her parents living at 36 Franklin street. A few months ago she met Cutkisky, and it appeared to be a case of mutual love at first sight. The wedding day was set for au early date, but was delayed when it became noised about that Cutkisky was already married and to a colored woman. It was also said that two children were the result of the union. And the Wedding Bells Rang.

Cutkisky's friends went to his relief and declared that the rumor was false; that it was prompted by malice on the part of some of the man's friends. The matter was finally smoothed over, and the ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of witnesses.

After the wedding Cutkisky took his bride to his home at No. 2834 Penn avenue. Their happiness was short-lived, for in a few days, it is alleged, Cutkisky began to abuse his wife. On several occasions neighbors found her sitting in the out kitchen weeping bitterly. When questioned as to the cause of her sorrow, she simply replied that her husband had ill-treated her.

Last Wednesday evening a colored woman carrying a baby went to the store. She asked for Cutkisky. When told by his wife that he was not in, she walked back into the store to await his coming. When Cutkisky arrived he greeted her in a very friendly manner, and requested his wife to retire to the back yard. Threatened His Wife's Life, Cutkisky and the woman walked out of the store, both apparently greatly excited. Officer D. Williams, who was standing nearby, overheard part of their conversation, which mainly consisted of threats against Mrs. Cutkisky's life. At this time Cutkisky is alleged to have said, referring to his wife, "Oh. I'll hang her before many hours." At the same time Cutkisky invited the woman to come to his house the next night (Thursday).

the woman to come to his house the next night (Thursday).

After the death of Mrs. Cutkisky her husband's actions aroused some suspicion. He objected to physicians examining the body, or even to allow it to be prepared for burial. When the attendants had removed the clothes, they found, besides several bruises, what looked like stabs in the left side, near the his Cutting and the state of the side o the hip. Cutkisky was greatly excited when the body was undressed, and had to be forcibly removed from the room.

The parents of the dead girl were not

Coroner's jury, and engaged Attorney J. K. Wallace, of Fourth avenue, to take charge of the case. After a thorough investigation Mr. Wallace secured what he considered to be sufficient evidence, and yesterday a charge of murder was made in Alderman McMasters' office against Cutkisky.

Objected to Anything Like Extravagance.

Three of the dead woman's brothers were seen yesterday, and they are all firm in their belief that their sister had been murdered. They united in saying that one day last week Cutkisky had threatened to kill his wife because she had spent 10 cents without his knowledge.

Attorney Wallace, in speaking of the case last evening, said: "I believe this is a case of cold-blooded murder. The circumstances surrounding it are most suspicious. Among other things Cutkisky claims that he left home at 9 o'clock Saturday morning to attend church, and that when he returned to attend church, and that when he returned he found his wife hanging from a beam in a back room. Dr. Christy, who was called in, gave it as his opinion that the woman died before 9 o'clock, otherwise the body would Cutkisky was arrested at the home of his parents at No. 19 Colwell street and taken to Alderman McMasters' office, where he waived a hearing and was committed for court. A warrant has also been issued for

The Anti-Cru-lty Society Looking After the Little Ones.

Stella Jackson, the 10-year-old daughter of Annie Jackson, who was given 10 days to jail by Alderman Gripp yesterday morning, was placed in the Colored Orphan Asylum yesterday by Agent Fisher, of the Anti-Cruelty Society. When the mother was sent up the child had absolutely no place to go.

Agent Fisher also returned 14-year-old

Annie Ryan to her parents in Bloomfield yesterday. Annie has been living at 156 Water street as a servant with James Brown a colored man, who is married to a white woman. He parents knew of her whereabouts, but made no effort to get her. Police Captain Dennison notified the Anti-Cruelty Society, and they compelled the on an Excursion. A most pathetic termination of a pleas ureable river excursion was that of the Good Templars' trip to Davis Island, during which young Harry Hinson, of Allegheny, fell overboard and was drowned.

The Templars, with a large number of ladies, left the city at 8 o'clock last evening on the steamer City of Pittsburg for Davis Island, and, after an enjoyable time, started for Homestead. A merry party were play-ing about the deck as the boat passed the foot of Locust street, and in some inexplica-ble manner young Hinson fell overboard and was lost. The boy was but 19 years of age, and resided with his parents at No. 42 Resaca street, Allegheny. The police are looking for the body.

Pravosky Expected to Die. Michael Pravosky, the Mansfield coal miner who was brought to the Mercy Hospital seriously injured yesterday, was very low last night. Pravosky was walking under the Panhandle railroad trestle when a large stone fell from one of the cars, strik-ing him on the head and fracturing his skull. He will probably die.

the Key on a Police Captain and a Lieutenant-Arrested While Trying Merchant's Safe.

Police Captain Henry Unterbaum and Lieutenant Thomas Richards had a peculiar experience out Penn avenue at 10:30 o'clock last night. When opposite the feed store of David Robb & Co., No. 2638, they of David Robb & Co., No. 2638, they noticed the front door standing wide open. The place was robbed of considerable cash several months ago and the officers concluded at once that the thieves had paid another visit, so they decided to make an investigation. Accordingly they went into the store and finding everything in perfect order they proceeded at once to the office. There they found papers, books, etc., soattered in confusion about the desks and the whole interior turned almost tapsy-turvy. Captain Unterbaum was in the act of try-

Captain Unterbaum was in the act of trying the safe when the front door was slammed and locked with great violence and a female voice began to call lustily for help. Both officers rushed to the front window and tried to allay the fears of the window and tried to allay the fears of the woman, but to no effect. The noise she made attracted the attention of Sergeant Charles Stix, who, in company with Officers Sam Miller and Wilkoufsky, hurried to the place. They had expected to make a rich haul, but were greatly surprised when they were confronted by their superior officers.

The captain explained that they had found the door open and that they expected to find burglars.

Mrs. Robb had been sleeping in a chair in front of the store when she was awakened by the officers who were investigating. Captain Unterbaum says "she is a plucky little lady."

TALE OF A STOLEN WATCH.

Franklin Emmerling Held for Taking It

but He Accuses Another. Franklin Emmerling, a plasterer, who was arrested a few days ago by Detective Philip McDonough, of Allegheny, was yesterday sent to jail by Alderman Mo-Kelvey on a charge of stealing a $65 watch. The watch had belonged to Mrs. L. L. Gray, with whom Emmerling boarded at No. 303 Franklin street, Allegheny. It disappeared on June 20, and soon after that Emmerling changed his boarding house and took a room with J. W. Bain at 18 Sedgwick street. Mrs. Gray complained to the police and said that she suspected Emmerling. Detective McDonough watched Emmerling and on last Saturday had his clothes searched at the Sedgwick street boarding house. A pawn ticket for the watch was found in a hole cut into the lining of a pair of pants. This ticket showed that the stolen watch had been pawned at the store of Louis Van Ullen, No. 1106 Penn avenue. Testimony to all of this story was given yesterday afternoon before Alderman Mo-Kelvey, and the prisoner, a fine-looking young man. six feet tall, asked permission to tell his story. He said that Joe Smith, a tellow boarder at Mrs. Gray's house, gave the watch to him and asked him to pawn The watch had belonged to Mrs. L. L. reliow boarder at Mrs. Gray's house, gave the watch to him and asked him to pawn it. The alderman apparently doubted this tale, and held Emmerling for the September grand jury. Before going to jail the prisoner made an information against Joe Smith, charging him with larceny. Smith was arrested at Mrs. Gray's house late last appairs.

WILL SHARE HIS LOVE ALIKE

Alderman McPike had a case yesterday that was rather easily settled. Louisa Jones and Maggie Christy, two colored ladies, helped to make up a party of pic-nickers at Rock Point last Saturday. When the merrymakers were on the way back to the city the two women got into a discussion of the affections of a young man whom they both claim. It is said Miss Christy removed some of Miss Jones' hair, and so the latter lady brought suit for assault and batters.

The hearing was fixed for yesterday afternoon. When the two women came to the Alderman's office, he told them to sit down and talk it over. This they did, and finally settled the case by the defendant paying the costs and both agreeing to share alike the young colored man's love.

MAY NOT MEET THE CUT

Western Lines Haven't Decided to Adop Santa Fe Rates to Denver. It has not been decided by the Western lines to meet the cut rate for the Knights Templar to Denver made by the Santa Fe road. The latter lipe offers a rate of $12 from Chicago, but will not guarantee to care for the business. No extra cars will be put on the trains, and the passengers must take chances in getting accommodations. In view of this state of affairs there is a disposition on the part of some of the other roads to hold the organizations to their contracts. Local accounts do not know what will be done but agents do not know what will be done, but the opinion is general that the competitors of the Santa Fe will meet the reduction. The tickets will be put on sale August 3, and some conclusion will be reached to-day.

"I take plensure in saying a word or two in core dial recommendation of Trinity Hail. As one of its patrons for the past three years, I have been deeply interested, of course. I have seen the school He and have looked into the course of study and the methods of teaching. All these are very antisactory. I have seen too, that the care is kindly, the food excellent, and the discipline administered with rare good sense and judgment. Trinity Hail, to my mind, is the most 'home-like' of any school I ever asaw."
