RESULTS OF BRIGHTON BEACH RACES

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 CLEVELAND, July 27 .- The track was slippery and the double team race was held over until to-morrow. Martha Wilkes' third mile in the mud in 2:15%, last half in 1:06%, ranks as one of the best ever trotted in a race. Sunset found the programme still unfinished. Quality was well represented in the field for the 2:19 trot for which Martha Wilkes, with her Detroit record of 2:15, was backed at long odds. Illinois Egbert on the side gave way to the mare at the first turn. Coming to the half, Doble eased her a little and Nightingale led to the stretch. A Very Close and Interesting Race for the Pair-Cared Honors.

THE SOUTHAMPTON TENNIS TOURNEY.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH1 SARATOGA, July 27 .- The second day's meeting of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen, held on the lake here today to decide who are the champions of the United States and Canada in the various classes, was productive of some fine exhibitions of skill in oarsmanship. The arrangements were not all as perfect as they might have been, the turning buoys being placed too close and thereby causing fouls n a couple of events, which have to be decided to-morrow.

The action of the Regatta Committee in setting the hour at 10 A. M. for the starting of to-day's races and then at a late hour last night changing it to 3:30 P. M. was severely condemned, as a majority of the oarsmen were anxious to get home to-night, and many did not hesitate to express their opinion that the committee were anxious to make it a three-day meet and suggested that if the World's Fair regatta is to be held here next year a week should be selected when there is no horse racing here, so that the races can be rowed earlier in the day.

There Was No Record Brenking.

The attendance of spectators was very condition of wind and water was about the same as yesterday during the majority of the races, and record breaking was out of the question. When the officials reached the lake they found the stake boats needed attention, and this caused the first race to be an hour behind time in starting, so that it was near 8 o'clock when the last race was finished.

The first event was the senior singles The first event was the senior singles with Hedley, Ryan, Bergin, Thompson, Caffrey, Hawkins and Bulger as contestants. During the night and early morning Hawkins was the favorite, but in the afternoon Caffrey took first place. Bergin got the best of the start, but it was only a slight one, all being on even terms to the half, where Caffrey took a slight lead, with Bergin second and Ryan third. Nearing the turn Ryan went to the fore and turned his stake first in 5 minutes 13 seconds. Ryan soon went to the front on the home journey and won, Hedley second, Caffrey third, Bergin fourth. Time, 10:24.

Lehaney the Junior Champion. The final of the Junior singles was a close and interesting race between Cady, Lehaney, Bensley, Coughlin, Seaton, Black-ing and Hurley. Cady and Lehaney had a hard fight for the first place, which Lehaney won in 11:25. At the mile and a quarter

Hurley capsized.

The pair oared race, which is the most scientific class of rowing, was a splendid ex-hibition on the part of all the crews representing the Cena Boat Club, of Philadel-phia; Nonpareil, of New York; Atalanta, of New York, and the Detroit Boat Club, of Michigan. They got away on even terms, but the Nonpareils forged ahead. At the half it was Cena, Nonpareil, Atalanta and Detroit, the latter rowing 40 strokes to the minute.

On nearing the turning buoy, the Non-pareils steered a little off their course and pareils steered a little off their course and the Detroits fouled them. The Detroits crossed the line first, Ionas second. The referee atterward disqualified the Detroits. The double scull event was a hot one. The contestants represented Vespers, of Philadelphia; Varunas, of Brooklyn; Catlins, of Chicago, and the Manhattans, of New York. The Vespers finished first in five minutes, Varunas second and Catlins third. In the Varunas second and Catlins third. In the junior four-oared shell race the contestants yuntor four-oared smell race the contestants were the Institute B. C., of Newark; Ariels, of Baltimore; Astorias, of New York. The Institutes had their boats mashed and soon sank. The Astoria boat also swamped. The Ariels finished first. Atalanta second. The referee withheld his

The Four-Oared Contest The senior four-oared event had six starters, representing the Fairmount Rowing Association, Wyandotte B. C., of Michigan; Argonaut R. C., Canada; Atalanta, New York; Modoc R. C., St. Louis, and the Wolverine B. C., Detroit, Mich.

It was a hard-fought and pretty race, resulting in a dead heat between the Modocs and Wyandottes. Time, 4:03.

Junior eight-oared shells had two entries, the Dauntless Rowing Club, of New York, and the Everetts, of Boston. Previous to starting the Dauntless crew broke their rudder and steered by word from their coxs-wain. At the mile it became necessary for the starboard side of the Dauntless crew to stop rowing in order to keep on the course, and the Everetts went ahead and won in

The last and greatest event of the day, the senior eight-oared shell race, had three of the best crews in the country pitted against each other. They were the well-known "Chippies," of the New York A. C., the Manhattan A. C. and the Malta Boat Club, of Philadelphia. At the word all three shot away as though fired from a cannon, the Manhattans immediately going to the front and holding a lead on the New Yorks until the last quarter, when ensued a desperate struggle between them to the finish, the New Yorks crossing the line a little over a half boat's length ahead.

SOUTHAMPTON, L. I., July 27 .- [Spe Good progress was made to-day in the Long Island championship tournament and, as wo of the prominent cracks met and the edoubtable Richard Stevens suffered deeat, the day was rather an interesting one. Stevens has finally been defeated and that by one of the younger experts. W. A. Larned, the Cornell player, defeated the Middle States' champion in a close and exciting contest, thus considerably increasing his reputation and tennis standing. The Cornell player was in his best form and has greatly improved his steadiness.

In the first set he won many strokes by just dropping the ball over the net, too short for Stevens to reach them. The second set was not very closely contested, Stevens winning it seeming to be a foregone conclusion, both men saving themselves for odd set. Here Larned played the better tennis and won on his superior all-round work. The Cornell player also had a little the best of the luck at critical times. E. L. Hall had hard work to beat John Howland and C. P. Howland, after winning from W. K. Fowler, finally succambed to S. T. Chase, after close playing. The score follows: Suminary—

T. C. Pog, the clerk at the Cincinnati wharf-boat, went to Wheeling on the Bedford yesterday for his summer vacation. His home is at George-town.

THE Belle McGowan had a new heater put in yes-day. She will leave to-morrow for the Allquippa coal mines, where she will be engaged in towing coal barges. THE H. K. THE City of Pittaburg will run an excursion from here to McKeesport and way points to-morrow evening. She will leave early in the evening and return early next morning.

It took the Lizzie Bay, Captain Keever, 34 hours to go to Wheeling on her last trip. The usual time is ten hours. Her destination was Cincianati, as the water in the Kanawha is too low. The storm that occompanied the rain yesterday tossed the boats at the wharf around at all vely rate. The wind blew the beats into the shore, so that none were torn from their moorings. THE Good Templars, who are hobling their convention in this city, went up the river to Braddock on the City of Pittsburg last evening. They returned about midnight and went to the dam. The excursion did not get back till 30 clock this morning.

MANY passengers have to be turned away daily from the Circinnati wharfboat. If the water was good the indications are that there would be as much business on the river as could be attended to. hiver excursions are very popular during July and August.

THE low water is proving to be the sand digger's harvest. Every boat engaged in this pursuit is busily employed and taking full advantage of the low river. There are about 15 of these boats at work within a few miles of Pitisburg in the Monongaheia and Allegheny rivers. THE Frank Gilmore was busy resterday scraping down lumps in the Allegheny. These lumps are caused by careless sand digares leaving piles of refuse sand in the river bottom. They are one of the most objectionable features of river navigation, and when the river is low cause much trouble.

ESPER IS SIGNED.

And Tommy Burus Is to Get a Big Call Down This Week. PHILADELPHIA, July 27.-[Special.]-Esper, late of the Philhes, signed a contract to pitch for the Pittsburg club, and will report there about next Friday. In the meantime he will recreate at Atlantic City in the hope that the salt water and occur breezes will do him good. His showing with the Phillies this season has been very good, he having won 16 games out of 21 in which he officiated. Acting President Bucken-berger is satisfied he has secured a valueble man both in the box and at the bat. His opinion is concurred in by Al Pratt, who is in this city at present. Terry will be let go, as the club cannot afford to carry any dead

nings. Weyhing timber.
It is expected that when the club returns to Pittsburg some action will be taken in the case of Manager Burus by the club officials. President Temple has been fully informed on Burns' course, and the utter indifference manifested by the latter about the proper care and conduct of the players is simply astonishing. He does not even take the interest in the club that the lowest salaried interest in the club that the lowest salarled member of the team manifests, and it is no wonder the players became discontented and failed to put up the article of ball they are paid to do.

Now that Buckenberger has the practical closed of affairs well played games may be looked for, as he takes an intense interest in the club and the players appreciate him and his ability. He possibly prevented the loss of another game to-day by telling Burns who to play after the latter had arranged another such patched up team as that which presented a game to Brooklyn yesterday.

KNOCKED NEEDHAM OUT.

Needham opened the fight vigorously, but Dawson came back in such energetic style that the first five rounds were about even, although Dawson was nearly floored in the second round by a vicious right-hander. From the sixth to the twelfth round the fight went Needham's way, he battering the Australian all over the ring, and drawing blood from him in streams.

In the thirteenth Dawson caught it hard on the nose and seemed to be growing weaker. In the fifteenth Dawson fought desperately, twice sending Neesham to the floor, and nearly knocking him out. The sixteenth, seventeenth and eighteenth rounds were lought slowly, both men being winded. The twenty-fourth was Needham's round, but he was almost knocked out by Dawson's heavy smashes in the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth rounds. In the twenty-eighth round Needham fell six times, but more because of weakness than blows. In the twenty-mith he was knocked out with a hard smash on the jaw.

IVES AND SHARPER DISPUTE,

The Champion Billiardist States His Case Against the Wigard. Paris, July 27.—In regard to the dispute between Ives and Schaefer, the billiardists, the former made the following statement to World reporter to night:

"At the time I arrived here from America it had been agreed upon that the date of the contest for the championship between Schaefer and myself should be the 25th and that time expired last night, but it was not until 4 o'clock this afternoon that I cabled the Brunswick and Balk-Collender Company, at New York, claiming Schnefer's forfeit money. Thus he withdrew from the contest which he himself provoked and the cham-pionship remains in my hands. I defeated Schaefer on the 19th of March with a score 800 to 449, I defeated Slosson on the 21st of May by 800 to 448. I secured the highest average ever made in a champion match, 26%, while the highest average made by Schaefer was 23 18-34, and by Slosson 22 30-35. I beat Carter on the 28th of October last at Milwaukee by a score of 600 to

It has been arranged that Slosson and Ives shall go to Trouville during the race week to play, if Slosson's health permits. This evening Slosson was to ill to play Ives the 300-point balk-line game which was on the programme, and so Cure took his place, receiving the advantage of 120 points. The game resulted in an easy victory for Ives, who made an average of 37%, while his opponent scored only 223, including his allowance. This afternoon Slosson was beaten at cushion caroms by Cure. Slosson goes on a trip to Mariensbad August 4, and he hopes by this means to restore his health. This evening at Vignaux's saloon Schaefer played with Piota game of 300 points up balk line, conceding 50 points to his opponent. Schaefer was beaten, making only 214.

A Suggestion to Consolidate the Coney Island and Olympic C ubs. New York, July 27.—[Special.]—A scheme was suggested yesterday which, if carried into effect, will prove to be a big boom to pugilism. Yesterday afternoon a reporter had occasion to visit Captain Frank Williams of the Olympic Club of New Orleans. The Captain was just Club of New Orleans. The Captain was just about to go down town when the reporter intercepted him.

"It's pretty tough to be nustling to get on a match these hot days," said the Southerner. Then he went on to say what trouble he had experienced in getting on a fight between Bob Firstimmons and some other good man. The conversation finally drifted to Captain Williams' recent visit to Coney Island, where he inspected the big amphitheater of the Coney Island Club.

"I wish we had such a field down South as you have up here in New York," said he. "You bet we would make lots of money. You have got a great deal of territory to draw from, and nothing to mar a good night's sport." The Captain further said that the result of his visit to Coney Island was very satisfactory.

result of his visit to Coney Island was very satisfactory.

It was suggested that it would probably be a good scheme for both clubs to work together hereafter, and be on an even basis. Captain Williams thought the idea a capital one, and stated that he would devote some of his leisure time while in the metropolis in pushing the scheme. If the plan is really carried out harmony would be affected carried out barmony would be affected between the Olympic and Coney Island Clubs. A "Fighting Trust" would be estab-lished, and all the other petty fighting clubs would be swallowed up by this new organ-ization.

A Great Amateur Runner, NEW YORK, July 27.—[Special.]—Assistant Official & A. U. Handicapper—big title for a little man—Hugh Hart received a letter yesterday from Regular Official A. A. U. Handi terday from Regular Official A. A. U. Handi capper E. C. Carter, who is at present in England, in which the latter goes into ecstacies over the running of A. J. Munroe, the Britisher who recently ran the invincible Kibblewhite to a very close finish. A curious thing about Munroe is that, like wine and fruit cake, he improves with age. He is 22 years old, looks 40, and is running better than he ever did. "I think," says Carter, "he'll break the three-mile record if he tries. He is an exceedingly graceful performer, and runs with apparently no effort whatever."
