ALL THE BASEBALL NEWS OF INTEREST

Table with 2 columns: Team, Score. Includes Louisville, New York, Baltimore, Boston.

Our somewhat unfortunate sluggers returned home yesterday after an absence of 18 days, and they were accompanied by the still more unfortunate Colonels from Louisville.

They put up one of their finest games, indeed put a very fine article of ball play. Indeed put the very brilliant effort only made the 1,800 people present wonder why such a good team should lose so many games.

Need a Good Commander. The general opinion is that matters have been run on a very loose plan among the team lately, and the desired management to make the entire team contented, and then the performance of yesterday may likely be repeated very often.

BURNS IS RELEASED. TRACK RECORDS AND TALK.

The Captain is Not Needed Any Longer by the Local Ball Club. MAY TAKE THE MATTER TO COURT.

A. C. Buckenberger is Made President and Manager by the Directors. AN OFFICIAL MAKES A STATEMENT.

Secretary Sandcraft, of the local baseball club, last evening handed a document to Tom Burns that meant the absolute release of the latter from the Pittsburgh Baseball Club.

Concomitant with the release of Burns A. C. Buckenberger was given full charge of the team, was made a director of the club and will in future act as President. Mr. W. C. Temple has retired behind the scenes, and has left his entire interests in the hands of Mr. Buckenberger, and it may be said that they could not have been in better hands.

When the team returned yesterday morning it was evident to the directors that they had not the contract to ally themselves among the players. They took the entire situation into consideration and after discussing the remarkably bad work of the team since Captain Burns took hold, they were nothing left for them but to make a change of management.

The directors held a meeting. They considered the situation and decided to release Burns. The directors held a meeting. They considered the situation and decided to release Burns.

TALK WITH CORBETT. JOHN L. SULLIVAN'S PROSPECTIVE OPPOSITION SAYS A FEW PLAIN WORDS.

James J. Corbett Says a Big Thump May Down the Champion. THE CALIFORNIAN IN GOOD SHAPE.

While by no means overconfident, or unduly elated by the magnitude of the task ahead of him, Corbett is unruffled by the prospect of a fight with Sullivan.

"I suppose people carry Sullivan alleged stories of what I say about him, just as I hear tales of what he is stated as having said about me; but I heard one the other day that I think sounds enough like him to be true. It was that Sullivan said: 'I am only training hard to oblige my friends. I don't have to do it for Corbett's sake. I don't care if he will fret himself half to death before the fight takes place. Now I don't want to be egotistic, or to make the slightest brag, but if my match with Sullivan caused me the slightest worry I should throw it up in five minutes. I will go further, and say that if I had any doubt in my mind of my ability to defeat Sullivan I never would have accepted the match. I will go further, and say that if I had any doubt in my mind of my ability to defeat Sullivan I never would have accepted the match.'
