

OUT IN THE WOODS.

The C. M. B. A. Hold a Successful and Enjoyable Picnic.

A GREAT CROWD IN ATTENDANCE.

Fair Weather and Rare Pleasure Supplied for the Occasion.

A FULL LIST OF THE PRIZE WINNERS

Alquippa, on the P. & L. E. R. R., was a lively place yesterday. Old Prob must hold the C. M. B. A. in high favor for he certainly set aside a perfect day for them on which to hold their fifth annual picnic.

REACHED AN AGREEMENT.

The Wire and Wire Nail Workers Meet Their Employers and Fix the Price of Their Labor—Both Sides Said to Have Made Concessions.

At the Monongahela House last evening the wire and wire nail manufacturers met a delegation of workmen in their employ to bring about a satisfactory arrangement of the wage list.

The session last night was the second since the old scale expired on June 30 last. The first meeting was held in the Monongahela House last Thursday, but nothing definite was accomplished.

The first session was held at 10 o'clock in the morning at the headquarters of the Amalgamated Association, but the committees adjourned and repaired to the Monongahela House, where a final agreement was reached.

M. M. Garland, President-elect of the Amalgamated Association, who attended the meeting, said last night: "The dispute over the new wire scale has been settled. Both sides made concessions, but on account of a change in the manner of working in several departments of the mills the workmen will not be greatly affected."

A. W. Stevenson, a representative of the New Castle Wire Nail Company, however, said after the conference was over that the men had agreed to a 10 per cent reduction.

The Manufacturers' Committee was represented by Messrs. Stevenson and Iago from New Castle, Messrs. Baebus and Iago and Judge Humbler from the Salem Wire Nail Company, who have two plants, one in Salem and the other in Findlay.

The gentlemen who had the management of the picnic yesterday at Alquippa were Dr. T. F. McManus, M. J. Maxwell, H. T. Graham, D. C. Casey, L. A. Schott, P. McNamara, John Murphy, and Richard Ennis was Chairman of the Reception Committee, which was composed of the entire Advisory Council.

Arriving on the Ground. All day long the trains discharged their loads at the entrance of the park. There were large special trains from Connellsville, New Castle, Sharon, Beaver, Homestead and New Brighton, as well as the special trains of 15 cars each running every half hour by the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroad.

Early in the day Mr. Besch's private coach arrived with the clergy on board, among whom were Father Weiler, of Allegheny, the spiritual advisor of the Grand Council; Father Ward, of Derry; Father Neil, of St. Paul's Cathedral; Father McCabe, of Kittanning, formerly of St. Andrew's, Allegheny, and Father Burns.

It was a good humored crowd that assembled during the day. Every person wore a smile, had cast dull care aside for the day and settled themselves down for real enjoyment. There were all sorts of games for which no charge was made and the fakirs were there with all the recent innovations in their line.

The Prize Winners. The President's race prize, which was an ivory guard, silver mounted watch, was won by John Ublinger, of Branch No. 108; secretary's race prize, a solid gold emblem, was won by P. H. Arnold, McKeesport, Branch No. 26.

Among the many prominent people present was Grand Treasurer J. W. Sullivan, of the Grand Council of Pennsylvania, who was warmly welcomed by his friends.

A COUNT LANGUISHING IN JAIL.

He is Accused of Writing Improper Letters to His Father-in-Law. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—[Special.]—In Oakland jail, now languishes Count Leopold de Claude, of Boden, Germany, who is charged with misuse of Uncle Sam's mails as well as abuse of his wife.

Three years ago the count met Miss Nulty, an heiress of Milwaukee, who on her way home from Europe, Papa Nulty investigated the count's record when he proposed marriage, and found he had a title and debts but no assets, so the marriage was celebrated with much pomp in the Ocean City.

The count tried his hand at business with the old man, but failed, and then headed west. He settled in Tacoma, and by means of his connections borrowed much money. The count secured a large loan from Dr. Eighols, of Tacoma, and skipped to Germany.

The count and her two children have since lived in poverty here, supported by scanty remittances from home. The count returned a few months ago, and when Eighols tried to secure his money, sent him improper letters. So he was arrested and will be tried in the federal courts.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

B. & B.

There'll be a big lot of quick buying here—as soon as the people read this, or see the goods. People will come from far and near if they happen to see any of these that come from this sale. Several hundred pieces too many

EMBROIDERY INSERTINGS,

Medium and fine Cambric, Nainsook and Swisses that are going to be sold, and that settles it. They are out on long center counters and at PRICES that will move them.

INSERTINGS, narrow—Insertings wide—Insertings for trimming underwear for women and children—for Yokes, for Pillow Shams and for every other purpose at 10, 15, 20, 25, 35 and 50 Cents.

We don't say they're half price, or no other store has half as good, but simply say see for yourselves this large offering at remarkable prices, and we rest our case there—you are to be both judge and jury and spectators. Judges, jurors and spectators all get the Insertings at the same price—and bargains such as they never get.

To make this sale of further and more extraordinary interest we put out at same time over 1,000 pieces medium and fine

EMBROIDERIES,

From narrow edges to flouncing widths and 45-inch skittings.

EMBROIDERIES in large lots and few pieces—said lots and prices are

5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 35 and 50 Cents.

Some slightly soiled—whoever gets those gets the greater bargain. Some 45-inch EMBROIDERED FLOUNCINGS—not fine, but worth much more—some are soiled—

15, 20 and 25 Cents.

100 pieces elegant CAMBRIC DEMI-FLOUNCING—margin of cloth 10 inches wide, with extra good and handsome embroidered edge 1 to 4 inches deep—at 25, 35, 40 and 50 cents. One hundred women and more will buy these to make flouncers for white skirts for now or in the future. They never had such a chance.

45-inch SWISS and NAINSOOK, hemstitched and embroidered flouncings,

50c, 75c and $1.

If the buyers had to make this loss they would find out that store keeping is not always what it seems. You don't need to care, just so you get the fine goods for so little.

A lot of nice, fine, neat COLORED EMBROIDERIES for trimming Gingham, Dimities, Lawns, Pillow Shams, etc.,

5, 10, 15, 25 Cents.

About 250 yards 27-inch White VICTORIA LAWN, good, with 3-inch hemstitching,

10 Cents.

In same section of store 200 pieces BLACK CHANTILLY LACES—fine ones—

3 to 5 inches wide, 25c.
3 to 10 inches wide, 35c.
5 to 18 inches wide, 50c.
6 to 18 inches wide, 75c.
12 to 18 inches wide, $1.

BLACK SILK POLKA SPOT LACES, with Chantilly edge, medium quality,

9 inches wide, 12 1/2-2c.
12 inches wide, 15c.

POINTE DE IRELANDE LACES, Beige color, 9 and 10 inches wide,

15 Cents.

A large and choice collection POINTE DE IRELANDE LACES, Beige and Ivory White, 6 to 15 inches wide,

25 Cents.

A SUNDAY HAT

At your own price is about what we offer you to-day. We know that most men will make their old straw hat do rather than pay full price for a new one at this date. It is not yet mid-summer, yet we have concluded to put all of our straw hats at such a price as to close them out entirely and carry over nothing. We have filled our windows with this year's straws, fine Mackinaws and Sailors (no old ones) and MARKED THEM ALL ONE PRICE.

50 CENTS!

Most any man will throw off his old straw and put on a new one at 50c, especially when it is less than a third of cost to make it.
