[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] CHICAGO, Aug. 2.-There was a sense tional finish in to-day's ball game and for race by a short neck. Parrott, whose errors are of the bull in the china shop variety. started the circus as usual. He had made some phenomenal plays, but did not feel good until he had contributed his might to helping the Pirates out of the hole in which they had been hopelessly floundering. Parrott's Generous Wild Throw.

He threw Bierbauer's grounder so low that Anson could not scoop it in, and the man with the horrible name was safe. He was the first man up, too. Charley Farrell, who had been unable to locate Gumbert, then drove out a single which Decker turn. bled and each runner was advanced a base. Kelly sacrificed and Bierbauer score d. It was then that "Buck" eat his watermelon. Baldwin was due at the bat, but he bugged the bench and Mack, the backstop, tried his luck with the stick. About the same time a new ball came into play. "Buck's" good thing sent out out a snorting single and Farrell romped home. Miller then pasted a double into right, on which Mack scored. There was only one out and another run would tie the score. Anson breathed hard and the crowd held its breath.

Your Uncle Was Very Nervous. A sigh of relief went up when Ryan smothered Donovan's fly, and the crowd shouted when Smith went out from Canavan Anson.

Mark Baldwin was carded to serve the ball for the Pirates bold. Ryan wanted a hit to increase his average, and helped himself to a single before Baldwin was fairly awake. A hit at the outset upset Mark's aqualine nerve, and he shoved in a wooly pitch on which Ryan went to second, and scooted to third on Baldwin's wild throw to eatch him napping at second. Parrott flew out, and Dahlen got a base on balls. Uncle Anson let out his arm and the bat collided with an inshoot which sailed into right, on which Ryan and Dahlen crossed the After Wilmot's out Canavan and Decker were sent to first on balls. The bases were full, but the best Gumbert could do was to fire a baby grounder at Baldwin and expired at first. The Colts took another in the second on Rvan's double into right.

Donovan Made a Rad Throw.

When Donovan returned the ball to second he shot it into Ryan's back and he plattered on to third, scoring on Parrott's base swipe into center. The Colts had men on bases in the fifth and sixth, but did not score again until the seventh. Ryan went out and Parrott sent the ball into center and Baidwin helped him to second with a crazy pitch. Dahlen flew out and Anson looked so formidable that Mark presented him with first. He was sorry a minute later when Walter Wilmot turned loose a howling triple which sent in a pair of runs. Those tallies came in mighty handy later ou and saved the Colts from another whip-

The Pirates scored once in the seventh on two doubles and a sacrifice. The Colts showed improvement in base running and played one of their old-time games. Pittsburgs except in the last put up their usual sloppy article and besides ran bases poorly. Attendance 1,100. The score: CHICAGO REPARITISBURG REPAI

WAS QUITE A GAME.

The Three A's and the Boston A. A. Tean Play a Ten-Inning Contest-No Runs Scored in Nine Innings and the Visitors Win in the Tenth-Highlands Strikes

Out 15 Men. About 800 people were at Three A's Park yesterday afternoon to see the ball game be-tween the teams of the Boston Athletic Asociation and the Allegheny Athletic Asso ciation. Without doubt a good game was witnessed, and although the festive visitors won it they had quite a difficult task to accomplish before they did it. The local team were not marks by any means, and in this the players from the East were very much surprised.

Ten innings were required to settle the argument, and all the runs that were made in the same were made in that extra inning. They only amounted to two, but the visitors made them. The great High-lands, as he is called, pitched for the Bostons, or for that matter the Harvard team, because seven of the nine were Harvard layers. Highlands had the he at his mercy, as he struck 15 of them out. They were evidently afraid of him, as his nitching does not warrant that kind of block, and yet he is not as speedy as great number of pitchers, and in front of some good League sluzgers he would prob-ably fare badly. He has a good team behind him.

Robertson, who pitched for the home play-Robertson, who pitched for the home players, pitched in excellent form, but he had a tourher lot of people to face than Highlands had. He somewhat tired toward the finish, and that accounts for the lively hitting in the tenth inning by the Bostons.

The visitors did some kicking. Once Highlands wanted a new unmire because a decision made by Palzell did not suit him. The request was babyish and was not granted. Again, in the eighth inning, with two men on bases and nobody out, Cook knocked up a little infield fly. Robertson "trapped" it and Highlands and Mason were doubled. This caused a big kick and a long delay, although the decision was perfectly right.

The two runs were made as follows: Murray led off the inning with a single and Highlands followed suit. Mason got his base on balls, filling the bases. Cook knocked a grounder to the pitcher, and bere there was a splendid opportunity to throw a man out at the plate and the batsman out at first, but only the man at the plate was retired. Farron knocked a grounder to third ard Mason was put out there and Highlands got home. Stern rapped out a fine single to right and Cook scored the second run. The score: ers, pitched in excellent form, but he had

THE PROTEST INDORSED.

McKennan and Paul, of the East End, Sus pended for Thirty Days. PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 2.-A meeting of the Board of Managers of the Athletic Associa-tion of the Amateur Athletic Union was held at the clubhouse of the Philadelphia Amateur Swimming Club last evening. The resignation of George H. Kerr, of the War-ren Athletic Club, of Wilmington, Del., was received and accepted, and the vacancy was received and accepted, and the vacancy was filled by the unanimous election of Charles S. Mantell, of the Neptune Boat Club, Baltimore. J. A. Wells, of the Pittsburg Athletic Club, was elected Vice President to succeed Mr. Kerr.

The protests against J. B. McKennan and E. D. Paul made by the East End Gym Club were considered and the committee recommended that these two men be suspended for 30 days from July 30, and the medal won by Mr. McKennan now be awarded as if he had not contested. The board adopted the ecommendation of the committee.

Thomas F. Shaughnessy, of the Young Men's Catholic Club or Pittsburg, was also reinstated. A renewed application from the Excelsion Athletic Club of Pernert. men's Catholic Club of Pittsburg, was also reinstated. A renewed application from the Excelsior Athletic Cluo, of Pennsyl-vania, which was presented at a previous meeting, but not then approved, was favor-ably recommended.

A Fuss at a Franklin Game.

FRANKLIN, Aug. 1 .- [Special.]-The game of ball here to-day between the Emlenton club and the Franklins came to an abrupt end-ing during the first half of the ninth inning. The Emlentons were at the bat and scored run: a man made a foul hit knocking the ball run: a man made a foul life knocking the ball into the grass, losing it and making a home run. The umpire decided it was foul, where upon the Emientons took exceptions, but the umpire stood by his ecision, and the club refused to play longer, leaving the field. The umpire then give the game to Frankiin by a score of 9 the. The Emientons had the benefit of five hayers from the Gyms, of Pittsburg. Considerable money was up on the game, and great excitement was manifested over the result.

The Diamond. PITCHER MARTIN DUKE has been turned adrift a Rochester. WET grounds prevented the Baltimore and OUR singgers made a good bid for victory vester-day, but they were too long in starting to score.

That was quite an exciting game at Three A's Park yesterday. The same teams play again to-day. LITTLE COONEY did not last long as a Senator. He has been released, and "Yank" Robinson's head is safe. "HICK" CARPENTER expects to join the Pull-man palace car force of conductors. He did not sign with St. Louis. SUCH catching as Burrill is doing for the Woon-ockets has never been surpassed in New England. -Lewiston Journal.

THE manager of the Climax team will be at this office to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock to arrange a game with the Our Boys team. THE McKeesport Goulds defeated the Boston Athlettes Monday by 3 to 1. The Goulds want to play any team who have enclosed grounds. PARMER WEAVER was in a trance in one of the New York games, and that night after Shorty Ful-ier had stolen home from third base on him he wrote a thrilling essay on the well-worn subject, "Is Life Worth Living?"

THE Pittsburg club now claims it never made an effort to trade Farrell. On the contrary it offered a trade of a certain player to Louisville, but President Stucky declined that trade and suggested that Grim for Farrell would be acceptable. Pittsburg, however, refused.

HARRY VAUGHN'S error yesterday was a queer one. It occurred in the eighth inning with two out. Crooks was at first and there were two out with Perry Werden at bat. Three balls and two strikes was the way the account stood and Frank Dwrer sent a swift one into 'the Farmer's' mitta, He thought it was a strike and sent the ball salling to Weich far in the center. "Four balls," announced Umpire McQuaid and then Crooks put on steam and reached third. The miscue was the result of a case of misplaced confidence.—Times-Nar.

SCHAEFER AND IVES.

The Wizard Issues a Manifesto Offering to Play Anybody.

New Yore, Aug. 2.—[Special.]—The latest newsfrom Paris concerning Schaefer and Ives is that the "Wizard" is ont with a nanifeste offering to play Ives or anybody lse, and scoring Ives for breaking up the big match for the Brunswick world's championship emblem. Schaefer insists that Ives is to blame for the deadlock over the championship. He says:

"Why did not Mr. Ives agree to play when Mr. Benzinger, the donor of the emblem, after duly considering both claims, named neutral ground? I accepted and Mr. Ives would not. I had no course then but to claim the emblem. I wish to say that I was claim the emblem. I wish to say that I was billiard champion for three years, and never during time did I refuse to play anybody any kind of billiards for any reasonable sum of money. I have never asked for more than my rights, and was willing at all times to abide by any just decision. I traveled 4,000 miles to play Mr. Ives, and as complications have arisen which debar us from playing for the championship emblem, I will arrange a match with Mr. Ives or anybody else, either one or five nights, for from $500 to $5,000 a side, the game to be played where the most money is offered. I will play any time within six months. So this will not interfere with Mr. Ives or his contract, So If he really wants to play me, here is his chance.

Schaefer has announced that he is going to spend the winter in Paris, which indicates that he is having a good time in France.

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

Races at Buffalo.

MONMOUTH PARK RACE TRACK, Aug. 2.—Threatening weather, which finally culminated in a rainstorm, kept the attendance down to 5,000 to-day. The two features, the Red Bank and the Palisade Stakes, furnished the only genuine excitement during the afternoon. In the former Uncle Jess was the steadiest on his feet and he captured the prize by a head at post odds of 5 to 1. Shelly Tuttle delayed the race for 20 minutes by refusing to break.

Locohatchee ruled a 1 to 3 favorite over Adelbert and Pickpocket for the Palisade, but he had a narrow escape from defeat. Adelbert led him for a mile before Loco hatches could get in front. Pickpocket then made a bold bid for the stake, forcing Hamilton to again whip and spur Loco-hatchee. He did win, however, but only by a head.

TAPPED THE WIRES.

A Bold Gang of Young Men Defraud the New York Pool Rooms. NEW YORK, Aug. 2.-One of the boldes wire-tapping schemes which have been at-tempted in several years was successfully put through by a gang of sharp young men on Saturday in this city. As usual the pool room keepers were the sufferers. Had not some members of the gang played the two principal workers of the scheme false there is a probability that the affair would never have become known, as it was so admirably planned and executed that even the Western Union Telegraph experts were foiled.

One of the principal race department circuits of the Western Union Company was "tapped." Returns were delayed until the bets were made by those in the scheme, and then the results were sent by the company.

bets were made by those in the scheme, and then the results were sent by the operators who were at the "tap." Two pool rooms lost so heavily that they appealed to the teigraph company for relief. Just how much the gang made is not known, but one of the persons on the inside says the amount is not less than $2,500 and may be $5,000.

The pool rooms which suffered are in Harlem. The circuit which was tapped has eight or nine offices on it, and so skillfully was the whole business manared that no thought of trickery was entertained until after the races were over.

RAIN AT BUFFALO.

Wet Weather and a Bad Track Stop the Grand Circuit Trotters. BUFFALO, Aug. 2 .- [Special.] -For the second time in three weeks the weather was against the Grand Trotting Circuit and the meeting here which was to begin this afternoon has to be deferred till Weanesday. A storm last night caused the delay, and the course dried so slowly this morning, ever course dried so slowly this morning, even with the sun out by noon, that it was not safe to start the horses.

The grand stand recently erected greatly improved the facilities for sight seeing, as the large stand formerly used for the judges and press had been replaced by a smaller one. Frank Walker, of Indianapolis, is here to start the flyers, and has a big job on his hands to go through by Saturday.

Against Garfield Park.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—In the presence of a large number of sporting men, Judge Baker to-day decided against the Garfield Park Jockey Club on its position for mandamus to compel Mayor Washburne to grant a to compel Mayor Washburne to grant a liceuse for racing. The Court holds that the act of 1887, excepting certain inclosures from the law against pool selling, should be interpreted literally and cannot be construed to allow bookmaking, which the Judge considers is betting on horse races and forbidden by the statute against gaping. The Garfield Club took an appeal to the Appellate Court. September 24 was fixed as the date for presenting the record.

Another Chicago Track. CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—There may be another suburban track in operation next season. If the Garfield Park syndicate is worsted in the courts and abandons its Westelde track there will, it is said, be a split in it—one crowd, headed by John Condon, going to Indiana, and another, with George V. Hankins at its head, will operate in Illinois Hankins is figuring over a piece of land near Morgan Park, known as the Atwood iarm. There are 180 acres in the tract. If Hankins buys the land he will put on it a first-class track surrounded by the most modern of stands and track equipments.

It is expected that 10,000 people will witness the Sullivan-Corbett mill, and the Olympic Club is enlarging its club house to accommodate that number. Captain Williams, the club's representative, said the other day: "The people of the South are venly divided in opinion as to what the result of the fight will be. Many of Sullivan's warmest frieuds think that he is fighting one to many battles."

THE recent sensational race won by Queenie Trowbridge in the East, when she was backed by J. J. McCafferty at 100 to 1, recalls the fact that last year she was presented by Mr. Corrigan to one of his partners, Mr. Brennock. At that time she was raised at $300. At Mr. Corrigan's suggestion she was allowed to remain in the stable for a time, as she was about up to a race. She began winning soon after, and after she had won seversi races, she was sold for $2,500, and the winnings and selling price placed to Mr. Brennock's credit, but he declined to take advantage of his good luck, and the matter was compromised between the partners.

ONE BOOKWORM GONE AWAY. It Met a Classic Death Among the Moldy

Leaves of Seneci. NEW YORK, Aug. 2.-There is woe in Benjamin's book store on Broadway, where until early yesterday morning two bookworms, alive and well, thrived on an old copy of Seneca. After breakfasting on page rolled over and died.

47 yesterday morning one of the bookworms

Mr. Benjamin ascribes its death to the carelessness of one of the bibliophiles who examined it on Saturday. The bookworm was weaving a cocoon and had it about half finished. The bibliophile was examining it finished. The bibliophile was examining it through a magnifier when he carclessly let the glass fall. It struck the cocoon and tore it from the worm. The bookworm, which had hitherto lain motionless, rose upright, but almost instantly sank again into its nest among the leaves. The cocoon was put back as nearly as possible in its former position and the book was closed.

When Mr. Benjamin opened it yesterday morning the bookworm's body protruded half way over the edge of the book. As its owner watched it it fell clear off Seneca and died.

BAISED A WAR VESSEL

A Remarkable Piece of Work Performed on the Great Lakes.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 2.—[Special.]—One of the most remarkable feats ever accom-plished on the lakes has just been brought to a successful culmination by the Collins Bay Wrecking Company, in raising the Can adian steamer, City of Owen Sound, with her cargo of grain. In October, 1887, this vessel foundered in a heavy gale when just outside the Core Island passage in Georgian Bay. For four years and a half she lay in 110 feet of water and everyone considered her a total loss. Last spring this company undertook to raise the vessel with a new apparatus invented in Kingstown, Ont. After a few months work they have succeeded and made a fortone, as the vessel is still valuable and the grain is little worse than if it had been summerged a month instead of four and one-half vers agro.

the grain is little worse than 1715 had been summerged a month instead of four and one-half years ago.

The City of Owen Sound is the second sel that was raised with this apparatus, the first being the railway transfer steamer Armstrong, which was sunk in deep water near Brockville, Ont. But this case was much more difficult than the other, because the water was deeper and the City of Owen Sound had been lost much less recently. The apparatus by which this remarkable feat was done deserves a word of description. It consists of immense steel pontoons, cylindrical in form and 48x10 feet, with clear-shaped ends and a blige keel. Each pontoon is divided into three watertight compartments, and has a well near each end through which the chains are brought up and held by to gles. Having located the wreek, chains and steel howsers are worked under the vessel by divers or fastened to her under the vessel by divers or fastened to her frames. The air is then exhausted from the positions, they are submerged and air pumped into them, when the increased buoy-ancy raises the sunken vessel. Each of the pontoons devised by Mr. Leslie has a lifting capacity of 100 tons.

MAROONED ON AN ARCTIC ISLAND. The Predecessors of the Three Castaways

Were Devoured by Bears. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 2.-Three white men Fred Burns, John Paliford, and a man known as "Frenchy," have been left to spend an Arctic winter on a desolate island, with scanty provisions and absolutely without fuel. That they are in such terrible plight is mainly due to the rigid enforcement of the orders closing Bering Ser

against seal hunters.

Just a year ago these men were put ashore on St. Matthew's Island, far up in Bering Sea, by the schooner Mattle T. Dyer, of San Francisco. They were assisted in building a rude hut, and were given a year's supply of food and wood, and 70 pounds of powder. The plan was for them to hunt and skin polar bears and blue faces until this season, when the Dyer was to remove them. The schooner arrived here yesterday without the three hunters. Captain Macktar stated that he dared not venture into Bering Sea for fear of seizure, and had been able to make no provision for the relief of the men. He said it would be too expensive an undertaking to fit out a boat especially for their relief. Unless a revenue cutter or a cruiser takes off the men they must remain for another season. The two parties of Indian hunters left there in previous seasons under similar conditions were devoured by polar bears. Francisco. They were assisted in building

The water in the pool was falling rapidly yesterday, and in the afternoon registered little more than 5 feet. The bear trap at the dam had been opened and many of the needles taken out. The men about the towboats were busy working their boats out far enough from the shore to keep the endear of the wharflog, for, when the water goes down much damage would result should a boat be caught thereon.

MUCH trouble is being caused about the Brownstille wharfload by the crowd of filters who assemble there daily to see the Tide go out. They are proving a constant annoyance to the patrons of this packet line, not only in preventing and hindering the loading of freight, but the passempers are put to grest inconvenience in brying their iteasts and having their baggage checked. Yeaterday the crowd was so large that the Bexes and barrels on the shore was fairly covered, while a large number were willing to pay the toil necessary to take in the proceedings from the railing of the Smithshelo street bridge.
