THE MAN WITHOUT A STOMACH

THE MAN WITHOUT A STOMACH May exist as a museum freak, but most of us recognize the stomach as necessary to life and comfort. Most of us experience a little trouble from this source occasionally, wrong action of the stomach causing dys-pepsis, etc., and often the trouble extends, involving the liver and howels, whence we find billousness and constipation. We find also that the powels and kidneys (nature's sewage system) become clogged with effete matter, from which comes impure blood, bolls, blotches, pimples, scrofula, scrofulous swellings and cancerous complaints. The Burdock Blood Bitters taken at the begin-ning, or at any later stage, arrests the trouble, restores the disordered organ to activity, thereby removing every vestige of disease. B. B. O'Neill rapped him home by a warm one to right. Donovan's daring base running enabled him to tie the score. He hit safe and ran on to third on Smith's slow infield hit which Comisky sent over to Latham in time to catch him, but the ball got away and Donovan tallied. Miller's clean rap to left for three bags and Donovan's single earned the second. Bierbauer got on second on a hit and Farrell's sacrifice, and was sent in by Kelly in the fourth. then Latham got a rap to center, coaxed a bad throw out of Kelly and reached second,

And the Score Was Tied,

Latham advanced them both and acain O'Neill was found true and after his hit the score was even, Holliday's grounder bounded away from Farrell and was good for two bases, but Vaughn was unable to gauge Ehret's curves. O'Neill was caught on his grounder to Bierbauer, and when he essayed to steal second Holliday was caught off third and run down. The failure to get more runs out of such an opening seemed to unnerve Dwyer and he gave Shugart a base. Beckley torced him out but ran to third on Bierbauer's hit. Another present to Farrell filled the bases. Neither Welch nor Holli-day started for Kelly's casy fly and it dropped safe, two runs scoring. That was all although O'Neill and Comiskey hit safely in the ninth. The game ended with a great stop by Farrell of a grounder off Genins, bat. He stopped on third and the 1,120 filed safely out. ceived, I invessen corbet is work, and if he can hit John L as hard as he hammers the punching bag the big iellow will know that he has been hurt when he gets through with him. Yes, Corbett is confident of win-ning. Of course he banks on solence and superior agility. Sullivan is training faith-fully. He seems to appreciate that he has a big contract on hand and is preparing him-self for a long battle. He looks quite as fat now as when he entered the ring at Rich-burg to battle with Kirain for the world's championship. We are planning for a big week at New Orleans. Aside from the Sulli-van-Corbett fight, Myer and McAuliffe will do battle ior the lightweight championship and Fitzsimmons will don the gloves with O'Brien from England. Then there will be the Dizon-Skelly go. They say the Brooklyn lad is a handy fellow with the mitts and will give the colored boy a lovely argument. There will be at least 2,000 people in New Orleans from Northern cities to witness the big fight."

The finish for the fourth race, the $1,000 purse, was a rattler. Lakeland started both Willie L. and Tea Tray. Willie L. had just succeeded in shaking off Roque ort at the last sixteenth post, when Tea Tray came tearing down the stretch like a wild horse. The finish was too close, however, and Willie L. won by a nose. He was 7 to 6, while Tea Tray was made post favorite at 7 to 5. Lakeland again furnished the favorite in Lord Dalmeny, played down from 6 to 1 to 7 to 10. He should have won, but Walker lost his head at the last sixteenth post, and let the Lord swerve, giving the race to Jack Rose, 6 to 1, by a head, and Zenobia, even money for the last race, was beaten a length by Elin, a 6 to 1 chance.
