Two Prominent Chinamen Leave for the Flowery Kingdom. BOME TROUBLE IN GETTING AWAY.

Must Have Letters and Photographs Both Coming and Going.

ONE EFFECT OF THE EXCLUSION ACT

Last night Yee Chew and his brother, Yee Look, two Mongolians, stepped aboard the 7 o'clock train for the West on a journey to their native land. They are going to visit their mother and will be gone for two months. They have been employed as clerks in the drug and grocery store of Quong Wo Sung & Co., 179 Second avenue. This is the Chinese drugshop of the city, and they fill all the Chinese doctors' prescriptions. Besides running a Chinese pharmacy they have a general store, selling teas, silks and various articles manufactured by their countrymen. The trade of the store is principally among the Chinamen of this city, but they are liberally patronized by other nationalities as well.

It took several weeks to arrange and draw papers to enable the Chinamen who left the other night to return to this city after they once get out of the country. Three sets of letters had to be prepared for each man with a photograph of the person attached to each set. There was a letter from the Mayor stating that the bearers were residents of the city of Pittsburg, had business interests here, had good records and were entitled to such consideration as good conduct and the laws of the United States warrant.

The Surveyor of Customs was also required to write similar letters, stating that it was the desire of the bearers to visit their

The Purpose of the Papers.

One set of these identification papers with photographs attached was forwarded to the Collector of Customs of San Francisco, the port from which they are to sail. The Chinamen when they left the city had with them the other sets, one of which will be presented to the Collector of Customs in San Francisco, on their arrival there, who will be able to identify the men by the comparison of the photographs. The other set will be carried with them, and be presented to the same officer on their return from the Flowery Kingdom, and will be their only pass to enter into the country again. Mayor Gourley says there have been about ten Chinamen go on a visit to their country since he has been in office. None of them has had any trouble in returning, except one who did not return by the same port through which he went out, and as a result he had no little difficulty in getting back again.

More Burdens for Celestials. A Chinaman who wishes to live in Pittsburg and have a little pleasure in foreign travel has to spend considerable of his time in the photographer's gallery.

The Government, by the regulations re-cently adopted by the Internal Revenue Commissioner under the Chinese exclusion act, not only requires the affixing of the applicant's photograph on his certificate of residence, on registering as a citizen of the United States, but it also demands that photographs shall be attached to the passports which will permit a Chinaman to go out and into this country.

NOT DEAD, BUT IN CLEVELAND. James H. Sweeney Writes Admitting He Is

have committed suicide by drowning last week at McKee's Rocks, is now in Cleveland, O., from which place he has written a letter to the girl supposed to be his wife. Sweeney wrote a notice upon the rocks stating that he intended to commit suicide and wrote a letter to one of the evening papers to the same effect. But all this was a ruse to deceive his creditors. Sweeney stated in his letter written just before he disappeared that his wife, who he said had been unfaithful to him, was the cause of all his trouble. James A. Murphy was mentioned, too, as being implicated; but now Mr. Murphy explains that he could not have caused trouble between Sweeney and his wife because Sweeney had which is evidently true, as Swee ney in his letter to his supposed wife asks her to come to Cleveland and marry him.

Found an Old Graveyard.

Contractor Braun yesterday, while excavating on the property of the Grace M. E. Church, Sharpsburg, unearthed several boxes containing human bones. Inquiry among the older inhabitants revealed the among the older inhabitants revealed the fact that 40 years ago the spot was a general burying ground. Considerable excitement prevailed for a while, as it was thought that they were the bodies of persons who had been foully dealt with.

Sharpsburg Property Lines Incorrect.

Sharpsburg School Board, preparatory to the erection of their new school building, had the place surveyed yesterday to locate the exact lines. The surveyors report that all property from the borough line to the school building, a distance of about 400 feet, is from 1 to 3 feet off measurement. Property owners are stirred up in conse-

NO MIDSUMMER BARGAINS.

A Played-Out Dodge. BARGAINS ALL THE YEAR ROUND.

The duliness of business, which forces some dealers to advertise their wares under the caption of "Midsummer Bargains," "Midsummer Sacrifice Bargains," etc., does not affect the steady demand for the world-renowned Steinway, the wonderful Conover, or the lovely Onera planos. The reason of this is that Klebers sell these first-class planos all the year round, summer and winter, at lower prices and en easier terms than most dealers ask for their second-rate planos. Added to this is their reputation for straightforward dealing with their customers and their musical training, which prompts so many persons to leave the choice of a fine plano altogether in their hands. Klebers' guarantee if as good as a Government bond, hence intending purchasers will serve their own interests in buying at the old reliable house.

FIVE DRUNKEN GIRLS.

They Attack a Delicate and Sickly Child and Death Follows the Assault-Informations to Be Made Against Them To-George Allen, of Fifth avenue and Robinson street, will make informations against five Oakland girls to-day, charging them with assault and battery.

On the Fourth of July Mr. Allen's 12rear-old daughter Annie was playing, in company with another girl, on Robinson street when five intoxicated women, who had just helped to empty a keg of beer on the hill above, came by and began abus-ing them. Mr. Allen could see what was ing them. Mr. Allen could see what was going on from his steps, where he sat reading. Suddenly the drunken women seized Annie Allen by the hair and began beating her. William Allen ran to the rescue of his daughter, and when he reached the place they were dragging her in the road.

Mr. Allen, after a scuffle with the assailants, released Annie and found that she was so nervous that she had to be assisted into the house. The girl was just recovering the house. The girl was just recovering irom an attack of St. Vitus dance, and, from an attack of St. Vitus' dance, and, it is claimed, the fright and injury received caused a felapse from which she never recovered. She took typhoid fever shortly afterward and lingered until a few day ago, when she died. The name of one of the girls to be arrested is Sheridan.

Mr. Allen was seen last night and said he had the names of the others, but would no give them for publication. All the girl were under 16 years of age and are said to be in the habit of getting drunk.

DIED OF BRAIN FEVER.

An Old Man Found on the Streets With

Fatal Illness. Patrick Sullivan died at the City Poor Farm this morning. Several days ago a man of some years was found on the street in an insensible condition. He was removed to the Central police station, where Dr. Moyer pronounced him to be afflicted with brain fever It was impossible to get him taken in to any of the city hospitals, so he was romoved to the City Farm.

It was very difficult to get any information from the man concerning himself. He gave his address as No. 7 Rebecca street, All leachang and said he had two children in gave his address as No. 7 Rebecca street, Al legheny, and said he had two children in one of the orphan asylums of the city. Inquiry was made at the address given, but the parties had no knowledge of such a person. Both the Department of Public Charities and the Police Department have made a diligent search of the orphan asylums of of the city, but they did not succeed in finding the children. The old man will be buried in the City Farm as no friends of the dead in the City Farm, as no friends of the dead man can be found.

GLENSHAW WANTS RAPID TRANSIT.

The Residents Will Hold a Mass Meeting to Discuss it.

The fact that the Manchester Electric Street Railway Company has obtained the consent of Councils of Sharpsburg, Etna and Millvale to the right of way over certain streets within their limits, has stirred up the citizens of Glenshaw. Glenshaw is about three miles from the Etna borough line, and the only means of transportation is over the Pittsburg and Western Rail-road. Owing to heavy treight traffic and insufficient number of passenger trains, most of the residents have to keep a private onveyance.

The residents think the town would be greatly benefited by more rapid transit. A mass meeting will be held early next week and a committee chosen to call on the officials of the Manchester company requesting that a branch line from Etna to Glenshaw

Davidson and Herrick are both sa lesmen in the clothing store of L Jackson on Liberty street. Until yesterday the two young men were bosom friends. Late in the afternoon while in the back part of the store they got into a dispute part of the store they got into a dispute about a trifling matter, which resulted in a fight. Herrick got in the first lick and succeeded in knocking his opponent half the length of the store before anyone could interfere. Davidson made a basty exit from the store, and a few minutes later appeared before Alderman Donovan, who issued a warrant for Herrick's arrest.

At the preliminary examination David-son insisted that he could whip Herrick, but that the latter had struck him too quick. A hearing will be held in the case
