SUSPENSION OF LOCAL AMATEURS. Locally speaking, the most important baseball event of the week just ended has been the going into court by Thomas Burns against the local club.

The case, if it ever reaches an argument in court, will be of more than local interest. It will come more, to more or less extent, bring the question of the validity of baseball contracts before the public.

Baseball contracts are almost as uncertain as soap bubbles, and for that matter are just as easily dashed.

But the Burns matter is of quite another nature. Burns signed for quite a princely salary, and the officials of the club were quite content to pay him if everything had gone along according to contract.

It is charged, and with great force, that Burns not only lacked judgment, but that he was grossly deceived.

But if ever there was anything in baseball that demanded the most emphatic condemnation, it was the method used by Burns on the Pittsburgh club.

Now, Anson was an experienced man when he was talking to Burns. He was innocent of the notorious scheming, the unblushing fraud and the unmitigated falsehood that characterize the operations of baseball.

There is apparently little hope of a man being secured to face Fitzsimmons during the "big" week at New Orleans.

While the contest between Dixon and Skelly will not be as important as the contest between Burns and the club, it is of considerable interest to the public.

The contest continues to be exceedingly interesting in very many respects. The fight to this place, I am sure, is a good one, and it will not be over until the end.

Does it not strike you that the earnestness of the players from Manager Tebeau down has a lot to do with their success? It does me. There is just as earnest a set of fellows as ever went onto a ball field.

anybody I know in the baseball business. He has been on the unlucky side of the hedge for a long time, and almost everybody in baseball will be glad to note the good work of his team in the pennant race.

As matters appear to me at present it looks as if the race for the second contest will again be between Brooklyn and Boston.

Believing that that McAuliffe will enter the ring in good condition, I do not expect that Myer will defeat him. I have always estimated McAuliffe as the best glove fighter of his weight that we have had in this city.

SOME BEAR KILLINGS. A Choice Spirit of Brain Hollow Tells of a Few Terrific Fights.

DEATH AT THE END OF AN AUGER. Pictious in Which a Big Bear Was Drowned in His Own Gear.

VALOR THAT SUDDENLY VANISHED. (CORRESPONDENCE OF THE DISPATCH.) ROULETTE, Pa., Aug. 5.

The whole length and breadth of the lumber regions of Pennsylvania, so they told me, there is no place that has had such a reputation for intrepid and unrelenting bear hunters as Brain Hollow.

When a bear is killed, the hunter usually carries the carcass to a nearby settlement, where it is sold or skinned.

But in the case of the bear killed at Roulette, the hunter was unable to carry the carcass to the settlement.

The bear was killed in a hole that the hunter had dug for himself. The bear was so large that it could not be pulled out.

ENGLISH ELECTIONS. Details of the Methods by Which Britain's Policy is Directed.

THE BALLOT PRACTICALLY PURE. Explanation of Why the Mississippi Practically Runs Uphill.

WHAT PARISHES AND HUNDREDS ARE. (CONDUCTED FOR THE DISPATCH.) The recent election in Great Britain makes the election methods there of interest to us, since almost everyone here has been interested in the question of Irish home rule.

In the first place, there is no fixed date for holding elections, as with us; and in the second place, there are two kinds of elections to be held—borough and county elections.

When a county is to be held, the election must be held within nine days after the writ has been received; if it goes to a county, the election must be held within 17 days.

When a borough is to be held, the election must be held within nine days after the writ has been received; if it goes to a borough, the election must be held within 17 days.
