You know there is nothing that excites a soldier's enthusiasm so much as an old flag. Now, my friends, I don't want you to think of the Church of Jesus Christ as a deteated institution, as the victim of inflidel sarcasm, something to be kicked and cuffed and trampled on through all the ages of the world. It is "an army with banners." It has an inscription and colors such as never stirred the hearts of any earthly soldiery. We have our banner of recruit, and on it is inscribed, "Who is on the Lord's sidef" Our banner of defiance, and on it is inscribed, "Who is on the Lord's sidef" Our banner of defiance, and on it is inscribed, "Who is on the Lord's sidef" our banner or defiance of triumph, and on it is inscribed, "With banner of triumph, and on it is inscribed, "With banner of triumph, and on it is inscribed, "Who is on the Lord's sidef" our banner or every hilt-top and wave it at the gate of heaven. Will not underrate the enemy. They are a tremendens host. They come on with accutes strategy. Their weapons by all the inabitants of darkness have been forged in furnaces of everlasting fire. We contend not with flesh and blood, but with principalities and powers and spiritual wickedness in high places; but if God be for us who can be against us? Come on, ye troops of the Lord! Puerto Cortez, Honduras. She brings the news that the Leiva Government has captured the port of Celba, where the revolution started and which has hitherto been in the hands of the revolutionists. It was from Ceiba that General Nuila marched on the capital, Oguirgalpa, leaving a small force behind. The Government had Puerto Cortez alone on the Atlantic coast, but concentrating its forces there it shipped them on the American steamer Pizzati, which was chartered for this purpose to Ceiba. Arrived at Ceiba the Pizzati was fired on by the revolutionists. She bombarded the town with the guns she had aboard her and town with the guns she had aboard her and finally drove the revolutionists out, they re-treating to the interior to join forces with Nuila. The City of Dallas reports labor on the coast very much demoralized by the revolution, and that it is a difficult matter to secure men to load the fruit vessels.

The intelligence which came to the Junta also announced the utter defeat and rout of Lucien Mendoza, the last general of the Villegas Government at La Victoria, and the capture of General Batalla and his entire army. It announced also that the taking of Caracas by assault was done in fulfillment of a promise given by General Crespo to his wile that he should be in possession of the city by August 5 if it took all his fighting force to get there.
