The Home Team Win Onite an Exciting Game From the Browns.

A victory is always pleasing to those whose favorites are on the winning side, but when a victory der Ahe had given them some pointers about the immediate future which interested them from a financial standpoint, and Mr. Breitenstein had a score to settle with the local fellows also. He had a vivid recollection of the walloping he received on his first visit here. All these things prompted the Browns to be just as trouble some as possible.

The Browns Did Very Well.

They played a great game and for a time they grinned and laughed just as if they had a sure thing in hand. There were 1,100 people and they enjoyed the exciting contest although they often wished the pitcher with the long name somewhere else than in the box. But all the vim, ginger and science that the Browns could command could not make them win. They were beaten just when they were confident of success and Breitenstein suddenly became a very disappointed young man. The home play-ers came with a rush at the finish that paralyzed all the Browns and sent Von der

This evening Slosson also played Curs a balk line game of 300 points up, conceding him 120 points, which, however, proved too big a handicap, the Frenchman winning easily, while Slosson only scored 55. Ives afterward played a three-cushion carom game of 15 points up with Cure, de-feating him easily. The play at Vignaux's Academy to night was not very interesting. Carter and Beau, a French professor of the Academy, met in a game of cushion caroms, 150 points up, which resulted in a victory for the latter, his average being 6%, while Car-ter's score stoon 138 points.

THE HOBSEMAN'S VIEWS ABOUT IT.

Some Very Good Going Among the Grand Circuit Trotters.

RESULTS AT. BRIGHTON BEACH TRACK

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) w Orleans at 7:30 in the morning of Sep-NEW YORK, Aug. 10, -"Will the trotting record be broken in 1892?" is a question he train that Sullivan and his party will that has frequently been asked of late by horsemen. Nancy Hanks has tried to reduce the figures and failed, under circumstances that indicate that this mare is out of candidacy for the highest honors. Palo Alto has died and Allerton has gone lame. Maud S is being bred, and what trotter is left to attempt, let alone achieve, the breaking of the record? The only answer is "Sunol." To ascertain if Mr. Bonner would permit his queenly mare to undertake the task a reporter of THE DIS-PATCH called upon that gentleman to-day and put the question to him.

Mr. Bonner Somewhat Uncertain. "I am not quite prepared to answer you specifically," replied Mr. Bonner. "I think that what you say about Sunol's being the only trotter left to try the thing is the right idea, but I don't see why I should be in a hurry. I now hold the two best records-Sunol's 2:081/ on the kite-shaped track and Maud S's 2:083/ on the snaped track and Maud S's 2005% on the circular. Why should I not be content, for the time being, at least? Still I may do something later in the season. It will not be before the latter part of September or early in October, at any rate. Perhaps if you come and see me in two weeks I may be able to let you know of some definite "Of course, it will be with Sunol, and to break the record, if you do make up such a programme? won't say anything more about it," replied Mr. Bonner with a smile. "But that may be it.

"Is Maud S in foal?" was asked. "You know we bred Maud to Ansel some time ago, and for a period believed she was in foal.

In Doubt About Maud S.

Then doubt came, and that doubt partook to much of unbelief that we bred her again last Saturday to Ansel. And speaking of Ansel, I should like to say a word about his progeny that the papers have paid little or no attention to. On Tuesday of last week, one of his 2-year-olds, Antella, won week, one of his 2-year-olds, Antelia, won the $5,000 purse in its class at Storgis, Mich., making the third heat in 2:263/. The next day I drove a 2-year-old filly by Ansel, on my farm at Tarrytown, for a quarter in 35 4-5, which pace, if continued, as you can figure would cause the mile to be consumed in 2:23 1-5. These igures show great time for 2-year-olds. I might add that at the Sturgis meeting a 3year-old by Electioneer, Ansel's sire, won the $5,000 purse for that class. To return to Sunol," concluded Mr. Bonner, "I am in no mood to hurry her. The season has been backward, and I shall give the mare plenty of time before I put her to any more severe tests."

PITTSBURG, Aug. 10.-The Local Forecast Official of the Weather Bureau in this city furnishes the A prominent physician from Cincinnati says:

> "My patient has just finished the last bottle of the genuine Johann Hoff's Malt Extract with marked improvement. I can cheerfully say it is all, and more than you claim for it, for in my patient's case of dyspepsia nothing would remain on her stomach; hence there was extreme debility, and she certainly could not have survived much longer.

"After taking the second bottle we could see quite an improvement. Her appetite became better, and she could retain food without distressing her. She feels-for the first time in six months that she has been in bed -that she will recover. It has certainly proved in her case a great boon. I can cheerfully indorse the genuine Johann Hoff's Malt Extract for all you claim, both in dyspepsia, anæmia and kindred diseases. I will take great pleasure in recommending it to other practitioners and to my patients."

Of course, it was a hard game for the visitors to lose, but then the home team put up just as fine an article of baseball as can be found in the land. If Breitenstein was effective. Bill Gumbert was much more so.

The Pitchers Were Somewhat Wild,

Both pitchers were wild at times, but Gumbert pitched the better ball. His support was brilliant. Miller was at short, Shugart being sick. But nobody could have done better than Miller did, and tew would have done as well. He was always on hand when wanted and was there in great style. Gumbert had the Browns at his mercy, because when he got the ball across the plate the visitors could do nothing with

The third inning was reached before a run was made. The locals were second at bat and in their half of the third Miller got his base on balls and reached third on the outs of Donovan and Smith. Kelly came to the rescue by knocking the ball to the right fence for three bags and Miller scored.

But the Browns took the lead in the fifth. Breitenstein led off and got to first on four had balls. Buckley's sacrifice sent the former to second. Then Gore and Glasscock each got a single into left field, and these combined with a bad throw home by Smith scored the two runs. ored the two runs.

The eighth inning came, and with it a settler for the Browns. Smith started the second half of the inning, and knocked the ball to Glasscock. Elmer ran like a deer, and beat the ball to first amid cheers. Kelly fouled out to Buckley, and that was sad. But Beckley got a good erack at one and knocked the ball close to the at one and knocked the ball close to the right field fence. Caruthers ran back, and might possibly have caught the ball, but he stumbled, and Smith scored, Beckley land-ing on third. Mack, tucky Connie Mack, was next at bat, and either a hit or a long fly meant the winning run. Connie banged the tail into right field, and Caruthers caught it, but Beckley scored on the throw in, although Caruthers made a splendid throw home.
