CLIFFORD IS CAUGHT

The Eighth Homestead Man Arrested for Murder and Riot.

HE WAS EXPECTING THE OFFICER.

Union Mill Strikers Held for Assaulting a Non-Union Man.

THEY EACH FURNISH BAIL FOR COURT

Josh Clifford was arrested by a constable at Homestead yesterday afternoon on a charge of aggravated riot. When he was brought to this city two warrants for murder, issued by Alderman McMasters, were also made known to him, much to his surprise. Three commitments are entered against him on the jail docket. Clifford had apparently been expecting afrest and made no resistance. At 4:30 he was locked up, his attorney having been unable to find one of the court judges. The original list of 14 persons against whom Secretary Lovejoy prepared the charge of murder on July 27 contained Ctifford's name. For some reason he was not arrested when the others were, though Attorney Brennen states that Clifford was on hand at the time of Hugh O'Donnell's hearing in court ready to testify in the leader's Schalf. One charge against him is that he was accessory to the marder of Silas Wais, the workman who was killed in the mid yard on the morning of July 6 by a shot from the cannon placed on the opposite side of the river. The other is for the murder of T. J. Connors, one of the Pinkerton men on that same fatal morning.

No More Arrests for Murder. Detective Weber states that no more arrests for murder will be made, though there are yet four or five persons against whom aggravated riot has been charged who have not been arrested. Attorney Brennen says this is not true, that the detectives are just trying to spread such a report in order to simplify their work of making arrests. Of the 14 men charged with murder at Homestead only eight have been arrested. Attorneys Brennen and Cox will go into court this morning and demand his release on bail. The application will probably be made before Judge Ewing. The attorneys think there will be little difficulty in get-ting Clifford out or in securing the required bail bond. Police Superintendent O'Mara differs with them on this point. Mr. O'Mara said last night that he was acquainted with the evidence against Clifford, and it is very strong, almost conclusive. The officer stated further that if he could prevent it he would allow no friend of his to go on Clif-ford's bond, because Clifford would be fool-ish to stay around here to be tried if he ever

An Ex-Policeman and a Clever Fighter. The prisoner is a resident of Homestead and was one of the employes at the Cur-negie mills before the strike. Some years ago he lived in this city and had the repu-tation of being a clever puglist, About eight years ago at a moonlight picnic in Lawrenceville he deteated Bilson Jack, another slugger who was then prominent in local sporting circles. By those who know the man he seems to be well liked. At one time Clifford was a policeman in Home-

In connection with the riot cases, Edward Burke, charged with aggravated riot at Homestead, was released on $2,000 bail, urnished by J. B. Lynch, the Penn avenue Alderman McMasters. The bond was given before Magistrate Gripp on account of the absence from the city of Alderman Mc-

Thomas Conners and Elmer Zimmer. arrested on Wednesday for assaulting John Reams, a non-union workman at the Upper Union Mills, were given a hearing before Magistrate Leslie yesterday and were held for court trial. The hearing was held at the Twelfth ward police station and attended by many more interested parties than could gain admittance. Captain Breck was on hand for the Carnegie Com-When Reams was put on the witness stand he said:

"I am an employe at the 20-inch plate mill of Carnegie's plant at Thirty-third street. At 3 o'clock yesterday morning I left the mill for my home. I was going through the alley between Thirty-third and Thirty-fourth streets, and while I was passing the metal yard I saw five men sitting on the railroad tracks. When I passed they called me, and one of them said: 'Where do you work?'

"In the Carnegie mill," I replied. Attacked by Five Men.

"The five men then got up, struck me in the face, on the body, knocked me down and kicked me. I called for help and they commenced to run away." "Can you identify any one in this room who were among your assailants?" inquired "Yes, sir; that man standing there," pointing to Connors.

"Any other person?"

"Not positive; it was pretty dark."

"Can you or can you not swear that Mr.
Zimmer was one of the men?"
"I cannot, but don't think he was."

Thomas Richards, the next witness, was standing at Thirty-third street and Penn avenue when he heard a cry for help, and saw Zimmer and Connors running away. Captain Bradley testified that he saw running away and ran after them with several other officers and succeeded in arrest-ing Zimmer and Connors. The other officers corroborated the statements, but firmly de-clared that the assault did not occur on the company's property.

The defendants swore they were strikers and had been employed at the Carnegie mill, but did not see or assault Reams. Zimmer declared his ability to prove his innocence. Michael Scaulon and Fred Zimmer furnished bail for both prisoners.

TO SAVE THE RIVER.

The Government Proceeds Against Two Allegheny Manufacturing Establishments-They Are Charged With Filling in the Obio at the Glass House Ripple Irjunctions Issued. In the name of the Attorney General of gun for injunctions to restrain the Pitts burg Locomotive Works Company and the estate of W. H. Irwin, owners of the Rosedale Foundry Company, from dumping dirt, ashes or other substances into the Ohio river. A preliminary injunction was granted by Judge Acheson and a hearing on the merits of the case will be held next Tuesday in the United States Circuit Court. During the last three years the agents of the Government have been very active in trying to prevent manufacturers from dumping ashes, slag, etc., in the rivers. Already the channel of the Monongahela has been seriously narrowed by the piles of matter thrown out of the mills. Captain John W. Arris, of the United States Engineers, has Arris, of the United States Engineers, has been for some time devoting his attention to investigating this subject, and through the evidence collected by his personal inspections and from the river operators, suits were begun by the United States District Attorney in the United States Courts against about 50 firms and individuals. against about 50 firms and individuals Nearly all the detendants are iron and steel manufacturers. The Exposition Company was included in the list. The actions were for injunctions, and preliminary restraining orders were issued. Before the case came to final hearing the defendants got together and entered into agreement with the District Attorney to refrain from further dumping. Under this agreement further legal action on the part of the Government was suspended. There are some cases pending where the action is to compel the defendants to remove matter dumped into the ants to remove matter dumped into the rivers. To carry such actions it is necessary to prove where the river line originally was, and this has required long researches among the plans of old surveys. This work is not yet finished.

It is now charged that the Pittsburg Locomotive Works and the Rosedale Foundry Company have gone ahead and resumed dumping. Those works are situated on the banks of the Ohio river, in Allegheny, opposite the head of Brunot's Island, at what river men call the Glass House Ripple. The channel there is already very narrow, and the current is deep, rapid and trouble-some. It is one of the most difficult places some. It is one of the most difficult places for navigation by large coal tows on the upper Onio. The suits against these two companies being instituted by the Attorney General indicates that the cases will be pushed to a speedy and final conclusion. Other suits for restitution may follow the injunction proceedings.

YOUNG REPUBLICANS MEET.

The Tariff Club Arranges for a Trip to the Buffalo Convention. A large meeting of the members of the Young Men's Republican Tariff Club was held last evening, President William H.

McCleary presiding.

The club's excursion to the National League's Convention at Buffalo, September 1, was the subject of considerable discussion, the members showing a lively interest in the matter, as the entire cost for railroad fare, parlor cars, hotel, uniforms, refreshments, etc., will cost only $10. The railroad tickets are good to Niagara Falls for five days. It was decided, after a report was made by Mr. Von Bonnborst, Chairman of the Committee on Transportation, to go by daylight, starting on the morning of August 31, over the Allegheny Valley Rail-

Mr. Neeb reported that a stand of colors is being prepared, which will be carried for the first time by the club on the occasion of
