THE TROUBLESOME SENATORS.

They Get a Very Close Game From Our Unfortunate Sluggers.

Those Senators from Washington have been bothersome fellows for our aluggers all this season, and they kept up their record ye terday. The might not ha been so trouble some by a lor way had they n been so mater ally aided h Charley Mitch ell, who umpire the game. Ga ney was sche but he did n arrive, an Mitchell was called in to fill up the breach This was an unfortunate filling up for th Pitisburgers, as Mitchell really had an off day as an umpire. True, he did the best he could, but it was extremely unfortunate that his very bad decisions were almost all costly to the home team. Had these bad decisions not been made the home tear might still not have won, but their chance would certainly have been better.

Mitchell Was Considerably Off. Mitchell was completely at sea on ball and strikes and Ehret was the great sufferer He had men struck out, but bad judgmen gave them bases on balls. Ehret is not kicker by any means, but Mitchell really caused Red to object yesterday. And in the ninth inning, with two men on bases and nobody out, Shugart beat an infield hit to first There was no doubt about it, but Shugar was called out, and it is needless to say tha there was any amount of hooting and howl-ing by the crowd. Mitchell's work was ing by the crowd, Miles

But Killen was the greatest difficulty the local players had to encounter. He pitched very effectively and hit the ball hard. Our sluggers could do nothing with him and that was the chief cause of their defeat But in a tight contest a bad decision of the umpire invariably has a wonderful effect. Killen seemed to have the local, players a his mercy and he was very well supported But he was evidently rattled in the nintl inning, and had Shugart been declared safe it is difficult to say what the result would have been, because Killen is not the sweetest of young men with three men on bases and nobody out.

Ehret Pitched in Good Form.

Ehret also pitched splendidly, and it was no fault of his that the game was lost. The fielding was not of the best, and a ridicu lously wild throw by Farrell in the seventl inning had a very disastrous effect. Shugar was not in the best of form, either, al-though once or twice he made a brilliant

The visitors went to bat first and were retired in order, but in an unusual way. Rad-tord led off with a scratch infield hit, and he tried to steal second. He got a good start, but was nabbed fully six feet from second base. A wild throw by Farrell allowed Dowd to reach first, and he was forced out by Hoy. The latter tried to steal see Mack.

In the second half Miller got to first on balls and he soon stole second aided by a passed ball. Donovan knocked a fly to Richardson and was out. Miller then stole third without much trouble and scored on

No more scoring was done until the sixth inning and up to that stage it looked as if the game would end one to nothing in favor of the home team so well were both pitchers performing. But a change came. Killen led off in the sixth and he got fairly onto a good one and whacked the ball clear to the right center sence. He did not venture to make home on it and stopped at third. Ehret struck Radford out and had two strikes on Dowd when the latter made a little hit to right, scoring the run.

Where the Game Was Lost.

In the next inning Milligan led off and made a single to left. Berger followed and tried to bunt the ball. He did bunt it eventually, and Farrell got the ball and could easily have thrown Milligan out at second, but there was nobody there to cover the base. Farrell threw the ball to first and it went clean over Beckley's head, Milligan scoring and Berger reaching third. Me-Guire made a single and Berger scored. Richardson's sacrifice sent McGuire to third and then Killen was given his base on balls, although he was fairly struck out.

Radiord's sacrifice scored McGuire.
In the second half of the ninth inning
Kelly led off with a single and got to second on a wild throw by Radford. Beckley got his base of balls and then Shugart knocked the hall between Killen and Picked the ball between Killen and Richardson Killen ran for it and fumbled it. When he picked up the ball, close to first base, and threw it Shugart then had his foot on the Shugart was called out and there was bag. Shugari was called out and there was lots of kicking. Bierbauer kocked a long fly to right, which Dowd caught, and Kelly scored on the throw in. Farrell loomed up to try to save the day and nearly did it. He knocked the ball far into center and it looked like a homer, but Hoy made a great catch and nabbed it brilliantly, and the jig was up. Sec	re

SALARIES MUST COME DOWN.

President Wagner Points Out What Be ball Magnates Mean to Do. ton ball club, is traveling with the team

George Wagner, President of the Washing and he is one of the most genial gentlemen connected with the baseball business. Dur ing a conversation vesterday on general affairs, he said: "It may be considered certain that as far as baseball is concerned, everything will be the same in the League next year as it is this the same in the League next year as it is this year. What I mean is that the same general principles will operate. There will be two seasons and a twelve-club League. That much is certain. But we must have baseball down to thoroughly business principles. We must have sainries cut down commensurate with the receipts. It is impossible to continue paying salaries if the money does not come in at the gate. This is the third year that I have been in the business, and my brother and myself have lost enormously in the two past years and we will lose again. Onr books will show that in the Athletic club alone we sunk $75,000 and had nothing to show for it at the finish. Nobody likes to pay big salaries better than I do, but if the club does not make the money I cannot contribute $20,000 or $30,000 a year to the business. If the receipts would warrant it I would be in favor of paying good players $5,000 a year. If all cities were like Pittsburg we might get along, but they are not. "It is certain, therefore, that a general reduction of salarles will be made before next season comes. This must be done and every capitalist in the business knows it."

Mr. Wagner and Manager Irwin are of onlinon that they have a good team, but that they have been in hard lock lately. Larkin and Mulligan have been unable to play owing to injuries and this has weakened the battery of the team. Manager Irwin is well satisfied with the work of Berger. year. CALLS DOMINICK DOWN.

Corbett Certainly Speaks Very Plainly Abou

Assury Park, Aug. 15.—Jim Corbett had a busy time of it yesterday. A stream of visit-ors poured across the Deal Lake bridge to the pretty cottage occupied by the big fighter. One of them was Phil Dwyer, one the pretty cottage occupied by the big fighter. One of them was Phil Dwyer, one of the heaviest backers. Dwyer expressed himself as perfectly satisfied with Corbett's condition. Jim returned yesterday morning from Trenton, where he gave a sparring exhibition Saturday evening. Yesterday afternoon he played several brisk games of handball, defeating Dr. Shannon, of New Brunswick, and Charles Griffin and John Comiskey, of New York. The big Californian is in the pink of condition.

Corbett seemed to be somewhat amused when his attention was called to some statements recently made by Dominick McCafrey. "McCaffrey says I won all my fights by scratches, catching my opponents when they were in poor condition," said Corbett. "It's funny McCaffrey did not scratch out when he fought little Jack Dempsey. I notice McCaffrey says he is in better condition now than ever before. Now, I will make this proposition to him. Whether I win or lose the fight with Sullivan, I shall beglad to got to the Manhattan Athletic Club, where McCaffrey is boxing instructor, and stop him in four rounds in the presence of his friends and pupils, or I will give him $1,000 if he will stand before me four rounds at the Madison Square Garden, where I shall appear on the evening of Sept. 12, or if that is not satisfactory I will give him $200 for every round he survives there. As McCaffrey has ample time to prepare, this will effectually prove that my victory over him was not a scratch, as he calls it."

SULLIVAN STILL LOSING FLESH.

te Trains Down to 208 Pounds and Is Stil in the Best of Condition.

CANOR PLACE, INN., Aug. 15.—[Special]—John L. Suilivan is still losing flesh. When he returned from his spin this morning and after he was rubbed down he weighed only 208 pounds. This is two pounds less than the weight at which he is expected to enter the ring on September 7. Among the numerous visitors who spent Sunday with the big fellow visitors who spent Sunday with the big fellow was Dom McCaffrey. The latter was enthusiastic in praise of the champion's condition. He said he had seen him in training for several of his previous battles, and had never known him to be in better fettle. McCaffrey remained two nights in the inn and accompanied Sullivan and his trainers to Shinnecock Light and return.

No one in this vicinity has any doubt of the result of the fight at New Orleans. Everyone who sees Sullivan is impressed with the massive frame of the champion and the force of his terrible right arm as he punches the bag. It is in this exercise that Sullivan seems to take the greatest pleasure. As he chews gum his jaw wags as industriously as those of a Vassar girl. His real execution is done almost invariably with the right arm in a sort of half swing across his chest, which sends the bag against the ceiling with a whack that threatens to burst it. It is Trainer Casey's intension to get the big fellow down to 200 records if it is possible to delice of the proportion of the sendent of the low down to 200 records if it is possible to delice where the present of the proportion of the case of the big fellow down to 200 records if it is possible to delice the big fellow down to 200 records if it is possible to delice the big fellow down to 200 records if it is possible to delice the big fellow down to 200 records if it is possible to delice the big fellow down to 200 records if it is possible to delice the big fellow down to 200 records if it is possible to delice the big fellow down to 200 records if it is possible to delice the big fellow down to 200 records if it is possible to delice the big fellow down to 200 records if it is possible to delice the big fellow down to 200 records if it is possible to delice the big fellow down to 200 records if it is possible to delice the big fellow down to 200 records if it is possible to delice the big fellow down to 200 records if it is possible to delice the big fellow down to 200 records if it is possible to Trainer Casey's intention to get the big fel-low down to 200 pounds if it is possible to do so without injury to his system.

It was presented to him by his many admirers of the "Cherry Diamond" Club, and reflects great credit on the artist, Cassius M. Coolidge, who is himself an enthusiastic 'cyclist. The painting depicts young Banker in full racing attitude and dress speeding by the grand stand in which are placed his numerous club mates and friends. The painting is attracting a great deal of attention and comment where it is being exhibited at the East End.

FALL MEETING.

Splendid Programme for Trotting and Pacing Races at Homewood Park.

TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS OFFERED. Jim Corbett Gives Dominick McCaffery Very Strong Call Down.

ALL THE SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY.

Everything has been definitely decided for the fall meeting at Homewood Driving Park, and it promises to be one of the biggest fall meetings ever held in this city. Altogether it is intended to offer purses aggregating $10,000 for the four days. This is a very large sum for a fall meeting, and it is expected that some of the best trotters and pacers in the country will be here. The meeting, as previously stated in this paper, will commence on September 13 and continue for four days. The classes and purses for each day are as follows:

FIRST DAY. SECOND DAY. Free for all, trotting ..

Speaking of the meeting last evening Secretary McCracken said: "We certainly expect to have a big entry list and we are expect to have a big entry list and we are also hopeful of getting one or two great special features. The entrance fee is only 5 per cent of the winnings and I am sure we will have some of the best horses in the country here. We did very well with our summer meeting and that has prompted us to make such good offers for the fall races. The classes are such that all kinds of horses can enter and we mean to have the track in first class condition."

Regarding the special features it is understood that efforts are being made to have either Arion or Sunol, or both, here to try and beat the record. Some time ago Mar-vin declared his willingness to bring Arion here to try and beat the record and it may be that he is still so inclined. If he does the event will certainly attract an immense crowd and make it profitable for everybody.

THE OMNIBUS STAKES.

Few Pointers About the Horses for To Day's Big Race.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—[Special.]—The Omnibus stakes will be decided at Monmouth Park to-morrow. The Pepper, Huron and Rex have been specially prepared for the race, and Tammany will have to run fast to

But, although The Pepper is a good, game colt, the local contingent will be beggared if Tummany doesn't dispose of him in much the same fashion that he did in the Realization and Lorillard stakes. It is mighty unfortunate for Colonel Pepper that Tammany is such a crnek, as with Marcus Daly's chestnut son of Iroquois out of the way The Pepper would cut a wide swath, and the Colonel would be some $55,000 or $60,000 richer. Tammany has not appeared in public since he won the Lorillard stakes almost a month ago, but the great colt is as he won the Lorillard stakes aimost a month ago, but the great colt is as fift as hands can make him, and Byrnes is very sanguine of winning to-morrow's great race. His work has been as good as that of any colt of his age in any year, and that is saying a great deal. It was feared that Garrison would not be able to ride, but the fact that the Snapper rode on Saturday at 120 pounds, and will not be compelled to reduce in order to do the weight on Tammany, makes it a certainty that he will be astride Mr. Daly's colt to-morrow. Huron was very highly thought of by Ed Corrigan when he sent him East to Green B. Morris to run in the Lorillard stakes, but the trip must have taken away both staying power and speed, as the Western colt was beaten at the end of three-quarters of a mile. Those who have been at Saratoga say that he is one of the most improved horses at that track, so the public need not be surprised if this 3-year-old disturber which got Ed Corrigan into a snarl with the Coney Island Jockey Club should land a nice of Ed Corrigan into a snarl with the Coney Island Jockey Club should land a piece of he money. Messrs. Brown & Rogers made a great misalessrs. Brown & Rogers made a great mis-take when they nominated Pickpocket for the Omnibus,instead of the great colt Lamp-lighter, winner of the Champion stakes and holder of the record at a mile and a haif. Many horsemen contend that this smashing brown colt is the master of Tanmany, and it is a thousand pities that the pair will not meet to-morrow.

TROTTING AT CHICAGO.

Ore Wilkes, a 2-Year-Old, Makes Fast Time and Wins a Race, CHICAGO, Aug. 15 .- The race meeting of the of trotting and pacing opened to-day at Washington Park. The weather was warm and bazy, the track fast and attendance 4,000. Besides the auction pools and the Paris mutuals six bookmakers did business on the heats and they had a big play. The San Mateo Stock Farm's blk. c. Ore Wilkes, by Sable Wilkes, driven by James Gold-smith, won the Columbia stakes for 2-yearolds, taking the second and third heats after Wilkes Maid had come home with the first in 2:25½, which good time Ore Wilkes repeated in the second.

Only two started in the Futurity stakes sack, the former winning in straight heats. San Pedro won the 2:30 pace in straight heats, and the 2:28 class trotting was unfinished after six heats were trotted. Ed Geers was substituted for Wells behind Josephine before the fifth heat. AT BRIGHTON BEACH.

ome Good Races and a Hot Favorite Two Downed. BRIGHTON BEACH, Aug. 15 .- The first race to-day resulted in an upset for the talent, who had looked upon Little Jake as a sure winner. The race was captured in a gallop by Hippona, who opened at 8 to 1 and closed at 3 to 1 in the betting. Sandowne c.early outclassed his field in the second race and after making all the running, won with the greatest possible ease.

Jack Rose, the choice of the betting ring for the fifth race, did not finish better than third, Lord Dalmeny taking the purse, with Count second. KILRAIN A SULLIVAN MAN.

Jake States Why lie Thinks John L. Will Beat Corbett, New York, Aug. 15 .- Jake Kilrain is a Sultivan man. To an intimate triend who vis-ited him in Baltimore a few days ago Jake gave his ideas of the fight. "I think Corbett is one of the shiftlest men I ever saw," said he, "but he doesn't class with John L. Sullivan as a fighter. When I met Corbett in New Orleans I was really met Corbett in New Orleans I was really surprised at his cleverness. Had I known how shifty he was I should have done some training. I was out pointed, but had the contest been to a finish, the resuit, I believe, would have been different. I noticed one thing about Corbett, He does not like infighting. Every time we got at close quarters I punched away at his wind. Having one hand free I had a perfect right to do so. But he appealed to the referee, and no infighting was allowed after the third round. I was weak when I entered the ring, but the several hody blows I landed made him wince. What will he do when a man like Sullivan pounds his windt Corbett himself is anything but a hard puncher. They can all talk about Sullivan's broken-down constitution and all that. He is a remarkable man, and can fight twenty-four hours at a stretch if he is properly trained."

GODDARD TO THE FRONT.

Billy Madden Looms Up With Anothe

Would-Be Champion Pugilist. NEW YORK, Aug. 15 .- [Special.]-In a letter rom Mechanicsville Billy Madden says: "I understand Jake Kilrain will meet my new champion, Joe Goddard. If such is the case, Goddard, on his arrival in New York, case, Goddard, on his arrivat in New York, will meet Kilrain in a contest of four rounds in the Academy of Music or in Madison Square Garden, any time after the 15th of September that will suit Kilrain. I have forwarded a letter to the Coney Island Athletic Club asking them to put up a purse of $25,000 for a contest between the winner of the Sullivan and Corbett contest and Goddard. If they do not send a favorable answer Goddard shall fight any man in the world for $5,000 a side and the largest purse. I am going to New Orleans and will meet Joe Goddard there."

Willing to Fight Again. New York, Aug. 15.—[Special.]—Since the 41-round battle at the Coney Island Athletic Club both Siddons and Pierce have expressed themselves, in intervals, as being willing to face each other again in the ring, but it has been left for Pierce to come out in a letter over his own signature challenging the New Orleans boy to another encounter. Pierce's letter is as follows:

"To the Editor of the Sun-Sir: I read some time ago in the Sun that Siddons was surprised at the verdict of our last fight. If he thinks he is able to whip me I will give him a chance to try conclusions. If he will meet me at the Sun office on Friday evening. meet me at the Sun office on Friday evening, Aug. 19, at 6 o'clock, and deposit $500 to bind a match between him and myself for the largest purse offered by any club, and a side bet of from $1,000 to $2,500 a side, the fight to take place three months after staning articles, I will guarantee him a match then and there. Yours truly, EDDIE PIERCE.

The Keystone Cyclers Meet

The Keystone Bicycle Club met last even ing and decided to hold its open road race on September 24, leaving the arrangement in the hands of the same committee that managed the 15 mile race so satisfactorily managed the 15-mile race so satisfactorily. It is very likely that the same course will be decided upon. It was also decided to hold a hill-climbing contest after the road race and special prizes will be provided for the winners. The following new members were elected: John W. Hewston, T. J. Kenan, Jr., W. C. Watt, Etanley Nelson and W. C. Weed. Four members of the club made a century ran on sunday to Butler, Harmony, etc. They were W. B. Corwin, W. M. Corwin, John F. Johnston and Harry Hagmaier.
