TWO IRISH PARTIES.

Their Existence Is Natural and They Are Probably Permanent,

IN PRESIDENT GANNON'S OPINION.

The Parnellite and McCarthyite Factions Are but Their Germs.

ALEXANDER SULLIVAN EXONERATED

CHICAGO, Aug. 16 .- Statements likely by Hon. M. V. Gannon, of Omaha, President of the Irish National League of America. In an interview, speaking of the acceptance in good faith her discount of the gold. acceptance in good faith by the American Irish of Gladstone's assurances, he said:

"Our whole ides, and the limit of our idea, has been to place Ireland in the same relation to the Imperial Government that Illinois or Nebraska holds to the American Government. We will never rest while our mothers' graves are trod by slaves. The only cause of the unrest of our people is this Irish question, and once it is settled we will blend with the American people and be heard of as a separate nationality no more.

"I will be glad for my boy's sake when the incubus of foreign duty has been removed. We are Americans, but Americans who must take thought of our kin beyond the sea. The duty lies upon us all the more urgently because England has-not content with starving our people out of their historic home-followed them here with lies and slander that too many people believe.

The Irish Made a Laughing Stock. "We are gibbetted and pilloried as the buffoons of the earth. We can leave it to our American friends if the caricatures are "The Parnellites and the anti-Parnetlites," said Mr. Gannon, "simply form the nucleus for the two parties that will naturally appear in the Irish Parliament. The Church did not display hostility to Paruell until his lieutements betrayed him, and until after Gladstone had written his historic letter. The young manhood of Ireland resented the idea that their leader should be dictated to by a British Minister, and in his own language, thrown to the wolves by those who sought his destruction in the perjured Times commission.

"Here you have the basis of Irish parties, of which there will be two. Free America has 3; free France, 6; Italy, 4, and Germany, 6.

"De Maistre says that English literature "De Maistre says that English literature for three centuries has been a continuous conspiracy against the truth. The facts to-day show that this is true. The stage Irishman is no longer recognized as the type of our race, with the whisky bottle in his pocket and his dhudeen in his hat. We are on the threshold of the Irish nation; let us cross it, and Irish Americans will be heard

He Exonerates Alexander Sullivan

Asked about the split in the ranks of the American Irish, Mr. Gannon turned rather quickly upon the inquisitor and said: "You mean the fight on Alexander Sullivan? Weil I want to tell you one thing that the papers possibly do not know. Mr. Sullivan is accused of the misappropriation of $100,-000 of Irish money. In my position, it has been necessary for me to learn all the facts, and I shall only say this: Written receipts have been shown me for every penny that ever went through Alexander Sullivan's

"My own judgment is that when Ireland gets home rule it will be due to the fact that Alexander Sullivan had organized American public opinion, and that he and he alone made it a fighting force in interna-tional politics. He is, in my judgment, more than any other man the maker of the Irish nation of 1892. From the time that he, backed by the Irish opinion of this country, went first to President Arthur we began to succeed.

'The fruit is now almost in our hands, but we would be ungrateful and treacherous if we did not acknowledge heartily, wholly the services of the man who, more than any other, made this result a probability."

—Archbishop Ireland's latest letter says:

"It is not true that what the Catholics ask is touching the Catholic religion in schools. What they wish is that the teaching in the schools be so conducted as not to injure the faith of children or to prevent instruction of children in the Catholic faith. The schools of the State must be, according to law, non-religious, or to use a common word, non-sectarian. But this does not mean they must be conducted as to practically efface religion, or to render the teaching of religion difficult or impossible.
