The Learne Record.

HOW IT WAS DONE.

The Story of the Sad Ending of Testerday's Ball Game. Michael Aristotle Kelly and his tribe of champions from Boston were shaking bands as one of the funniest things in the estimation of the Boston's and one of the saddest things in the memories of the local players. Poor Red Ehret, brilliant and unfortunate Red, was the cause of the yells of delight among the visitors and the groans and moans of the home cranks. Such a breakdown as Ehret made has seldom been seen in Pittsburg, and it will not be forgotten for generations. Was un Awful Ending.

Just fancy this ve cranks! The last inn the home players two. Two of the visitor were easily put out and two strikes on the Bostons were enabled to score four runs and win the game. The nistory of Tantalus has nothing more disheartening than

The weather was excellent and the Cham pions were given a grand reception. They and the home team were paraded through the main streets and a brass band led the way. A promenade concert was held at the park and a crowd of 2500 people were on the grounds. Ladies were admitted free the grounds. Ladies were admitted free and nearly one half of the audience were of the fair sex. As the game pr looked as if victory was going to add to the rejoicings of the local faces and rooters and never for one minute was it dreamt that such a thunder clap was in store.

Good Features of the Game The game until that awful ninth was as pretty a contest as anybody could wish to see. Ehret never pitched better in his li only two hits being made off his delivery the eighth inning and one of them was ver-scratchy indeed. Nichols also was pitchin like a demon and the fielders on both side were playing just as brilliantly as ever field ers played here before. All went along a merrily as wedding bells. There was som kicking new and then at Umpire Wilson who acted in the absence of Gaffney. O one occasion Nichols struck out with a me on first base. Mack dropped the thi rule. He was out but Wilson called him sale. Wilson discovered his mistake and changed his decision and this of course caused Kelly to make many hostile demonstrations. But Nichols had to retire. Kelly did not act any too gentlemanly with the umpire at that.

But the closeness of the score kept up the excitement and the score at the finish was a remarkable one. After the first two men had been retired in the ninth the visitors put on their sweaters, packed up their bats and were ready to skip.

Hugged Each Other Like Lovers.

In a few minutes the entire scene was changed and when Tucker crossed the plate with the third run the visitors jumped in the air, rolled on the grass and kicked up their feet; some of them stood on their heads and all of them hugged each other as long as strength would allow. No Romeo each pugged his Juliet more enthusiastically. ever hugged his Juliet more enthusiastically than Staley hugged McCarthy.
Scarcely anybody could believe that the surroundings were real and that it was truly Red Ehret standing in the box the picture of the most intense misery. But everything was according to Hoyle and nobody could make a better of it. There never was a more disgusted crowd at a ball game than the crowd that witnessed this awfully sudden turn of affairs.

The run getting started in the first inning.
In the second half after Miller was out Donovan made a single over second base and Mack got his base on balls. Kelly sent out a single to middle and Donovan scored Mack reaching third. Beckley's sacrifice seored Mack.

How the Game Was Lost. No more runs were made until the ninth inning. At that stage Duffy led off and knocked out a liner which Kelly caught knocked out a liner which Kelly caught beautifully. Long was put out at first and then Mike Kelly went to bat. Ehret was going to have a little fun with Kel, but the latter fooled on until he got his base on balls. Nash then appeared and Ehret still had no fears of defeat. Nash too got his balls. Still this wasn't extremely had no lears of defeat. Nash too got his base on balls. Still this wasn't extremely dangerous looking, but when Tucker stepped up to the plate and was hit by a pitched ball, filling the bases, matters looked very, very squally.

Lowe was next up and if by arrangement

he planted the ball in between Beckley and Donovan. It landed near the foul line and bounded over to the ience of the bleachers, allowing three men to score and Lowe to reach third. A wild pitch enabled Lowe to score and the game was won. The score:

Since the last meeting of the Western Traffic Association, and particularly since the Burlington filed its 90 day's notice of withdrawal, it has been generally conceded in railroad circles that the organization is on the verge of dissolution. Additional evidence of this has been furnished by the Gould lines in their fathure to send representatives to the meeting of the Board of Commissioners held at Chicago yesterday.

WHILE the Missouri Pacific positively denies the charge of the Chicago and Alton that it has made or offered to make a $4 round trip rate between St. Louis and Kan-sas City, it has asked for time in which to sas City, it has asked for time in which to answer more fully the charges of the Alton. Pending this final answer the Alton will take no steps to meet the reduction from St. Louis. In the meantime official notice has been given by the Rock Island that none of the reduced rates between Chicago and Kansas City, either round trip or single trip, will apply over that road.

HANDICAPPED TENNIS

The Opening Games of the Pittsburg Club on its Courts.

GRACK PLAYERS PARTICIPATING.

Some Fxciting Contests Among the Wielders of the Backet.

DOUBLES TO BEGIN THIS AFTERNOON

The Pittsburg Tennis Club yesterday commenced its handicap tournament, open to club members only. While there was a fair attendance, there was not so many present as was expected or would have been the case had the fact that the tourney was to commence been more widely known. Those who did not attend missed an afternoon of rare enjoyment, for all of the crack players were there and they played well.

There was Ewing, the holder of the Grogan cup, Moorhead who held it in a previous year, Pier who has been playing a strong game lately, G. Edwards, B. Reed, O. Edwards, F. X. Barr, Guthrie, Mc-Clintock, Brown, Callow, Darlington, Stoney, Keil, Murray and Holmes, and it would be hard for any club in the country to muster 16 men of equal calibre.

The Hand:caps Make Close Games. The handicaps given made the games closer and consequently more interesting. The fact that in the first round four of the combating entries played three sets before the winners were decided shows that with the handicaps the best players had to work for their advancement. These handicaps were based on the records of the various players and were very justly given. For instance Moorhead owed one-half of 15 when he started in the first game with Pier, and Ewing not only owed 15, but he gave his opponent, Guthrie, one-half of 30.

It was uphill playing for Ewing, but he managed to win the round after playing three sets. Since his victory over Buch, of Altoons, at the championship tournament Ewing has been playing in the same steady form, and he has been regular in his practice, so, that if anything, he plays a harder game to beat now than he did then. His judgment is wonderfully quick, and his skill in placing his return is certainly such as to place him in the front rank. If the cracks from the East and West enter in the Initation tourney they will find in him a harder man to defeat than many they have met in the big tournaments East. And Moorhead, too, will be there when the time

Ready to Meet Eastern Cracks. He has gotten back his nerve, and is as graceful, skillful and active as of yore. Yesterday he had in Pier quite a formidable opponent who played well, not so strong perhaps as on some former occasions, but Moorhead had no walkover, especially with the handicap.

Barr gave Brown too much of a handicap, nd as a consequence was defeated only after three sets were played. Barr made a hard fight for it, but he couldn't pull out. The same was true of Messrs. Reed and Callow. The handicap was too great for Reed to overcome, and Callow played stronger than was expected. The only contest in the second round was that he ween test in the second round was that between Moorhead and G. Edwards, when Moorhead owed one-half of 15 and gave Edwards onehalf of 15. Edwards won the second set, but Moorhead pulled out the third and goes on into the semi-finals.

Drawings for the Doubles To-day play will commence at 4 o'clock, and all who like to see good tennis are in-vited to be present. It is probable that the singles will be played as far as the finals, and the first round o' the doubles will take place. The drawings for the doubles are as follows:

First round—Barr and Ewing against Bown and Guthrie, Edwards and Pler against Moorhead and Reed.

Semi finals—Callow and Murray against winners of the former contest and Holmes and Stoney against the winners of the latter.
The following are the scores of yesterday's Moorhead owed 15 of 15, beat Pier 6-1, 64.

G. Edwards gave Durlington 15 of 30 at Dent 64, 60. Callow got 34 of 30 and beat B. Reed 6-1, 2-6, O. Edwards gave Keil 15 and beat 6-2, 6-0. Brown got 1/2 of 15 and beat Barr 7-5, 5-7, 6-3. Murray gave Holmes 1/2 of 15 and beat 6-1,

SUMMARY-FIRST ROUND.

McClintock beat Stoney (even) 5-8, 3-6, 6-4. Ewing owed 15 and gave Guthrie 1/2 of 30 and beat 6-2, 4-6, 6-3. SECOND ROUND. Moorhead owed 3/ of 15 and gave G. Edwards 3/ of 15 and beat 63, 5-7, 6-4.

TRACK RECORDS BROKEN.

Great Pacing and Trotting Races on the Grand Circuit-Chronos Finally Pulls Out a Winner, but Three Extra Heats Are Required to Decide the Race.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Aug. 18.—New track records, both trotting and pacing, were established on the Hampden Park course this afternoon in the presence of 7,000. The races were close and exciting and by far the most interesting of the meeting. The first race called was unfinished 2:19 pacing, which required three additional neats to decide the result. Chronos, the pool favorite, finally won after Lady Sheridan and Nellie finally won after Lady Sheridan and Nellie B had each stolen a heat.

The 2:17 class trotting was the event of the day, the per ormance of Walter E being the finest exhibition seen on thit track for years. The free-for-all pacing race was considerably split up, and was without special feature except the lowering or the pacing record in the first heat. The 2:23 class was an easy victory for Ramona, the pool favorite.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18 .- If the reports which reached this city from Monmouth Park to-night are correct there is little prospect os the great match race between To Tambien, Tammany and Lamplighter. There have been rumors of a decidedly mysterious nature circulated concerning Tammany for a few day. Some of these say that the great 3-year-old has only been sneezing, others say that he has had the influenza bad, still again he is said to have the rheumatism, and again he is troubled with an internal difference of a serious nature. As the Marcus Daly stable does not make the condition of its horses public nothing definite can be learned regarding Tammany, except that he was unable to start in the big Omnibus race to-day.

AT MONMOUTH PARK.

The Two Stake Events Afford Very Little Fxe'tement to the Crowd. MONMOUTH PARE RACE TRACK, Aug. 18.—The wenty-first day of the 24-day summer meet. ing was favored with beautiful weather, a fast track and about 5,000 spectators. The two fixtures, the Select stakes for 2-year-olds and the Delaware handleap, furnished what little excitement there was. Don Alonzo ruled a 1 to 3 favorite for the former. He was winning in a gallop, when Taral eased him a bit. This induspence was almost fatal, St. Michael came up with a rush and Taral had to whip and spur in order to get the Don going in time to win the stakes by a neck.

Pessara and flaceland were conceded to have the race for the Delaware between them, and the former was sent to the post the choice at 6 to 5, there being 8 to 5 against flaceland. Old Bones loated along behind Pessara and Kildeer for a mile. He then came by them and won in impressive style. The sport began with Beansey, a false 2 to 1 favorite, for the first race. Equity, 5 to ., beat him easily for first place. The Rebecca Rowett colt appeared to have found a soft spot in the lourth race, and the plun ers made him an 8 to 5 favorite. He was ridden by his owner, Jockey Billy Donohne, and finished third, Rainbow, 6 to 1, Littlefield up, winning in a gallop. Julien won the fifth race.

All but Nomad Yemen and St. Hubert were two fixtures, the Select stakes for 2-year-olds

All but Nomad, Yemen and St. Hubert were withdrawn from the last race. Nomad, 2 to 5, won, but none too easily, Lambley being compelled to rush from flagfall to finish in order to skake off Yemen. Summaries:

A RUMOR DENIED.

G. W. Johnson Not to Be Matched Against an Eastern Horse,

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—[Special.]—The report sent out from the East that Jake Johnson of the J. M. Brown & Co. stable, was at Sara-toga trying to match G. W. Johnson for $10, 000 a side against any Eastern 2-year-old found a prompt denial at the stable quarters at Garfield Park yesterday.

Foreman Cook stated that Mr. Johnson was in Indiana on a visit. The stable has a representative in the East at present, but not for the purpose of matching John-son. He is looking over the ground and if he thinks it advisable about eight head will be shipped East for the Sheepshead fall meeting. Among those to be sent to race be shipped East for the Sheepshead fall meeting. Among those to be sent to race are:

Borealis, Haydee, Red Banner, Uncertainty, C. H. Gillock, Robby Beach, Johnetta and Edith Belmont. Fort Worth and G. W. Johnson will be taken Past, but it is not expected that either will race. It is the stable's intention to save G. W. Johnson for next year's American Derby, and if it can go along all right without him he will not be started again this year. He has been let up in his work, and it is almost certain that he will pot be a starter in the Futurity. If the above lot are sent East the balance of the stable will probably race at Latonia this fall. If the other 2-year-oids go amiss Johnson may be fitted for some of the fall events with a view to helping carry a stable, the expenses of which are $100 a day, not counting jockey fees. Most of the horses have been coughing of late, and it may be found necessary to use Johnson. Bobby Beach has been something of a disappointment to the stable. After being nursed for two years he was dropped into a race at Washington Park that seemed to be a cinch for him, and the stable betting, burning up his backers' money. Little Billy, the stable's crack 3-year-oid that went amiss early in the year, is rounding to nicely, and will race probably late in the fall. year, is rounding to nicely, and will race probably late in the fall.

The great feature of the day was the work of Arthur A. Zimmerman, and he smashed no fewer than three Canadian records. The reception accorded him whenever he appeared before the immense crowd of nearly 4,000 people was enthusiastic, and as he broke record after record the crowd went wild, and cheer after cheer greeted him Sanzer, of Milwaukee, was also well received, he breaking the Canadian record in the quarter-mile flying start.
