DOWNED THEM AGAIN. The Local Team Put Up Another Good Game Against the Boston. Our sluggers more than evened matters up with the champions from Boston yesterday by scoring their second victory of the three games played between the teams.

The Pitching Was First-Class. The pitcher was excellent and there were 3,500 people present. Of late it has been the misfortune of the team to do their bad work in presence of big audiences, and when the splendid game of yesterday was gathered superstitious cranks were sure that "something would drop." Something did drop, sure enough, but it fell on the fellow named Ewing.

Mike Kelly Did Very Well. Mike Kelly and Ewing again umpired and too many kind things cannot be said about Michael Kelly. He was excellent and he was a pitcher to be reckoned with. He was called to the home team, in fact, once or twice Mike was eager to give the local fair play to the visitors hardly got their hands on the ball.

Nichols Was a Tackler. Nichols pitched an admirable game, and was fully unlicked. His hits made his delivery very accurate and he was a blunder or other had been committed. Nichols really worked hard to win, but his side couldn't hit the ball and all his great pitching was in vain.

Fielding of the Home Players. The fielding of the home players was brilliant. Shugart, although credited with an error really played a magnificent game and ran bases like a deer.

Runs Came Somewhat Scarce. There was not much like a run until the seventh inning. In the second half of that inning, after the ball was on, Shugart made a single to center, scoring Long. Some people thought it was looking awfully good, but Shugart was put out at first, the ball going to the outfield.

East End Gym, 10—Tarentum, 1. "Al" to Ewing, said Tarentum will be for the game. "Just like cutting watermelons," but what a difference at the finish. Inevitable Thompson was in the box for the first round.

East Liverpool, 0—Acme, 1. The Ellipse worked hard to shut out the Acme of Pittsburgh today, but were robbed of the result of their efforts by the Acme, who allowed Mack to cut third to 30 feet in the eighth and though his attention was called to it at the time he allowed him to return.

Franklin, 7—Trenton, 8. FRANKLIN, Pa., Aug. 20.—(Special.)—Franklin defeated Trenton in a closely played game today that was a battle of pitchers from start to finish.
