GREENE IS A KICKER. That's Why Jobs is After Acheson's Scalp in the 24th District.

A FIGHT FOR REPRESENTATIVE. Chairman Dickey Refuses to Be Deposed and His Committee Meets.

DOES NOT FEAR THE INDEPENDENTS. (SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.)

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Aug. 20.—There will be no live wire Congressional politics anywhere in Pennsylvania than in the Twenty-fourth district, composed of the counties of Fayette, Greene, Washington and part of Allegheny. The nomination of Mr. Rippe fifth already made in the district. The other candidates so far in the field are: Republican, E. F. Acheson, Washington; Independent Republican, Rev. Campbell Jones, Claysville, Washington county; People's party, Jerome B. Aiken, Washington; Prohibition, A. K. Williamson, Allegheny.

It is interesting to note that although this is a great agricultural district, and that the granger argument did good service in behalf of Farmer Craig in 1890 in wiping out the big R-publican majority of 1888, the farmers are not directly represented in any of the above candidates. Mr. Acheson is the editor of the Washington Observer, Mr. Jones is a farmer, Mr. Rippe is a lawyer, Mr. Aiken is an oil operator; Mr. Jones is a Campbellite or Disciple preacher, and Mr. Williamson is paymaster of the National Tube Works at McKeesport. The Republican chairman of the several counties will meet in Pittsburgh Monday next to consider whether a new district should be created. It is not clear whether the odds are as well as the long-term nomination shall be given to Mr. Acheson, as the Democrats have done in the case of Mr. Rippe.

Why Greene County Feels Hurt. In 1888, the first contest after the new district was created, Mr. Ray, of Greene, beat Mr. Wampler, of McKeesport, 3,700 votes to 2,100. Mr. Wampler carried Greene by 1,400 votes. Mr. Wampler carried Greene by 1,400 votes and Fayette by 4 votes, leaving Ray a winner by 4,300 in the district. Hence, in a Presidential year, the odds are heavily in favor of the Democrats. But the nomination of Mr. Acheson met with serious opposition, the storm center of which is in Greene county, the odds are heavily in favor of the Democrats. The Republicans in 1888 agreed that in that year their nominating convention should consist of ten delegates from each county in the district. It should be composed of delegates from each county based on the party vote at the preceding Presidential election, the delegate basis being 600 votes or fraction thereof exceeding one-half. Accordingly the convention that nominated Colonel Andy Stewart, of Fayette, in 1890, consisted of 18 delegates from Allegheny and five from Washington, 14 from Fayette and five from Greene. The friends of Congressman Ray were sore over their failure to be re-nominated and they were determined to inaugurate a new system of nominating, and especially on Mr. Acheson, whose delegates, finding his own nomination impossible, went over in a body to the Democrats. The delegates from the Ray men, who claimed their candidate was the second choice of Washington county.

Greene Politicians in the Dumps. The plan of making nominations agreed on in 1888 provided only for that year and 1890. The plan of making nominations agreed on in 1888 provided only for that year and 1890. The plan of making nominations agreed on in 1888 provided only for that year and 1890.

Waiting for Mayor Kennedy's Return. Mayor Gourley is confident that the Columbus Day celebration will prove a great success. Yesterday he received a letter from the mayor of Columbus, Ohio, offering that building free of charge for a meeting of the Columbus Day committee.

Did Not Jump Quickly Enough. Peter Pinkerton, who was out on bail on the charge of cutting and wounding Joseph Heagan on Sunday, was taken into custody yesterday and placed in jail. Superintendent O'Mara made the charge and Pinkerton was held for court. It was learned that he was making preparations to jump his bail and he was re-arrested.

THE FIRE RECORD. Beaver.—During Friday afternoon's storm the barn and wagon shed of William M. Todd, of Hopewell township, was struck by lightning and the building was destroyed. The loss, which was not insured, was estimated at $10,000. The fire was caused by lightning striking the roof of the building.

Anti-Bossism in His Platform. They have nominated Rev. Mr. Campbell Jones, of Washington county, as the candidate of the Greene county Republicans. Mr. Jones accepted in a brief letter, in which he stated that he had always been a Republican, and called upon all Republicans in the district opposed to bossism to support him.

THE DICKY COMMITTEE IN SESSION. The Dickey Committee met here this afternoon. Nineteen of the 36 committeemen regularly elected at the spring primaries were present, and vacancies were filled in six districts where no primaries had been held. Resolutions were adopted condemning the action of the Jobs Republicans and the course of the local party organ, and pledging the committee to the support of Mr. Dickey. The committee also authorized Chairman Dickey to confer with the other county chairmen as to the short term nomination.

A SOCIETY STARTLER. Minnie Seligman Married to One of New York's Swell Club Men.

LIVINGSTON CUTTING THE GROOM, And He Appears to Be the Happiest Man in the Metropolis.

THE COUPLE NOW ON THEIR HONEYMOON. (SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—The tongues of people of fashion, not only in this city, but at the summer resorts, will be wagging tomorrow as they have not wagged for months. It became known to-night that Robert Livingston Cutting, Jr., the well known society man, club man, and amateur actor, was to be married to Miss Seligman, who had married the still better known Minnie Seligman, the actress. Anything that a son of the Cutting family does is of interest to society, but the news that Cutting, and a Livingston Cutting, too, had married an actress, a divorced actress, was startling.

THE MARRIAGE CEREMONY TOOK PLACE IN THE house of Rev. Frank L. Humphreys, an Episcopal clergyman, at Monmouth beach on July 28. Mr. Cutting met Miss Seligman for the first time on July 2. So rapid was the courtship that before four weeks elapsed Miss Seligman had become Mrs. Cutting. No one, not even the closest friends of the bride and groom, knew anything about the marriage until August 3, when Mr. Cutting went to Saratoga to tell his father, and Mrs. Cutting came to this city to visit friends.

Just Starting on Their Honeymoon. Mr. Cutting returned from Saratoga on August 10, and since then he and his wife have been living with friends at the San Remo Hotel. This afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Cutting drove from the San Remo to Mrs. Cutting's sister's house, at 119 West Seventy-third street, after dinner. They were there until they left town on what Mr. Cutting terms their honeymoon.

"I have received many assurances that I could receive the Congressional nomination if I would not mind being used, but that I will not do. My time and the best abilities I have belong to the Amalgamated Association, and should not in any way, least of all by its officials, be dragged into politics."

"I do not want to discuss politics, but I will say this: I am not a candidate for Congress, and will not be. My term as President of the Amalgamated Association does not expire until November, and while holding that position I do not think it would be right for me to engage in politics. The Amalgamated Association is not a political organization, and should not in any way, least of all by its officials, be dragged into politics."

He Won't Accept a Congressional Nomination if It Were Tended Him—His Heart is in a Case That Is Far Dearer to Him Than Politics. YOUNGSTOWN, O., Aug. 20.—(Special.)—"Will you be a candidate for the Democratic Congressional nomination in the Twenty-fourth district?" was the inquiry by THE DISPATCH correspondent of President Weithe, of the Amalgamated Association, this evening shortly after the conference scale had been signed.

"I do not want to discuss politics, but I will say this: I am not a candidate for Congress, and will not be.
