down here, and has trained down to lis pounds. He will develop himself now by jumpinz, and may even take on a few pounds. He expects a short fight, but in order not to be taken by surprise is training for an all night affair. News from Bay St. Louis is conflicting. There are stories of drinking and neglect, but these the men indignantly deny. McAn-iffe was never fond of work, and when he has to train is not pleasant about it; but he puts in a good deal of walking, baz-punching and boxing with Nelson and others, and is right in line with the weight limit. He does nost of his work in the latter part of the day, and does not make it a point to get up with the lark, saving that work is good for a man who is to fight at night, while sleen, and plenty of it, is good for anybody. He says that a great deal depends upon his winning this fight, and he knows it so well that he does not intend to make any mistake, and will be better fit than at any time in his life. down here, and has trained down to 115

The operation consider in removing a portion of his backbone. It was found that the sixth vertebra was badly fractured and that the broken bone was pressing against the spinal column, thus causing the paraly-sis. Dr. McCann and the physicians made a gush six inches in length just over the spinal column, laying bare the bone. About half the vertebra was removed and the pressure of the spinal cord relieved. To id came out of the operation nicely, and in half an hour could distinguish when his hands are hopeful that he will ultimately recover. The opera-tion was exceedingly perilous, as a slip of the knife a his's breadth would nave meant instant death to the patient.

EXTENSIVE repairs are being made on the W. W. O'Neli. She is having a complete set of new boilers put if and is being overhauled from the hold to the cabin. It is intended to spend about $15,000 on her, and she will be in excellent trim for the winter trade.
