The League Record

BOW THEY QUIT EVEN. Hits Were Scarce, but Some of Them Were

Very Well Placed. A ball team that wins a game and loses one from the Brooklyn lot nowadays are not doing very bad work. Ward's pennant aspirants are playing great ball and no mistake, and although our sluggers did not down them twice yesterday they got one game from them. On due reflection that will be considered quite a creditable performance. True, there was lots of grumbling because the second game was not won by the home talent, but when matters are carefully investigated it will be seen that Mr. Haddock was quite a stumbling block between our heroes and their second victory, at least the victory they wanted to make their second. In both games the pitching was the feature and it is some time since hits were so scarce in two contests in

Lots of Vim and Ginger.

The double game plan brought out 2,30 people, and they saw some good bal playing. There was vim and ginger in both games, and if ever two teams wanted to score two victories in one afternoon the locals and the Brooklyns wanted that hono yesterday.

The first game was the better of the two It was brimtul of good plays and once Louis Bierhauer showed up brilliantly. Ward was so auxious to win the contest that he began early in the game to tall to Umpire Gaffney about umpiring for the home team. The umpire ordered the Brooklyn manager out of the coacher's box and told him if he said another word he would have him leave the grounds. This had a wonderful effect on John M. Ward, as he sat quietly down on the bench.

Both Terry and Stein pitched wonderful ball, and it may be said that Dame Fortune smiled on the local fellows, as the game was won by a very lucky home run crack by Donovan. Burns was playing right field and he had an injured leg

Donovan's Fortunate Home Run.

With a man on base Patsy knocked the ball to the right fence and Burns was so Donovan was interfered with at third base by Tom Daly and the ball beat him to the home plate, but Umpire Gaffney de-clared him sale because of the interference. But if the run had not counted the visitors would still have been beaten, as there were two runs without it.
At any rate to win a game with four hits is something to be very thankful for.

In the first inning Miller got his base on balls and got to second on Donovan's sacrifice. Smith got his base on balls and Miller stole third and scored on Kelly's fly to Burns. Smith was put out trying to steal

The visitors tied the score in the fifth inn ing. After two men were out Kinslow thumped the ball to the right field fence for three bags and scored on Stein's single to

The sixth inning came and the game was won. Miller started off for the home team won. Miller started on for the nome team and made a single. Denovan went up with the "sacrifice bat," and after knocking up a few fouls he was ordered to change his bat and "bang her out." He got his eye on a good one and sent out the drive above reterred to. There was no more scoring in

Those Unlucky Bases on Balls.

The second contest was lost by the home players, and everybody seemed to attribute the defeat to Baldwin's wildness. But despite the fact of his giving bases on balls which resulted in runs he pitched a good game. Any man who keeps the Brooklyn team down to five hits and even gives six bases on balls is not doing very bad work. Had our sluggers been hitting the ball at all effectively there might have been good reason to kick and kick hard. But Haddock pitched a remarkably fine game, and when matters with him were at their most critical stages he did his best work. This was irri-tating to the nome rooters. But Mark was a little too wild for the spectators and they

Also at one stage, the seventh inning, Baldwin went to bat with three men on bases and two out. Mark struck out, and this caused the feeling to rise against him more than ever. Not one of the four runs of the Brooklyns was earned and this makes the detest all the more unsatisfactory,

When the Ban Getting Started.

In the third inning the run getting started. Baldwin gave Griffin and Ward each a base on balls and this made every-body dissatisfied. Corcoran's sacrifice sent the runners to second and third respectively. Brouthers' sacrifice scored Griffin and Daily made a little hit to right which scored

Then the eighth inning came round and there was more discouraging features. Ward started off, and for the third time got his base on balls. He was forced out by Corcoran and Brouthers made a single, Corcoran going to third. Brouthers started to steal second and Miller made a bad throw which enabled Corcoran to tally. Daily forced Brouthers out and Tom Daly made a three-bagger, scoring Daily.

The run of the home players was made by Miller's base on balls, Donovan's single, single by Kelly and Beckley's fly to O'Brien. The scores:

MARK BALDWIN RELEASED.

The Local Pitcher Will Get His Walking Papers This Morning.

There was so much dissatisfaction regarding the work of Mark Baldwin in the box during the second game yesterday that the club officials last evening decided to release him this morning. For some time past Mark's work has not been satisfactory to the club officials. He has been a loser, and his unfortunate work of giving so many bases on balls has turned all the local patrons of the game against him. Almost patrons of the game against him. Almost every game he has pitched recently the crowd has yelied its disapprobation of him most unmercifully. Under these circumstances the management came to the conclusion that it would be better for the club and better for Mark to leave the team.

An official of the club, speaking of the matter last evening, said: "No doubt Baidwin is a good pitcher, but he is a loser for us. His work has disgusted almost all of our patrons, and we could not keep him any longer. He has wanted to leave the club for some thee, and that may have made him carcless. He may do better for some other club than he has done for us. The frequency with which he gives bases on balls makes him most unreliable and lost a game to-day. We have three good pitchers left in Ehret, Terry and Esper."

After the game last evening Baldwin's father and an official of the club had "it hot

He will play in the game against the Boston's to-day. Jimmie Wolfe, the outfielder, has been released by President Von Der Ahe. The release was made at Wolfe's own request.

CINGINNATI, Aug. 24.—[Special.]—Chris Von der Ahe wired the Cincinnati club this morning: "What player will you give for DANNY RICHARDSON has been appointed man-ager of the, Washington club and Arthur Irwin steps down and out. THE new left-handed pitcher, Miller, signed by Anson, started the season with the Peoria club, of the Illinois-lowa League. YESTERDAY Burns told Umpire Gaffney the lat-ter was a robber, and Burns was retired from the coacher's box to the bench.

THE St. Louis Browns have had five captain thus far this season. One of the rejected, Cu Stricker, is handling the reins at Baltimore. VON DER ÅHE fined Carroll $50 for muffing a bail last Wednesday, and Werden a like amount for an error, which was his first one of the second season. CLAUSEN, of the Louisvilles, is superstitious enough to believe that the last club at the bat is the most lucky one, and therefore generally advises Captain Pfeffer to take the last lunings.

The local management has certainly done right in releasing Baldwin, as it will be better for himself and better for the club. Local feeling is against him, although he is a good pitcher. THE new St. Louis pitcher, Hawke, pitched for the Pocomoke City club on August 12, 1891, in a 13-inning game against the Virginia team, and he re-tired no less than 26 of his opponents on strikes. UMPIRE GAFFNEY declares a player is in the game if his name is on the score when it is shown the umpire. The decision was given to some persons disatisfied with the ruling in the Tarentum protest against the E. E. Gyms.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 24.—The Olympics are anxious to help along the Hall-Fitz-simmons contest, but do not think that Hall will be willing to fight after his long voyage across the Atlantic. Fitzsimmons will not fight after September 11, when he begins his theatrical engagement. But even if no contest takes place between then and now, this will certainly be one of the new matches the Olympics will make.

Dawson, who whipped Ned Hall, is coming to look after the winner of the Myer-McAuliffe match. Sol Smith, Johnny Van Heest and Bobby Burns will be here to look after the bantams. Joe Goddard, Peter Jackson, Jim Hall, Joe Choynski and a number of others will ask for matches, and the big purses will be in great demand as long as the Olympics will offer them.

"We are willing to pay big money for the best fight," said Captain Williams, "but we want the best fight." The pool rooms say the betting is very light so far. The odds, however, will be about 5 to 3 on Sullivan, 3 to 1 on Dixon and very nearly even money on the Myer fight. There is nothing new from the camp fighters. At Bay St. Louis rumors of drinking and carousing at Robertson's continue to prevail in the city, and continue to be done by the fighters. Corbett expects to appear without a bruise in retined comedy at the Grand Opera House, this city, immediately after the fight with Sullivan. ight with Sullivan.

A bet of $2,000 to $1,200 on Sullivan was posted at the pool room yesterday, but has not yet been accepted. The special train bringing Sullivan here will consist of eight sleepers and a baggage car. It will leave September 1. Sullivan and his trainers will have a special car where he can train. The sleepers will be for Sullivan's friends who are coming down here to see his last appearance in the ring.

Jack McAuliffe and Skelly are doing well at Bay St. Louis. Jimmy Carroll wants it understood that he tips Sullivan to Betting on the Battle, CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—[Special.]—But little money has been placed on Corbett in this city. In fact in no city in the country has Corbett so few supporters as in Chicago. He verdict was that he was not strong enough physically for the champion. There is physically for the champion. There is plenty of Sullivan money here and those who desire to place it are willing to give odds, but cannot get on at any tair figures. The report that a Chicago syndicate had sent $15,000 to Boston to back Corbett is absurd. The betting here is almost entirely on combinations. The three fights are grouped and local backers are picking Sullivan. Dixon, and Myer to win. Odds of two to one are being offered and taken against picking three winners. Those are about the correct odds, as Sullivan and Dixon will be at $100 to $40 at the ringside, and Myer and McAuliffe will be at $100 to $90 on McAuliffe. No one in Chicago will be ton Skelly against Dixon. All the talent regard the colored boy as the certain winner, and rightly so.

AT BRIGHTON BEACH.

Mucilage, a 30 to 1 Shot, Makes a Very Sensational Victory. REIGHTON BEACH RACE TRACK, Aug. 24 .-The sensational feature of this afternoon's racing was Mucilage's win of the fourth race at odds ranging from 30 to 1 to 100 to 1. Quite a number of persons held tickets calling for $1,000 to $10, among them being Jockey Edward H. Garrison, Mucilage was favored with first place in a straggling start, and, hustled all the way, won all out by a length and a half from May D, 12 to 1, and Jay Qu El, 6 to 1. Noonday was backed for a grand coup from 10 to 1 to 9 to 5. He finished fourth. Maggie K and Sandy were left at the post in the first race, which Bolivar, the favorite, won in runaway style. Prince George, a slight favorite over Sandowne and Laughing Water, backed down from 10 to 1 to 3 to 1, took the third race by a neck from Verbena, 3 to 1: Tradesman, 10 to 1: Maggie Morrill colt, 20 to 1, and Berwyn, 3 to 1, all neck and heads apart. Tradesman was all neck and heads apart. Tradesman was all but left at the post.

Lord Dalmeny and Milt Young were backed to win the fifth race to the exclusion of the other four starters. Count, 5 to 1, covered the seven furlongs in 1:23%, and beat Lord Dalmeny half a length, Milt Young being three parts of a length away, all whipping. Early Biossom, Dalsyrian, Experience and Ella furnished a rattling book race and an exciting flush. The Blossom perience and Ella Turnished a ratifling book race and an exciting finish. The Blossom was pounded down from 2 to 1 to even money, while the others were quoted at from 5 to 2 to 4 to 1. The Blossom had enough at the end of six furlongs, leaving Experience to win by a head from Ella. Summaries:

NOW, MR. VAN HEEST.

Paddy McBride Puts Up a Forfeit to Fight the Westerner. There is now a chance offered to any 120-ound pugilist in the country, as the following business-like challenge shows. The challenge was left at this office last evening by John Quinn and accompanied by a forfeit of $250.

by John Quinn and accompanied by a forfeit of $250.

"As any number of pugilists who say they can fight at 120 pounds are talking about wanting to fight for the feather-weight championship, a chance is now offered any of them. Paddy McBride will fight Van Heest, George Siddons, Ed Pearce or anybody else, at the weight named, to a finish for a bet of $1,000 and the largest purse of fered by any club. I now put up a forfeit of $250 and if anybody accepts the challenge they can either cover the money at The DISPATCH office or put up $250 at any other office and my forfeit will be forwarded on. This is no bluff, as McBride is quite willing to act up to this challenge."

The above is directly aimed at Van Heest, as he has been talking so largely about fighting Dixon. The latter states he will take a long rest after fighting Skelly, and that will give Heest, Siddons or any of the others ample opportunity to meet McBride. If Van Heest does not respond to the challenge he will certainly have no license to keep talking about fighting Dixon.

CHAMPIONS AT TENNIS.

Knapp Defeated by a Mere Boy After Five-Hour Contest-The Halls Lose the Doubles to Campbell and Buntington-Other Interesting Matches.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 24 .- The weather con litions this morning for the second day of the National Lawn Tennis Tournament were as favorable as yesterday, and the attend-ance was large. The principal mutch of the morning was that for the championship in doubles between the Hall brothers, Valen ington, last year's champions. The latter pair were called upon to defend the title against the Halls, winners of the Eastern tournament, who won by default from Car ver and Ryerson, the Western pair. Naturally the championship match attracted the greatest interest and diverted attention from several matches which would other wise have drawn goodly numbers of spectators.

The Slocus-Larned match in singles was The Slocus-Larned match in singles was the first to begin. Slocum was placed on the defensive, as the ex-champion was in exceedingly poor form. Larned, on the other hand, was putting up strong even tennis, marred only by recklessness now and then. The result of the match indicates that Slocum can no longer be included in the championship class.

Champions Carry Off the Doubles, In 'the doubles the match opened with a decidedly Hall aspect, as that pair quickly took the first three games in successi Then they lost four straight. The champions went in and pulled out the set. The second set went along much the same way, the set went along much the same way, the Halls taking the two first games. This was Halls taking the two first games. This was all they could do, however, and the champion pair won six straight, carrying off the set. The third was different, the games alternating from one side to the other with a fair degree of regularity, enough of them, however, going to the credit of the Halls to give them the set. In the fourth set the Eastern pair as usual took the first game and then lost four straight. It looked as if the match were to end there, but the Halls rallied and took two more games. They could not avoid the inevitable and finally yielded the set, the match and the hopes of winning the championship.

A Most Extraordinary Match. The Wrenn-Knapp match to-day was a extraordinary one, and will go down in ten-nis annals as one of the most remarkable ever played on any court. It was the most stubborn and desperately fought contest of spect with any played in previous years. It spect with any played in previous years. It was one of the longest on record, beginning before 11 o'clock and continuing till 4. It was a battle between young blood and vigor, combined with excellent tennis ability, against pure nerve force and clear grit, in which the former won. Knapp, the veteran player, counted the best stayer to a long match among all the cracks, met young Wrenn, hardly more than a schoolboy, and was not only outplayed but outlasted by him.

was not only outplayed but outlasted by him.

In the fourth set, Knapp manifestly had no strength left and was calling simply upon his nervous forces. After each game, after almost every point, indeed, he seemed so utterly exhausted that it looked hardly possible that he could continue to play, yet he labored on and held his opponent down till at 9-7 he could not prevent his inking the set. The last and deciding set was quickly over, Knapp's exhibition of pluck and will power in the face of physical weakness, has probably never been equalled on the tennis field. Wrenn played beautiful tennis, strong, steady, skillful throughout and was comparatively fresh at the close of the five hours' battle.

Matches of Minor Importance. The other matches of the afternoon were of little importance, Post winning from Billings, Eddie Hall from Horton and Valentine Hall from Dana without difficulty. This completes the second round at the close of the two days' play, and the tournaclose of the two days' play, and the tournament is accordingly further advanced than ever before at this siage. Should had weather not interfere the finals should be reached on Monday and the contament ond on Tuesday with the championship contest. Important matches to-morrow are those between Wrenn and Budlong, Hovey and Post, Smith and Chase and Hobert and E. L. Hall. The last is the most important of all, and likely to have the most influence upon the final outcome of the series.
