

WEIGHING THE HEAVY OF Circumstantial Evidence Around Lizzie Borden That May Convict Her OF TWO TERRIBLE CRIMES.

Bridget Sullivan's Testimony Anything but in Her Favor, THOUGH NOT AT ALL CONCLUSIVE.

Another Witness Tells Some Things That May Hurt Her.

SECOND DAY OF THE FAMOUS TRIAL.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

FALL RIVER, MASS., Aug. 26.—Wet and chilly during the second day of the hearing of Lizzie Borden. The examination of Dr. Dolan was concluded, several witnesses were examined to show Mr. Borden's whereabouts previous to his return to his house on the morning of the murder, and then John Vinnicum Morse was placed on the stand.

Mr. Morse told of his visits to the family, his relations with Mr. Borden, and his own whereabouts on the morning of the murder. He was followed by Bridget Sullivan, who described the actions and the whereabouts of herself, Lizzie Borden, and Mr. and Mrs. Borden on the day of the murder. The direct examination of Bridget was not concluded.

Judge Blaisdell opened court promptly. The courtroom was crowded more than yesterday. At 9:30 o'clock Emma and Lizzie Borden entered the courtroom by a side door. Rev. E. J. Buck was with them. Lizzie Borden walked slowly and deliberately across the room, looked about the audience, and then sat down near Lawyer Adams. She recognized Mrs. Brigham and Mrs. Holmes, who sat near her, and then she spoke to them about the weather. Then she hid behind her fan. Dr. Dolan resumed the stand. Mr. Adams resumed the cross-examination.

Mrs. Borden Killed While Lying Down. "How were the blows struck on Mrs. Borden?"

"The blows on Mrs. Borden were given while she was lying on the floor, in the position in which she was found. The assailant stood about the head of the bed, and Mrs. Adams spent some time trying to convince the witness as to whether the axes were used on Mrs. Borden's body at the Oak Grove Cemetery, and on August 11, "One week later," he said, "the bodies were interred. That is, parts of the bodies were interred. I cut off the heads of Mr. and Mrs. Borden, scraped the skulls, and had them photographed."

"What?" roared Mr. Adams. "You buried these bodies headless, and have those broken skulls now?"

"I have, sir," said Dr. Dolan. "Emma Borden told me to bury the bodies. For the first time Lizzie Borden showed evidence of feeling."

"Did any of the family know this?" asked Mr. Adams. "They did not, sir, and probably this is the first they have heard of it."

The fruitless search for a will. Next Dr. Dolan told of the fruitless search for a will made by himself, Lawyer Jennings and District Attorney Knowlton. The District Attorney stated that Mr. Borden was a man of means and intelligent. The defense witnesses to prove the sanity of Mrs. Borden from the time he left his house on the morning of the murder until he returned to it, a few minutes before he was killed.

The prosecution then summoned officials of several financial institutions with whom Mr. Borden was connected, and several witnesses to prove the sanity of Mrs. Borden from the time he left his house on the morning of the murder until he returned to it, a few minutes before he was killed.

MR. MORLEY IS SAFE. His Vote at Newcastle Over 2,000 Larger Than a Few Weeks Ago. COURT OFFICERS PERSONA GRATA.

One Hundred and Fifty Men Cremated in a Welsh Mine Disaster. NEWS FROM THE EUROPEAN CAPITALS.

LONDON, Aug. 26.—Mr. Morley's return to Newcastle is an immense relief to the Liberals, who have been watching for the result with breathless anxiety. The party never expended money and energies so profusely to secure a local election.

While the Unionist candidate relied solely on local influences, the Liberals strove to strengthen them. Mr. Morley's return to Newcastle is an immense relief to the Liberals, who have been watching for the result with breathless anxiety.

The contest became one of national importance when some adherents of the Labor party joined the ranks of the Unionists. It is the only eight-hour section of the Labor party, but as this is now a strong political force in the country, its adhesion to the Unionist cause almost marked an electoral epoch.

Mr. Morley's reputation as a high-minded and honest politician never shone brighter than when he declared he was ready to risk his seat and his office and submit to the demands of the Laborists.

Mr. Morley's Majority Is Increased. In the general election Mr. Morley received 12,983 votes. Mr. Morley was opposed by Mr. Pandell Ralli, Liberal Unionist. He received 11,734 votes, making Mr. Morley's majority 1,249. Mr. Hammond, Conservative, was one of the successful candidates at the general election. Newcastle returned two members, received 13,224 votes and yesterday's report shows a decided falling off in the Conservative majority.

HARRISON AT MALONE. Delivers a Brief Address That Was Enthusiastically Received. NOTHING PARTISAN ABOUT IT.

The Whole Town Turns Out to Honor the Visit of the President. DEMOCRATS OF ALL THE COMMITTEES.

MALONE, N. Y., Aug. 26.—This morning the sun shined brightly on the streets and the town that had occurred for twenty hours. Everybody and everything were early astir here. People came into town from all directions, both by rail and team. Public buildings, stores and dwellings were all gaily decorated.

Every citizen, regardless of political conviction, was doing his best. Democrats vied with Republicans in paying honor to the Chief Magistrate. Numbers of them served as committee men, and did good work. At 1:20 o'clock, one of Dr. Webb's big engines rattled into the station, drawing the Presidential train. The committee of escort, under Chairman Kilburn, conducted the President from the station to the Howard House, where a repast was served, followed by an interval of rest.

At the time appointed for beginning the exercises, the President, the Vice President and the members of the Executive Council arrived on the scene, and as the President entered his carriage on leaving the hotel, presented a magnificent sight. He was accompanied by an escort to the park where the exercises were to be held.

A detachment from Brennan Post, G. A. R., was on duty at the Howard House, and guard along the route. The President was everywhere greeted with applause. On the stand in the park, beautifully decorated for the occasion, the President, the Vice President and the accompanying committee, with a number of leading citizens of the county.

The Address of President Harrison. As he prepared to address the assembled multitude, the Chief Magistrate stepped forward and made the address of welcome, to which the President responded with a half hour's speech, as follows:

Ladies and gentlemen and comrades of the Grand Old Party: It is a pleasure to me to be permitted to stand before you on this day, and to be greeted by you with such cordiality and respect. I have the honor to be your guest, and I am sure that you will find me to be a most cordial and friendly one. I have the honor to be your guest, and I am sure that you will find me to be a most cordial and friendly one.

I very sincerely appreciate the friendly invitation extended to me by you, which has made it possible for me to be present at this moment among you, and of exchanging with you the greetings and wishes of my fellow-citizens. The non-partisan character of the exercises in which we gather to express a common interest in the welfare of our country, and to give public expression to our common love for the Union, is a most commendable feature, and one to which we all should strive to conform. It is a pleasure to me to be permitted to stand before you on this day, and to be greeted by you with such cordiality and respect.

I have the honor to be your guest, and I am sure that you will find me to be a most cordial and friendly one. AT THE OWNER'S RISK. Peculiar Suit to a Large Bill for Glassware Destroyed by Fire—Long-Delayed Testimony in a Divorce—New of the Courts.

S. W. Vanderaar, doing business as the Pittsburg Glass Company, yesterday entered suit against Charles N. L. Brudewald, William L. Smith and Charles A. Sullivan, doing business as the Smith-Brudewald Glass Company, to recover $4,592.93. The plaintiff is suing for the value of glassware destroyed by fire, and the defendants are in the glass business in Pittsburg. At the request of the defendants, it was stated, the plaintiff contracted to sell a quantity of goods to the defendants. The goods were accordingly manufactured and part of them shipped to the defendants at the general election. The balance of the goods were stored in the plaintiff's warehouse at the risk of the defendants. On April 9, 1892, the warehouse and factory were destroyed by fire, and the goods for the defendants were lost.

The suit is now brought to recover the value of the goods destroyed, and the balance of the goods were stored in the plaintiff's warehouse at the risk of the defendants. On April 9, 1892, the warehouse and factory were destroyed by fire, and the goods for the defendants were lost.
