HOW THEY WON IT.

The Local Players Used the Stick and Downed the Phillies

Our sluggers took it into their heads yesterday to hit the ball, and they were slug-

Phillies were very badly beaten. S well and effective ly did the home talent use the stick that Gus Weybird was knocked on of the box and onto the bench in the seventh inning. This is what hit ting will do, and there were times yesterday afternoon when the cranks were reminded of the old-time slugging abilities of our heroes. When they do make their minds up to hit, something has to drop, and Gustave Weyhing was made aware of that

It Might Have Been Worse, And Weyhing was very lucky to get away without getting a greater drubbing than he did, as there were some very hot liners that went direct to the fielders. Weyhing started out as gay as a lark, and after Beckley had knocked the ball almost out of sight for a three-bagger Weyling still kept up his jovial remarks and indulged in bantering talk. But the time came round when Jake banged out his second three-bagger, sending in three runs, and then Mr. Weyhing collapsed and disappeared from the busy scenes of the diamond. Beckley had his batting clothes on and it was none too

Before the game started Manager Buckenberger was somewhat at a loss as to what pitcher he would use. Finally he selected Elmer Smith and the selection turned out to be a good one. Elmer was in good pitch-ing condition and he really pit ched an ex-cellent game. He was steady from begin-

Elmer Had Good Encouragement,

But the good hitting of his colleagues sided him wonderfully and once more de-monstrated the fact that good pitching is often of little avail if it is not backed up by good or at least timely hitting. The home meant business. Not only did they knock the ball at the right time, but they were most timely in their bunt hits. The latter to some extent paralyzed Weyhing, as the locals were every now and again tapping the ball about the diamond and getting salely to first. The fielding was tolerably fair on both sides. Reilly made a wonderful stop or two and so did Farrell. Altogether the game was a good one to look at, although toward the finish it became very one-Manager Buckenberger sent his men first to but. There was nothing done in the first inning, but Beckley started off the second with a terrific drive to the right senter fence for three pases. The hit was a beauty. Farrell struck out and Beckley scored on Shugart's long fly to Hamilton.

In the second half the visitors tied the score. Thompson got his base on balls reached second on Delehanty's sacrifice and scored on Dowse's single after Connor had struck out. It looked as if the argument was going to be a close one, but the sluggers hod a surprise in store.

An Extremely Lucky Play. In the fifth inning Shugart started off by getting his base on balls and Bierbauer's sacrifice sent him to second. Mack made a good single to right, Shugart going to third and Mack got second on the throw in. While Miller was at bat, Mack, evidently forgetting that Shugart was at third, tried to steal that base. Miller saw Mack's mistake and let go at the ball when Weyhing pitched it, making a safe hit to left and Shugart and Mack easily scored, of course. Dame Fortune was, indeed, very kind. The visitors also made an effort in their nalt. After two men were out Allen knocked the ball past shortstop and while the fielders were wondering how Allen had hit the ball he got to second on what ought to have been only a single hit. Weyling knocked the ball in front of the plate and Smith threw wildly to first, the runner being safe and Allen at third. Hamilton's safe bunt scored Allen.

The home players still went further shead in the sixth. Smith started out with a single. Kelly tried to make a bunt and sent the ball toward Weyhing. The latter got the ball and threw it to the bleechers, Smith scoring and Kelly reaching third on the error. Kelly scored on Beckley's long fly

The Inning That Settled Weyhing. Then came the seventh inning. Mack started it off and reached first on a wild throw by Allen. Miller made a very artistic bunt and reached first all right. Donotic bunt and reached first all right. Dono-van duplicated Miller's effort, and the bases were full. Smith struck out and every-body sighed. Kelly followed with a scratch single and Mack scored. Beckley here came to the rescue and caused all doubts to vanish by thumping out a corker to right field for three bases, sending home Miller, Donovan and Kelly. Reilly made a wild throw and Beckley seared the fifth run of throw and Beckley scored the fifth run of inning, three being earned.

In the eighth Carsey started in to pitch. In the second half, after Carsey was out, Hamilton made a single to center, got to third on a muffed throw by Bierbauer and second on a sperifice by Hallman. scored on a sacrifice by Hallman.

Wants to Be a Red.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 24.—[Special.]—Mark Baldwin submitted his terms to Captain Comiskey to-day. It would not be surprising to see the consummation of the Stivetts-Muliane deal next week. Manager Seice and Captain Comiskey have agreed to the transfer, and it now rests with the principals to ratify the exchange. Both pitchers are "out of sight," but they will be notified of the transaction. When Boston comes next Monday all arrangements will be completed.

Homestead, 10-Eclipse, 4. East Liverroot, O., Aug. 26.—[Special.]— Light hitting and lazy base running caused the Eclipse to lose to Homestead to-day. The hits recorded against Young were timely and heavy. Homestend was much strength-ened by the addition of several Western league players. Score:

JEANNETTE, Aug. 26.—[Specia:]—The Allegheny Athletics and the Jeannette Grays will play in this place to-morrow. The Grays have signed a new battery in the per-sons of Beech and Denning, formerly of the Kent, O., team.

Wilkinsburg Versus Mansfield. The Wilkinsburg' Athletic Association and Mansfield baseball teums will play two games will decide to whom the series is to be credited. The W. A. A.'s have heretofore been easy marks for the Manafelds, but Manager Swift is exercising great caution in the selection of his team, and promises to give the "other fellers" a severe argument for both games. First game called at 2 o'clock.

The Gyms at Uniontown.

Uniontown, Aug. 26.—[Special.]—The East End Gyms arrived here to-night for their games with the home club to-morrow and are quartered in the best rooms of the new hotel Mahaney. A more genteel set of players has never come among us and their reception to-night is very cordial. They are here in full force with their star twirlers, Gumbert and Thompson, and their crack catcher, Frank Haller. The home team are composed of younger and more untried players, who will not be worried it they lose both games to-morrow.

Those Kansas City Games.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 26.—Before the game on Wednesday President Yon der Ahe, of the St. Louis club, and Manager Seles, of the Bostons, signed an agreement to call both games played by their respective teams at Kansas City, Tuesday, champtonship games; also the first game Wednesday, thereby filling out the seven scheduled games for this city, the second game Wednesday going on record as an exhibition game. This was done to keep the standing correct and was so given out to the press.

ALL visiting pitchers complain of the Cleveland's left field. It is difficult for fielders in that field to see the ball leave the pitcher's hand and so many flies are converted into safe hits.

OUTFIELDER JOE KELLY'S work since joining the Pittaburgs has been wonderful, and it cuearly stamps him as the star find of the season. He has splendid judgment in the field, is a fast runner, strong thrower and a heavy, reliable hitter. His work has earned for him the sobriquet of "Ring Rei, Jr."—Eastern Paper.

TENNIS AT NEWPORT.

ms Brilliant Playing, and Several

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 26.—The conditions for the tennis play this morning were very poor. It rained all night and play was begun in a drizzling rain at 11:30. In the first set Chace started in by showing surprisingly strong tennis, and played all around set Chace started in by showing surprisingly strong tennis, and played all around his opponent, taking the set on his superior work, Hall beingable to get but one game, and that after the score had gone to 5-1. Hall, who in the first set had clearly been playing far below his standard of yesterday, began to brace in the second, while Chace fell off allttle. Hall won the first two games then carried the score to 42, 53, and then went out, doing good work through the set, though hat dly reaching his form in the match with Hobart.

The third set looked as if it would go to Hall, also, though Chace took the first game. Hall was doing the better work and soon had the score 42. Hall stopped short almost, and allowed his competitor to pull up till they were even at 4-all and then to force shead and take the set away from him, 64. In the next Hall took a wonderful brace and was practically unapproachable. He allowed Chace but two games, and soward the end of the game scarcely a point was scored against him. He soon pulled out the set and won the match.

The match between Larned and V. Hall was called shortly before noon, when the shower was at its worst. From the beginning of the first set it was apparent that it hall had no show against his opponent. The first two sets went quickly and easily to Larned. In the third Hall made the only contest of the match, and it looked at one time as if he might escape losing three straight, but with the score 42 and 53 in his favor the other man was too strong for him and won.

The match of Wrenn, of Boston, and Fielding on Philadelphia, was the one which attracted the most attention after the completion of the Hall-Chace contest. Wrenn's play was very strong in the next, and the other man got but a single game. He fell off from his strong play in the next, and the other man got but a single game. He fell off from his strong play in the next, and the other man got but a single game. He fell off from his strong play in the next, sowers, and Fielding came up enough to take the set 6-4 9-7. Fielding failed to get even one game in the last sot.

The other match of the afternoon went also contrary to expectations, so far as the ense with which it was won was concerned. Hovey smashed and lobbied and drove balls in his best style, and Stevens went all to pieces and got only four games in the match, all in the second set. Hovey improved, if anything, toward the last and rushed away with the third set, 6d, as he had in the first, giving his opponent no chance to score. It was a brilliant but one-sided exhibition.

CORACPOLIS TENNIS

Large Crowds and Good Playing in Singles

Coraofolis, Aug. $6.—[Special.]—Thursday evening the Coraopolis Tennis Club wound up the day by giving a dance, at which all of the visiting players were present. It was a most successful affair, and the strains of the orchestra did not cease until $0'clock this morning. Notwithstanding this the bovs were able to play good tennis to-day. They were semewhat fatigued, but the weather was cool and they gained in spirits as the day grew on. John Wilson and Prof. A. M. Stevenson were able to be out, but did not play. The lady members of the club have been taking a great interest in the tourney, and have been instrumental in making the visitors comfortable. The scores to-day were as follows:

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE.] NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 26.—The besting has begun here, but it is still very light on the individuals, because of a difficulty in coming to an agreement about odds and the big odds asked. Those who are backing the big odds asked. Those who are backing the short end puglists want greater odds than the others are willing to consede. The majority of the bets so far have been on combinations, the better to name three winners, the odds varying from 13 to 5 against Sullivan, Dixon and McAuliffe or Myer to 21 to 1 against Corbett, Skelly and McAuliffe or Myer to 21 to 1 against Corbett, Skelly and McAuliffe or Myer to 21 to 1 against Corbett, Skelly and McAuliffe or Myer to 21 to 1 against Corbett, Skelly and McAuliffe or Myer to 21 to 1 against Corbett, Skelly and McAuliffe or Myer to 21 to 1 against Corbett, Skelly and McAuliffe or Myer to 21 Auliffe or Myer.

McAuliffe stock has improved, and he is slightly the favorite to-day on account of Eastern backing. Dixon is the favorite at 3 to 1 and more asked, and Sullivan at 2 to 1. A good deal of money was put up in the poolrooms to-day mainly on the com-the poolrooms to-day mainly on the combines, but generally in small bets of from $5 to $400. Some money is coming here from the North to be invested in bets.

Mr. Theodore Peterson, ex-President of the Olympic Club, announces that he has had $10,000 given to him to bet on Sallivan, Dixon and Myer individually. At Lamothe's pool room the talent is playing Suilivan, Myer and Dixon on account of the big odds given, as they seem to think it's good, even if they lose it. At the Crescent Turf Exchange it's all the other way, as the sports are picking Sullivan, McAuliffe and Dixon for the winners. Sullivan and Dixon are also being backed, but for only small amounts.

The general admission of the Olympic Club will not be put on sale until about September 1. The tickets, as usual, will be lithographed, and will be difficult to counterfeit. The tickets are to be sold at four places—Duffy's Areus; Landey's, on Cansl, near Ramport; Peterson & Durendon's, Canal street, corner Duphine, and the St. Charles Rotunda. The Louisville and Nashville wants Sullivan's party to come to New Orleans by way of their rond. Colonel Atmore will assure Sullivan that he will run the train through Tennessee without stopping, thus securing Sullivan from arrest by the Tennessee authorities on an old indictment. Advices were received in this city this morning to the effect that Johnny Griffin had arrived at Bay St. Louis, Griffin will immediately commence boxing will Skelly, and, as the former knows the tactics of the ebony hued pug, no doubt his knowledge will be of much benefit to the young bantam at the Bay. Jack Sheehan has arrived in Bay St. Louis, and will assist in training McAuliffe.

Sultivan Still Losing Flesh. CANOE PLACE INN, Aug. 26.—Owing to rain Sullivan practiced in the gymnasium this morning. His exercise here was somewhat harder than usual, but he went through the harder than usual, but he went through the different degrees very satisfactorily. The special feature of his work was skipping the rope, which he did without a break, and the exertion didn't worry him. The big fellow's feet are now in perfect condition. Sullivan had quite a number of visitors to-day. They included his brother and nephew from Boston, Joe Lannon and Judge Tighe, of Brooklyn, accompanied by two sons. The champion is in fine legish and spirits, and Ashton says he's down to 2061/2 pounds.

Corbett Gets a Mascot.

New York, Aug. 25.—[Special.] — Jim Corbett received a letter from the Southern Athletic Club of New Orleans yesterday, offering him the use of their club rooms and gymnasium during his stay in New Orleans. This is the club before whom Corbett fought his battle with Klirain. In accepting the club's invitation Corbett reters to that fact, that he considers their offer of hospitality a mascot. From present indications the attendance at the "garden" during the day on Monday will consist largely of ladies and their mascot.

With Eight-Ounce Glove Akron, Aug. 26.—George Heathman, of Akron, and James Glasple, of Rogue Hollow, fought 18 rounds in Akron last night with eight-ounce gloves, Heathman knocking out his opponent in the eighteenth round. It was after midnight when the fight took place, and was witnessed by 100 people. Glaspie has challenged Heathman to fight to a finish with two-ounce gloves. The chal-lenge will probably be accepted.

Is Likely That the Big Race Will Be Run on a Muddy Track-Morello Is Looked Upon as a Probable Winner, and Green B. Morris May Have a Sur-that the $75,000 Futurity stakes for 1892 will be decided on a heavy track, as there are several contestants for the big prize tha are not at home in the mud, and there is no denying the fact that in such a race as this the money should go to the highest class animal that faces the startor. The Coney Island Jockey Club has had in previous years a good track and a sunny sky for the siand Jockey Clab has had in previous years a good track and a sunny sky for the decision of their most important stake, but the heavy rains of Thursday and to-day and the dark skies at midnight give evidences of additional moisture for to-morrow.

Sixteen 2-year olds are named to start for the Futurity, and of that number there are only two that have public form pretensions to high class. These are Lady Violet and Morello, two youngsters that could win in any year. Lovelace is a game, consistent fellow, and Sir Francis gave promise of becoming one of the best of the year, but that is not saying much for the half brother of Yorkville Belle, as this year's crop of 2-year-olds is the worst seen in years. Lidgerwood ran but once in public, but his private form is said to be high, and the Eurestables have great hopes of winning the stake with him.

The rain has lessened greatly the chances of Lady Violet's winning and has increased those of Morello, the Flower being at a diadvantage in the mud, while the Eolus colt is a perfect mud lark, and has made a show of his fields in that kind of a track every time he has started. In Fitzpatrick he will have a most capable rider, and the one that beats him will take away the prize.

Green B. Morris may have a neat little beats him will take away the prize.

Green B. Morris may have a neat little surprise bottled up for the talent in his Pat Malloy, Jr., however.

Day's Sport,

BRIGHTON BRACH RACE TRACE, Aug. 26.—The closing day's racing at the seaside track was marred by a drizaling rain, which fell while the first three races were being decided, and a track fetlock deep in slop. Horses that took first place at the start, or soon afterward, won the majority of the races.

Early Blossom, the 1 to 3 favorite, outclassed her opponents and won all the way from the 20 to 1 chance Nubian. Phillip Dwyer's Indigo, by Hindoo-Red and Blue, was sent to the post a to 1 favorite for the 3-year-old race, but he was badly beaten by Josephine, 33 to 1, she winning from end to end in a roup. Sport showed second and Saladin third before Indigo. John Cavanauch and Alende ruled equal first choloes at 2 to 1, for the third race. Zenobis, 4 to 1, essayed to make a runaway race of it, but Aleade caught her in the final strides and won by half a length.

The fourth race was a hummer for three BRIGHTON BRACE RACE TRACE, Aug. 26.-The furlongs, the five contestants running heads apart for that distance. Jockey Jimmy Mc-Laughlin's Key West, the 4 to 1 favorite, then shook the others off and won by two lengths. Lorimer, 6 to 1, ran a good race, taking second place from Dalsyrian by a neek. Crochet, 6 to 5, looked to be walking home winner at the last furlong post, when India Rubber, 12 to 1, came with a phenomenal rush and sent Midgley to the whip, he finally getting Crochet first past the post by a scant length. After bets on the last race had been declared off owing to the soratching of Pauline Hall and the Maggie Merrill colt, Bordeaux, the 7 to 5 favorice, won a hard race by a head from Gioriana, 12 to 1. WINDUP AT COLUMBUS.

More Dissatisfaction About the Hal Pointe COLUMBUG, Aug. 26.—The race meeting the Columbus Driving Park was finished the Columbus Driving Park was finished here to-day, the attendance being light.

Hal Pointer and Direct renewed their pacing race, which was left unfinished yesterday with two heats each. The fifth heat to-day resulted in a dead heat in 2:144. The spectators hooted the drivers, and there was much dissatisfaction at the slow time. Both drivers were taken down and new ones put up. Hal Pointer then won the sixth heat in 2:1134. There are strong complaints about Splan, who drove Hal Pointer, and there may be some charges preferred. The race all through was very questionable.

LATONIA RACES TO-DAY.

Everything Ready for an Expected Good Meeting-Wire Tappers Surprised. CINCINNATI, Aug. 26.-Latonia Jockey Club begins to-morrow its fall meeting of 31 racing days, ending October 1. The beautiful course and commodious buildings, encircled by the charming Kentucky hills, are in waitby the charming Kentucky hills, are in waiting for the eager thoroughbreds and for the interested spectators who always throng to these important meetings. Five races are set for to-morrow, the most important of which is the Merchants' stakes, for all ages, one mile, closed with 73 entries, and has $1 000 added. Starter Sheridan, who has so long wielded the flag, is not in sufficiently robust health to undertake so long a series of races. The managers have secured Mr. James B. Ferguson, of Memphis, to act in that capacity.

Much excitement was caused in the vicinity of the track this afternoon by the capture of a valuable outfit of a nest of wire tappers behind a lumber pile alongside the railroad. They had just established their office and barely escaped arrest. Their horse and buggy was captured, their flight being too hurried to allow them to get away with it.

WELLSVILLE, O., Aug. 26.—[Special.]—The fall races at this place closed to-day, and the only regret was that the last day was so disagreeable. The rain commenced to come down shortly after the races comp and the track was very heavy during the last three hests. The races to-day were the most exciting yet, but the whole four days were voted a success by the public in gen-
