is a Model Prisoner. Harry E. Flann is still in the Western penitentiary serving out the five years' sentence inflicted on him almost three years ago for robbing the Marine National Bank. As exclusively published in yesterday's DISPATCH, a movement is on foot to obtain his release, and everything possible toward that end is being done by both relatives and friends.

Mrs. Kilgore, the mother of Flann's wife. with the sid of Attorney Porte, are doing everything in their power to secure Flann's release. The former has made numerous visits to Washington and elsewhere in the among others and enrolled in the cause sman Dalzell, Mayor Gourley, Chief Brown, Colonel Stone, Mr. Graham, Mr. Witherow, United States District Attorney Lyons, C. L. Magee and a number of promi-nent citizens. On the occasion of her last visit to Washington a meeting had been arranged for her with President Harrison, but Mr. Dalzell thought the time inoppor-tune. Since then herself and Mr. Porte have been doing their best to bring the proper amount of influence to bear upon the President to have Harry Flann released.

Mrs. Kilgore wonders yet why the bank officials did not detect their loss before three years. The boy was only 17 years old she says, when he entered the service of the Marian National Bank and to this loss. the Marine National Bank, and to think that in the course of two and a half or three years he could have taken $30,000 without the amount being missed is more than she can understand. He will have served three years in the penitentiary on the first of next October, and this term with the nine months' comand this term, with the nine months' com-mutation allowed for good behavior, would reduce the sentence to a year and a quarter. To a DISPATCH reporter Deputy Warden McKean, of the penitentiary, said yesterday that young Flann was one of the best behaved prisoners in the institution. He is at present in the clothing department as-
