DOWNED THE GIANTS.

They Made it Warm for Esper, But Terry Fooled Them. William Adams Terry was just brought before the local baseball public in time to up the breach. And it was just at the stage of the game when the change was made that the contest was most exciting, simply because Esper was "falling all to pieces," and it is needless to remark that the Giants are prepared this trip to find out the weak spots of pitchers. They were led to believe yesterday that they could win out, although things went strongly against them in the early part of the game. But the charge of pitchers destroyed their hopes. Farrell was in Great Form.

There were 1150 people present and they saw quite a lively contest. There was some splendid fielding and more hitting than there has been in a local game for some time. Charlie Farrell never in his life played third any better than he did yesterv: in fact, it is not too much to say that nubody else has done better than he did.

The error credited to him was one of the most excusable. It was made on a throw just after making one of the most remarkable stops on record. Of course, Bierbauer was in brilliant form and the visitors played extremely well in the field.

The home players hit better than they that if they could hit the ball steadily they would be well up in the race. Donovan, Shugart and Farrell were in good hitting form, the last named bringing in runs each time he hit the ball. Donovan as usual ran bases well and the first run was almost entirely due to his swift and daring run-

Crane was very wild at times, and that seemed to bother him very much. He had three wild nitches and they were all costly. Ewing, who caught, him wastalso a little feature discouraging to the visitors.

Where Esper Was Rather Wild. Esper was all right until the third inning when he nearly collapsed. He has been very sick of late and that may account for his unstealiness. In the inning named he gave four bases on ball, and strange to say only two runs were made, one of them being forced in by a base on balls. He stuck to his work and did well until the seventh inning when three safe hits were made off his delivery in succession, earning two runs and nobody out. Then Terry took old and no more runs were scored.

The visitors went first to but and in the second half of the first inning Miller reached first on a bad throw by Denny Lyons, Donovan forced Miller out at Smith's sacrifice sent Donovan to second and he stole third and scored on a wild In the last half of the second inning Beck-lev started off with a hot one to left field for three bases and scored on Farrell's single. Farrell got to second on Kelly's sacrifice and scored on Miller's single.

In the next inning Esser sent Boyle and Crane to first on balls, and Fuller's fly was eaught by Esper. Burke got his base on balls filling the bases, and H. Lyons sent up a fly which Bierbauer caught. Doyle made a single coming Boyle and Erine and a single, scoring Boyle and Ewing got his base on balls forcing in a run. Denny Lyons retired the side with the bases full, Bringing in the Runs.

The home players also made two in their half on a base on balls, two wild pitches, singles by Shugart and Farrell and Beck-

In the fourth inning Miller's base on balis, Donovan's single, Smith's sacrifice and a good single to middle by Shugart seared two more runs, and in the sixth inning Donovan's single and steal of second Smith's sacrifice and Shugart's double and Farrell's single scored two more runs. The visitors made one in the fifth on Burke's single and steal of second and a single by H. Lyon's. In the seventh inn-ing Fuller started off with a single and Burke made a two-bagger to right, H. Lyons made a single to left and two runs were in. Doyle had three balls and two strikes called on him and Esper retired, Terrygoing in the box. Doyle got his base on balls and a sacrifice by Ewing sent the runners to second and third respectively But Terry struck both Denny Lyons and O'Rourke out, retiring the side.

In the eighth inning Boyle led off with a triple to right and scored on Futler's sacrifice. Only three hits were made off Terry.

CHARLEY FARRELL crowned himself with glory THE Royal Blues defeated a picked nine at Glen-wood Saturday by 13 to 5.

OUR sluggers are tied for fifth place now. Oh, for a few straight victories. THE team of P. Childs & Co. defeated the Laird & Ray nine by 37 to 3 Saturday. LOCAL baseball cranks should see the Glants play this trip. They are a greatly improved lot. HARRY STEVENS, "the only score man on earth." returned from Columbus yesterday, and everybody in Exposition Park knew it. Ir is being whispered that Mark Baldwin's re-lease will be withdrawn. He is quite willing to pitch for the local team outside of Pittsburg.

THE Our Boys are anxious to play the Hill Tops on Labor Day for a purse of $100, or as much more as they desire to put up; the game to be played on neutral grounds.

THE Dispatch and Commercial Gazette nines will play a chambionship game on the W. A. A. A. grounds at Wikinsburg to-day. Game called at 2:15. Admission free. 2:15. Admission free.

In Sunday's game some of the St. Louis players refused to obey Carruthers' orders, particularly in regard to going on the coaching lines. After the game Carruthers went to Mr. Von der Ahe and asked to be relieved of the captaincy, giving his reasons. Von der Ahe artised, then called his team together and said it would cost a man $50 if he disobeyed Carruthers' orders,

PHIL IN HARD LUCK. Ex-Pittaburger Backs His Horse Heavily to Win and the Bets Are De clared Off and His Racer Is Victorious

-Ho Still Wins About $15,000. SHEEPSHEAD BAY RACE TRACK, Aug. 20.-The weather conditions this afternoon were pretty much the same as those which pre-vailed on Futurity day, but the track was in fairly good shape. The most sensational feature of the sport was Parvenue's victory in the fourth race. Pittsburg Phil, known in private life as George B. Smith, bet on his colt Parvenne, not only at the track and in the city pool rooms, but also in nearly all the rooms throughout the country. Un-fortunately for him an error in the secretary's office which caused Dagonet's weight to be announced as 112 pounds instead of 122, forced the Executive Committee to declare off all bets after booking had been in progress ten minutes. This nullified all of the plunger's bets made in the city and country rooms.

As Parvenue won, Pittsburg Phil only wor what bets he made at the track. The declar ing off of the bets curtailed his winning something like $45,000. He is said to have only bet $1,500 on Parvenue in the second booking at an average price of 10 to 1. Dr. Hashbronck, 3 to 1, took the opening race from Alaho by a neck. The Dash stakes re sulted in a dump for the talent, Ehrets Run-yan, a 50 to 1 chance, winning from Prince George, 6 to 1, and Spartan, 10 to 1. The yan, a 50 to 1 chance, winning from Prince George, 6 to 1, and Spartan, 10 to 1. The tavorite, Minnehaha, finished fourth, Anna, 4 to 1, captured the third by a head in a pretty finish with Mary Stone, and Parvenue, 12 to 1, won the fourth for Pittsburg Phil. Batsman, 10 to 1, came near taking the fifth, but Hamilton outrode A. Clayton and won with Lord Dalmeny, 7 to 2.

When Littlefield failed to land Anna B. winner of the last race, the record of six defeated first choices in the betting was complete, Tom Redgers, 7 to 2, taking the race in clever style from Madrid. 6 to 1 Summaries:

BELLE FLOWER WINS.

Captures the $10,000 Stake for Youngsters at Hartford. HARTFORD, Aug. 29.-A good track and a warm air made it favorable for trotting at Charter Oak Park to-day, where the 3-year-old colt race for a $10,000 stake was decided. The race was postponed from last week on account of the weather. About 2,000 people were present. Before the first heat Trevilian sold a strong favorite and when he had taken a heat he was still stronger in the pools. A different face was put on the mat-ter when Belle Flower took the second heat and after she had two to her credit no one would bet against her. She won the last

PLENTY OF CORBETT MONEY,

But Sullivan's Boston Friends Won't Put Up the Desired Odds. Boston, Aug. 20.—[Special.]—There is plenty of Corbett money to be had of local sports at odds of 10 to 6, but the Sullivan people at odds of 10 to 8, but the Sullivan people are very sly of accepting any bets at that odds. Mr. John Morrissey, of the Rossmore, has $1,200 to wage against $3,000 or Sullivan's money, with no takers. Captain Cook holds $600 to bet at the same odds, and as yet has liad no offers.

An enthusiast offered a bona fide bet of $1,000 to $500 on Sullivan, fight or pay, but would not bet otherwise. No doubt his money will be soon covered on those terms, as it is the belief of Corbett's admirers that under no circumstances will he fall to come DEFECT REMEDIED.

The L. A. W. Amends the Rules Relative to Suspended Members.

SUNDAY RACING NOT FAVORED. Corbett and McCaffrey Meet, but They Fail to Come to Terms.

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—The Racing Board of the League of American Wheelmen has been making a careful study of its rules the past week, and the discovery was made that if a man disregarded a penalty of suspension placed upon him, the board had not provided for such a case and could do nothing. No time was lost, however, to remedy the defect by the adoption of the following rule: "Any person under suspension who shall enter or compete in any race in public or for a prize, shall be liable to further suspension for such contempt of rules, at the discretion of the National Racing Board." The knowledge of the fact that all the men who are under suspension could have gone on and competed will be a sad blow to some of the men, who will now learn the fact too late to break out and defy the board.

The action of a certain referee who recently officiated at a meet in Philadelphia in allowing the scratch men to ride in the final without qualifying for the same in the trial heats has been taken up by the board and his decision adversely commented upon and amendments to the racing rules adopted that will prevent any such action on the part of referees in future. It is decided by the board that such discrimination is manifestly unfair to the other men in a race to allow such a method of procedure to gain prominence. Such a decision on the part of a referee proposes handicap men to ride twice the distance to win a race that the scratch men cover. It has been known for some time that the Racing Board was considering the advis-ability of appointing official timers, and also investigating the wisdom of continuing the present method of running the cham-pionship events. The outcome of the de-liberations on these points is interesting, inasmuch as it puts the board on record, and will be seriously acted upon by the next board. As regards official timers, it has been decided not to appoint them this season owing to the lateness, and as the territory to be covered in this country is so much greater than that abroad, where the system is in vogue, it would be foolish to attempt to properly cover the ground until a thorough districting of the country could be made. The matter is therefore recom-mended to the next board with the sugges-tion that such a system be adopted.

Official declaration is made that the present system of championships, open to winters of division championships only, is not the most desirable method, and the recomthe most desirable method, and the recom-mendation made that they be thrown open to the world. This is the proper meaning of the championship term in its broadest sense, and should prevail. Next year they will undoubtedly be run that way.

It has been decided not to sanction bicy-cle races scheduled for Sundays. The rea-son for this move is that it is believed the sport cannot be elevated by such events, and they should be discouraged by the board.

THEY COULDN'T AGREE.

James J. Corbett and Dominick Mc Caffrey, accompanied by their respective backers met at Madison Square Garden to McCaffrey was accompanied by Captain Van Schaick, of the Manhattan, who said he would give the $2,000 purse and bet $5,000 that Corbett could not stop McCaffrey within the four rounds. Corbett denied that he had made any such offer, whereupon McCaffrey exclaimed: "Why, it has been in all the papers," at the same time tapping Corbett on the arm with a folded newspaper he was carrying.

"Don't you touch me," cried Corbett excitedly; "keep that paper off me," and with that he moved his chair, on which he sat facing the back, close up to McCaffrey. "Does it hurt, Jim," asked Dominick, sar-At that Corbett made a move as though to draw back his right hand for a blow, but his better judgment prevailed, and he only remarked: "Don't try to monkey with me, or I'll chuck you out of that window."

"I guess I can protect myself," replied McCaffrey. Then Corbett demanded to know if McCaffrey had satted that the Californian had beaten McCaffrey only by a scratch when they met in Brooklyn three years ago.

and Corbett told him to shutup. James was certainly on a very high horse, as a man who is trained up to a high tension is apt to be. He finally offered to box McCaffrey four rounds before the club giving the largest purse, the man having the best of it to get the decision, and he would bet the amount of the purse that he would hanck McCaffrey out. The latter insisted upon the original proposition, so nothing was agreed upon.

CORBETT'S EXHIBITION.

The Rival of Sullivan Pleases the Sports by His Athletic Exercises,

New York, Aug. 29.-Corbett's reception in Madison Square Garden was on to-day. It started at 11:30. Long before that hour more than 1,000 sports were waiting at the enclusions with Sullivan at New Orleans on September 7. Corbett is giving an exhibition of his methods of training so that his admirers can see what he can do. The crowd rushed in when the doors were opened, while the sounds from the hammers of the carpenters filled the garden as they erected the arena for the event of the evening when the exhibition proper begins.

At 12 o'clock Corbett began to give an exhibition of his method of training at the Madison Square Garden. As he stood there in the center of the great auditorium he looked the perfect specimen of physical health that he is, seemingly not having an ounce of surplus flesh. He wore the self-same dress that he will don at the great fight next week. They were not a harmonious combination, for the stockings were green, the trunks white and the short, sleeveless, tight-fitting shirt of a delicate pink. The sports present made many exclamations of wonder and delight as they eyed critically the physical perfection of the Calliornian.

The various appliances of gymnastic use was scattered about the floor of the garden, and Corbett's programme was to show his admirers the exact methods he has employed in the training of the past few weeks. The first part of the programme was to show his admirers the exact methods he has employed in the training of the past few weeks. The first part of the programme was the tossing of a football and the leather spheroid flew back and forth across the floor between the "Big One" and his trainer much to the delight of the audience.

In the afternoon Corbett and Lawlor played a game of handball, the latter winning by 21 to 14. Corbett was pronounced a splendid all-round athlete by all who saw him. The day's entertainment was a great success. September 7. Corbett is giving an exhibition of his methods of training so that his

THE TENNIS EXPERTS.

Hovey Defeats Wrenn in a Very Exciting

Contest at Newport. NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 29.—The weather for tennis was as good almost to-day as that of Friday and Saturday was bad, and the courts were restored to their usual excellent condition. The crowd was by far the largest of the tournament. Play began a few minutes be ore 11 o'clock between Hovey and Wrenn. Wrenn had the service and lost the first point. Then the points vibrated regularly between the two, both playing a strong and careful game. both playing a strong and careful game. Hovey went oftenest to the net and was effective there, though his play was not so fast and dashing in style as he has shown many times. He was evidently playing with more care than is usual with him, and taking fewer desperate chances. He showed excellent cross-court work and good judgment in placing, though with a surprising tandency to drop balls on easy strokes just excellent cross-court work and good judgment in placing, though with a surprising tendency to drop balls on easy strokes just outside the lines. Wrenn's playing was strong and even, more upon the back line than he ever is, and not so taking in style, but with a get-there quality in it. But for his difficulty in handling the service his work was as good all around as that of the older man. With the games, four-all, Wrenn lost on his own service and then as usual, could not score against Hovey's cannon ball drives and so lost the set, 54.

The second set was characterized by much the same sort of play. The games were won each by the player serving until tall was reached as in the first set. Then Wrenn lost on his own service, and Hovey had his opportunity. But he failed to rise to the occasion. The game was long drawn out, but finally went to Wrenn, Hovey's service doing him but little good now. It was games-all, and Hovey again won on the others' service. It looked as though the score would again be evened up, but a'ter a long game Hovey several times needed but a point, and deuce was called more than once. Wrenn finally drove the bail into the net and lost the set 7.5. The third set was somewhat different. Wrenn tell off somewhat, though still stendily contesting each and every point. Hovey played more carefully, but fully as strong in this set, and as a result took the set and the match.

The match between Larned and E. T. Hall was a more than usually good exhibition. Hall started in at a fast pace and easily ran away with the first set. He then dropped off and Larned, who had been somewhat nervous at first, braced wonderfully. He took the second set love and got a good lead in the third before Hall regained his game. It was too late though and this also went to Larned. Hall showed his usual improvement in the fourth and by superior work ran out, 61. The fifth and deciding set looked like Hall's, as after the score stood 2-all, he carried it to 4-2 and 5-3, but Larned stayed well and soon had the score even ag won, 8-6.

It was a grand exhibition of plucky up-hill work, and the match was won on the merits of the play, which was strong and even brilliant on both sides. The result was another surprise, though a few had though it likely Larned might win. The outcome of the final match is now much discussed Hovey is the favorite, though Larned's remarkable work causes many to look upon him as a possible winner.

LITTLE WASHINGTON RACES.

Great Time Expected To-Day When Local Trotters Meet. WASHINGTON, PA., Aug. 29.-The fair of the Western Pennsylvania Agricultural Society opened to-day, under very auspicious circum-stances, and now all that is needed is the present good weather to continue to make it one of the largest and most successful fairs ever held in Washington county. The whole day was occupied by completing the decorations and getting everything in shape. The main halls were beautifully decorated, and this evening present a beautiful appear ance. The stands are all erected, and the usual amount of gingerbread and lemonade will be sold during the week. Train after train load of cattle arrived and every pen and stall on the grounds is now filled with and stall on the grounds is now liked with cattle, sheep, horses, awine, chickens, etc., of such classes that have made Washington county renowned for years. In the main buildings are splendid exhibitions of this year's fruit and the display this year of vegetables is very large.

Nothing attractive occurred to-day, but to-morrow the sports will begin, and the-ealone will draw thousands of people. The races this year will be unusually good, and some very good horses are entered in the different events. The first race of the pre-races this year will be unusually good, and some very good herses are entered in the different events. The first race of the programme is the yearling stake, foals of 1891, with four entries. There are 11 entries in the 300 trot for a purse of $500, and among them are two horses owned by H. S. Stewart, of Homewood, Pa.; Alcyon Chief, owned by Coulson Brothers, of Monongahela City, and Lottie, owned by G. W. Heffley, of Somerset, Pa. One of the best races on the programme is the 2:25 race, with Raven, H. S. Stewart, Homewood; Prince Columbia, S. Tooney, Canai Dover, O.; Greenhorn, James I. Gormley, Pittsburg, and -am Webb, owned by J. W. Patterson, Aurora, O., entered.

There are four horses entered in a race for Washington county horses alone, which will be interesting owing to the rivalry between them. In the balance of the races the following well known horses will take part: Sam Cohen, Lonerbaugh and White, Wilkinsburg; George Stice, Harry Boorey, Chambersburg: Harri Hylas, Harry Boorey, Chambersburg: Harri Hylas, Harry Boorey, Chambersburg: Harri Hylas, Harry Boorey, Minerva, O.; Peter R. H. S. Stewart, Homestend; Mambrino Prince, William Allen, Everson and Happy Wanderer, Joseph H. Ellsworth, Washington, Pa. On Thursday, which is always considered the big day, it is anticipated that not less than a crowd of 15,000 will be present.

The Athletes at Detroit.

DETROIT, Aug. 29.—A great crowd gathered at the Exposition grounds to-day to witness the championship games of the Central A. A. U. There were present and participating many prominent amateur athletes from clubs of other States, and a very interesting programme of events was given. The events were as follows:

How the Striking Lehtgh Switchmen Are Getting Their Old Situations. PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 29.—President McLeod said to-day that the Reading Company had issued no orders to the men on the Lehigh Valley road to either leave their unions or the company's empoly. Mr. McLoed said in the cases of the men involved in the recent switchmen s strike that those who were being switchmen strike that those who were being again taken into the employ of the company were engaged with the understanding that they must sever their connection with the union to which they belonged. The report that the Lehigh Valley men had been given the option of leaving their unions or being discharged probably arose from the fact that the Reading intends to introduce the relief association now in verne on its wait. relief association now in vogue on its mair line among the Lehigh Valley employes.

three times these prices. Misses' and Children's Percale Waists at 50c that were $1.35 and Children's very fine long Cloth Coats, 2, 3 and 4 years sizes, now $3 and $5. About half their value, perhaps not that.

A lot of jaunty lightweight Jackets, pretty styles, at $2 and $3. Only a little more than one-third their former prices.

A lot of Cashmere Dresses, all sizes from 4 to 12 years, at $5 now, reduced from $8 and $9. And other bargains will be found here because this is a Clearance Sale of all present stock. In another week we shall need every inch of room, and we have now made prices that will surely give it to us.

JOS. HORNE & CO.,

WHEN YOU GET AN OPPORTUNITY Such as our August Clearance Sale affords you, don't lose it. Chances like these only happen once in a life-

Our immense stock for the coming fall season is crowding us; we must make room, and no sacrifice is too large. We are selling Suits and Pants regardless of cost. Convince yourself; it's your duty, before you spend a dollar. Fine Home-made suits, worth $18.00 and $20.00, reduced to $15.00. Regular $15 Suits down to $12.00, and splendid $12.00 and $10.00 Suits go at $8.00.

In Our Pants Department

More sweeping reductions have been make. It's hardly believable, but it's true. Our all-wool, "The Favorite," Home-made Pants at $2.25 barely pays for the material. See these goods whether you wish to buy or not.
