HIS LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE DELAYED

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR.] NEW YORK, Aug. 31 .- President Harrison, who came down from Loon Lake this morning to spend the day at Whitelaw Reid's country residence at White Plains, intended to start back to-morrow morning, making half a dozen speeches on the way. At dark last evening by direction of the President Charles W. Hackett, Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, announced that the return trip

New York. The President informed Mr. Hackett that he felt it to be his duty to be in Washington, wither he would proceed immediately. The speechmaking trip and the reception at Herkimer, ex-Senator Warner Mitler's home, will come later. The President telegraphed Mrs. Harrison of the gravity of the situation and left White Plains to-night for Washington. Chairman Hackett telegraphed to all points in the itinerary made up for the President announcing the necessity for the change in the programme.

Warmly Greeted by Mr. Reid. The President's train was an hour late this morning, and was flagged at Mott Haven to allow Chairman Thomas Henry Carter and Russell Harrison, the President's son, to get aboard. The President and his Private Secretary, Elijah M. Hal-ford, and Chief Clerk Tibbotts greeted the visitors. The train followed one on which were Chairman Brookfield, of the Republican State Committee; General Sam Thomas, Treasurer of the same body, and Mr.

White Plains has been astir since daybreak. Mr. Reid himself had been at the station an hour or more. He, with Mr. Brookfield, Mr. Hackett, General Thomas and Bartholomew Gedney, 91 years old, waited for the President's appearance upon the arrival of the train, and when there was an apparent delay, Mr. Reid entered the car and soon reappeared with the Presi-

Mr. Carter led the way, and as the President stepped from the car a cheer went up from the little army of hosts. Mr. Reid's home was reached shortly after 10 o'clock, and on the porch were Mrs. Reid, Miss Reid and the two youngest children, Ogden Mills Reid and Jean Templeton Reid, together with their grandfather, G. Ogden Mills. The President's welcome was of the heartiest description.

statesmen Present to Meet Him.

Mr. Carter had left the President at the station, returning to National Headquar-ters. He returned later in the day with General James S. Clarkson. The President had a short talk with Mr. Brookfield, Mr. Hackett and General Thomas over the Republican situation in New York State, and just at its close a closed carriage rolled under the granite porch and out stepped Senator Thomas C. Platt, accompanied by John E. Millholland. Mr. Reid appeared on the porch and greeted the Tioga chieftain heartily.

The President grasped Mr. Platt's hand and there was the heartiest of handshakes. Mr. Reid retired leaving the President and Mr. Platt to confer privately. The conver-sation between them ran on for nearly two hours, and by that time luncheon was ready, at which were present Mr. Platt, Senator Nelson W. Aldrich, of Rhode Island; Mr. Reid, Mr. Mills, Private Secretary Haltord, Mrs. Reid, Miss Reid; the retary Hallord, Mrs. Rein, Miss. Rein; the two young children, Ogden and Jean; Mr. Milbolland and C. W. Tyson, Mr. Reid's private secretary. Luncheon over Mr. Platt and Mr. Millholland returned to New Bis Accepiance Not Forthcoming. Senator Aldrich conferred with the President concerning certain points in the letter on the tariff question. Many had been led to believe that the President's letter of acceptance was to be handed out yesterday. He brought a rough draft of the document with him from Loon Lake.

The letter, though, will not be forthcoming for several days yet, and the President's trip to Washington will probably delay its appearance. After it has been sent broadeast over the country Mr. Reid will issue his

KERE SURE OF NOMINATION.

McAleer Men Will Ho d a Convention of

Their Own, Though, in Philadelphia. PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31. - [Special.]-Temporary Chairman William Van Osten this afternoon sat from 2 until 5 o'clock at 309 Cherry street and received credentials of delegates to the Third District Congressional Convention which meets at 10 o'clock to-morrow in National Guards'
Hall. Both the Kerr and McAleer factions presented credentials from wards in which there were contests, and after carefully considering all the eircumstances, Chairman Van Osten deeided to issue tickets to Kerr delegates from the Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Seven-teenth wards, and to McAleer delegates from the Eleventh, Twelth and Sixteenth

This will give Kerr 22 of the 34 votes in the convention and insure his nomination, but it is generally understood that the McAleer men will hold a convention of their own and renominate the Congressman, as they insist that delegates favorable to their candidate were elected in every ward except the Sixth, where no fight was made. To-morrow's convention promises to be ex-ceedingly lively before the McAleer men in the care and education of children. We oppose sumptuary laws as unnecessary and unwise interference with individual liberty." It indorses the nomination of Cleveland and Stevenson.

End of the Week at Bedford. BEDFORD, PA., Aug. 31. -[Special.]-The Congressional conference held two sessions to-day, and, after taking four ballots, adjourned to meet to-morrow. Strong Pintform. MILWAUKEE, Aug. 31.—The Academy of Music this afternoon contained one of the largest and most enthusiastic gatherings of Democrats ever held in the State. It is the first State Convention since the one which preceded the political landslide two years ago. The platform is devoted chiefly to State issues. Is concludes as follows: "We are opposed to and will combat the abhor-rent doctrine of centralization and paternal-ism and all misohievous meddling with rights of conscience and religion, especially in the care and education of children.

After the adoption of the platform, the entire ticket was renominated in one speech made by Thomas F. Frawley, of Eau Claire. Following were the principal nominations: Governor, George W. Peck, of Milwaukee; Lieutenant Governor, Carl Jonas, of Racine; Secretary of State, T. J. Cunninghum, of Chippewa; State Treasurer, John Hunner, of Eau Claire; Attorney General, J. L. Connor, of Dane. Connor, of Dane.

How the Faltsburg Conference Nearly Camto an Untim ly End.

SALTSBURG, PA., Aug. 31.-[Special.]-The comedy of errors in the conference here is still on. To-day witnessed some lively balloting and the nomination looked very near several times, and one vote would have decided the business, but as usual they struck a snag at this point. The politicians were on the run to-day and really worked hard, but the result was 24 additional ballots, with a grand total of 337.

Then a proposition was made to submit the affair to the State Democratic Committee for settlement, but this was lost. An effort to place the matter in the hands of the National Democratic Committee resulted also in a tie vote and was lost in despair. The conferees adjourned subject to an order from the Chairman.

SOME UNFORTUNATE MEN.

The Accidents Which Occurred in the Cities Yesterday.

About 9 o'clock last night Andrew Nightling, of Bouquet street, Oakland, was struck and seriously injured on Liberty street by Birmingham electric car No. 21. He is employed by William McKnight, a city contractor, and was engaged with a gang of men cleaning the street near the depot when the car ran into him. He received two bad cuts on the head and his arms and legs were nearly flayed. He was carried into Central Police Station, but Sergeant Gray, fearing he might be hurt internally, had him co veyed to the Homeopathic Hospital. His injuries are not fatal. Other accidents of the day were as follows:

the day were as follows:

Winelang—W. C. Winelang, of Lawrence ville, a fireman on the Pennsylvania Railroad, made a step backward to obtain a shovelful of coal on his engine yesterday, while passing Burrell station, and a sudden lurch of the engine threw him to the rails. The train was stopped and the trainmen ran back to find the man. He was conscious and only injured by being bruised on the back. He will recover.

DEMING—Harry Deming dislocated his arm and was cut about the eye yesterday by falling off his wheel while attempting to turn the corner at Dennison and Fifth avenues.

WAGNER-August Wagner, of Twenty-seventh ward, had some heavy iron beams fall on him at Oliver's Fifteenth street mill, sall on him at Oliver's Fifteenth street mill, crushing his leg and foot severely. He was removed to the Homeopathic Hospital.

Yoden—George Yoder, a resident of Wall station and a brakeman on the Pennsylvania Hailroad, fell off a train in the yards at Wall yesterday and the wheels passed over his left leg. He also fractured the right leg. He was taken to the West Penn Hospital.

Thompson—C. J. Thompson, an employe at the Pittsburt Locomotive Works, Beaver avenue. Allegheny, had his left hand severely cut yesterday by a saw. He was sent to the Allegheny General Hospital, where four fingers had to be amountated.

Halle—Martin Haley, who lives on Washington street, fell down a flight of steps and broke his leg yesterday afternoon. He was taken to the Mercy Hospital.

A. N. Dilferbough, York, Neb., says: A. N. Differbough, 10th, "The other day I came home and found my little boy down with cholera morbus, my little boy down with cholera morbus, my hat to do. I wife scared, not knowing what to do. I went straightway and got a 25-cent bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diar-rhora Remedy, and gave it according to directions. You never saw such a change in a child. His limbs and body were cold. I rubbed his limbs and body with my hands, and after I had given him the second dose he went to sleep, and, as my wife says, 'from a deathbed he was up playing in three hours.' It saved me a doctor bill of about $3, and, what is better, it saved my child. I can recommend it with a clear conscience." For sale by druggists.

ANTI-TARIFF REASONS.

Grangers Listen to a Talk Antagonistic to McKinley's Law

FROM A FREE TRADE ORATOR.

The Purchasing Power of Wages Teed to Eustain Hrs Position.

SOFT-SOAPING THE AGRICULTURISTS

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR.1 WILLIAMS GROVE, Aug. 31.—The crowd at the Grangers' picnic to-day numbered at least 12,000 people, in addition to the 4,000 who are camped in the grove. The scores of exhibitors were kept busy setting forth the merits of their wares, and the fakirs never worked harder to bleed the mass of people. Those partial to speechmaking were entertained morning, afternoon and evening in the large auditorium, capable of eating 2,000 persons.

The principal topics discussed were the tariff and prohibition. Congressman Brosius, of Laucaster, was among the orators. He, in the main, duplicated his speech at Mt. Gretna at the farmers' encampment, in which he urged the farmers to participate actively in the primaries, in order that good men might be sent to legislative halls.

He was followed by Senator Brown, of York, in a speech in opposition to the Mc-Kinley law, which he said had not been beneficial to either the agriculturist or the mechanic. Incidental reference was made to the depressed condition of agriculture, after which he presented figures to prove his position. There was no justification for the increase of the average duty from 47 per cent to 60 per cent in view of the fact that the census of 1880 showed that manufactur-ers made a profit of $1,025,000,000 on $5,370.-000,000 capital invested in their plants.

Wages Compared With Expanses. These profits amounted to 20 per cent, while labor received only 18 per cent as its share. The average daily wages was $1 10, and the average daily profit to the manulacturer on each man's labor was $1 30. "Even if wages were twice as high in England (which they are not)," said Senator Brown, "why tax us 60 per cent to pay a difference in wages of only 9 per cent. To demonstrate the insincerity of the plea, made by the protected interests, that they ask this sacrifice on the part of consumers solely for the benefit of wage earners, we will take the steel rail industry as an ex-

"In the 1880's there were 17 corporations engaged in manufacturing steel rails under the Bessemer open hearth process. Their competition brought down the price from $120 to $25 per ton. The next step was to consolidate, cheapen and limit production to the requirements of the American markets. The Bessemer steel trust has eliminated 11 of the 17 companies and there are now only six in operation. They have a total annual capacity of 3,145,000 tons. The price established by the trust is $30 per ton and would amount to $94,350,000 a year.

Benefits as He Finds Them. "The tariff of $1,344 benefits the producers to the extent of $42,268,000. The total cost of production is about $20 per ton or $62,-900,000; the balance profit over cost is $31,-450,000, or 36 per cent.

"Mr. Frick refused to give the labor cost

"Mr. Frick refused to give the labor cost to the Congressional Committee, but Mr. Carroll D. Wright, present Labor Commissioner of the United States, has ascertained it to be $12 20 per ton and its total amount caunot exceed $37,302,000, so that the tariff protection overlabor is not less than $4,466,000, which should go to the account of the labor each year, if the steel operators were houset in their registers but interest. were honest in their position; but instead, it is retained as additional profit, and this accounts for the auxiety of the trust for a protective tariff."

Senator Brown charged that McKinley, to enlist the wool farmers under his banner, had increased the tariff on wool, and the result was a drop in the price of that article of from 30 to 5 cents a pound, the lowest point reached within the memory of any living sheep farmer.

The Purchasing Power of Vages,

Statistics were presented to demonstrate that woolen blankets sold in England by the retailer at $4 32, on account of increased duty cost $9 65 in this country, which, said Senator Brown, "must be paid by the American consumer, be he farmer or mechanic, unless be can afford to make a trip to Europe every season and make all expenses clear in replenishing his wardrobe, as thousands of our aristocracy do.

"Is it not plain that the difference in the purchasing power of wages here and there so far as woolen biankets are concerned, must be calculated thus? When the Englishman is paid $10 the American should receive $22 38. Where the American work-man gets $10 his English competitor need only have $4 41. The price of wheat to the farmer in the Midland counties of England now is about 95 cents per bushel. The farmer of Central Pennsylvania is getting to-day 70 cents, but to be on equal term with his English brother in buying his blankets, hats, clothes, carpets, bedding, etc., he should be able to get at least $1 64

"And this same disastrous discrimination against the farmer, unfortunate enough to work in this free country, is applied to more than 1,800 different articles." Senator Brown ridiculed reciprocity as a remedy for depression. It was retaliation on our own people instead of reciprocity. Rev. Anna Shaw, of Massachusetts, llvered an address on prohibition in the afternoon to a large audience.
