DEMOCRATIC WESTERNERS AT WORK

INPECTAL TELEGRAN'TO THE DISPATCE. NEW YORK, Sept. 1.-It is a dull day at National Republicau and Democratic headquarters that does not see a half dozen Pennsylvania politicians at each place. They go in and out at Nos. 538 and 139 Fifth avenue, assured of the warmest kind of greeting, as each place is chock full of Pennsylvanians. Chairman Harrity, indeed, has trouble in keeping them away, and when Jimmy Oliver asks the visitor for a card the Keystone State man who waits to grasp Harrity's hand takes it as a personal affront. Chairman Carter walked into his little den this morning before he had finished his after-breakfast cigar, and went to work with a vim. The President's visit has had its effect already, and has enthused everybody with confidence. Mr. Platt is in line and goes in and out at headquarters in a way that shows he has no idea of sulking.

National Committeman Martin, of Pennsylvania, who can do more vigorous work in an hour than most men can do in a day, says that beginning next Monday, he intends to take his coat off and will spend his time at headquarters helping things along. Mr. Carter says he does not know anybody he would rather have about than Mr. Mar-

The great cholera scare is having its effect even in politics, and the managers here are wondering how long it is going to last. President Harrison's prompt attention to duty in leaving the city and going to Washington to consider what can be done to keep out the plague is considered an excellent move, and while the opposition sneers at what it calls an attempt to ring cholers into the campaign, Chairman Carter is not worrying. He says the con-servative business sense of this country will applaud the President's action, without looking behind it for political significance. It is thought at headquarters that Presi-dent Harrison's call to Washington will not delay his letter of acceptance more than a day or two, if it is delayed at all. The draft of it is completed and has been submitted to the party managers. As the let-ter will contain reference to the issues upon which the campaign is to be tought, there is urgent necessity for its appearance. Upon its receipt, the campaign will be pushed more vigorously than ever. Ex-Senator Palmer, of Michigan, Presi-dent of the National Commission of the World's Fair, was closeted with Mr. Carter to-day. Ex-Senator Palmer brought a great deal of cheeriul views from the North-west. He said Illinois was so solidly Republican as ever, and that the Democrats were chasing rainbows in Wisconsin, Michigan and Iowa. He said the Northwest was firmly anchored in the Republican column.

P+ck's Report a Big Boom-raug.

Labor Commissioner Peck's report is still acting as the worst sort of a bombshell, and does not seem to have spent its force. Peck has been so close to Hill that the Senator will have to open his mouth now, unless he wants it to be believed that he unices he wants it to be believed that he was not wholly averse to seeing the fire-works touched off. It is undoubtedly a very serious document for the Democracy in this State, and will do an immense amount of good to the Republican cause. Coming as it did come, the executive officers of the National Republican Committee do county than ever before, as no has recently bought an ancestral estate in this section, and is likely to make it his home. There will be a somewhat bitter fight at the primaries on Saturday on the issue of instructing for Quay; but the Quay cam-paign has been managed with great skill, and all the party machinery is in first class working order in his cause, and Quay has not been idle himself. During last week, a lithermethic even of a latter from him has a lithographic copy of a letter from him has been received by every active Republican worker in the county. The letters are ex-hibited by many in this region, and are as follows

UNITED STATES SENATE, WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 27. MT DEAR SIE-Knowing you to be a stanch and active Republicau, I write to ask your attention to the political situation in your county. As it has come to my knowledge that a popular vote on the United States Senatorship will be taken at the primaries to be held Saturiay. September 3, it is nut-ural that I should desire to be sustained by the Republicans of your county. Permit me nral that I should desire to be sustained by the Republicans of vour county. Permit me to assure you that I will be gratified to have your vote on the date named, and that, moreover, I will be obliged if you will en-deavor to induce your Republican neighbors to go to the polis and east their votes for me. Thanking you in advance, I am, Yours very truly, M. S. QUAY.

While there is now no doubt as to the success of the proposed Quay instruction over Dalzell by a large majority, it is not clear that the novement will prove to be a wise one. Indeed, it is quite possible even in the beat of a Presidental contest that the Howard McDonald. Belle Johnson..... Friedrich Eckert. Mary Ann El'as... Frederick McCullough. Mary A. Alexander.... not hesitate to say that they consider it on of the most valuable documents the campaign has yet seen.

Senator Spooner, of Wisconsin, and R. R. Shiel, of Indiana, were at headquarters to-day. Mr. Shiel says that New York is not the only State where the Republicans are hard at work. In the other great battleground, Indiana, he says things are going along splendidly. Still, he will not be averse to any aid the National Committee may see fit to give him.

Chairman Carter says he does not know when President Harrison will return here. He regrets greatly, he says, that he trip, as outlined, was interrupted. The pro-gramme, as far as the President's going to Herkimer, Potsdam and other places is concerned, has been definitely abandoned. General Cyrus Bussey, Assistant Secretary of the Interior, was a very welcome visitor at Republican headquarters to-day. The General is not in very good health, but proposes, nevertheless, to do what he can during the campaign. He said this morn-

Impossible to Stampede the West.

"The attempt of the Democrats to stam-pede the Northwest by talk and a campaign fund will not succeed. The issue in this campaign is free trade and particularly tariff. Democratic success in this country would arrange induction and there the would paralyze industries and throw thou-sands out of employment. Even talk of Democratic success makes capital timid." Republican campaign in this city will be formally opened September 12, the day of the Maine election. It is probable that a monster meeting will be held at Madison Square, and it is proposed to have a tremendous parade. The conferees have resigned themselves to the old style of a few days since, and there is no telling when anything definite will be reached. The surroundings are all that could be desired, and the conferences seem

A telegram from Chicago says: The west-ern branch of the National Democratic Campaign Committee held its first meeting in this city this morning, and later in the day met in conference with the national committeemen or their representatives from the States of Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, North Dakota, South Dakota and Illinois. This conference was general in its character, Don M. Dickinson presided. Among the others in attendance were Ben T. Cable, of Illinois; F. C. Wall, of Wis-ronsin; J. J. Richardson. of Iowa; Michael Doran, of Minnesota; Daniel J. Campan, of Michigan; J. W. Morrison, of Illinois; J. S. Lautekaw, at North Dakota: James S. Michigan, North Dakota, South Dakota and Tesitekow, of North Dakota; James S. Ewing, of Bloomington, Ill., General Stevenson's law partner, and John M. Woods, of South Dakota.

"Will the report of Labor Commissioner Peck have the effect of reopening the old fight between the Hill and Cleveland factions?" was asked of Mr. Dickinson. He replied:

"You may say, and say it as emphatic-ally as you wish, that there are and will be no divisions in the ranks of the New York no divisions in the ranks of the New York Democracy. I know whereof I speak when I say that Senator Hill and Tammany are loyal to the ticket. All opposition to Mr. Cleveland ceased when the convention closed, and now Tammany is working lovally for the ticket. New York to-day is Democratic, because there is absolute har-mony. This, taken in connection with the fact that Mr. Cleveland has an immense personal following, is assurance enough that New York State is all right."
