No Display at the Corner Stone Laying of St. Mary of Mercy,

FATHER SHEEDY'S NEW CHURCH.

Rev. E. S. Farrand Preparing to Leave for Topeka, Kansas.

TOPICS TOUCHED ON BY CITY PASTORS

The corner stone of the new Catholic Church of St. Mary of Mercy, at Ferry street and Third avenue, was laid by : Rev. Father Wall, Vicar General, at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Bishop Phelan was absent from the city. The services were unusually simple. There was no parade and no band. There was good vocal music and the regular corner stone services of the church were performed. The sun shone warm and the celebrants and the people suffered from the heat.

Father Sheedy's church is a celebrated one. It is the old Point Parish. The people are nearly all Irish and are poor. The old brick church, one-story high, was built by the Ames Methodist Episcopal congregation, which sold the house to the Catholic Church and built a new edifice in Hazel-

Two Very Distinguished Pastors.

The parish has had two distinguished pasters, Rev. A. A. Lambing, the historian and antiquarian, now at Wilkinsburg, and Rev. M. M. Sheedy, the present priest, the educator and advocate of temperance. It was because of Father Sheedy's antipathy to display, especially on the Sabbath, that the exercises were so quiet.

Before the hour mentioned 2,000 people had assembled. They stood patiently in the sun or crowded into the shadows of adjoining buildings and piles of brick and with open cigar boxes, into which about $50 was dropped in silver coins. At 3:30 Revs. Wall, Sheedy, Canevin, Kauffman, Galla-gher, Cosgrave, Wertembach, Louis, Carroll nd Cochran issued from the parochial residence next door. Father Wall wore a heavy mantle of golden color, thickly embroidered. The other priests were black robes covered by mantles of white lace. Standing on a platform at the rear of the church sit where there was sinde, the choir of St Paul's Cathedral sang "Gloria in Excelsia."

Laying the Corner Stone The priests then walked out to the corne where the stone lay on its side, ready to be tipped into position. A priest held an un brella over the head of Father Wall while the vicar general read the Latin service, sprinkled consecrated water upon the stone saw it rolled into its place and tapped i with a trowel. The priests then walked around the outer line of the foundation wall de the vicar general sprinkled water all the way.

From the shady platform in the rear addresses were then delivered by Roys. Canevin and Sheedy. The latter plainly revealed his emotion, and earnestly thanked all who had helped to build the new house of God.

The house will be of brick with stone front. There will be a tower S5 feet high. The cost will be $25,000. The pastor promises that in its exterior appearance and its interior finishing and furnishing it will be a thing of beauty.

THE HOPE OF THE CHRISTIAN.

The Whole Life Should Be Consecrated God's Work in This World.

ev. E. S. Farrand, pastor of the Mt Vashington Presbyterlan Church, preached vesterday on "Steadfast and Unmovable," 'If Christ had merely lived," said the reacher. "He would not have amounted to nything to us. If He had only died, as far as our eternal soul's welfare is concerned, it sour eternat sours westare is concerned, it ould not have helped us. Everything spended upon His resurrection. The apostle upon His resurrection. The apostle upon His resurrection. The apostle upon His risen, therefore, we shall fee and receive u reward for our labor in the Lord,"

"It there should be harmony anywhere in the world it should be in the church. A member of the church should make any sacrifice for the good of the brethren. He sacrifice for the good of the brethren. He should bear and forbear. The nearer the pokes in a wheel are to the center the near spokes in a wheel are to the center the nearer they are to one another; so the nearer we are to Christ the nearer we are to one another. Steadfist and Immovable do not have the same meaning. The oak as it stands in the glory of the evening sunshine with the rentle zephyrs swaying through its branches is steadfist. But when the winry blasts sween through the forest it is immovable. So the Christian is steadfist when everything goes well, but is immovable in "The whole life ought to be consecrated to od. The church should see to it that veryone of its members is put to work, ester's motto is a good one: 'At work, all t work, always at work. We would abound so in criticism and talebearing if we would assume the public work. gaged in work worthy the high charock for the Lord is not in vain. We may be see the result now, but we will here-But we must remember that our nation must be in the Lord. Our work must not be tor selfash motives.

"Dionvisius asked his musicians to play for him, offering them a great reward. They did so, he then told them that they had their reward in expectation. The hope that carriet holds out to us is not vain. He says: "My reward is with Me, to give every man as his work shall be."

A LESSON ON OBEDIENCE. A Christian's First Duty Is to Obey the Bible and Its Teachings. " bedience" was the subject of Rev. George T. Street's discourse at the Mt. Washington Baptist Church yesterday. He took his text, "If ye love Me keep My commandments," from John xiv: 15. Rev. Mr. Street said: "Just as the child is obedient to the parent; the soldler to the commander; the employe to the employer, and each in his own sphere retains his moral will; so in a greater sense does the Christian in his

"Christ's teaching here was crystallized in "Carist's teaching nore was crystalized in these His last words to His disciples; He em-bodied in His teachings here the substance of His whole life. As He became obedient to His Father through suffering, and as His obedience led Him to die for men, so these His last teachings were to the end that His disciples might in like manner be obedient to their Henvenly Father. ir Henvenly Father.

"The very title by which His children are called, 'soldiers,' Tollowers,' lights of the world,' 'salt of the earth, 'disciples, all imply likeness to Christ. Oh that Paul's ejaculatory prayer might be the prayer of every Christian. 'Lord, what wilt Thou have me to do.' The Christian declares when he enters the church that the Bible and only the Bible is to be his rule of faith and practice. If the Bible solicits peacefulness, neckness, a hungering and thirsting after righteousness, a yielding to Christ's every command, whether of doctrine, ordinance or life, it is for the Christian to obey. Not to obey these commands and admonitions is fatal to this life and the hope of a blissful one hereafter."

THE ONLY ONE IN PITTSBURG.

A Society That Is Intended to Teach Gospel

Truths to Lattie Children. The Junior Society of the Mt. Washington United Presbyterian Church was reorgan-ized last evening. There are about 50 mem-hers, and it meets once a week. The mempers vary in age from 8 to 15 years. It is the only society of its kind in Pittsburg, the only society of its kind in Pittsburg, and is conducted on an original plan.

The pastor of the church presides, and holds the attention of his hearers by telling liablical stories. The children are then questioned and asked to relate them in their own language. It is intended to take the pance of the Young People's Christian Endeavor Society in other churches for the members who are too young to understand or be interested in the meetings of their clders.

WILL LEAVE FOR KANSAS.

Rev. E. S. Farrand Will Preach His Last Sermon in This City Next Sunday. Rev. E. S. Farrand, of the Mt. Washington Presbyterian Church, has formally tendered his resignation to his congregation and it has been accepted. Mr. Farrand will preach his farewell sermon next Sunday morning.

He will leave for his new charge at Topeks, Kan., as soon as possible, as he has accepted the call to the Westminster Church of that city. He has been pastor of the Mt. Wash-ington Church for about four years.

A VACATION IS NECESSARY.

The Scriptures Teach That a Rest Is Needed for Good Work. Rev. R. H. Hood, of the Mt. Washington United Presbyterian Church, yesterday spoke on "Resting With Jesus." The text was, "Come ve yourselves apart into a desert place and rest yourselves."

"The Christian's life is a race, a warfare," said Rev. Mr. Hood. "therefore his duty is to run, press onward, and fight. But God would sometimes have us rest. God Him-self rested on the seventh day. We are so constructed that this is absolutely neces sary. This rest must be both mental and sary. This rest must be both mental and physical. This is best secured not by inactivity, but by change of surroundings. There must also be a change of powers employed. The rest was not to last too long. Man's destiny is to work. As Christians, this rest should be with Jesus. We should not leave Him behind when we go on a vacation; for He has said to His followers without Me ye can do nothing.

"The rest is to be taken in a desert place. It is sweet to be alone sometimes. Work is "The rest is to be taken in a desert place. It is sweet to be alone sometimes. Work is a necessary condition of rest. The invitation to a full enjoyment of better things was only given after trials and tribulations had been endured and a free and open expression of their experiences had been made to Jesus. It was given to encourage and instruct the disciples.

"The hour of prayer is an hour of rest to the Christian. The Sabbath is a resting place in our daily toil. It follows the labor, toil and anxiety of the week. It affords an opportunity to throw away all care of every day life.

"Annual vacations have become quite common. The mills have their seasons for being shut down. The clerks and merchants have a season for recreation. The school children have their vacations. The minister, as a rule, also leaves his congregation for a search for each year. But the great umber. Collectors went through the crowd | The Proofs of His Supremacy Made Clear to Mankind.

"The earth is His and the fullness there on; the world, and they that dwell thereof," was the text taken by Rev. Mr. Sutherland for his sermon last evening at the Second Presbyterian Church. The reverend gentleman dwelt at length on the differ-ent scourges that had of late years visited the inhabitants of the earth, and contended that man must be of God's creation or He would not have poured His wrath upon them thus. The cholera scourge was only one of many that of late years had swept the earth from end to end. Fire and water had swallowed victim after victim until every Christian country on the globe began to quake in His fear.

The divine providence had saved many even from the very jaws of death, that the church and religion might learn of His power. To every thinking man or woman of to-day there was nothing stronger than power. To every thinking man or woman of to-day there was nothing stronger than the evidence of the Lord's power and supremacy over heaven and earth.

Work and Play on Sunday. Sergeant Cochran, of the Eleventh ward police station, yesterday received a com-plaint against two cigar and toby manufacturers, one having his place at 132 Crawford street and the other at 78 Clark street. The complaint is from a neighbor, who says the men, who employ a number of men and girls, run their shops on Sunday, and that there is singing and dancing going on through the day, disturbing the neighbors. The matter will be investigated.

About 1 o'clock vesterday morning the attention of Officer Murphy was called to the conduct of two men and a woman who were drunk under a coal tipple near the Balti-more and Ohio Railroad at Try street. He arrested them and they gave their names as John Burt, Thomas Bartlett and Annie Smith. Magistrate Gripp sent them to the workhouse for 30 days.

children have their vacations. The minister, as a rule, also leaves his congregation for a short time each year. But the great question is: Are these vacations profitable? This depends upon how the time is spent. If the millworker, the clerk, the merchant, the school children and the minister all come back mentally and physically renewed and able to take up their respective work with renewed zeal and strength, then it is good. This rest is merely a foretaste of the rest that remaineth with the people of God."

It looks as though there was going to be hot opposition among the bakers in their efforts to show a progressive spirit.

A few days ago Marvin announced a new Grandfather's Hat cake, and now Mr. Herd, of the well-known Keystone bakery, in Allegheny, is sending out a delicious little cake that he calls Tariff Reform.

Mr. Herd never lets the grass grow under his feet when it comes to pushing his business, and if Tariff Reform doesn't become a wonderfully popular cake it will not be his fault. Both of these cakes, no doubt, will be for sale at all the first-class grocery stores in a few days,

The programme was an excellent one and well rendered. Among the numbers given were Reeves' paraphrase on "Nearer, My God, to Thee," a selection from Handel's "Hallelujah," Prendi's overture, "Celestial," and Gottschalk's "Lost Hope," One of the most admirable numbers was Berthold Tour's song, "The New Kingdom," given as solos for cornet and euphonium. The selections were all good, and the concert lasted till nearly 5 o'clock.
