EAST LIBERTY, PA., Sept. &.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.-The stock market to-day was rather unsettled in its temper, but there were evidences of more support to prices than the covering of shorts. The movements of importance were still confined to a very few stocks, the narrowness of the market being still very prominent, and the changes in quotations among the general list no wider than usual of late.

A great deal of literature was put out, having for its object the annulling of the excitement over the possible war between the Reading and the Pennsylvania, and to some extent it was successful. While Reading, on very large transactions, was held comparatively firm, the other coalers were again remarkably duli and without quotable change in prices. More was heard about the expected increase in the dividend on Western Union, but it failed to further advance the stock or keep it prominent in the dealings after the end of the forenoon, and the other Gould shares of the forenoon, and the other Gould shares were again quiet, with the single exception of Texas Pacific, which scored some improvement. The Industrials were less prominent in the dealings, but General Electric and Lead preferred were especially strong, while the feature of the railroad list was New England, which disputed with Reading the leadership in activity, and fairly led the market in the extent of its upward movement.

market in the extent of its upward move-ment.

The trading was almost entirely profes-sional and a drive was made at the list late in the day on the rumor that a large order for gold had been received from Germany. There was no apparent support given to prices and the whole list, including New England and the industrials, yielded to the pressure and the forenoon's gains were wiped out with something in addition in most cases. The close was firm, however, on a mally, evidently the result of covering operations. pherations.

Railroad bonds were both stronger and more active to-day, but the trading showed lew leatures of interest. Government bonds were dult and steady.

During the afternoon there were several stories affoat as regards large gold shipments, but they could not be confirmed, though we think that considerable gold will go out before the week is over. The exchange market is very strong and it some of the vessels are released from quarantine we think that $4,000,000 will go out within the next seven days. This will, in turn, make money higher and outht to be felt all through the stock market.

CHICAGO, Sept. 8. - Weakness to-day followed an early bulge in the grain markets and wheat sold 14c lower than last night. Corn back to about the starting point. Oats show a decline of M@ic. Provisions, after quite a show of strength, sagged near the close and show of strength, sagged near the close and quit with a gain of 7%@ioc. Frost talk was the final source of the strength and cholera of the weakness.

Wheat started strong and for a time its friends displayed a good deal of confidence, and aided by the sharp upturn in corn succeeded in advancing prices a fraction. But there was good short selling and general realizing on the advance. Then came the report of a case of cholera in New York City and the price went off %c from the top price early. But this report was soon denied, and the Cincinnati Pric Current's estimate that the crop would not exceed 500,000,000 bushels be-Coming known, the bulls railied and pushed the price back to nearly top figures. But the announcement that the two steamers which had been expected from Europe were in sight and both flying the cholera flag produced another season of depression, under which there was another drop of 1/20.

In corn the opening trades were at 1/20/20 advance and after ruling steady for a moment sold off under free selling by room operators and longs in general 1/20/20. The offerings were well absorbed, being taken by prominent parties and on the indication of frost to-night in the Northwest, there was quite a scramble among shorts, the result being a full cent advance. There is an impression that the Government report Saturday will show some reduction from the August statement.

A part—but just how much it is hard to determine—or Norton-Worthington's line of September oats which has made the shorts very nervous for some time came on the unarket to-day creating a weak feeling and depressing prices.

very nervous for some time came on the market to-day creating a weak feeling and depressing prices.

The provision trade was not disturbed by much outside business. There was goop support and higher prices for all products, but much less action in the market than usual.

Light Trading in Local Securities at the Regular Calls.

THE LEADERS SHOW STRENGTH.

P. & B. Traction the Only One to Show Signs of Weakness.

LOCAL AND GENERAL FINANCIAL NEWS

The market for local securities was dull and lacking in features of prominence today. The first call on 'Change was a waterhaul with respect to sales and the total day's business on the open boards aggregated but 250 shares, 200 of which were La Noria Mining Company at 13e per share, or $26 for the 200. The other transactions were small and in the low-priced shares, the money involved in the total business being only $984 75. The commissions on this business, even figuring an eighth on La Noria, would not much more than pay the daily office expenses of the broker engaged in it, to say nothing of lunch, cigars, street car fare and other little necessaries. From this view the market was a measly one, There was plenty of business in the hands of the plenty of business in the hands of the brokers, however, which could not be executed at the limits set. More or less business was also completed off 'Change, which, if reported, would doubless have brought the day's record up to a full average, and there was special inquiry for some of the leading shares and a special desire to sell others, all of which made the market quite as interesting and important as usual.

The Market's Course. Philadelphia Company sold at 23% and closed at 23% 23%, with a pretty good demand at 23% after the close. People's Pipeage sold at 15% and closed at 15% 216. P. & B. Traction sold at 26 and the close was weak at 25%@26 under considerable pressure weak at 25%@25 under considerable pressure to sell. La Noria Mining Company sold at 13c and closed at 12@14c.

Among the shares that did not figure in the trading, Pleasant Valley Railway, Union Switch and Signal, Airbrake and Duquesne Traction were strong and higher, with the demand most urgent for Duquesne Traction and Union Switch and Signal. P., A. & M. Traction was barely steady at 43% bid, Citizens was offered at 62, Pittsburg at 60, and 50 was bid for Second Avenue Electric. Underground Cable was offered at 79 and U. S. Giass, common and preferred, at 67 and 120 respectively.

Westinghouse Electric second preferred was higher at 36%@37, the close here being at 37 asked, and in New York and Boston at 36% bid.

Gossip of the Street.

A gentleman well-informed on street rail the rumor concerning Pittsburg, Duquesne and Citizens: "I have talked with various people who ought to know all about the re-ported deal, or the probability of one, and they all say they know nothing whatever about it. For myself I believe there is some-thing in the rumor. I am a stockholder, but I think a consolidation with the combine would be advantageous. If there is a purwould be advantageous. If there is a purchase outright, I am satisfied those who control Citizens will get a price satisfactory to all holders. The Central is held by the Holmes crowd, and whatever they do will be for the best interests of all. There will be nothing like irecze-out; minority holders will fare the same as the majority holders will fare the same as the majority holders. The weakness of P. & B. Traction was pronounced at the close and lower prices seemed probable. The floor representative of Whitney & Stephenson offered a round lot persistently and volunteered the information that the stock was going lower. After the close a broker intimated that the market was being manipulated in the interest of a clique who desire to get hold of some cheap stock.

Fresh tips to buy oil were circulated today.

A man who tries to sell the stock of an industrial company which is not listed, says the Wall Street News, has indeed a "permandio for him to dispose of it without a serious loss. His only market is among the insiders who never buy except at their own price, and the seller has either to take it for leave it. His stock is of no earthly use to him as collateral, as banks refuse to accept it in loans, as it has no market quotation. We personally know of a case in point where the director of a prominent industrial, who is the president of a Wall street bank, refused to accept the stock of the company, of which he was a director, as collateral for a loan from one of his regular customers. His reason for doing so when asked was because the stock had no market value.

Heavy Production and Low Prices. MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., Sept. 8.—The North-wes ern Miller says: The mills keep up the manufacture of flour at a tremendous rate. The output last week was 186,150 barrels, The output last week was 186,150 barrels, averaging 31,025 barrels daily, against 189,000 barrels the previous week, 189,565 barrels for the corresponding week in 1891 and 169,925 barrels in 1890. The flour market is without much life. Foreigners are comparatively free bidders for October and November shipment, for both patent and bakers', but they usually want flour on the basis of present prices, and millers as a rule are unwilling to sell in that way. It is urged that the present time is one when the miller ought to be reaping his best profits, and still he is not doing much better than getting cost back for his product.

SEPTEMBER SHOWING WELL

In All Lines of Merchandise - Demand Steadily Increasing, Especially for Courtry Produce-Fruit in Big Supply-Drift of the Markets.

THURSDAY, Sept. 8. So far in September trade has been reported decidedly better than during the corresponding period last month, and the demand is steadily enlarging. Produce commission merchants made better reports to-day than for many weeks past, though any change in their business could not well help being for the better, as the duliness in any change in their business could not well help being for the better, as the duliness in their line was quite pronounced during the past summer. One of the most encouraging leatures of the general situation at present is an improvement in collections.

Pears, peaches, plums and grapes are coming forward freely, but prices are holding up well under a good demand.

The season for watermelous and cantalonges is about ended. The demand is trifing and prices are weak and lower.

Grain and feed show a slight improving tondency, but hay continues weak.

Under date of September 7a Chicago house offers local wholesalers f. o. b. Chicago standard yellow apples, new pack, at $2.60; stand 3 lb do, 3716c; prime Virginia peanuts 3%c per lb; fancy bleached peaches lbc; Turkish prunes, 1892 crop, bags, October shipment from Europe, 6%c.

New barley is moving from first hands a little more freely, says a Chicago paper, yet owing to the lateness of the season spot offerings to date are not at all burdensome. A number of Eastern buyers were nere lately, including some New York maltsters, "feeling the market" with a view to purchasing when receipts show more increase. Speculative trade is stagnant, with September nominally 6266c.

Health officers East and West will inspect daily fruits to be sold at anction to see that nothing overripe or tainted will reach the consumer.

Never before was the production of the woolen mills so large. Many are working overtime on orders, and with an output larger than ever before the factories are closer on orders. The demand is really ahead of the largest production that we have ever had at this season.

TALLY ONE FOR THE PARMER. He Meets a Confidence Man's Cunning and Pistol With a Pitchfork.

NEW CASTLE, Sept. 8. - [Special.] -Farmer John Mitchell lives near Harbor Bridge. Early in August a man wanted him to buy a patent corn shock binder and other machinery. Mr. Mitchell preferred the old style. The fellow left and the incident had escaped Mr. Mitchell's memory until this morning, when a finely dressed stranger came to his tarm and produced a blank order, which was supposed to have been an agreement on the part of Mr. Mitchell to take one gross of binders for $286, with the privilege of selling them at the usual price. To this agreement was attached the name of Mr. Mitchell. The signature that gentleman denied, when the e angry and Mitcheil the note or order, said: "Well, if that is not your signature, per-haps you had better tear it off."

Mr. Mitchell took the note, tore off his name and handed it back to the man, who immediately said in a threatening manner: "Now I have got you where I want you, and I'll have you arrested for robbery. I am a lawyer from Chicago."

The man placed his hand in his pistol pocket, and demanded full settlement of the note. Mr. Mitchell thought the fellow intended to draw a revolver, and he immediately caught up a pitchfork, and told the man if he did not take his hand out of his pocket he would run him through. The stranger did as was ordered, and with the pitchfork at his breast he was compelled to back clear out of the field, get into his buggy and drive away. Freight Crowded Out. .

The Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio roads have decided not to receive any freight at Washington during the G. A. R. encampment. The order will apply from September 14 to the 26th. The Lake Erie has issued a circular to agents not to re-ceive freight between September 10 and 22
