

M'KIRDY IS ACQUITTED

The Ex-Auditor of Allegheny Declared Innocent of Misdemeanor.

JOHN KAYLOR'S TWELVE CRIMES.

Quarter Sessions Judges Hustling Through Their Work.

THE NEWS OF THE COUNTY COURTS

Judge McClung yesterday heard the case of John McKirdy, ex-Auditor of Allegheny, charged with misdemeanor in office, of which, after an interesting trial, he was acquitted.

Knew Nothing of a Commission. Robert McFall, a member of the firm furnishing the hose, was called. He said he was a member of the firm of the Allegheny Coal and Lime Company at the time, but, at McKirdy's instance, went to the Rose Company and contracted for the hose.

W. A. Nicholson, of the Hartley-Rose Belting Company, testified that the hose was furnished through Logan, Gregg & Co. Thomas Parke, a member of the firm of Logan, Gregg & Co., and President of the Allegheny Council, said that he had given the order to the Hartley-Rose Company for the amount of hose, and the money, $98, was paid them by McKirdy.

Mr. McKirdy's Explanation. The case was opened for the defendant by D. E. Patterson, after which Mr. McKirdy took the stand. He admitted the facts as proven by the prosecution, excepting the statement in regard to borrowed money.

CONFESED THEIR GUILT

Prisoners Who Acknowledge Their Fault and Receive Their Sentences. Henry Palmer and Charles Gordon pleaded guilty to aggravated assault and battery on Colonel Gray. Gordon pointed a revolver at Gray while Palmer assaulted him.

Charles Allen was sent to the Huntington Reformatory for the larceny of a tent from J. C. Robinson, of the East End. He pleaded guilty.

C. W. Phalen, who pleaded guilty on Wednesday to the larceny of a pair of scales from "unknown parties," was sentenced 30 days to the workhouse.

Joseph Dougherty pleaded guilty to the charge of aggravated assault and battery on Michael Lowry, of Copeland street. Mr. Lowry is a policeman, and it was alleged that Dougherty had beaten the officer while the latter was arresting him.

Simon Davis was fined $5 and costs for assaulting Lewis Drum. Charles Connors pleaded guilty to the charge of entering the building of P. McCord's tailor shop on Fifth avenue, and was sent to the penitentiary for 18 months.

Henry Leonard pleaded guilty to the larceny of a lot of carpet from A. E. Wells, and will reside at Clearmont for a year. Henry Weaver Monroe, charged with assault and battery on his wife, Alice Vanderpout, pleaded guilty and was sent to the workhouse for four months.

ACQUITTED OF CRIME.

Five of Those Tried Go Through With a Vindiction.

The jury in the case of Lawrence D. Strauss and Louis L. Sattler, the lumbermen charged with conspiracy, yesterday morning returned a verdict of not guilty and placed the costs on the prosecutor, Louis Mosser. The trial was the second one, the jury in the first case disagreeing. It was a hard-fought case, and the defendants, Strauss and Sattler, claim they have finally received a complete vindication, and that their innocence of the charges made against them has been fully established.

ORDERED TO BE SOLD.

The Newell Road Property Cannot Be Divided, Says Master Brown. Marshall Brown, Esq., yesterday filed his report as Master in the partition proceedings brought by Joseph P. Reed to secure a partition of the property known as the "Newell Road House," in the Twenty-second ward. It was owned jointly by Joseph P. Reed, George W. Reed and the late N. P. Reed. The Master returned that the property, comprising 6 100-24,000 acres, could not be divided without injury to the whole.

ADMITTED TO PROBATE.

The Will of John Ballantine, Late of Hoboken, Sustained by the Register. Register Conner yesterday gave his decision in the case of the contested will of the late John Ballantine, of Hoboken. The Register refused the motion for an issue to the Common Pleas court for jury trial and admitted the will to probate.

Ballantine, in his will, gave his wife and daughters a life interest in his property, which, at their deaths, went to his grandchildren. The daughters objected to his probate, claiming testamentary incapacity. The Register, however, ruled against them.

NEW SUITS FILED.

A Bill in Equity by the City of McKeesport Against the Passenger Railway Company—Several Suits for Damages for Personal Injuries.

A bill in equity was filed yesterday by the city of McKeesport against the McKeesport Passenger Railway Company, operated by the McKeesport and Reynolds Passenger Railway Company. The railway company, it was stated, in 1886 was granted a right of way over streets in the city. In 1890 another ordinance of Councils was passed, giving them additional rights, with the proviso that if the company did not have an electric line built over the streets in question and in operation within two years, it forfeited its right to build a railway on such streets as were not then occupied and used.

John Omlauer yesterday entered suit against the Pittsburgh and Birmingham Traction Company for $10,000 damages. He alleges that in July a car of the company's ran into his buggy on Carson street, wrecking the buggy and throwing him out, severely injuring him.

Michael Barrick entered suit against James Gallagher yesterday for $5,000 damages for alleged false arrest.

Martin Kaiser yesterday entered suits in behalf of Walter Woods, Maggie Kelly & Son for damages for injury to the son, who was injured by a keg, owned by the defendants, falling on him on Villa street, Allegheny. The son wants $10,000 and the father $5,000.

Robert Boyd yesterday entered suit against the Schultz Bridge and Iron Company and D. Shaw, foreman, for $10,000 damages for injuries received while in their employ.

Martha A. Karns and others, heirs of John Karns, yesterday entered suit against Thomas Jamieson and Richard Bird for $5,000.

THE GRAND JURY'S WORK.

They Find Thirty-three True Bills and Ignore One.

The grand jury yesterday acted on 34 cases and returned true bills in all but one. The true bills are:

J. W. and Lida Ansel, James Gilderman, John Keesmensch, Charles Reed et al, Samuel Harrowitz, Henry Leonard, James Monroe and Oscar White, larceny; Frederick Perthes, Frederick Beymer, Wm. Morwig, Emma Pearson, Patrick McGarry, Maggie McWilliam, W. C. Stewart, aggravated assault and battery; W. J. Ford; Jacob Grant, James Kagan, aggravated assault and battery; Frank Muller, D. Dougherty and William Schumaker, felonious assault and battery; Thomas Grayson, nuisance; Anne Kirkland, malicious mischief; John Thompson, fraudulently making a written instrument; Albert Bergall, embezzlement; Albert Kaylor, fraudulently making a written instrument; John Connor, entering a building; William Gagan, embezzlement.

TWELVE INDICTMENTS.

John Kaylor, With Many Aliases, Pleads Guilty to the Numerous Charges.

The most important case in court yesterday outside of the John McKirdy case was that of John Kaylor, against whom there were no less than 12 charges. Kaylor was known as J. Albert Berg, John A. Cole, John Kaylor, Emil Berger, James Balston and John A. Lohman. There were two charges of false pretense, four of forgery, one of larceny and five of counterfeiting checks against him.

In June last he forged checks and secured various amounts, ranging from $20 to $50, on false representations. Among his victims were the First National Bank, of Allegheny, and the German and Liberty National Banks of this city. Kaylor pleaded guilty yesterday and will be sentenced today.

To-Day's Trial List.

Criminal Court—Commonwealth vs Henry Palmer (2), Walter Woods, Maggie Kelly & Sons, James McNealley, Tobias Kestner, James Brooks, James Boggs, W. A. Libby, Charles George, James A. Riley (3), George Weisberger.

Hom of the Courts.

There will be 18 candidates for admission to the bar at the opening of courts. General argument court was held by Judges Ewing and White in room No. 3 yesterday.

Whisky Is to Blame.

On June 1, 1892, I weighed 167 pounds and was suffering from indigestion. Had tried many physicians and much medicine. My best physician advised me to use pure whisky and recommended Klein's "Silver Age" whisky. I bought four bottles since then and am rapidly gaining in flesh and feel in excellent spirits. My weight is 138 pounds. I am contented and happy. Klein's whisky is pure and good and believe it restored me to health. J. J. McCURLEY.

CAHENSLYISM DEFENDED.

A German-American Catholic at Mayence Makes a Long Speech in its Favor. BERLIN, Sept. 8.—A meeting of the St. Raphael Society was held Saturday at Mayence.

Mgr. Schroeder, of the Catholic University at Washington, made a long speech, in which he denied all the charges of political intrigue against Herr Cahenaly, and characterized Cahenaly as the restless efforts of a Catholic gentleman to solve an important social question by assisting, according to the principles of the highest humanity and with much self-sacrifice, the emigrants and protecting their property as well as their lives. Drs. Pohl and Cahenaly also made speeches in a similar strain.

A Terrible Runaway Accident.

JOHNSBORO, Sept. 8.—Speedy Stanley Campbell, a farmer living near Ebensburg, was driving along the mountain road last night with some berry pickers when the horses took fright and threw the occupants of the wagon on the rocks. Mr. Campbell was killed and several others injured.

PURE BUTTER,

Growing More Liberal

That's what the human race is doing—particularly the American part of it.

There are a few left who are satisfied with ancient history. But most people are ready to apply modern progress and common-sense to the treatment of the human stomach—an organ that demands its rights whether or no; that resents the insults of worn-out methods. All this is to emphasize the facts about

COTTOLENE

There was once a prejudice against Cottolene oil. But people who are alive, who investigate, who have no bigotry in their composition, have found that pure, refined cottolene oil combined with selected beef suet is a better article in every conceivable way than hog's lard. And so they wisely use it for cooking—and are correspondingly healthy and happy. The sales of COTTOLENE are enormous and constantly increasing; a proof that it is appreciated by appreciative persons.

Ask your grocer for it.
