FISH STORIES.

Thomas Keaton was convicted of the larceny of a pocketbook from Caroline Grainger, of the Southside, and was sent to the workhouse for 30 days. Alfred Craeton pleaded guilty to the larceny of a coat from J. A. Miller, of the East End, and was sentenced to the workhouse for 30 days. James P. Riley was found guilty of the larceny of a wagon, and was sent to the workhouse for a year.

THERE'S SOMETHING FISHY.

In many of the glittering advertisements that appear in our daily papers, the trouble usually being that "truth" is most conspicuous by its absence. One sharp, short "fact" is worth all the vaporings and smoke and fog that divert from the main point the attention of the purchaser. Here is a short story which is neither fishy, scaly nor addressed to the marines: We are selling our Home-Made Black and Fancy Cheviot Suits at $12 and $15. We are not bankrupt, nor will you be if you buy of us. We have had no fire, nor will you get burnt if you select our goods. We did not buy these of an overloaded, hard-up wholesaler, nor are these job lots; but clean home-made clothing, warranted to give entire satisfaction to the last thread. If any repair is needed we'll do the repairing free of charge within one year from date of purchase.

JACKSONS Tailors, Clothiers, Hatters and Furnishers. 954 and 956 LIBERTY ST. Star Corner. Our stock of Fall Overcoats awaits your inspection.

WHY not buy your Fall Overcoat at once?

We have them ready to put on. Will they fit? Are they well made? Are they correct style? How can you know this unless you see for yourself. We believe you have confidence in our statements, we are sure of it—from your continued patronage.

Why not try us for Fall Overcoats? Why not a five or ten dollar bill additional in your exchequer. You'll save that much, our word for it. To-day's story on Made-to-Measure Clothing: We're filled with orders. An increase every day. The goods, prices, our fitting and workmanship must be satisfactory, else we would not be having many more orders than last year.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR Keeps the scalp clean, cool, healthy. The Best Dressing Restores hair which has become thin, faded, or gray. Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co. Lowell, Mass.
