WESTERN UNION WEAK

On the Failure of the Directors to Recommend an Extra Dividend.

READING ACTIVE AND STRONG Gwing to Less Talk of Its Men Going Out on Strike.

RURLINGTON AND NEW ENGLAND FIRM

NEW YORK, Sept. 13 .- The stock market was active in spots to-day, but the dullness in the general list was even more sharply marked than usual of late, and outside of the leading shares there was absolutely nothing in the market.

From the utterances of those in authority there was less prospect of a strike on the Reading lines than appeared yesterday, but the bears laid special stress upon the possibility of a strike as well as the cholera, the growing scarcity of money and the general belief that further beavy shipments of gold will be made as soon as the interruption to transportation offered by the quarantine is removed. The fact that stocks have been so well held in the absence of any organized support and the evident size of the short interest, which is largely among light operators, encouraged the bulls, however, and every concession was the direct result of special pressure by the bears. Western Union was the only prominent stock to show special weakness and even in Reading and St. Paul, which were the leading active stocks, the fluctuations were confined to small fractions after an early rise of % per cent in Reading, the diearly rise of % per cent in heading, the di-rect result of the urgency of the demand to cover shorts. The strength in Reading Bur-lington and New England in the early deal-ings ceased to have any appreciable effect upon the rest of the list.

The action of the Western Union directors

The action of the Western Union directors in failing to recommend an extra dividend, as expected in some quarters, made that stock the weak point in the market in the attenuous, and its loss was material, but it failed to drag anything down with it, and later there was renewed buying of Reading and the industrials, which brought their prices up to materially higher figures than those of the opening. There was, however, no lack of pressure in the grangers, and on comparatively large transactions they all were held within small fractions of their first prices, and the rest of the list remained dull and without movement of importance in either direction.

The forces at work in the market remained quite evenly balanced until the close and

J. S. Bache & Co. to Oakley & Co: "Reading was the only strong stock worthy of note, and it advanced on the report that no strike would be declared. It was not said in which way Mr. McLeod was going to settle the strike question, but if the matter is settled the President of the road must recede from his position. The stock scored a sharp advance in the last quarter of an hour, and a good deal of stock was bought in for the bears. The grangers were weak, the advance in corn and the prediction of frost for Northern Iowa and Illinois having a marked effect. "The market has had a pretty good ham-moving the last lew days, and a small rall; may be engineered to squeeze out the short interest; still, we believe stocks will go lower before any substantial rise can take place, as conditions are unfavorable."

A BULGE IN CORN.

Jack Frost an Important Factor in the Market Just Now - Wheat, Oats and Provisions Follow Corn - Crop News Generally Bearlsh.

Chicago, Sept. 13 - A bules of over to a bushei, with much attendant excitement, was witnessed in the corn pit to-day. The advance was largely due to the report of frosts last night, which it was thought must have materially injured the erop and more and severer frosts were feared to-night. This taken in connection with the tate Govern-men report, made shorts alarmed and started a big line of covering. All the other markets on the floor were more or less at-lected by the action of the corn market.

Improvements over yesterday's closing quotations were effected as follows: Wheat, about 1/4c; corn, 11/4c; oats, 1/4c; pork from 10

Improvements over yesterday's closing quotations were effected as follows: Wheat about %c; corn, 1%c; cats, %c; pork from 10 to 15c.

There was a sensation in the seed market, timothy gaining 17c per buseel, due to the unfavorable crop news.

The charters were heavy, amounting to 461,000 bushels of wheat and $42,000 bushels corn. Wheat was a shade firmer at the opening on the decrease in the quantity of flour and wheat on ocean passage. The unward tendency was aided by the receipts at Chicago being considerably under the estimates, very cold weather reported in the Northwest, advices from Minneapolis that the receipts had fallen off considerably during the past week owing to the wet weather, the Signal Service predictions of frost in the Northwest and the strength in corn. News was sent in from lowa that the average yield of winter wheat in that State was 17% bushels and 13 bushels of spring. While these were not equal to the big yields of last year they are rather above the average for a series of years.

The Iowa State corn report was quite buillish, saying the past week was cool and little progress made, and reported the condition at 75, acreage 84 and yield about 64 per cent of an average crop. Severe frosts before the 25th would reduce the outlook materially, and 20 per cent will require the whole month to mature. The Weather Bureau predicted heavy frosts to-night in Wisconsin. Iowa, Nebraska and probably light in Kansas, Northern Missouri and Northern Illinois.

The provision market was depressed for a short time near the opening by the heavy receipts of hogs, but later the big advance in corn with a prospective further advance should frost materialize with crop damaging severity to-night caused some covering by shorts and in the end the market became quite strong and closed generally higher than on the day before.

Pork is 10c higher for October and 15c higher for January. October ribs are unclanged and January 7%c nigher.

DUQUESNE STRONGER,

And Some of the Other Leaders Gain Small Fractions.

NO REALLY WEAK POINTS SHOWN. All the Industrials Rule Firm Under a Good

Demand. LOCAL AND GENERAL FINANCIAL NEWS

TUESDAY, Sept. 13. Operations in local stocks to-day de-veloped no fresh features of consequence. A slightly firmer tone was apparent in some of the leading shares, notably Duquesne traction, Central traction and Philadelphia Company, in all of which small fractional gains over yesterday's closing quotations were established, and the general inquiry, while comparatively light on the surface, was said to be quite as wide and strong as ever underneath. The firming up of Philadelphia Company was firming up of Philadelphia Company was one of the surprises of the day. It was in demand from the best of sources, the disposition to sell was less marked, and the readiness with which it was absorbed, and that, too, at rising prices, was accepted as meaning that the stock would not be unfavorably affected if the directors decide, as it is believed they will, not to increase the dividend rate at their coming meeting. The strength of Duquesne traction was not surprising, but it was one of the features of a somewhat featureless market. The stock sold dropped into strong hands, as usual, and all the indications pointed to a continuance of the advance. On merit alone the stock cations pointed to a continuance of the advance. On merit alone the stock is probably high enough, but merit is playing second violin in this instance. The price is evidently going to be higher and there seems to be little risk in buying at the present range for a turn of two or three dollars a share at lesst. Besides the street railways mentioned P. & B. traction appeared to be a little firmer without being any higher. It was expected that the rights granted the Grandview Traction Company by Councils would have a weakening influence on P. & B., but such was not the case. It was strongly supported at 25% with very little pressure to sell at 26. The case. It was strongly supported at 25%, with very little pressure to tell at 26. The strength of Central traction was in some way connected with the ordinance providing for the extension of the Central Transit Company's lines over certain East End streets. The Central Transit Company is part and parcel of the Pittsburg-Duquesne system, and it is popularly supposed that the latter will some day turn up in control of Central traction. P. A. & M. traction soid at 44 and Pleasant Valley and Citizens' traction were in request at 25% and 61% respectively. Duquesne traction was offered at 29% after the close, the final board quotations being 29% 229%. Central traction, which sold at 29% after the close.

Wheeling Gas was quoted a little off at 18219%, but the other gasers were steady to firm at about unchanged quotations, though Bridgewater, at 25 oid, was five points below the closing bid of last week. In the industrials Airbriake was quoted at 183% bid, Union Switch and Signai at 183% bid, Union Switch and Signai at 1836 to preferred at 32 bid, Underground Cavie at 78 asked, and Westinghouse Electric second proferred at 37% 38. Our Foreign Trade,

Our Foreign Trade,

The foreign trade of the United States during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1892, aggregated $1,857,673,80., exceeding the largest trade in any previous year by $128,000,000.

The trade of the year was made up of imports, $817,401,573, and of exports, $1,030-278,630.

trade in any previous year by $128,000,000. The trade of the year was made up of imports, $827,401,573, and of exports, $1,030-278,630. The ex ports were subdivided into domestic products, $1,015,732,011, and foreign exports, $14,546,019. The increase in trade, over the figures of the previous year, was entirely in our exports, as the imports showed a slight fulling off from the record of 1891. It arranges from Statistician Dooge's unalysis that farm products turnished 78, 1 per cent of the total trade last year, in value aggregating $796,717,676. This exceeds by more than $150. 000,000 the value of our shipments of agricul tural products in any single previous year, and surpasses the record of 1889 by more and surpasses the record of 1889 by more than $250,000,000. Separating the total trade in farm products into that made up of an-mais and their products, bread and bread-stuffs, cotton and cottonseed, and the miscellaneous products, it appears that the ex-ports under each head during the last two years have been:

There need be no alarm over the threatened temporary tightness in money, for it can only be temporary. Any lack of funds will be readily supplied by contributions from centers of capital where it is now a drug. For instance, take the European capitals. In Paris money has never ruled as easy as at present and London bankers are asking but a paltry ½ and 1 per cent per annum for time loans.

SUGAR IS HIGHER

And Coffee Is Showing a D cided Upward Tendency-Fruits and Vegetables Easy-Provisions Heavy and Cheese Buoyant -Grain Barely Steady.

TUESDAY, Sept. 13. As noted exclusively in these columns, granulated sugar was marked up to 5.31c by the refiners yesterday, and to-day some of the local wholesalers were quoting the same price. The demand for sugar has not abated any and higher prices seem probable. though some pretty good authorities believe top has been reached.

Coffee continues strong at the last advance. No. 8, a very low roasting grade, is quoted in the East at 145cc to arrive, and as other roasting grades are correspondingly high it looks as if roasted must soon be ad-other roasting grades are correspondingly high it looks as if roasted must soon be advanced again.

Fruits and vegetables are in big supply and prices are easier.

Advices received to-day from cheese producing centers in New York and Ohio noted scant stocks and rising markets.

Grain is barely steady at quotations. Prices are inclined to weaken, says a Chicago authority, on fine crop prospects, large offerings and increased stocks in primary markets. The ruling prices for wheat are still remarkably low, and many people think there must be an advance later. This feeling is shared by a great many farmers, who are selling only their ordinary qualities of wheat, and holding back the best grades. To such an extent is this done that the current receipts include a singularly small proportion of contract grade. Receipts of winter wheat here and elsewhere have fallen off materially of late, while in the Northwest the siring wheat receipts are on the increase. It is stated that about two-thirds of the spring wheat in Minnesota and the Dakots is now in shock and threshing, has the spring wheat in Minnesota and the Dakotas is now in shock and threshing has commenced. Fall plowing is going on in various States and seeding has commenced in some sections. Oats are strengthened by the small crop, but corn is weak under the big receipts, fine grading and promising erop outlook.

Hog products continue weak, despite a slight stiffening in the price o. live hogs, and dealers intimate that a further decline in some of the articles quoted will be estab-lished this week.

The comparatively high price of sugar is having a decidedly stimulating effect on syrups and molasses.
