

Health, stopped off at Harrisburg on his way to Philadelphia yesterday to call on Governor Pattison and Adjutant General Greenland. He wanted to see the Governor for the purpose of showing him the necessity of securing money to keep the cholera out of the State. Dr. Lee said it would be the duty of municipal authorities to provide the necessary financial and other means to enforce sanitary regulations in their cities and towns, but money was needed to prevent cholera from crossing the borders of the State. Dr. Lee failed to see either the Governor or the Adjutant General, neither being in the city.

TO DISCUSS TAXES.

Annual Convention of the County Commissioners of Pennsylvania.

THEIR SIXTH MEETING.

Ex-Auditor General Niles Talks of Work Already Done.

EVERY COUNTY HAS BENEFITED.

The Homestead Strike and Its Cost Will Be Considered.

ARRIVAL OF MANY OF THE DELEGATES.

The sixth annual convention of the County Commissioners of Pennsylvania will convene to-day at 11 o'clock A. M. in Orphan's Court Room No. 1. Robert E. Mercer, Chairman of the Executive Committee, will call the gathering to order, and will announce at once the committee on resolutions. The opening of the convention will be preceded by a meeting of the executive committee at the County Commissioners' office.

FOOD FROM HAMBURG.

Is Rejected by the Passengers on an Ocean Steamer—Leaving Their Baggage Behind—Changing the Route of Atlantic Line—Forty-Eight Hours in Quarantine.

Charles F. Welte and two sisters, John H. Merkle and Edward Leisy were passengers on the limited last evening on their way home to Perth Amboy. They had just arrived from New York, where they had been detained in quarantine for 48 hours on the Hamburg Packet Company's steamer Columbia. The latter is the sister vessel of the Normanna and made her last trip from Southampton, England, direct, instead of coming via Hamburg, as she usually does.

The gentlemen of the party said when they drove through Hamburg recently the condition of the city was horrible. Berlin and other cities were in as good shape as any American city is at the present period. Mr. Welte said when they boarded the Columbia at Southampton another steamer of the Hamburg Packet Line arrived from Germany with the usual supply of provisions for the vessel. The passengers were told that there were no provisions brought from Hamburg should be put on board, as it would necessarily compel the New York quarantine authorities to detain the vessel. The Columbia usually runs from New York to Hamburg and thence to Southampton, but on the announcement of the President's order of a 20 days' quarantine of all vessels from infected ports, the owners decided to send the steamer direct to Southampton and have her return to that port.

Every passenger on board left his luggage in England, and the fact that it had been through Germany. They don't expect to get it within five weeks from now. There was a good deal of excitement on board during the passage, owing to the fact that the vessel would be held in quarantine for a week or two.

SMALLPOX AT M'KEESPORT.

The Disease Contracted While Traveling on a Passenger Train.

On the 10th of last month Mrs. Rhinehart, of Confluence, went to McKeesport to visit her son, Charles Rhinehart. On her way she sat in a seat with a richly dressed lady who was accompanied by a nurse. Nine days after her arrival she became suddenly sick and sent for Dr. Walker, who found she was suffering from a very light attack of varioloid. He treated Mrs. Rhinehart, and she recovered. Last Sunday her son Charles became ill. The physician has been treating him ever since, and the disease has developed into smallpox, and to make certain the doctor called in several other physicians. It is supposed that the patient contracted the disease from his mother, who thinks she contracted it from the woman on the train.

CENSURED THE CORONER.

A Coroner's Jury Blames Dr. Phillips for Not Reporting a Death—Mrs. Margaret Prescott, of West Liberty, Dies From Burns Caused by a Lamp Explosion.

Mrs. Margaret Prescott, the mother of three little children, was burned to death at West Liberty on Monday morning, and Dr. W. L. Phillips, of Boggs avenue, was censured by the coroner's jury for not reporting the death to the coroner. Mrs. Prescott lived in Banksville, and on Sunday she and her husband went to visit John Trost and wife at West Liberty. Mrs. Prescott and Mrs. Trost were sisters. Sunday evening Mrs. Prescott kissed his wife goodbye and returned to Banksville to be ready for work Monday morning.

Mrs. Prescott kept a lamp burning all night in her bedroom. When she arose in the morning and had dressed herself, she blew down the lamp chimney to put out the light. The lamp exploded, and in an instant the poor woman's clothing was on fire. Her screams called Trost and his wife, and they threw a blanket about the burning woman. She was so frantic with pain that she broke away from them and ran wildly about the room until her clothes were burned and she fell to the floor. She was lifted to a bed and Dr. Phillips was sent for. He arrived in about an hour and a half, and applied liniments to ease the pain. The woman died within four hours. Justice Byron, of Beltsouth, heard of the death and reported it to the coroner. He was deputized to hold an inquest, which he did yesterday afternoon. After hearing the testimony of the relatives, the jury rendered a verdict of accidental death, and censured Dr. Phillips for failing to report the death to the coroner of Allegheny county, thereby violating the law in a way that tends to retard the ends of justice.

WILL START THE ELBA WORKS.

Manager Everson Applies for Six Officers to Preserve the Peace.

An effort is to be made to start the Elba Iron Works this morning. Manager Everson ordered six police officers to be on duty at 6 o'clock this morning.

The Elba is a portion of the Oil Well Supply Company's plant, and no work has been done in the mill since the expiration of the old scale. The new Amalgamated scale was signed by the firm and then a dispute arose over the puddlers' turns and the firm's signature was withdrawn. Now it is proposed to operate non-union.

A German Girl's Hard Lot.

Anna Thomas, a 15-year-old German girl, who for the past week has been at the hospital department of the Allegheny Central station, will be sent to the Poor Farm to-day. She is unable to speak English. She is the girl at whose complaint Fred Hatcher is now serving a 10-year term in the Western Penitentiary. Her parents have deserted her and they cannot be found, although Inspector of the Poor Eichenlaub has made a thorough search for them.

STILL UNDECIDED.

Mayor Kennedy Considering the Appointment of Allegheny Police Magistrates—An Endeavor to Set Aside So Called "Elphinstone's Opinion"—Candidates for First P. C.

To-morrow morning, when both branches of Allegheny Council will meet in regular session, Mayor Kennedy will transact the business of his office, and will also transact the business of the city. Four of them—in the Tenth, Eleventh, Thirteenth and Fourteenth wards—will be the aldermen for those wards. Their work will be nominal, and their pay $50 each per year. The only important nomination will be that of the magistrate for the First district, which covers the ten other wards. This official's salary will be $1,500 a year, and he will hear the police cases at the Central station. All cases will be called before that court, and the other magistrates will act only in the event of a "first" meeting being called, or otherwise prevented from sitting.

For this chief position Councilman Charles E. Lewis was the favorite until Solicitor Elphinstone gave to Mayor Kennedy an opinion that Mr. Lewis was ineligible because a member of Councils which created the office and settled the salary. Many lawyers have differed with Mr. Elphinstone, and considerable pressure has been brought to bear to convince Mayor Kennedy that Mr. Elphinstone was wrong. The friends of Mr. Lewis believe that he will yet be appointed if the Mayor can be satisfied that he is eligible. This morning there will be presented to Mayor Kennedy an opinion from a lawyer of high standing maintaining that Mr. Lewis is eligible and citing the law and decisions in support of that contention.

McCLAIN WAS A BAD SHOT.

He Tried Three Times to Kill O'Neil Without the Least Effect.

A shooting affray took place in O'Connell's saloon, at the corner of Fifty-fourth and Butler streets, between Hugh McClain and Daniel O'Neil, between 6 and 7 o'clock last evening. A feud between the men led to a suit before Alderman McElroy last week, in which McClain sued O'Neil on a serious charge. O'Neil was discharged and the costs divided. This embittered the feeling and the feud was made on both sides that blood would be spilled. Last evening they met in O'Connell's saloon. McClain began to accuse O'Neil, and O'Neil in turn taunted McClain about his wife. McClain was infuriated, and drawing a revolver, fired three shots at O'Neil. All the bullets went wide of the mark, but caused a panic in the saloon.

Constable Mackey, of Alderman McElroy's office, ran in and arrested McClain under arrest. He was taken before Alderman McElroy, where O'Neil entered a charge of felonious shooting. Being unable to furnish $1,000 bail, McClain was committed to jail to await a hearing Thursday.

AROUSING THE HILL.

Republican Marching Club Organized in the Eleventh Ward.

The Eleventh ward Republicans met last night to prepare for active campaign work. A permanent club was formed by the election of John Spratt, President; William Everson, Vice President; John Seaforth, Treasurer. A marching club was formed with over fifty members. The club will be more than doubled within the next two weeks.

The various districts were called on for funds to support the marching club, and three of the wards pledged over $400. A finance and executive committee was appointed and it is expected to uniform the club in better shape than ever before.

J. A. Brown was elected captain for the fourth consecutive campaign. John Smith First Lieutenant and John G. Snyder Second Lieutenant. The club will meet to drill on Friday evening in the schoolyard of the Board of Trustees, resided on behalf of the congregation.

CAUGHT BETWEEN BUMPERS.

Thomas Dillon Fatally Injured While Crossing a Railroad Track.

Thomas Dillon, aged 50 years, employed at Clark's mill, when crossing the Allegheny Valley Railroad tracks at Thirty-eighth street last evening found it necessary to pass through a freight train broken at the center. As he stepped on the track he dropped his dinner pail and in attempting to pick it up his head was between the bumpers of the cars. Just then the train came together with a jolt and his head was jammed between the two bumpers. His head was not directly between the bumpers or it would have been crushed like an egg shell. As it struck back his head was crushed in and the skull fractured in a terrible manner.

Dillon was removed to his home on Liberty avenue near Thirty-eighth street, and Dr. Clark called. He is married and has a large family. There is but little hope for his recovery.

HER BAD BOARDERS.

Mrs. Miller Causes the Arrest of Two Men on the Street.

Last night about 9 o'clock Officer Ketter arrested two young men at Fifth avenue and Smithfield street, for chugging a young woman under the chin. One of the men said the woman was his wife, but the woman denied it. He took the three to Inspector McKelvey's office. The woman said her name was Mrs. Miller and her home in Allegheny, where the two men, Jesse Fleming and William Spels, were boarders. She alleged that Fleming had written a letter to her, asking her to meet him on Fifth avenue, and that she intended to meet him and have him arrested. She told several very damaging stories of the young man, who is but 19 years old and claims to be a book agent. Fleming maintained that Mrs. Miller was Mrs. Fleming. The men were locked up.

THE EXPOSITION SHOW.

It is a Popular Resort for Fashionable People—Large Attendance Yesterday.

A branch postoffice was established at the Exposition yesterday and all manner of mail was sent through the place just for novelty's sake.

It was not the branch postoffice that attracted the liberal crowd to the big show yesterday. The place is surrounded with so many agreeable and pleasant features that it has become a popular resort for fashionable people. The attendance yesterday was no exception to the rule.

Elect Hospital Pathologist.

The Board of Managers of the Allegheny general Hospital met last night and elected Dr. John Styb, No. 180 Liberty street, Allegheny, pathologist of the hospital. Dr. Styb is a graduate of the University of Prague, Europe, and has had considerable experience as a teacher of pathology. He has been located in Allegheny for some time.

Aged, Homeless and Consumptive.

George Block, an aged German without any home, was found by an Allegheny policeman last night sleeping in a stable on the North avenue and taken to the lock-up. Upon investigation it was found that Block was almost dead from consumption and was sent to the Allegheny General Hospital.

HER GRIEF WAS FATAL.

Jennie Andrews Dies at Stoops' Ferry of a Broken Heart.

SHE MOURNED A TRUANT HUSBAND.

He Abandoned His Bride a Few Hours After Their Marriage.

A CRUEL REPORT WAS CIRCULATED.

Pretty Jennie Andrews, 23 years old, died at Stoops' Ferry on the Panhandle Railroad yesterday morning of a broken heart. The verdict of the coroner's jury and the evidence of Dr. Guy McCandless, of Pittsburgh Health Bureau, who made a post mortem examination, will tend to show that a rupture of the stomach was the immediate cause of death, but the story of her sad life is evidence conclusive that grief was the primary cause of her untimely end.

Coroner McDowell was notified at noon yesterday of the death of Mrs. Andrews. The report said the woman had committed suicide by taking roach on rats. The Coroner, with his deputy, Grant Miller, and Dr. McCandless, hurried to the dead woman's home.

The result of Constant Grief. After a jury was empaneled a post mortem examination was made, after which Dr. McCandless testified that the woman had died from a rupture in the lining of the stomach. The coroner's jury returned a verdict in accord with the evidence of the physician. In his examination Dr. McCandless also found that the lining of the woman's stomach had been worn thin as tissue paper as a result of her constant grieving.

Mrs. Andrews was the daughter of John Scott, a respected resident of Moon township. Just a year ago, after a short courtship, she was married to John Andrews. The union was opposed by the young woman's parents, but she seemed violently in love with Andrews and the marriage was solemnized.

The day following the marriage young Andrews disappeared. He said nothing of his going. He walked away without a word to his young wife and he has never been heard since. As though the earth had swallowed him he was lost to his former friends and acquaintances.

WATCHING FOR HER ABSENT HUSBAND.

Day and night the young wife watched and waited for her missing husband, but constant as was her vigil time brought her no relief. She refused to be comforted. She could eat nothing to sustain her. She was frequently afflicted with fainting spells and was taken unable to leave her bed.

On Sunday last Mrs. Andrews was taken suddenly and severely sick. Violent vomiting followed the first sickness. While straining the woman completely collapsed. A physician was summoned. After inquiring into the case, the physician administered medicine which gave the woman temporary relief. Death followed, however.

The parents of the dead woman are greatly distressed over the untimely end of their daughter. As though the earth had swallowed him she had committed suicide had been circulated.

A TIN WEDDING RECEPTION.

A Presbyterian Pastor Pleasantly Entertained by His Congregation.

Rev. J. F. Patterson, pastor of the Sixth Presbyterian church, was treated to a complete surprise last evening by his congregation. The tenth anniversary of his wedding was celebrated by a tin wedding reception in the church. Early in the evening the pastor and his wife were induced to go calling. When they returned, they found about 300 members of the congregation in the church. The pastor and his wife were met at the door and escorted to the pulpit, where they were received by Rev. H. T. McClelland, D. D., of the Belleville Church, in a neat and witty address. R. B. Peity, Esq., President of the Board of Trustees, presided on behalf of the congregation.

All then repaired to the church parlors, where granite and silver presents were spread in great profusion. There were about 100 tin snappers in next served. The rest of the evening was devoted to sociability. After a most pleasant evening's entertainment, the company dispersed shortly after 10 o'clock.

A Brief Spell of Freedom.

Paul Smith and Joe Sailor, of Sharpburg, were released from the workhouse yesterday morning where they had been sent for 30 days by Mayor Kennedy, of Allegheny, charged with being suspicious characters. The moment they were released they were arrested by officer King on a charge of chicken stealing and brought to the Allegheny lock-up. They will be given a hearing before Mayor Kennedy this morning.

Went K-nut at Buster, N. Y.

Detective Sol Coulson received a warrant yesterday for the arrest of Christie Kent on a charge of kidnaping, preferred by Constable J. M. McSwain before Justice O. G. Crandall, of Buster, Chautauque county, N. Y. Kent is now in jail here in connection with the escape of Frances James, who ran away from Lakewood, N. Y., last week, and the warrant will be lodged against him to-day until a requisition is made for him.

He Drank a Load of Coal.

Frank McNamee was arrested last night and locked up in the Twelfth ward police station, on a warrant sworn out before Alderman McKenna, by J. R. Confer, charging embezzlement. McNamee was a coal dealer who was arrested at the foot of Fourteenth street. Confer alleges that McNamee collected $8 for a load of coal and got drunk on the money.

Great Bargains in Sleinway Planos.

Several fine square-grain Steinway pianos are offered at mere nominal prices by H. Kiebler & Bro., 506 Wood street. They are fine pianos, but very little used and for all musical purposes are as good as new. After eight to ten years' use the Messrs. Kiebler will take them at the same price and exchange for one of their new upright pianos. Call early at Kiebler's and secure a bargain.

Saturday Normal Class.

Of the Duquesne College will meet next Saturday, September 17, at 9 o'clock. There will be a large attendance this year. The following instructors are submitting their reports for the thorough work which will be done: Prof. J. M. W. S. M. A. M. history and geography; Prof. C. H. M. A. M. arithmetic and grammar; Prof. O. C. Wright, A. M. physiology.

Plano Left With Us for Sale.

Fine upright piano left for sale by party leaving the city. Will be sold for $175 spot cash, or slight advance on payment. Call early. Melton & Hoese, Warehouses, 77 Fifth avenue.

Leslie Place.

Is the beauty spot of the East Liberty Valley. Visitors to Highland Park who fall to traverse and view the plan will miss a treat. The elegant roadway and sidewalks and the perfectly graded and sewerage lots are well worth seeing.

Remington Bros. Newspaper Manual.

For 1893 is just issued. From an inspection it appears to be replete with useful information for advertisers and it is handsomely and substantially made.

Went going to Canton, O., stop at the Barnett House, strictly first-class; elegant ample rooms. Rates, $2.00 and $2.50.

Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers. No gripping no pain, no nausea, easy pill to take.

SLIDING RAILWAY CONTRACTS.

Pittsburg Gets Her Share of the Work—The Road Will Be Operated in Chicago in Six Weeks—New York Capitalists Buy the Entire Plant.

Phillip Horvath, formerly of Paris, now located in New York, stopped over in Pittsburg yesterday to look after the interests of the Barre Sliding Railway Company. This company has placed some large contracts with Pittsburg firms for the material and appliances for constructing the one-mile double track sliding road at the Columbian Exposition.

"We have some large orders under way in Pittsburg," said Mr. Horvath. "Wilson, Snyder & Co. are making our pumps. There will be five, having a capacity of twelve and a half million gallons of water a day. Three of these pumps are now finished and will be shipped next week. Riter & Conley have about one-half of our order for 20,000 accumulators finished. Carnegie, Phipps & Co. are making our rails. They are a special kind, six inches on the surface. The National Tube Works are manufacturing the pipes for our method of construction. These pipes are 14 inches in diameter and are required to stand a pressure of 500 pounds to the square inch.

"In six weeks we will have our double track in Chicago operating. Erastus Wiman heads a party of New York capitalists who have purchased the road, subject to its being operated successfully, after we are through with the plant at the Columbian Exposition. The price paid by the syndicate was $200,000, and it will bear the expense of moving it. It is proposed to move the road to Staten Island, where it will be made into a two-mile track and be operated up a steep grade to the Castleton Hotel. It is expected that this two-mile trip will be made in ten minutes, one minute will be given for unloading and loading, thus making a trip every two or three minutes."

TIRED OF A WIFE'S WHIMS.

James Tripp, of Allegheny County, Goes to Chicago to Get a Divorce—He Is 70 Years Old, but Hopes to Lose the Woman He Has Lived with for 50 Years.

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—[Special.]—It is not often that a man 70 years old seeks legal separation from his wife, but such is the case of James Tripp, of Allegheny county, Pa. In his bill for divorce, filed in the Circuit Court here to-day, Mr. Tripp says he was married to one Jane, in 1846, and lived with her near Pittsburg until the middle of February, 1887.

At that time the old gentleman claims his wife came to the city to visit a sick relative. The noise and bustle of the city seemed to greatly affect the wife, who at the time was 60 years of age. She wrote her husband that there was no place like Chicago, and the gay whirl of city life had completely captivated her.

Mr. Tripp, however, preferred the country life of his old home, and in a rather sharp letter advised his wife to return. To his letter a prompt answer was given, and Mrs. Tripp declared that husband or no husband she would not be content to end her days in her country home. The husband waited patiently, hoping his wife would soon change her mind and return to him, but she refused to do so.

At that time the old gentleman claims his wife came to the city to visit a sick relative. The noise and bustle of the city seemed to greatly affect the wife, who at the time was 60 years of age. She wrote her husband that there was no place like Chicago, and the gay whirl of city life had completely captivated her.

Mr. Tripp, however, preferred the country life of his old home, and in a rather sharp letter advised his wife to return. To his letter a prompt answer was given, and Mrs. Tripp declared that husband or no husband she would not be content to end her days in her country home. The husband waited patiently, hoping his wife would soon change her mind and return to him, but she refused to do so.

At that time the old gentleman claims his wife came to the city to visit a sick relative. The noise and bustle of the city seemed to greatly affect the wife, who at the time was 60 years of age. She wrote her husband that there was no place like Chicago, and the gay whirl of city life had completely captivated her.

Mr. Tripp, however, preferred the country life of his old home, and in a rather sharp letter advised his wife to return. To his letter a prompt answer was given, and Mrs. Tripp declared that husband or no husband she would not be content to end her days in her country home. The husband waited patiently, hoping his wife would soon change her mind and return to him, but she refused to do so.

THE COUNTY FAIR OPEN.

Entries and Displays Larger Than Ever Before in Each of the Towns.

WARREN, Pa., Sept. 13.—[Special.]—The ninth annual meeting of the Warren County Fair opened to-day with an attendance that was greatly diminished on account of the wet weather. A drizzling rain kept falling nearly all afternoon, which compelled the postponement of the races. The number of entries in all departments of the fair is unusually large and the exhibits surpass in number and quality those of all previous years.

A dispatch from Meadville says: The fortieth annual fair of the Crawford County Agricultural Society opened up at Conneautville to-day. The entries of horses, cattle, sheep, swine, vegetables, art work, etc., are larger than any previous year in the history of the society.

A message from Uniontown says: This was the opening day of the Fayette County Agricultural Association's thirteenth annual fair. The attendance to-day was small owing to the poor weather. The displays in nearly all departments are far above those of former years.

COLLIDED WITH THE STATUTES.

JAMES McCLAREN, of Twenty-fifth street, is charged with assaulting Mary Welsh.

A FORTKNOTCH containing $4 was stolen from the home of Albert Dixon, on Poplar street, Allegheny, on Monday. The thief escaped.

JOHN HARDIN was committed to jail yesterday by Alderman Skelly, of McKeesport, to await a trial by court on a charge of forgery of a check for $100.

THOMAS McKEEVER, 13 years of age, was arrested at the Pittsburg and Lake Erie depot yesterday morning as a suspicious person. He said he had run away from his home in East Liverpool, O.

JOHN and DON DONNELLEY were sent to jail yesterday charged with assaulting and robbing John Farmer on Tenth street. Edward Donnelly, another brother, is also in jail charged with assault.

JOHN COMBY, who claimed to live in Strawberry alley, Pittsburg, was arrested in Allegheny yesterday as a suspicious person. A man who was with him claimed the officers. Several shots were fired at him as he was getting away.

SMALL IN SIZE, GREAT IN RESULTS: Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers. Best pill for constipation, best for sick headache and sour stomach.

IN VERY HARD LUCK.

Peculiar Circumstances Get John McColley Into Jail.

HE IS A HORRIBLY USED UP MAN.

Two Ribs and His Nose Are Broken by an Accidental Fall.

THE WRONG MAN IS CALLED TO AID HIM.

John McColley, the victim of a peculiar combination of circumstances, was sent to jail yesterday where he is now a seriously sick patient of the Prison Physician. Two of his ribs are broken, his nose is broken and there are several deep cuts on his head.

A week ago McColley lived with his wife and blind son on Boston street, Soho. Last Saturday the husband and wife quarreled. As a result a warrant was issued for the arrest of McColley, charged by his wife with assault. He remained away from home until Monday night. After returning from work he found that his wife and son had moved away. He traced them to Gilt street yesterday, where he found they had established themselves. He had a talk with his wife, but he was unable to effect a reconciliation. When leaving the place McColley slipped and fell down the stairs leading from the house to the pavement. Help was called to remove the injured man, and among those who responded was the constable who had been hunting him with a warrant. He was taken to jail, where he will be held for a hearing.

McColley is employed by the Westinghouse Company. Within two years three of his children have died, and within a few months his son, still living, while at play, was struck with a stone which destroyed his eyesight.

The United States Authorities Meet At John Corcoran, the Allegheny State soldier who was shot at a ball in Allegheny a week ago by Frank Slaine, a fellow soldier, is improving rapidly. Slaine has been turned over to the United States authorities for punishment.

HUGUS & HACKE.

SILKS.

On Monday, Sept. 12, we will show in this popular department one of the largest and best assorted stock of goods. All the latest productions of American and European manufacture, comprising Plaid Silk Novelties, Taffeta Gait effects, changeable Surahs, changeable Satins, Armure Iridescent, high-class figured Novelties for trimmings.

Velvets, striped, figured and iridescent; plain, colored and black Velvets, best line shown at all prices.

Colored Silks in endless variety; crystals, plain, figured and crepe effects.

Extra special values Black Silks, Gros Grain Failles, Armures, Crystals, Peau De Soie, etc., etc.

All goods of reliable make and at prices that cannot fail to suit all our patrons.

Cor. Fifth Ave. and Market St.

IN YOUTHS' SHOES SIMEN

Is giving values in Solid Leather Shoes that for wear and the low price cannot be equaled. See these money savers:

Veal Calf Lace Shoes, sizes 11 to 2, at $5 CENTS.

Veal Calf Button Shoes, sizes 11 to 2, at $1.00.

AT $1.25.

The best shoe your boy ever put his foot into at $1.25, sizes 11 to 2, in lace or button, and

AT $1.50

A shoe made of good, fine selected stock. Other dealers charge you $2 for these. In lace or button, heels or spring heels, sizes 11 to 2, at $1.50.

You will have the best assortment at prices that will interest you at

G. D. SIMEN'S,

78 OHIO ST., ALLEGHENY, PA.

Located the Fence in the Wrong Place. Henry Bohnet was arrested yesterday on a warrant sworn out before Alderman McKee by Daniel Cochran, charging him with larceny. The two men are neighbors, and reside on Penn avenue, near Arsenal Park. Cochran had a lot of lumber in his yard with which he intended to build a fence around his house. He says Bohnet stole the lumber and built a fence around his yard. Bohnet gave bail for a hearing next Monday evening.

The Leading Dry Goods House, Wednesday, Sept. 14, 1922.

JOS. HORNE & CO.'S

PENN AVE. STORES.

Recent Arrivals

Ladies' Jackets and Coats

Make our stock more attractive than ever—larger and more complete than ever before.

Hardly impossible to imagine a lady who cannot now find a garment here to please her.

The shapes are more varied than at any former season and the lengths are 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40 inches—all tastes satisfied and all styles and figures perfectly suited.

PRICES are lower than ever before. Saying so doesn't make it so, but everybody says so when they come to look at the garments and ask the prices.

Jacket Selling Made Easy

By having what you want at lower prices than you will expect to find them.

RUSSIAN BLOUSE COATS, more stylish than ever—come in black and colored plain cloths, Whip Co