GRAVESEND RACE TRACK, Sept. 16 .- There were no stake features on to-day's pro-gramme, the six races being made up over night events, but the sport was fairly inter-esting and decidely lucrative for the talent, as four of the six races were won by heavily backd first choices in the betting. Lord Motley, the even money favorite for the first race, stumbled while at the post and threw Jockey Thorp. The colt then ran three and a half miles before stopping. He was withdrawn. All money bet on him was lost, as he was in charge of Starter Rowe when the accident occurred. Silver Fox was then backed down from 3 to 1 to 8 to 5.

was then backed down from 3 to 1 to 8 to 5. He won in galloping style.

The Eastern continuent of plungers bet heavily on 8t. Michael to win the second race at five furiongs, but the Westerners rot all the money with Helen Nichols, who shouldered her 120 pounds and won in galloping style at 8 to 5. Courtship, 20 to 1, was second, and 8t. Michael, 2 to 1, third. Another barrel of good money was lost on the 6 to 5 favorite, Diablo, when Reckon, 5 to 2, led from start to finish, and won pulling un by an open length, Mary Stone, 5 to 1, snatching second place from Diablo by a head. Victoria, 7 to 5, Taral, took the fourth race easily, Sonora, 12 to 1, capturing second place from the pacemaker and 2 to 1 second choice, Addie, by a neck. Summaries:

A SAD STORY.

Terry Gets Wild at a Critical Stage and the SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. BALTIMORE, Sept. 16.-Pittsburg made enough hits to-day to win any ordinary game, for the y banged McMahon's delivery hard and often, but the Orioles played an exceptional fielding game, and many drive that looked good for two and three bases was nipped and rupners out off. Terry's curves were much harder to gauge, and it was in trying at times to make them too enigmatical that he failed to get them over the plate, and bases on balls followed. This eventually cost the visitors the game, for in ninth inning, with two out, Terry gave two bases on balls, and these, with a hit, filled the bases. O'Rourke was the only player who had effectually sized up Terry's curves. having made a single and a double. This time after having two balls called on him he caught an outcurve, and sent it sailing to Elmer Smith Made a Game Effort. Smith made a great spurt for the sphere, but could not quite reach it, and before the ball was fielded in the three runners had crossed the plate and the game was won.

It was a hard game to lose, especially when it had been pulled out of the fire after Baltimore had it well in hand, a measly little error by Beckley cost the only run that resulted from poor fielding, the others unearned being due to bases on balls.

In the eighth inning Terry had almost a similar experience as in the ninth, but he pulled out by great pitching, retiring the side with the bases full, but he was not equal to the occasion in the ninth. The best fielding was done by O'Rourke, Stricker, Shindle and Van Haltren for Bultimore, while Shugart and Farrell carried off the honors for Pittsburg. Neither side scored until the third inning when a lucky bunching of three singles, with two sacrifices yielded two runs for Baltimore, McMahon started off with a hit, went to second on Stricker's sacrifice and went to third on Shindle's single. The latter reached second on Van Haltren's sacrifice and both scored on Sutcliffe's single.

Where the Sluggers Scored. In each of the first three innings the visitors had men left on bases, but in the fourth they pulled out a run, Beckley leading off by sending the ball to the left field fence for three bases. Farrell, who followed Bierbauer made a single that brought Beckley home. Terry went out to second, but Kelly singled and Miller hit a hard one to third which Shindle managed to stop, but not in time to field. With the bases full Donovan sent a fiy to Stovey. Baltimore added another to the score i the sixth when Beckley's fumble gave Van Haltren a life. Shugart's error of Stovey's hit, helped him to second and O'Rourke's double scored him.

There was no more run getting until the eighth when Pittsburg tied the score on Shugart's and Beckley's singles and Farrell's trinte. The visitors went ahead in the ninth, Kelly made a single and Miller flied out to center, then Donovan and Smith followed with singles, and while Stricker was trying to make a double on Shugart's force Kelly and Donovan sprinted across the plate. at Philadelphia.

The greatest amateur baseball contest of the season will take place this afternoon on the East End Gym Club grounds, Larimer avenue. The County League champions will meet the famous Uniontown club in a game for the championship of Western Pennsylvania. These teams are undoubt-Pennsylvania. These teams are undoubtedly the strongest amateur teams that ever played together in Pittsburg and lovers of such baseball should not tail to see the game. Thompson and Altman, the pitchers for their respective clubs, have made exceedingly good records, and to have two such pitchers and two such clubs pitted against each other is a rare treat for Pittsburgers. The Pittsburg team being out of town, it is altogether likely that the crowd in attendance will be very large. The Gyms will present their old reliable team, with the exception of Join Berger, who will catch Thompson instead of Haller, who is at umberland. The game will be called at 4 o'clock.

A great crowd, including many lades and a brass band, were present. At the end of the fifth inning the game was called on account of the exhaustion of the players. Score 59 to 20 in favor of the Council.

Wilkesbarre, 11-Uniontown, 5. UNIONTOWN, Sept. 16. - [Special.] - The Wilkesbarre State League team defeated the home team this morning by a score of il to 5. Leamon pitched for the locals and gave the visitors only four hits, but his support was very rocky. Both sides played a very loose fielding game, especially the Uniontown boys, and it was their poor fielding, together with two home runs by the visitors, that lost the game. day with one of the most successful in the history of the present organization. There were exceptionally fine displays of horses, cattle and poultry. The fine art and women's departments were better than ever. In the races Lady M won first and second heats in the free-for-all in 2:22 and 2:31. Mack won the next three and the race in 2:234, 2:26, 2:39. Humming Bird won the 2:40 race in 2:52. Fleta Wilkes won the 3-year-old race in 3:05. The Pacers Keep People Guessing Out at the Homewood Track,

BUT THE SPORT WAS LIVELY.

Heats Were Split Up and Only One Pace Was Finished Out of Three. RESULTS OF THE GRAVESEND EVENTS

There were nearly 2,000 people at Homewood Park yesterday to witness the second day's racing. There were three regular events on the card and the unfinished match race between Gray Wilkes and Miss Cumsky. The track was in much better condition than on Thursday, but it was still considerably slow. The sport was excellent and generally speaking the favorites were downed, in-deed a man who could pick the winners could reasonably be considered a wonder could reasonably be considered a wonder. The pacers were particularly hard to deal with and they not only caused surprises but wearled everybody by delaying the racing in scoring. They were so difficult to start that darkness arrived before two of the regular events were finished.

The 2-29 trot was the only race finished and that was won in straight heats by Frank Hill. Muggins was heavily backed for the race and sold for $75 and the field at $70 an hour before the race. Then the supporters of Frank Hill put up their money irrely and Hill was almost as good a favorite as Muggins. Frank Hill won the race quite handily.

gins. Frank Hill won the race quite handily.

The second event, the 2:16 pace, was just about as interesting a race as has been seen here. Ella Brown was a bot favorite to start with, selling for $200, Crawford for $75; Cleveland S and J H L each for $40 and the field for $40. Six heats were paced, and the race was postponed until to-day at 12 o'clock. Charlie P asted very badly in scoring for the first heat, but he won it. Then Cleveland S got a heat, and he became favorite. J H L got the third heat, and the talent was again dumped. Cleveland S came again in the fourth heat, and won it, and then the driver of Ella Brown was called before the Judges, as they had a suspicion that he was not tryof Ella Brown was called before the Judges, as they had a suspicion that he was not trying to win. He denied the charge, and was allowed to drive another heat, which his mare won. Ella again became !avorite, but J H L won the sixth heat, and darkness prevented further progress with the race.

The !ree-lor-ali trot was another race that afforded a surprise and was not finished. Lakewood Prince was the layorite, but Gillett won the first heat. The Prince finished first and was put back to third for running. The Prince won the second heat easily and Gillett got the third. The Prince came again in the fourth and won it easily.

Miss Cumsky, who had won two heats in the match race Thursday, distanced Gray Wilkes in the third heat in 2:37%. Following are the summaries of the events:
