THE FAIR TO GO ON.

Unless Cholera Sweeps the Country the World's Columbian Expo WILL BE HELD JUST AS INTENDED.

The Grand Army Encampment Will Also Not Be Postponed.

WASHINGTON FILLING UP RAPIDLY

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—The managers of the World's Fair will not listen to the proposition to postpone the National Exposition because of threatened cholera plague.

Director General Davis is here to consult the Secretary of the Treasury on the subject of taking proper precautions to prevent the introduction of cholera into the United States by way of exhibits to the great exposition.

General Davis said the managers of the Fair were willing to accept such restrictions as the customs officers think best to impose, and they will cheerfully co-operate with the Treasury officials in seeing that the regulations are carried out.

Big Reduction in Customs Receipts. At the Treasury Department the financial returns from customs for the 15 days of the present month show a falling off in the custom receipts of something over $3,000,000 for a similar period last month.

Treasury officials do not attribute the decrease to the cholera scare, but say that the importations may have been in a measure reduced by the epidemic in Europe.

Present Regulations Considered Good. The reports from New York to-day were such as to inspire the Secretary with the idea that the regulations about New York, and he believes the present regulations are sufficient to hold the disease in check.

He was a little annoyed when he received information this morning that the Jersey Fair, which is being held at New York, and he believes the present regulations are sufficient to hold the disease in check.
