

SEPTEMBER'S SOCIAL DOINGS

Gatherings and Events That Will Interest People of the Two Cities.

Miss Mary J. Martin entertained the members of the Denver Club by a leap year party Friday evening. The affair was a decided success in every way, and the young lady who was in charge of the arrangements proved a most successful entertainer.

The artistic possibilities of ferns, roses, lilies and orchids in home decoration were exemplified at the wedding of Miss Christina L. Kirk and Mr. J. A. Walsh, in Sharpburg, Thursday last.

A pretty home wedding will be that of Miss Aurelia Seyppel and Mr. Richard Ebe, which is to take place Thursday evening at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. C. S. Wight, at Edgewood.

The increased interest in Pittsburgh in travel and the habits and doings of foreign countries has been referred to more than once in these columns.

A pretty wedding service in Allegheny united the lives of Miss Beale L. Boyd and Mr. Fred W. Schneider. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Boyd.

A pleasant event of the week was a leap year party given by the ladies of the Belle Vale Social Club Wednesday evening in their cozy parlors, Federal street, Allegheny.

The "town" friends of the ladies connected with the Edgewood Presbyterian Church will be glad to hear that another fair is to be held in a few months similar to that which was given last winter.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hetzel and family, of Edgewood, arrived home yesterday from Germany, where they have spent three months very delightfully.

Early fall weddings are ushered in this week in a manner which would seem as if the girls had taken it into their heads that they must be married off straightway and not a moment's time lost about it.

The marriage of Miss Edith Maud Cornelius, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Cornelius, of Philadelphia, to Mr. Theodore M. Hopke, of this city, will be celebrated in St. Luke's Church, Philadelphia, Wednesday at 11:30 A. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Kennedy have cards out for a tea to be given Tuesday next from 3 to 5, at their home in Sharpburg.

of the Belle Vale Social Club, to be held Thursday next at its parlors in Allegheny. The parlors will be handsomely decorated, and a program will be presented which is very attractive and enjoyable.

The following young people were handsomely entertained by the members of the Joun Gripp Club Thursday evening: Misses Annie and Katie Murphy, Nell and Mary Sullivan, K. Connelly, Annie McCracken, Kate McCracken, Mrs. Stewart, Kate Sullivan, Mary Brown, Carolyn Brown, Anne Dittie, Medline and O'Brien. Music and dancing, together with a well served supper made the time fly all too fast for all present.

Mr. A. P. Maggini, of Braddock, and Miss Fanny A. Bell, of McKeesport, will be married next Wednesday in the St. Brendan's Catholic Church, West Braddock, by the pastor, Rev. P. Moloney.

Mr. J. D. Henderson and her son, of Cleveland, O., who are visiting friends in Allegheny, are in the city for a few days. They will be at home at 62 Sixth avenue, Thursdays, after October 5.

Mr. H. M. Breckinridge will give a tea Thursday next from 4 to 6 at her home, Breckinridge station.

The ladies of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the North Braddock United Brethren Church gave a delightful luncheon Thursday evening at the law office of Mr. Wintler, T. Williams, on the law of the city. The Young Ladies Mission Band of the church assisted. The table was a most successful success.

Mr. J. W. Johnston, the well-known jeweler of Braddock, was given a pleasant surprise at his home on Hackett avenue on Tuesday evening by about 100 of his friends from the city. It was the 35th anniversary of his birth. Mr. Johnston was the recipient of many presents.

Mr. Bartley F. Harrington and Miss Ida Forney, daughter of Mr. Chris Forney, two well-known young people of Braddock, were married at the home of the bride's parents, on Washington avenue, Tuesday, by the Rev. J. S. Shaw of the U. C. Church of Braddock. A number of guests were present.

A social musical organization which will be favorably received this season is the Young Men's Society of St. Joseph's Church, which is being organized in Allegheny. The society is being organized by the Rev. J. S. Shaw, pastor of the church.

Miss Leola Davis, the bright little daughter of Mr. Theodore Davis, of High avenue, North Braddock, celebrated the tenth anniversary of her birth Friday evening. The party was given at the home of the bride's parents, on Washington avenue. The party was a very successful one.

A dinner party was given last Wednesday night at the Hotel Duquesne in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Rogers, who returned recently from their wedding tour. Covers were laid for ten, and Miss J. E. Wassell and Miss Susan Muir presided.

The 15th birthday of Mr. Joseph Gabriel was pleasantly remembered Wednesday evening by a number of friends, who gave him a surprise party to celebrate the occasion. The party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Griffin, on Washington avenue.

Miss Eleanor R. Dyer entertained a number of college classmates Friday evening at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lauder, McCully street. The party was a very successful one.

The Givert Quartette (Wales) will give a concert in Curry University Hall for the benefit of the Universalist Church on Friday evening, September 28.

A reception is to be tendered Rev. C. E. Locke Friday evening next. All his friends are invited. He will leave for his charge in the West very soon.

The Coquitos Social, of the Southside, gave a reception at Bender's Hall, Rochester, Pa., Wednesday evening.

The engagement of Mr. Isidore Israel, of this city, to Miss Gertrude Keiser, of Memphis, Tenn., has been announced. The wedding will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Murphy, of Howe street, East End.

Fisher, of Bidwell street, and Laura Ables, of Fairview, had entered the Holy Family Seminary, Maryland, Thursday morning.

Miss Ella Wilson, daughter of Mr. A. D. Wilson of Braddock, who is attending the Indiana State Normal School Tuesday, accompanied by Miss Camille Hawthorne, of North Braddock.

Mrs. Alexander King, Miss King and Messrs. W. S. and R. King have returned from an extended visit to their friends in North Braddock. Mrs. King's friends will be pleased to learn that her health is very much improved.

Mr. Thomas O'Hara, Superintendent of the Public Works Department, was in the city on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock for Washington, D. C. He will be accompanied by his daughter, who is expected to be absent three weeks.

Mr. W. L. Moss, formerly of this city, now of Philadelphia, passed through Pittsburgh on the 15th inst. on the City Park. Mr. Moss is a member of a firm of large tobacco manufacturers in North Carolina.

D. R. Lean and family, who have been in Europe for the past two months, returned to Pittsburgh on Monday on the steamship Alaska, and were detained at Quarantine 24 hours.

Mr. T. F. McEvoy, who has been in Europe for the past four months, sailed from Liverpool on the 15th inst. on the City Park. He says the cholera scare has made it difficult to secure passage on any of the steamships.

The many friends of Mr. Harry H. Fairfield were surprised to hear of his marriage to Miss Josephine Forney, which occurred last week and the happy couple have taken a home on Robinson street.

Mr. John W. Alexander, of Braddock, arrived home yesterday from a six weeks' visit to his friends in North Braddock. He was accompanied by his brother, Rev. Frank Alexander, a young Methodist missionary traveling in the grounds of the Braddock Knights Templar Convention at Denver, and was accompanied by Mr. Elmer Mackey, of Turle Creek.

Mr. J. E. Wilson, of Braddock, was in the city on Tuesday evening for a short time. He is a member of the U. C. Church of Braddock.

Mr. J. E. Wilson, of Braddock, was in the city on Tuesday evening for a short time. He is a member of the U. C. Church of Braddock.

Mr. J. E. Wilson, of Braddock, was in the city on Tuesday evening for a short time. He is a member of the U. C. Church of Braddock.

Mr. J. E. Wilson, of Braddock, was in the city on Tuesday evening for a short time. He is a member of the U. C. Church of Braddock.

Mr. J. E. Wilson, of Braddock, was in the city on Tuesday evening for a short time. He is a member of the U. C. Church of Braddock.

Mr. J. E. Wilson, of Braddock, was in the city on Tuesday evening for a short time. He is a member of the U. C. Church of Braddock.

Mr. J. E. Wilson, of Braddock, was in the city on Tuesday evening for a short time. He is a member of the U. C. Church of Braddock.

Mr. J. E. Wilson, of Braddock, was in the city on Tuesday evening for a short time. He is a member of the U. C. Church of Braddock.

Safe to Stand by The Standard. 1. It is perfectly wholesome, being made of cream of tartar specially refined in our own factory. 2. For twenty-two years it has steadily gained favor among practical housekeepers; to-day no other is growing so rapidly. 3. According to official tests, says the Scientific American: "Cleveland's Baking Powder stands at the head." 4. It is the Baking Powder used in the United States Army. 5. Principals of Cooking Schools, Lecturers on Domestic Science, Experts in culinary matters, are now using Cleveland's Baking Powder.

GOING OUT CAMPING? Pic-nicking, fishing or hunting? It is so, will not fail to appreciate the advantage of taking along a supply of the GAIL BORDEN 'EAGLE' BRAND Condensed Milk. It is most delicious in coffee, tea, chocolate and numerous summer drinks. For 30 years the leading brand. Your Grocer and Druggist sell it.

'Parisian Club' and 'Lily'. OUR MOTTO: LOW PRICES SIXTH ST. & PENN. AVE. SAVE MONEY! SPECIAL! SPECIAL! SPECIAL! OUR WHOLESALE TRAVELING MEN CALLED IN. We decided to place on sale all the new Fall Sample Garments! one thousand! No two alike! AT FIFTY CENTS ON THE DOLLAR.

RECEIVING DAILY, FALL FOOTWEAR. Just opened 500 pr. Ladies' Dongola Button Shoes, pat. Tip or plain at $2.00, worth $2.50. 300 pr. Gents' Congress or Bals at $2.00 worth $2.50. LEADERS IN "LOW-PRICED FOOTWEAR."

Shoe House. 52 SIXTH STREET.

THE LADES. We would call your attention to our stock of New Fall Dress Goods. The styles never lovelier. The shades never so

Mrs. A. Ruppert's Face Bleach Keeps the Skin Free From All Blemishes. The action of Face Bleach is to draw out the discoloration or impurities. There is no necessity of remaining indoors while using Face Bleach, for if you use it as directed it will not irritate the skin or be noticeable at all. "My friends," says Mrs. Ruppert, "I use Face Bleach, and it has cleared up my complexion. It is the best I have ever used. It is so easy to use and so effective."

W. H. THOMPSON, one of the best of character actors, will play a prominent part in Bronson Howard's new play, "Aristocracy." Mr. Thompson's engagement for this play shows a great compliment to his ability, for one of his alleged victims is the actor, Theodore Hamilton and Lulus Hamilton. "Aristocracy" is a four-act play which made an almost instantaneous success. It is said to be the best play ever written. It is a comedy of manners, and it is said to be the best play ever written. It is a comedy of manners, and it is said to be the best play ever written. It is a comedy of manners, and it is said to be the best play ever written.