"TID-BITS."

EXPOSITION. "Music the flercest grief can charm, and fate's severest rage disarm," especially if the music is of the superb quality you hear at the Exposition. Levy and his unrivaled band play as players never played before. Don't fail to hear them.

EXPOSITION. "Smooth runs the water when the brook is deep," everything runs smoothly at the Exposition. The management has left nothing undone to insure smooth sailing to its patrons; no rough weather or sea sickness. You are certain to have a pleasant voyage when you go there.

EXPOSITION. "She is pretty to walk with, and witty to talk with, and pleasant, too, to think on." It is a well known fact that those who possess beauty, culture and refinement patronize the Exposition. All neople of intelligence, rich and poor, are its friends.

EXPOSITION. "The palace beautiful," the Exposition. The man who goes there biesses his stars, and thicks it luxury. It is ever charming, ever new. (Something New To-Morrow.)
