

fall into the river? He did not know who the man was who gave utterance to the remark. Mr. Wilson described how the boat was lying at Port Perry.

COOLEY DID NOT FALL OFF THE LOCK.

It was in the lock and the passengers stepped from the boat onto the gates of the lock. They then walked on to the shore. Wilson thinks a person could have fallen off the gate, as the footway was very narrow. Captain Klein was recalled. He said he had watched the passengers land and had seen no one fall into the river. Captain Lud Keefe, of the tug which towed the boat, saw no one fall at the lock. He said the boat entered the lock very smoothly and there was no jar sufficient to throw a man overboard.

Harry Kirkpatrick and John Davis were in an Allegheny hotel last Tuesday night. They talked to a man who said he knew who had knocked Cooley overboard. The fellow gave his name as S. J. Buchanan. This name does not appear in the directory and he could not be produced at the inquest.

John Dalley, one of the principals in the fight, was a witness. He is a barber in Manchester and an owner of dogs. He knew nothing of the death of Cooley. He said he had seen the dog which bit Cooley and he had agreed to furnish his end of the performance.

ZIRUTH DENIES HE MANAGED THE FIGHT.

Gus Ziruth, of 36 Anderson street, Allegheny, was arrested yesterday. He is accused of managing the fight between Cooley and Dalley. Ziruth denies he managed the fight. He says he only acted as a referee. He says he did not know where the fight was to be held. He says he did not know where the fight was to be held. He says he did not know where the fight was to be held.

THE THIEVES HAD BEEN FOUND IN THE HOUSE OF MRS. FINK.

The thieves had been found in the house of Mrs. Fink, No. 100 Washington street, a short time previous, but were chased away before they could lay hands on anything. Davis and his wife had been to church and returned about 8 o'clock. Supper was ready when they arrived home. After the meal the family sat down in the kitchen and talked together for a time.

FOUND VISITORS IN THE HALL.

At about 8:45 o'clock Davis arose and went out in the hallway. The gas was not lighted. Friday is the Sabbath of the orthodox Hebrews, to whose faith Davis belongs, and no fires or lights save that of one candle are burned during the night.

RETURNING TO THE KITCHEN AND FINDING HIS WIFE AWAITING HIM.

After looking about for a few minutes he returned to the kitchen and sat there for awhile. The family includes four children and Davis' mother. The children were tired and asked their mother to put them to bed. While Mrs. Davis was upstairs her husband again went in the hallway to close the front door. On opening the inside door, back of which there is a screen, he found a young man standing on the steps. The fellow was dressed very neatly, and seemed about to rap on the inside door. He was too faint to pull the bell, and the fact made Davis suspicious for a moment only.

THE UNWELCOME VISITOR WAS INSTANT.

When asked what he wanted the young man replied that he was looking for Morris Samuels, whom he thought lived at that number. On being informed that no such person had ever lived at the house the man expressed some surprise. Mr. Davis told him he knew Morris Samuels, who lived on Chatham street, but the stranger replied that it was not the same. He insisted upon telling Davis that he thought the man he was seeking lived or boarded in the house, and more than half a dozen times he had to be informed that no such person was in the house or ever had been there.

HE KEPT PUSHING DAVIS BACKWARD ALL THE WHILE, UNTIL THAT GENTLEMAN'S FACE WAS ON A LEVEL WITH THE PANEL OF THE PARLOR DOOR.

He kept pushing Davis backward all the while, until that gentleman's face was on a level with the panel of the parlor door, which is about nine feet from the front entrance. Suddenly the light from the Sabbath candle, which burned on the dining-room table, fell instant on the hall wall reflecting the face of a man who crouched at the entrance to the parlor.

A FIGHT WITH TWO BURGLARS.

Davis instantly grabbed both men by the coat collars, and they closed with him. Davis is a powerfully built man, about 5 feet 10 inches tall. He let one of the fellows go for a moment and with a heavy blow knocked him at his feet. He repeated the deed to the other and then called his wife. The man who had been in the parlor was George Grogan and he was the first to attempt to rise. He put his hand in his back pocket as if to draw a revolver, when Davis struck again, this time to render the burglar insensible for a short time. He warned both men that they would kill either one of them if they attempted to rise.

JORDAN PLEADED TO BE LET GO SWEARING THAT HE WAS ONLY LOOKING FOR HIS FRIEND.

Davis told him that he didn't understand why they entered his house, and if they could satisfactorily explain their presence to an officer he would be willing to let them go.

MRS. DAVIS DISPLAYS COURAGE.

Mrs. Davis arrived on the scene in a little while, followed by the children and old Mrs. Davis. The young woman grabbed one of the fellows whom her husband was holding on the floor, and displayed admirable nerve in telling him that she should remain where he was until the police were notified. Considerable uproar, created by the prisoners, brought a number of the neighbors to the house. A couple of the men kept the burglars under watch while Mrs. Davis and one of the children went after Officer Elmore. The latter placed both men under arrest.

AFTER BEING TAKEN TO THE STATION A SMALL BOTTLE OF CHLOROFORM WAS FOUND ON THE PARLOR FLOOR.

At the station house two more bottles of the same drug were found on Grogan's person and one on Jordan's. Beside this a revolver was taken from Grogan.

THEY WERE DISCOVERED TOO SOON.

The intention of the burglars was to get at the safe in the dining room. They must have known that Friday was Sabbath at the Davis home and that the family went early to bed. Had they not been discovered so soon they could have gone to work on the safe within half an hour.

GROGAN IS AN OLD OFFENDER, WHO LATELY SERVED THREE YEARS IN THE WESTERN PENITENTIARY FOR ROBBERY OF THE SALOON OF PHILIP TRESS, ON GRAND STREET, UNDER THE MOST DARING CIRCUMSTANCES AFTER EFFECTING AN ENTRANCE THROUGH THE SKYLIGHT BY MEANS OF A LADDER.

He gave his address at the Eleventh ward station as the Twelfth ward. Jordan described himself as a clerk, living at 276 Shady lane. Both men will be given a hearing to-day.

NOT SO MANY DOGS DOOMED.

The number of dogs caught and taken to the pound up to date is 2,978; the number drowned is 1,688; the number redeemed 398. The money received for redeemed dogs is $188, and the total amount received for all the time is $751. This falls considerably below that of last year.

ALL QUIET AT THE ELBA.

Nothing new developed at the Elba yesterday. Manager Elverson reported that he was well satisfied at the way things were moving and said new men were coming in all the time. The strikers claim that the good work is being turned out and are still confident of success.

ANOTHER FURNACE TO BE BLOWN.

The Isabella Furnace Company, of Sharpsburg, will start up another furnace next week. The plant consists of three blast furnaces, two of which have been idle all summer because of the strikes. This will employ an additional 150 men and boys.

LOGAN FOUND A LAW.

The Ruling of a Westmoreland Court Is the Foundation for CARNEGIE OFFICIALS' ARREST.

PROMINENT CRIMINAL LAWYERS ENGAGED BY THE DEFENSE.

CHIEF M'BROOM IS DISCHARGED.

The charge of aggravated riot and conspiracy against H. C. Pfrick and the other Carnegie officials was liberally discussed by the Pittsburgh lawyers yesterday. The reported early withdrawal of all the troops caused a deal of comment among the locked-out mill workers. It was intended to have relieved the military this week, but the developments of the past few days had caused the officers to take a more serious view of the situation. General Wiley advised the retaining of the troops at Homestead till the present difficulty is settled. It was decided to keep them there for an indefinite period.

GENERAL WILEY URGES THAT THE MILITARY BE KEPT AT HOMESTEAD—A FALSE REPORT EXCITES MANY COMMENTS—CHIEF M'BROOM DISCHARGED—MORE DESERTIONS FROM THE MILL.

General Wiley came to Pittsburgh early yesterday morning to meet Adjutant General Greenland, and confer as to the final disposition of the Sixteenth Regiment now on duty at Homestead. The reported early withdrawal of all the troops caused a deal of comment among the locked-out mill workers. It was intended to have relieved the military this week, but the developments of the past few days had caused the officers to take a more serious view of the situation. General Wiley advised the retaining of the troops at Homestead till the present difficulty is settled. It was decided to keep them there for an indefinite period.

NON-UNION MEN WANT PROTECTION.

"It is very evident that the non-union men feel the need of the protection afforded by the troops, and should they be withdrawn at present, I feel sure many would leave the mills. The only change that will be made in the brigade is the heading out, which will probably be made next week. After this week I expect to spend about half of my time at Homestead. Yes, if the strikers are to be kept out of the right kind of men he could keep the peace here and we would not be needed, but I doubt whether the deputies could be secured."

LAST EVENING A REPORT WAS STARTED THAT THE TROOPS HAD BEEN ORDERED HOME.

This caused great rejoicing among the strikers. A crowd of women collected on the street, and shouting and waving their flags by a general rejoicing. One man standing near by when he heard the report exclaimed: "I am glad of it. Now, I will have a general strike." The report was soon found to be untrue. The troops were not ordered home.

WILLIAM MCBROOM, CHIEF OF THE COAL AND IRON POLICE, WAS DISCHARGED YESTERDAY.

Several weeks ago it was rumored that the company was contemplating this move. It is also reported that he is suspected of having given the tip to the strikers that the boxes were to be removed from the Pinkerton station, thus allowing them to be removed. When the mine was raided nothing was found except a few boxes of clothing belonging to Captain Cooper, who commanded the Pinkertons on the ill-fated barges, and a life-preserver. It was evident that the boxes had been removed only a few hours before.

THIRTY-FOUR NON-UNION MEN ARE SAID TO HAVE DESERTED YESTERDAY, FOUR OF WHOM WERE WITH THE COAL AND IRON POLICE.

One of the strikers, James Connelley, had been engaged by a Carnegie agent as soon as landing in this country a short time ago, as he was an experienced steelworker. He said the open hearth departments were in bad condition, and that good work could not be done there at present. He gave this as the reason why he left the mills.

A CROWD OF ABOUT 200 MEN ASSEMBLED AT MUNDLICH STATION FOR SOME REASON UNKNOWN, AND FOR A TIME TROOPS WERE NARROWLY ESCORTED.

After much work the deputies succeeded in dispersing the crowd without any arrests being made.

WAR ON SPEAK-EASIES.

Eighty-Seven Informations Made in One Day—Five Hundred Warrants Likely to Be Issued—Many Arrests Made Already—Aiding the Police to Suppress the Evil.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY BURLEIGH HAS JOINED HANDS WITH THE POLICE TO DOWN THE SPEAK-EASY PROPRIETORS, AND JUDGING FROM YESTERDAY'S DEVELOPMENTS, ILLEGAL LIQUOR SELLING IN THIS CITY WILL BE DANGEROUS AND EXPENSIVE HEREAFTER.

Under the District Attorney's orders, County Detective Beltzhoover yesterday entered informations against 87 different persons for selling without license and on Sunday. Three were arrested. It is stated that 500 warrants will be issued before the officials set out.

The plan adopted is to enter suit against every person who has been convicted before the grand jury in each case and indictments for court trial secured. Against many of those heretofore fined additional suits will be entered, as it is claimed they have never ceased to sell, notwithstanding the prosecutions of the police.

The warrants are in the hands of the police all over the city. A large number of arrests are expected to-day. Those arrested yesterday were John Schulz, of Liberty and Twenty-fifth streets; John Harkins, of Jones avenue; Mary O'Neill, of Mulberry alley; and one named Grogan, of Jones avenue, but lately she has been located on Mulberry alley.

THERE IS NO CONTROVERSY.

County Treasurer Bell and Controller Morrow have an understanding. Controller Morrow denies that there is any controversy between himself and County Treasurer Bell over the latter's commission on the city's share of liquor license fees. The controller states that Treasurer Bell first raised the question of his right to a commission. City Attorney Moreland, when appealed to was doubtful about it, but Allegheny's attorney, George Elphinstone, decided the Treasurer was entitled to a commission under the act and the County Treasurer Morrow arranged with Mr. Bell that he is to deduct his commission from the liquor license receipts. Then the Controller was asked to ask for a rule on the County Treasurer to show cause why he should withhold any of the money.

The liquor license fees due the city amount to $200,000 and the County Treasurer's commission, if allowed, would amount to a little over $1,000.

PREPARING FOR THE CELEBRATION.

A committee of 50 on Columbus Day Arrangements Appointed To-day. Mayors Gourley and Kennedy will meet this morning to appoint a committee of 50 on the Columbus Day celebration, October 21. The committee will represent the Columbus Club, the Turners and other German societies, a number of Italian organizations in the county, as well as other civic and social societies.

A meeting was held yesterday in the Mayor's office. H. C. Beedel appeared, with six other members of the Columbus societies, and said they would be prepared to bear their share of the expense of the celebration. As soon as the committee of 50 is organized the arrangement of the details will be a feature of the day.

FELL OFF BRIDGE.

John Carlin Dropped 70 Feet Striking on His Head, but Will Recover. John Carlin fell off the Panhandle bridge at Temperanceville yesterday, dropping about 70 feet and alighting on his head. He was taken to the Homeopathic Hospital. His cranium was slightly fractured, and when he recovered consciousness he asked for a cigar. He is about 70 years of age.

WILLIAM WISE FELL OFF THE NEW THIRTY STREET BRIDGE.

His left leg was broken and he was otherwise badly hurt. 70 years, fell from a scaffold while working on Main street and broke two ribs. On account of his age it is thought he will not recover.

TRIED TO ESCAPE.

A Central Station Prisoner Gets Away From the Building, but is Recaptured. While Sergeant Metz was serving his dinner, Albert Metz, a black, tall, young man from Frankfort, Ind., who was arrested in this city by his way to Washington the previous night by Detective Robinson, took advantage of the open door to escape from Central station yesterday. The outside door happened to be open for the instant. Captain Gray, who was on duty, saw the prisoner escape and fired a shot at Albert. Two firemen from No. 3 engine company caught the fugitive before he got to the street and he was returned. The young man will be taken back to Indiana to-day.

ELBA WOMEN IN TROUBLE.

Alderman Gripp Reserves His Decision in the Suit of Mrs. Cook. Mrs. Elizabeth Kent, Mrs. Johanna Duick and Mrs. Catherine Joyce were given a hearing before Alderman Gripp yesterday afternoon on a charge of disorderly conduct made by Mrs. M. Cook, wife of the manager of the Elba Iron Works. The defendants are all wives of men on a strike at the Elba works. Mrs. Cook alleges that she cannot go out into her yard or onto the street but the defendants deny this, saying things at her. The defendants denied that they had done anything wrong, and Alderman Gripp reserved his decision until Monday.

CABLE LETTERS A SPECIAL FEATURE OF THE DISPATCH EVERY SUNDAY.

THEY RODE THROUGH FIRE.

The Passengers on the Fifth Avenue Cable Car Have a Peculiar Experience. The natural gas main running alongside the Fifth avenue cable tube sprung a leak at the corner of Boston street last night. In some manner the escaping gas took fire and blazed to a height of a couple of feet for about 30 feet along the slot. It was at first feared the road would have to suspend, but fortunately it proved unnecessary.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM WRECK.

One of the drivers on the locomotive hauling the Atlantic express broke west of Columbus early yesterday morning. The engine left the track, but fortunately was stopped before the train was wrecked. The passengers were badly frightened. Through trains were delayed several hours.

RIGHT WAY TO DO IT.

Ellwood City, Pa., is building a $7,000 brick and stone school house and putting down a sewer line. The sewer line is of sewer and water pipe. Not bad for so young a town.

WANT ADVERTISEMENTS FOR THE SUNDAY DISPATCH.

Should be handed in at the East Liberty Branch Office. Not later than 8:30 o'clock Saturday morning. For full particulars apply to ALLEGHENY BRANCH OFFICE.

BEFORE 8:30 P. M.

Otherwise they will be too late to classify.
