IN THE

LOVELIEST HOME

EAST END. We have been authorized to offer at private sale the handsome residence property of the late Wm. P. Shinn, situated on the most aristocratic portion of Penn avenue. The grounds contain about six acres of land sufficiently rolling to insure perfect drainage and beauty, with not one inch going to waste; the lawn is simply perfect, and in connection with the handsome forest trees shows the result of 25 years care and skill.

Men of wealth are generally men of disskill.

Men of wealth are generally men of discernment, and in this immediate vicinity are to be found the homes of the Messrs, Westinghouse, Frick, Carnegie, Schwartz, Jackson, Card, Laughlins, Woodwell, French, Weinweight, etc. No expense was spared by Colonel Shinn to make his grounds as nearly perfect as na-ture and art combined could make them; over three miles of tile under draining was placed on the premises, and no amount of money, unassisted by time, could duplicate the magnificent avenue of maple trees that line the eastern side of the property. For price and all particulars call on Mr. JOSEPH A. SHINN, on the premises, or
