A CLEAN WHITEWASH.

Our Sluggers Get an Old-Fashioned Dose of It at St. Louis. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.]

Sr. Louis, Sept. 26 .- The Pittsburgs were tendered an old-fashioned Brown Stocking white-drawing nine blanks in a lot tery in which they regarded themselves as einch winners. Breitenstein, Chris Von der Ahe's south-pay twirler, did the business, and he did it in fine style, but one Smoky City wash to-day.

Italian reaching third base, while but five got to first. Breitenstein not only had the visitors at his mercy, but he was accorded magnificent support. Briggs caught a great game, and easily threw out Donovan and Kelly, the only men who attempted to steal second. Had a Very Lucky Day. The Browns, taking it all in all, had a lucky day, as both their scores were gifts on peculiarly disastrous plays. The Pittsburgs struggled hard to free themselves from the Breitenstein hoodon, but they were not equal to the task. Beckley and Miller made heroic efforts through their combined caliope forces to coach themselves into victory, but even this failed them. The Browns scored their first run in the second. After Caruthers flew to Kelly, Brodle hit safe. Moriarity followed with a scratch single and both were advanced a base on a passed ball. Camp flew to Smith, who threw wildly to second to catch Moriarity napping, whereupon Brodie trotted home. Had Smith thrown perfectly Bierbauer could easily have retired Moriarity.

In the third Breitenstein got his base on balls. Crooks struck out, and as he did so Miller threw wildly to Beckley to catch Breitenstein and the latter scampered to Mr. Glasscock Figured in It.

Glasscock's sacrifice put him on third and he scored on Werden's hit, which bounded over Shugart's head. Caruthers flew to Kelly. In the sixth and ninth the Browns got men on third, but Ehret's effective work prevented them from scoring.

Pittsburg started out as though they in-tended to kill Breitenstein, Donovan, the first man to the bat, smashing the ball hard for a single, but appearances are deceitful and they fell down before Breitenstein easier than Sullivan did before his victor. At times the visitors hit the ball hard enough, but they were unlucky in having it cobbled up, and Crooks, Brodie and Glass-cock cut off several apparently safe hits. Ebret pitched a game that would ordinarily have won, and he kept the hits well scat-tered. The work of Parrell was marvel-lously fine. Two of his stops drew forth prolonged applause, cutting off hits both times. Attendance, 1,100. The score: ST. LOUIS REPAE PITTSEURG REPAE

HARVARD NOT IN IT.

The University's Football Team Will Not Join the New Association.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., Sept. 26 .- All rumors to the contrary, Harvard has not joined the Intercollegiate Football Association, nor will she become a member of that organization. The association now includes Princeton, Yale, Wesleyan and the University of l'ennsylvania. Two years ago Harvard was also in it, but after charging Princeton with playing professional athletes-or at least playing processional football men-Harvard withdrew. Since then the possibility of Harvard entering the association again has been much discussed, but no formal steps been much discussed, but no formal steps have been taken. Some thought that Harvard would go back this year, and a report to that effect has actually been started. But the rumor is explicitly denied.

F. W. Moore, the President and Manager of the Harvard University Football Association, said to-day: "We have no reason for believing that any of the colleges in the association are paying their players, or, in other words, paying professionals; but, nevertheless, we see no cause for our entering the league. We think that by far the best plan for us is to act independently and arrange such games at such times and in such places as may be for the best alvantage of Harvard football and Harvard athletics generally. In short, we have nothing to gam and nothing to lose by being tied up in an association."

Great Events at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Sept., 26.—The committee in charge of the big dedication day bicycle tournament, to be held October 21 and 22 at Washington Park, reports that the park management are putting the track in record-breaking shape. Twenty thousand invita-tions will be mailed to prominent men all over the country, horsennen in particular, to see Nancy Hanks' record of 2:07½ (made on this famous track) broken. Zimmerman will go a rainst his own record, with flying start, 2:06 4.5, with wheelinen as pacemak ers, and also against Johnson's 1:36 3.5 with running horses as pacemakers. GRIFFIN KNOCKS LYNCH OUT. Five Rounds Winds Up One of the Gan

Fights of the Season. COMET ISLAND, Sept. 26.—A large and en-thusiastic crowd of from 6,000 to 7,000 people assembled at the Coney Island Athletic Club to-night to witness the two crack contests which were advertised to take place. The opening event was a 15 round "go" between Sam Kelly, of the West Side Athletic Club, of New York, the West Side Athletic Club, of New York, and Bob Cunningham, of the Brooklyn Athletic Club. It was awarded to Cunningham by the referee at the end of the 15th round. It was a veritable slugging match.

The contest of the evening was the second event, and it was a finish fight between Jimmy Lynch, of this city, and Johnny Griffin, of Braintree, Mass. A large amount of money was bee on this fight, as the 122-pound championship and a purse of 22,500 depended on the result. It was one of the gamest fights that has ever been fought in the C-ney Island Club. It was evident from the start that Lynch was overmatched, as Griffin hit him as he pleased. A hard blow on Lynch's neck in the fifth round, followed by another on the temple, laid him on the floor to remain, unable to get up at the counting of the ten seconds. The fight was then awarded to Griffin.

MITCHELL STILL ANXIOUS.

He Wants to Know What Corbett Intend to Do About Fighting.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26 - [Special.]-The following cable was received here to-day; London, Sept. 26.—Charley Mitchell is anxiously waiting for Corbett to cover his money and officially accept his challenge to fight for $10,000 and largest purse and cham-pionship of the world. The National Sport-ing Club of London offers a purse of £3,000 for Corbett and Mitchell to fight for. The Bolinbroke Club offers a purse of the same amount.

The Coney Island Athletic Club, the Olympic Athletic Club and the California Athletic Club will give twice the amount the National-and Bolinbroke clubs offer. Corbett would not go to England to fight Mitchell under any circumstances. Corbett is champion of the world. He has won that title by defeat-ing Sullivan, and if Mitchell is in earnest he will have to meet Corbett in America. A non-champion cannot dictate terms to a champion.

[The writer of the above piece of news is in error, as Corbett is certainly not champion of the world.—Sporting Ed.]

Miscellaneous Sporting Notes. F. D. P.—Once more we state that James J. Cor-ett is not champion of the world. DR. P.—Teemer and Gaudaur rowed a race on the Monongahela river September 13, 1889. JIM MCVEY, the big wrestler who assisted in training Corbett, has been secured by "Parson" Davies to help train Choynski.

DUNCAN ROSS has arrived in England from Australia, and has challenged any man in England to meet him with broadswords. THERE is no truth in the report that "Tiny" Williams has been engaged to ride for the Scoggan Bros., sithough likely enough he may ride an occasional race for them. THE Rev. J. W. Arney has decided to abandon the turf, and with that view he sold Montle Par-chen and Tillie S to Manistee, (Mich.) parties, and has applied for a pulpit.

THE report sent out from Cincinnati that Jimmy Sheridan would retire from the position of starter is untrue. He will be up the Western circuit as usual and will handle the flag at Washington Park.

WARREN LEWIS has received a letter from Jim Hall in which the latter says he is ready to arrange a match to fight Bob Fitzsimmons in the Concy Island or the Olympic Club for a purse of $15,000, both men to fight at eatch—weight, and the concest to be decided three months from signing articles. STARTER JIMMY Rows is but little over 30 years old. In his time he has been stable boy, for his keep alone; Jockey, for a few hundreds a year; circus rider for a song and something to eat three times a day; trainer, for $10,000 a year; comic opera proprietor, for $20,000 or $30,000 a year; starter for $30,- INDICATIONS now are that the Western Associa-tion championship meeting will be one of the most successful athletic affairs ever held in St. Louis. Entries are pouring in from all the larger Western cities. Chicago, Kansas City, St. Joseph and Denver will have representatives, besides many from Belleville and neighboring places. John C. Myers has charge of the entry list.

THE executive committee of the Washington Jockey Club have decided that the fall running meeting of the club shall commence October 17, and continue for 12 days. There will be the usual tive races each day, and the club will hang up $2,800 daily. Provided there are no meetings held this fall at Linden and Elizabeth the Bennings races will attract all the best stables in the East. THE sale of thoroughbreds at Doncaster, England, on September 13, was well represented by American breeders Mr. Horace Theobold bought three yearlings, paying $4.45 for the three, A. J. Cassatt purchased two filles for $1,000, Marcus Daiy paid $1,500 for bay coit by Hampton, Mr.

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

GRAVESEND RACE TRACK, Sept. 26 .-Slightly cooler weather, with winds, a good track and the attendance of 5,000 spectators were the opening features of to-day's races. Parvenu outclassed his opponents in the first race and all but Roller and Laughing Water were withdrawn. Parvenu won in a gallop, with the prohibitive odds of 1 to 25 against him.

Marcellus second choice at 2 to 1, took the second race without a struggle. Rainbow, the 8 to 5 favorite, finishing last. Reckon found her 122 pounds too heavy for a mile and a quarter and was beaten by both her opponents, Banquet 7 to 10 winning in a gallop, and Willie L, 10 to 1, taking second place from the mare by a length ing second place from the mare by a length and a half. Mordotte, 8 to 1, cleverly ridden, landed the fourth race from the 8 to 1 chance Lyceum, after a stern chase from the start to the last half dozen jumps. Fred Tarnl, the favorite, did not have a chance, as he was all but left at the post, and Key West, second choice, was badly pocketed and knocked about all through the race.

Kildeer, I to 4, galloped away with the fifth race and Doggett stole the sixth from Stonenell with Chesapeake, 9 to 5. Stonenell was winning, but Flynn In trying to make it a head finish, was outridden by Doggett. Summary:

WINNERS AT LATONIA

Non-Favorites Have the Best of the Day or a Slow Track.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 26 .- The track was beave to-day at Latonia in consequence of rain since Saturday, and was about three to four seconds slow to the mile. The weather was cool, but pleasant in the bright sunshine. About 3,000 spectators were present. Non-favorites had the best of it. They won in the second, third, fourth and fifth, and favorites won only in the first and sixth races. There were open finishes in the first, second and sixth, and close finishes in the third, fourth and fifth races. There was a suspension of the judgment on the third race, which Tasco won, to consider a report that Tasco had been pulled last Saturday. It was found that the report was not well founded and he was given the race.

CLOTHING FOR MEN AND BOYS. The Newest Styles and the Best Fabrics at the Lowest Prices—P. C. C. C., Clothlers.

Any man who needs fall clothing and does not call at our store immediately and see what a little money will buy has only himself to blame. We tell you how to save, point out the way, and if you stubbornly go elsewhere and squander from $5 to $10 more on the price of a suit or overcoat than we charge you, then it's your own fault. Our $5 and $10 suits are really elegant specimens of tailor-made garments; $20 is what you have to pay elsewhere. These $3 and $10 lots include men's cheviot suits, mixtures, rough tweeds, cassimeres and the new cords and Bannockburns, in sack, cutaway or double-breasted style. Fall overcoats, silk-faced, plain if desired, in tan, Oxford gray, brown and black, at $3 and $10. The man who neglects to call and see our goods and our prices does himself an injustice. We save you money. P. C. C. C., Clothiers, corner Grant and Diamond streets. the Lowest Prices-P. C. C. C., Clothlers.

From Thomas M. Marshall, Jr., Esq. The Conover piano which I purchased from you last spring has given entire satisfaction. Modesty forbids that we should praise our own property, but our friends say that it is a very fine instrument, and use a great many high-sounding musical terms which I do not pretend to understand. The truth of the matter is, we purchased the piano entirely upon the recommendation of Mr. H. Kleber, because we knew his reputation to integrity matter is, we pure dation of Mr. H. According upon the recommendation of Mr. H. According to the second with the second musical ability, but if we were to purchase a new plane new, it would be a Concret.

The excursion which was to have been given Saturday night under the anspices of the locked-out marble polishers, on the steamer City of Pittsburg, did not take place owing to the opening between the piers of the Sixth street bridge being too small to allow the boat to pass through to receive the passengers at Thirtieth street landing. The excursion may probably come off next Saturday. excursion may probably come off next Saturday.

SOME damage was done to the vessels at the wharf Sunday evening by the storm. The Joseph B. Williams, Djamond, Dick Fulton, Ed Roberts, Hunter, J. M. Gusky, Lud Keefer and City of Pittsburg had their stern ropes severed, the Lud Keefer being damaged the most. Her hog chain brace was broken, and left side partly crushed. It is thought that $500 will put her in shape again. The City of Pittsburg had her bulkhead damaged to the extent of $60 and two of her three-inch check lines were snapped apart by the wind as if they were so much thread. The Diamond sustained slight injuries, while the Smoky City, which is tied up at Pork House landing, was loosened from her moorings and her electric light was blown down, but was caught by the ropes before it could be damaged. Her Captain, J. McClure, who was in from Dravosburg yesterday, said the storm was without precedent in this vicinity for violence.
