THE END OF A PROMINENT SOUTHERNER

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—The end of a decade of wild speculations of a hazardous kind in the hope always delusive that each successive scheme would bring large wealth,

His Career in Office.

Colonel W. P. Canaday was formerly a Confederate soldier, later a staunch Republican and for several years past the North Carolina member of the Republican National Committee.

His Tale Was Too Fishy.

Following this scene was another in which J. Q. A. Houghton, a captain on Hancock's staff during the war and a partner of Colonel Canaday, told his partner that he did not believe the story and would have it investigated by the police.

Wisconsin's Gerrymander.

The Supreme Court Practically Knocks It Out.—Protestors to the Action May Delay the Final Adjudication Until After the Election is Over.

THE CLUBS THAT ARE REPRESENTED

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] WILLIAMSPORT, Sept. 27.—This Democratic city has taken on quite a Republican air since the influx of delegates to the annual convention of the State League of Republican Clubs set in, and to-night there is a glare of red fire and a sound of music that have attracted all the inhabitants to the sidewalks.

The Gathering of the Class.

W. W. Auchenbaugh is Chairman of the local committee, but he is ably supported by the Young Men's Republican Club of Williamport, which has a large force at work under the management of ex-Sheriff Sprague and George S. Lehart, and very stranger is taken care of. There is a lavish display of red, white and blue bunting.

No Anti-Robinson Feeling Yet.

To-morrow the convention will meet at the Lycoming Opera house, where it is thought that business will be speedily concluded.

A Weak Case Against the Delamaters.

MEADVILLE, Sept. 27.—Nothing startling was developed in the trial of the Delamater case to-day. C. M. Loomis, of Oil City, testified that he was engaged in the banking business and had had a conversation with V. M. Delamater in December, 1890, in regard to a check which had been forwarded to the Delamaters to be cashed.
