ALTERATIONS

Now being made to our building for the easy handling of a large stock of wall paper will not be completed until October 15, until which time we will offer the same low prices which time we will offer the same low prices made during our remnant sale. On account of being so upset we must offer extra inducements to buyers, otherwise a great part of our stock will be ruined it not sold. Next year the prices of wall paper will be higher. Buy now—yon will save money. We pay so postage an samples of wall paper, which we send FREE to any address. It the samples were not the best and our prices the lowest this money would be wasted. We pay freights on all orders of $3 or over. When you come to the Exposition call and see our stock.

DAVIES & VANGORDER, 110 COLLINS AVE., E. E. LOVELIEST HOME

IN THE EAST END.

We have been authorized to offer at private sale the handsome residence property of the late Wm. P. Shinn, situated on the most aristocratic portion of Penn avenue. The grounds contain about six acres of land sufficiently rolling to insure perfect drainage and beauty, with not one inch going to waste; the lawn is simply persect, and in connection with the handsome forest trees shows the resulf of 25 years' care and trees shows the result of 25 years' care and skill. trees shows the result of 25 years care and skill.

Men of wealth are generally men of discernment, and in this immediate vicinity are to be found the homes of the Messrs. Westinghouse, Frick, Carnegie, Schwartz, Jackson, Card, Laughlins, Woodwell, French, Wainwright, etc.

No expense was spared by Colonel Shina to make his grounds as nearly perfect as nature and art combined could make them; over three miles of tile under draining was placed on the premises, and no amount of money, unassisted by time, could duplicate the magnificent avenue of maple trees that line the eastern side of the property.

For price and all particulars call on Mr. JOSEPH A. SHINN, on the premises, or
