

UNABLE TO ANSWER.

The Census Bureau's Questions Were Very Imprecisate.

SO STEEL MANUFACTURERS SAY.

Pittsburg Statistics May Appear in the Coming Bulletin.

R. F. JONES AND OTHERS TALK ABOUT IT

If Pittsburg is not given a place in the coming census bulletin, giving the manufacturing statistics of the leading cities of the United States, it will be because of the impracticability of the questions asked by the census officials. That Pittsburg is not on the list, however, is not an assured fact, and it is thought by many that when the bulletin is issued Pittsburg will be there.

Dispatches from Washington yesterday said that the report was about completed. According to that dispatch, it is to show that in every State the McKinley bill was followed by a large increase in the number of manufacturing establishments and that the capital invested is increased. It is also to show that the wages of the employees have increased in proportion.

A FRIEND OF FREEDMEN.

Arrangements for the funeral of Rev. R. H. Allen.

The funeral of Rev. R. H. Allen, late Secretary of the Board of Missions for Freedmen of the Presbyterian Church, will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock from the East Liberty Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Allen has been a resident of Pittsburg for some years and died at his home in the East End yesterday. He was a native of Kentucky, and was educated at Danville and at first studied law, but afterward entered the Presbyterian ministry, in which he served faithfully and successfully for over 40 years.

He preached in Kentucky, Missouri, Indiana, Tennessee and Pennsylvania. He had charge of a large church in Philadelphia when he was in 1880 elected Secretary of the Board of Freedmen, with headquarters at Pittsburg. He was a successful and eloquent preacher of the gospel.

The Freedmen Board under his secretaryship has steadily grown in usefulness and power. His father was a slave holder in Kentucky, but during the war Dr. Allen was a staunch Union man. He was a true friend to the colored man and gave his heart and soul to their welfare during the last 12 years of his life.

The board as a body will attend the funeral to-day, the ministers taking part in the religious services and the laymen acting as pallbearers.

A NEW DEPARTMENT. Chief Bigelow Has Foreign Ideas for Protecting the Streets.

Filled with ideas of public improvement in foreign countries, Chief Bigelow proposes to offer some sweeping changes in the ordinance relating to cars and vehicle tax, which was presented in Common Council on Monday last.

The Chief's substitute provides for a tax of $100 on street cars, $10 on two-horse vehicles, and $6 on one-horse vehicles. Mr. Bigelow has one very important feature that he will have tacked on to it. It will be a requirement relating to the width of wagon tires.

He proposes that the owners of vehicles help the city in taking care of the streets and will have an amendment made to the ordinance offering concessions to the owners of wagons and carriages who will use vehicles with broad tires. This amendment will provide that a rebate of three-fourths of the license be made to owners who use wagons with 5-inch tires, a rebate of one-half where 4 1/2-inch tires are used, a rebate of one-fourth where 4-inch tires are used and one-eighth rebate on tires less than 4 inches and above 3 inches; no rebate to be allowed for tires less than 3 inches and 3 inches broad. Mr. Bigelow believes this will be an incentive for teamsters having heavy hauling to do to use a broad tire and thus preclude the cutting up of streets.

Hark! What's That? The dinner bell, of course. Not a particularly welcome sound to the dyspeptic. But if the stomach be put in working order, and appetite insured with Hovener's Stomach Bitters, we welcome the tinseling-alizing that announces a meal with delight. The bitters not only promotes digestion, but overcomes malarial and liver complaints, constipation, nervousness, rheumatism.

"TID-BITS." EXPOSITION. "All aboard," for the Exposition. Levy and his watchless band will entertain you royally. While there take a trip with Prof. Cromwell to "lands beyond the sea." You will enjoy it immensely.

EXPOSITION. "Happy as I: from care I'm free, why aren't they all contented like me?" Sturdy from the fact that you have been to the Exposition and they have not. As a happy-go-lucky producer the Exposition is in an enviable position.

EXPOSITION. "When the corn is waving, Annie, don't let the Exposition in full blast. The Exposition season is the gala season in Pittsburg. Everybody looks happy and happy and is happy when they visit the Exposition.

EXPOSITION. "You'll find it wholesome" the other day and think he was given what it was right that he should know, do not think it is the intention of the census department to make the coming report a tariff lecture. I do not see how it could be.

EXPOSITION. "If you had gone to the Exposition you would have found him. Everybody goes there." (Something new to-morrow.) An Old Lady's Miraculous Escape. Through the kindness of Messrs. Hutchison and their pastor, Rev. Mr. W. H. Hovener, Mrs. Irwin, was cured of a cancer of the face. Although it is a rule of the hospital that no patients are treated outside of the institution at Sewickley, Pa., on account of Mrs. Irwin's extreme age and feeble condition, Mr. L. W. Hutchison, assisted by the resident physician, Dr. J. B. Chantler, came to the City Hospital and applied the cancer plaster, and in ten days successfully removed the cancer without the use of the knife. Mrs. Irwin is now in better health than she has been for years and is desirous to testify to the wonderful merits of the cancer plaster at the Hutchinson Cancer Hospital, as it was entirely successful in Mrs. Irwin's case after all other remedies had failed.

Matron Episcopal Church Home, Pittsburgh, Pa. Send for circulars and testimonials to Hutchinson Cancer Hospital, Sewickley.

CARR WINS 80 PAIR.

He Has Anton Smeltzer and Bella Gauld Held for Court.

Joseph Carr, of Carr Bros., Liberty street, was yesterday the prosecutor in a conspiracy case against Anton Smeltzer and Bella Gauld, of Temperanceville, before Alderman McGaster. The defendants first brought a serious charge against Carr some months ago. This was heard before Squire Madden, of Temperanceville, and Carr was held for court.

In the conspiracy case yesterday an effort was made to show that the defendants had falsely conspired against Carr. Theodore A. O'Brien appeared for the defendants and Morton Hunter for the prosecutor. During the course of the testimony the prosecutor announced he would enter suit against Squire Madden for conspiracy also.

Mr. O'Brien made a very eloquent appeal for the defendants, but Alderman McGaster held them for court.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

O. McClintock & Co.'s CURTAIN DEPARTMENT. "Something new for Portieres" has been the cry for the last 10 years. One of the latest arrivals is a new plain Chenille Portiere in solid color, with choice of 30 shades. This new fabric is the heaviest and closest known to the trade. Its high lustre and closeness of texture give to it in perfection the play of light called sheen, and the quality of hanging in soft folds, both essential to successful decorative effect in door-hangings and window draperies. In these respects the new fabric is superior to plain flax velour portieres, generally sold at $13.50 per pair. Our price is only $10. O. McClintock & Co., 33 FIFTH AVE. 8229-7778
