of Premillennarianism.

Over 1,500 people gathered yesterday at anniversary. The people came from Ohio, pass which rivals in grandeur and beauty the pass of Glencoe or Glengarifi. The day was one of the loveliest of the year. Not a cloud fleeced the sky, and the foliage had donned its brightest hues. The church, re-built in 1868, stands at the head of the old graveyard and fronts a grove of chestnut, hickory, oak, walnut and locust trees. The woods were filled with wagons, carriages and buggies. A large crowd was assembled at a very early hour, and was entertained with the liveliest music by Toerro's Orchestra. Such music music by Toerge's Orchestra. Such music had never before been heard within sound of that graveyard, but there was no rattle among the bones.

the aisles and people stood around the walls. Back of the pulpit hung fine pict-

1,600,000,000 of the earth's population, not over 200,000,000 can be counted on as truly belonging to the flock. But they are to wait in hope as they will be literally kings and priests, and if they supper with Christ they will literally reign with him and the kingdom to be set up on this earth. This kingdom will not come gradually, but will be set up quickly and very soon, as we are living in the last days.

One Preacher Dissents. The sermon was a bold avowal of fear-

At noon the immense congregation was treated to an abundance of refreshments.

Tables hundreds of teet long were set un-der the trees, and seats were provided for
