A QUICK-LIME GRAVE.

A Beautiful, but Hard-Hearted Girl Murders Her Babe and

BURIES IT IN LIME IN A CELLAR.

The Father of the Child Charged With

Ferious (ffenses. BOTH THE CULPRIES ARE NOW IN JAIL

Grace Brown, a girl of great beauty and not quite 17 years of age, was placed in the county jail last night to answer in court on a charge of murdering her infant boy. Oliver Meredith, a handsome young passenger brakeman on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad's through train, the alleged father of the child, was taken from his post of duty and lodged in the same prison earlier in the day. Meredith has three serious charges against him. Miss Brown's home is at Elrod station, better known as Boston, and Meredith lives with his folks at Bissell station, on the B. & O. The circumstances of the case are particularly sad and at the same time revolting. Grace Brown is a stepdaughter of Edward Brown, one of the oldest and most trusted engineers on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. Her father was his brother. When his brother died several years ago Mr. Brown married the widow and has ever since exercised what he supposed was a careful guardianship over his brother's children, Grace and a younger sister, Maggie.

Fell in Love With Meredith.

A little more than a year ago, when Grace Brown was just budding into a remarkably well-developed woman, she be-gan to receive attentions from Oliver Meredith. She was attending a private school in McKeesport, her steptather being anxions to endow her with a good educaon the trains, the girl selecting Meredith's train whenever possible. He was 23 years of age, and fell deeply in love with the pretty school girl, or at least affected to, and his love was returned with interest. Meredith called a few times at the Brown house, but on account of the youth of Miss Grace her mother was not over civil so him. Early last February when his visits entirely ceased there was no regret on the part of the mother and stepfather, though Miss Grace was downcast

Being naturally a bright, cheerful girl, the change in her demeanor was noticed by her triends. Observing the inquiring glances of people the girl shook off the grief she was enduring, and appeared among them as gay as ever. It was not un-til the early part of the present week that a suspicion of her shame was raised.

A Suspicious Humane Agent. In a house near the Browns there lives a local agent of the Humane Society. An inquiry was started, and the Coroner was quietly notified early yesterday morning. Grant Miller, the Coroner's clerk, was deputized to investigate the case, and after a careful search through the house found a well-developed infant buried in quick lime in the cellar. The child had been buried several days, and the lime had partially destroyed it, the feet and hands having been already eaten away by the alkali.

When confronted with the evidence of her crime the girl contessed. The child was born early last Friday morning. She said she had rolled it in a blanket and placed it at the foot of the bed, but later, inding it dead, had taken it to the cellar. Her sister had subsequently covered it

A post mortem examination held yester-ay showed that the child had died either of strangulation or neglect. It had been fully developed, and born alive and well. The Coroner's jury returned a verdiet of mur-der, and the girl was brought to jail by Brown, Grant Miller. On the way to the train Ed Brown, the steplather, was called from his engine and the situation explained to him. Brown bad never suspected anything of the kind, and the caused him to tall to the ground in a faint. When he recovered he insisted on accom-panying the erring girl to the jail, which he was allowed to do. The man seemed to age ten years on the trip.

MURRAY'S gossip from national political headquarters a feature of THE DISPATCH

Delay in applying for a policy of life insur-ance, but do it now. Delays are dangerous.

Don't Apply anywhere, but be sure that you get the most liberal policy devised, not in any one particular, but every particular.

Don't Take any unless it is unrestricted as to resitence and travel from date of Issue, incon-testable after two years and non-teitable after three years, with aguaranteed cash surrender from year to year plainly stated

Don't

Take a policy without a return of premiums after ten years and a "loan clause" attached. This prevents a "squeezing ont" proces and prevents a forfeiture at the period most beneficial to the insured. Don't Be deluded by the "bigness" of a company, as size is no indication of strength. "A bal-loon is a big thing, but a occounct contains more milk."

Be satisfied with a large return, but take it with the company giving you the largest re-

Apply for insurance in any company but the Home Life Insurance Company of New York; the only company that can fulfill the above requirements.

Neglect to send your age and address to the undersigned, who will forward you a statement of the cost and profit accruing on the best insurance policy devised; issued by the strongest, most liberal and conservative line Insurance Companies in existence.
