NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Football enthusiasts are thick these days. Those who a month ago were handling the tennis racket or wielding the base ball bat have now donned canvas suits and are prepared to struggle on an entire different field from now until the ice comes. They have not entirely deserted the tennis courts, for the game has a tascination that not even football can b eak, but the ranks of the amateur ball teams are thinned out until scarcely a man is left to represent the club. The cyclers, however, have not contributed much to the football ranks. This is the best time of the year for the riders and they prefer to enjoy themselves on the wheel to mingling with the surging throngs on the turfed field. They are interested in increasing their speed both on the road and the track, not with any particular event in view but as a matter of satisfaction to themseives. Some of them are looking forward to the hill-climbing contest of the Keystone Bicycle Club and others are rolling up cen-turies and increasing mileage records for the

In the field the runners and jumpers are still training. Next Saturday both the East End Gyms and the Three A's hold club meets for club records and championships. The Three A's divided their fall meet into three sections. The runners had ir day a week ago yesterday, the cyclers had theirs on Thursday last and next Saturday, the hurdlers, jumpers and hammer and shot throwers will try conclusions. The tennis players are still playing practice games and will keep it up until the thermometer works several degrees lower on the system. the average. It is demonstrated every day that there are not enough courts in the club grounds of the city and arrangements to ncrease their number for next season are under way in all directions. Tourneys that will surpass all those of the past season are talked of and plans for hig events the like of which never occurred in this city are matters of every-day discussion. The season will open early next year, weather per-

The next event of importance in the cycling division of the amateur world will in all probability be a 15-noile team race on the Homewood track for a cup valued at $150. It is proposed to have each one of the four bicycle clubs in the city enter five riders to come ete for the cup, the team making the most points to hold the cup for a year and the cup to be held three years to entitle its holders to perpetual possession. The Homewood track is a mile, and the riders will have to make 15 laps to be counted as follows: Five for the first at each lap, three for the second and one for the third. The riders will be in full sight of the people all the way, and better time should be made than over country roads. The managers of the Driving Park have promised to put the track in good condition for bicycle riding. It will be scraped and sprinkled and then rolled, so that the Fourteen of Pittsburg's Cyclers went to Wellsville, O., on Thursday last to attend the races of the Tuscarora Wheelmen, and they came back much pleased over the reception they had been given by the local wheelmen. The meet was a great success, and the Pittsburg contingent of six who competed in the races brought back with them 15 prizes out of a total of 29. That they did not capture more was an evidence of their generosity. The track was in per-lect condition, and much better than any possessed by Pittsburg. Its surface was smeoth and hard and it was a half mile, on smeoth and hard and it was a haif mile, on which good time, better than was made on Thursday, can be made. After the races there was a "smoker," and the Pittsburg contingent aided in making things lively. Its members were Messra Banker, Bailey, Bidwell, W. Myler, Paul Myler, T. Myler, Moore, Barr, Irwin, Lange, Gibson, Nelson, Kerlohan and Bidwell.

The Pittsburg Amateur Swimming Asseciation, which was organized last week, is going steadily forward, and already a swimming meet is one of the possibilities of the near future, probably early in November. The club's representative short distance swimmer is Edwin Rielley, and the most dangerous opponent of the A. A. A. crack, William Flower. His friends say that he is, if anything, the better man, and a match between the two would create more than between the two would create more than ordinary interest. It is proposed to add polo playing to the list of attractions of the club this winter. Several games were played last winter and the sport met with a great deal of favor. One of the objects of the club is to teach the members how to save life, as well as to swim, and a medical man will be in attendance to give instruction. John in attendance to give instruction. John Taylor and Arch Mackerall will represent the club in distances from one-fourth mile valry between these two men, and both are

The Allerheny Cyclers had enoth theater party on Thursday evening. They attended the Alvin in uniform in a body, forming in line on the street and riding single file to the theater, where they were received in the conservatory. They occupied a solid block in the center of the house, and were the center of attraction for many of the opera glasses in the hands of fair friends. The McKeesport Cyclers sent up a delegation to attend the party, and it was a merry affair, winding up with a supper. Among those in the party were Messra.

Next Saturday the East End Gyms will have the club fall meeting for club cham-pionships in all the divisions including 100, 220, 440 and 850-yards dashes, one-half and mile runs, 190 and 220-yards hurdle races, pole vault, hammer throwing, mile and two-mile bicycle races, running, high and two-mile bicycle races, running high and bread jumps, putting the 16-pound shot and throwing the hammer. The East End Gyms athletes have made records for themselves, and the club this year, which they may contemplate with a good deal of satisfaction, and they will endeavor to lower their marks on Saturday next.

It is beginning to be apparent that there are not enough Saturdays in the calendar to successfully accommodate all the divisions of the amateur world. For instance, it is probable that from now on until December there will be two or more football games set for each Saturday. Then the wheelmen are centemplating several Saturday eventa, and the difficulty to be met is to so arrange them that, they will not conflict with the other attractions. Next Saturday there are to be two field meets, one at the A. A. A. Park and the other at the East End Gyms. It is also possible that the Keystone Bicycle Club will hold its hill climbing contest on that day. If it does not then it will come in conflict with the team race at Homewood on the following Saturday, together with football games at Three A Park and East End Gym Park or else it will have to go over longer to not again come in opposition to other events. The committee in charge will these to-morrow probably and try to select the best date and the difficulty to be met is to so arrange row probably and try to select the best date for the contest, but it will be a difficult matter to find a date for which something has not already been fixed. Records keep on going down with an as-tonishing rapidity. At the end of the sea-son there will be so many changes to make that those of a year ago will have entirely disappeared. G. A. RANKER will attend Princeton College this winter. He will race under its colors, and next season will be again under the Manhattan Club's protection. His knee has not yet recovered from the effects of a fall a week or so ago.

Charles Perricoan has broken the road record hereabouts. Last Sunday he rode over the Bu ier road on the same route taken by Lenz when he made 162 miles, and when interfered with by the rain had rolled up 172 miles. He says that but for the rain he would have made it 200 even.

surface will be hard and smooth. Outside of the 15-mile race, it is proposed to have several other novel events, such as boys' races on wheels and the like. It is also on the programme to have a race between a pacer and two bleyele riders, if permission from the league can be obtained. J. A. McKelvey, well known in aporting circles, intimated on Friday last that he stood ready to offer a $175 watch to two riders who would defeat a pacing horse of his and the matter may be arranged. In any event the affair is likely to assume huge proportions and attract to Homewood a big attendance on the day named.

The Juniors of the Pittsburg Tennis Club finished a very interesting tournament on Monday last, It was started on the Saturday previous and after playing all day the young gentlemen left the wind-up for Monday. Most of these young players have the making of world-beaters in them, and in an inter-State tourney would without doubt carry off the prises. This was their second tournament and was managed entirely by themselves. It resulted about the same as the first, though it was a handicap affair. Reed won the first prize, Biggs the second and Childs the third. All three of the winners are accomplished in the lawfr. Uf-lawford.

These events are to include the 120 and 220 yards hurdle races, the half-mile walk, pole vault, put-ting the 16 pound shot, running high jump, running broad jump, hop, step and jump and throwing the 16 pound hammer. It is well knows that the A. A. The Western University football team has nearly arranged its schedule for the season and it is a good one. Miss M. Ewine and Mr. Coster played Miss prizes in the September tournament, and won them by a close score.

The July tournament witnessed its rival contest last week when Vaill and Ewing took two sets from Hoopes and Wendt and captured the consolation doubles.

The ladies ought to furnish some close contests here next season, with such play-ers as Miss Chambers, Miss Potter, Miss Burgwin, Miss Voight and Miss Thompson on the list.

MORRIEAD and Reed and Coster and Ewing met across the nets one day during the week and played a very close game. Both partners won a set and darkness came to prevent the decisive set. Moorntan is playing a better game than he did in the tournaments. He expects to get away with more firsts next season than he did this, but he got his share this year and was only beaten by Ewing.

The ladies' contingent of the Pittaburg Tennis Club have been steady attendants upon the courts. On Friday Miss M. Ewing and Miss Murdock played a very interesting match game in which Miss Ewing was the victor.

Gyms and the Western University of Pennsylvania. Hundreds of the friends and sympathizers of each were on the benches and just outside of the boundaries of the field, and they made the neighborhood resound with their shouts of approval whether either side gained an inch or 50 yards.

On the benches were several hundred ladies as enthusiastic as if they had once belonged to a team and knew all about the delights of the game. At the lower end of the field were scores of college boys, all praying that their champions might score or at least prevent the Gyms from making a point. In the field and everywhere were to be seen the members of the East End Gym Association, each confident that their team was more invincible than last year. Then there were members of the A. A. A. team, and other elevens nearby, and altogether it was the most enthusiastic crowd that has been seen anywhere this

Both Sides Were Satisfied. After it was all over the Gyms were satisfied because they had made 16 points and their adversaries nothing, even though the team was not at its best, suffering as it was from the absence of Prof. Kirchner. On the other hand the University boys were satisfied, for they had been up against the strongest team of the neighborhood, and had not only kept the score down to 16 but had prevented a score in the second half. had prevented a score in the second half.

The extra weight did not make itself very apparent in the game, for it was in the "bucking" that the University boys made their most telling plays. It was expected that the University boys would prove more active in running, but most all the brilliant runs were made by the East End Gyms. There were some magnificent End Gyms. There were some magnificent tackles by the sprinters of the University, but on two occasions the Gyms showed a fleetness of foot and an activity that won them the touch-down.

It was an exciting five minutes, during which Martin got the ball and carried it to the Gym goal for a touchdown. He was too fleet of toot for the University boys and got the ball down over the line to the right of the field. Goal was made on the punt-out and six points were scored for the
