New York Democrats to Have Another Fa

NEW YORK, Oct. 3 -[Special]-What promises to be one of the political developments of the week is the organization of an entirely new local Democratic faction, which shall be distinctively an anti-Tammany machine, and which shall declare itself such in its name. The gentlemen who self such in its name. The gentlemen who have the project under advisement say that there is a Democratic opposition to Tammany Hall in the city of at least 40,000 votes, and that there should be a local organization into which these anti-Tammany Democrats can be received and a local ticket which they can support. They agree that the County Democrate as a computation is in County Democracy as an organization is in bad odor, and will not attract all the anti-Tammany element of the party to any ticket which it may nominate. The men who have this project under consideration are some of the New York Democracy leaders and ex-leaders who have been disappointed in their efforts to make that factors are actively and the source of that faction a consistent anti-Tammany machine. Nominations will have to be made by this new party by petition this year, but its projectors believe it will secure enough votes to entitle it to nominate in convention next year and eventually grow so strong that it can drop the words "anti-Tammany" from its title.

PITTSBURG, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 4

Delegates From All Parts of the Country Gather for To-Day's Meeting-The Platform Adopted by the New York State Club Convention Testerday. NEW YORK. Oct. 3 .- The convention of the New York State League of Democratic Clubs drew a big crowd at Chickering Hall at noon to-day. Most of the persons in attendance in addition to the delegates were attracted to the place in the hope of seeing and hearing ex-President Cleveland, who did not attend, however.

The platform adopted was a document of some length. A firm belief was expressed in tarff revision as absolutely necessary to the continued prosperity of the country. The cost of the necessities of life should be reduced. The principles embodied in the force bill were believed to be fraught with the greatest danger to the na-tion. It would have a degrading ten-dency. David Martin and M. S. Quay, with their methods, were roundly denounced. The Federal administration of Benjamin

The Federal administration of Besjamin Harrison was also denounced, while con-trasted with it was the record presented by the safe and honorable administration of Grover Cleveland, David B. Hill and Ros-well P. Flower. The candidates of the Chicago convention were indorsed. Boyd Thatcher, of Albany, was unanimously elected President of the League. Delegates to the convention of the Na-tional Association of Democratic Clubs, which will be held in the Academy of Music to-morrow, began to arrive in the eity at an early hour to-day. NEW YORK, Oct. 3 .- The Times to-morrow will print the following: A stirring cry of warning against Catholicism was uttered by Bishop J. L Johnston, of Texas, to-day in Calvary Church. It was heard by more than a dozen of Dr. Johnston's tellow Bishops of the Episcopalian Church, coming from all parts of the country, by more than 100 Episcopalian clergymen, and by more than 1,000 of the laity of that church. The occasion was the laying of the corner stone of the new Episcopalian mission house. Bishop Potter presided. Bishop Tuthill was the first to speak. Then came Bishop Hare, of South Dakota. "When the brief was prepared, however, was sent on to me to be passed upon and for ten days or so I had it in my office here. You know a charge of treason is something of a rara avis in this Common wealth and the preparation of the brief is a matter of the utmost importance. I was hardly surprised, you may imagine, when the papers told of the arrest. You know that treason is an attempt to overthrow the Commonwealth itself. It is, therefore, the most serious offense that the courts survey, and in my judgment should be visited with the most serious penalty, death. The statutes, however, I believe, limit the punishment to $2,000 fine and 12 years' imprisonment." Seven more of the Homestead men charged before Chief Justice Paxson with treason appeared before Judges Kennedy and McClung yesterday and furnished the required bail. Four of these were among those arrested Friday night; the balance made their first appearance yesterday. Of those arrested Friday who gave the required $10,000 bail and their bondsmen there were: W. Some Secrets That Can't Be Kept.

Ex-Secretary Whitney was philosophical over the difficulty of keeping a political secret known to half a dozen persons. Mr. Cleveland, Mr. Harrity and Mr. Dickinson believed that the announcements should have been made a sort of a sequence. First, it was to be made known that Judge Gresham was to support Mr. Cleveland, and afterward, at proper intervals, the word was to go out concerning Mr. MacVeagh and ex-Judge Cooley.

Gentlemen in charge of Mr. Cleveland's campaign say that Judge Gresham is not expected to come out openly in a letter or other communication and announce his intention to support the Democratic candidate. He was merely expected to tell his friends. Neither is ex-Judge Cooley expected to proclaim his determination from the housetops.

MacVeagh to Speak for Grover.

Mr. MacVeagh, though, from the nondebatable State of Pennsylvania, will come out openly and declare for Cleveland.

The ex-President and Mr. MacVeagh have been personal friends for several years. On Mr. Cleveland's retirement from the White House, March 4, 1889, he established a residence in New York City and entered the iaw firm of Bangs, Stetson, Tracy & Mac-Veagh, in the offices at Pine and William streets. Ex-Attorney General MacVeagh was a special partner.

Mr. MacVeagh came from Philadelphia this morning, talked with members of the National Democratic Committee and re urned to Philadelphia in the evening. A nember of the National Campaign Comnittee said that Mr. MacVeagh is booked or one speech in support of Mr. Cleveland. He did not know whether the speech would se made in New York or in Pennsylvania, out the indications are that it will be in New York.

How Gresham Was Won Over.

Judge Gresham is on intimate terms with Mr. Whitney, Franklin MacVeagh, aid to be a nephew of the ex-Attorney Jeneral and Judge Lambert Tree, Mr. Neveland's Minister to Belgium.

Secretary Sheerin, of the Democratic Naional Committee, said to-day while talking bout the effect Judge Gresham's act would ave in Indiana: "In my letters to-day] ound two from Indiana. This being motion day the court was unusually crowded with other lawyers. William A. Sutherland, who appears for the Republicans in the Monroe county case, asked the court to advance the cases to the head of the calendar, to be immediately heard. Attorney General Rosendale was about to make a similar motion, saying that this was an important question which must be decided before October 19, the last day for filling nominations. Chief Judge Earl said he did not wish to interfere with the work he did not wish to interfere with the work usual to a motion day, and he therefore set all the cases down for argument at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning. This appeared to be satisfactory to all concerned.

Wants a World's Fair Coin

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.-The first application from a foreign country for a World's Fair souvenir coin was received to-day. The letter was from a student in St. Petersburg University, who was willing to pay a large amount for one of the coins.

Sweeney, and Bayne's sureties were J. S. Hollingshead, Jacob Gilleland and Robert MeWhinney. At the adjournment of court all who had been arrested on the charge of treason, except those already in jail on the charge of murder, had been released on bail.

Evan Jones was arrested last night by Constable Mills, of Alderman McMaster's office, on a charge of riot in connection with the Homestead trouble. Evans' home is at Homestead, but it is said he has been in hiding at Braddock for some time, and the constable was informed of his whereabouts. He was brought down to jail last night. The return of the imprisoned men was cause for much rejoicing in Homestead last evening. The accused were given an ovation in a sense; that is, everywhere they went crowds gathered to cheer them and to show that nothing for months has so aroused the people here as the treason suits.

A Meeting of the Advisory Board.

A few members of the old Advisory Board and other leaders met in secret session last night and it is probable that as a result the Amalgamated Association will scatter broadcast circulars detailing the treason suits and urging workingmen to rally to the support of the lockedout men with financial aid. The men feel that they have strong ground for an appeal to the country and they propose to make the most of it. Yesterday was pay day in camp, and as a result there is a general jollification there. The soldiers of the Sixteenth received 46 days' pay, or up to September 24. In all about $31,000 was received, averaging from $3,200 to $3,500 to a company and $3,000 for headquarters. The First National Bank of Homestead cashed the checks and to-night the boys are buying everything from tobles to rubber boots. Colonel Kreps received the checks for the Fifteenth Regiment also and forwarded them to-night. The pay was for $1 days and reached $27,000.

Chairman H. C. Frick visited the mill and spent several hours inspecting the vari-ous departments. When he came out he seemed very contented and remarked, "The mill seems to be operating quite smoothly."

Opened a New Restaurant.

The new restaurant of the mill was opened last night and as a result the hostelries in the borough were descried. The rates in the mill lunch house are ridiculously small

THE ORPHAN SCANDAL. School Accounts Being Looked Into by the Special Senate Committee. MERCER, PA., Oct. 3.-[Special.]-The Senate Committee appointed during the last session of the Legislature to inquire into the accounts between the State and the Soldiers' Orphan School management, consisting of Senators Baker, Delaware county; Lloyd, of Indiana county; Captain Nesbitt, of Allegheny, and Hard, of Northumber-land, arrived here at noon to-day.

A session of the committee was held this evening. Treasurer R. R. Wright was placed on the stand, but he had not his books of accounts. The matter was con-tinued until to-morrow, when Wright-says he will have his books for examination.

RICHMOND, VA., Oct. 3.-Generals Weaver and Field, the Third Party candidates for President and Vice President, and Mrs. Lease, of Kansas, addressed a large audience to-night at Old Market hall, com-posed mainly of Democrats. A goodly number of ladies were present. A number

gress of the meeting.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 3.-Commissioner Peck will soon explode another of his bombs in addition to the report recently issued. It is a continuation by which he shows the increase of wages of various branches of workingmen. This table will be about twice as large as any given out.

SOUTHERN COURTESY. Eggs of Uncertain Age Introduced at Weaver Meeting:
