

majority in the Tenth district will be prob-ably 4,000. This is Congressman Watson's district, and is recognized as the stronghold of the Third party in Georgia. Northen's majority over Peek indicates that the dis-trict will go Democratic in November.

POOR LO IN POLITICS.

South Dakota Republicans Getting an Early Letter on Indian Voters.

SISSETON AGENCY, S. D., Oct. 5 .- All day long yesterday the Indians were gather-ing around the agency from all parts of the reservation. It is for the Indian an event that marks his advent into a new life-the

That's the Rind of Recruits Mr. Clarkson Says Republicans Will Have. WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.-J. S. Clarkson, of the Republican National Committee, is

Governor in 1887, a new feature is brought into the contest. The action in postponing the hearing of the motion to advance is taken by politicians to mean that the case will not be decided before election. Alfred Tennyson was born on August 6, FLOPPERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

in the city to-day. Mr. Clarkson said he

A Picturesque Old Gentleman.

1809, at Somerby, a village in Lincolnshire, about half way between Spilsby and Horn-castle. He was one of the 12 children (of whom seven were sons) of the Rev. G. Clayton Tennyson, LL. D., rector of Somerby and vicar of Grimsby. Alfred was taught the rudimentary subjects, partly at home and partly at "Eadney's Village School," Alfred Tennyson's first verses were written

THE DYING LAUREATE.

A Sketch of Alfred Tennyson-The Quict of

His Declining Years.

the model of Thomson's "Se

Gosse he "has not needed a single moral re-form nor inaugurated a single revolution of opinion; he has never pointed the way to undiscovered regions of thought; he has never stood on tip-toe to discover new worlds, that his fellows were not tall enough to discover ahead. In all these di-metions he has been promut to follow rections he has been prompt to follow, quick to apprehend, but never himself a

Still the English people look upon him as being the greatest master of English verse with a single exception since Milton. All his life he has been a post, for we are told that from the time when he, a mere youth, choose the making of poetry for a proany other kind for his living, and yet he under discussion. In that House there were ten members who had been members of the convention which framed the Constitution. Mr. Madi-son was the leader on the floor, and he con-ducted the first revenue bill through the House. Washington was President of the United States, Hamilton was Secretary of the Treasury, Jefferson was Secretary of State, and Edmund Randolph was Attorney General. It those four men did not know for what purpose the first revenue law was for what purpose the first revenue law was enacted, and why it was made a highly pro-tective tariff. I beg to ask, Who did know? The record shows.

The Deadly Parallel.

The Deadly Parallel. Let me now place side by side the anti-protection plank in the Democratic plat-form, and the preamble of the act of 1789; and here let me ask my Democratic readers whether ex-President Cleveland, Senator Hill, and other leaders of the Democratic party, at the present day, are better expo-nents of the Constitution than Madison, Washington, Hamilton, Jefferson, Ran-dolph and the generation of men who es-tablished it:

AT LATIMER'S

life of American politics. It is wonderful how apt they are proving themselves. Some are especially noticeable from the hustling they are doing, and a close examination shows that schemes are on foot that would do credit to the most experienced of politicians

The Indians have met to take counsel as to their future course in politics. When the council was called, Rev. R. E. Crawford, who is, perhaps, the most influential man among the Indians, stepped forward and spoke at some length of their birth as citizens. Mr. Crawford was followed by others of the leading Indians. Senator Pettigrew spoke to them at some length. Pettigrew spoke to them at some length. If there is any one white man in whom the Indians have unbounded confidence it is Senator Pettigrew. Other speakers fol-lowed. There are nearly 400 voters on this reservation, and this council, which was really called by the Republican County Committee, is their initiation into politics.

FORAKER IN ILLINOIS.

Ohio's Ex-Governor Makes a Rattling Speech in the Sucker State.

STERLING, ILL., Oct. 5.-Ex-Governo Foraker, of Ohio, was the distinguished guest of Sterling to-day. The city was deporated with bunting and flags, and everywhere the public buildings and private residences on the line of march were illuminated.

Ex-Governor Foraker said he came to Illinois as a private citizen, not as a candi-date for office. "I am an American citizen," he said. "I believe in American products, American money, American tin, American patriotism, American morality, American heroism. You can't have that by electing an old-time copperhead, or a man who hired a substitute or one who insulted patriotism by fishing on Memorial Day, especially when you have to elect them over such a man with such a record of natriotism as when you have to elect them over such a man with such a record of patriotism as Harrison.

The speaker dwelt at length on the force bill and the tariff, and closed his two hours' address by urging Democrats to leave the party of "cant" and come over to the Lord's side for once. A big torchlight procession was held at the conclusion of Governor Foreker's address Foraker's address.

GOOD TIMES AND THEIR CAUSE

Dwelt Upon by Senator Allison in a Speech in Minr

MITCHELL, MINN., Oct. 5.-Senator Allison, of Iowa, to-day delivered the only speech he will make in this State during the present campaign, in this city, to one of the largest political gatherings in this section. For an hour and a half he discussed the currency and tariff. He maintained that the financial system of He maintained that the humacial system of this country at this time was stronger than at any other time in its history. He stated that there is to-day more money in circula-tion in this country for every man, woman and child than ever before in the history of the Government.

High interest rates in sections of the country and their causes, taxation and other related questions were discussed. The present prosperity of the country as a whole was spoken of as a result of the wise and beneficent policy of the Republican party. Senator Allison left this evening for lows.

Mills Again Able to Make Speeches.

In 1828 he went to Trinity College, Camcame here largely on private business, "for we have to give a little time to our private bridge, and in 1829 gained a gold medal for poem on Timbuctoo. He published his rst volume of poetry about this time, and affairs, you know, even if these are political times," he added. Mr. Clarkson's rein 1832 his second volume was published by plies to inquiries about the political out-Mr. Edward Moxon. The story that "Lock-sley Hall" was based upon personal experi-ence is said to have not the slightest foundaook were such as one would expect from so sturdy a Republican. "Are there any persons whose names are to come out as having In 1850 he was married to Miss Emily Sellwood, and in the same year succeeded Wordsworth as poet laureate, and produced on the day of the funeral of the Duke of changed from the Democratic to the Republican side in the line of offset to the deon the day of the funeral of the Duke of Wellington (November, 1852,) his immortal "Ode." The Crimean war exerted a de-pressing effect on the sensitive genius, as evidenced by his poem "Maud." After a silence of several years the first series of "Idyls of the King," embracing four stories in blank verse, drawn from the Arthurian leagends restored the poet's waning norm publican side in the line of oliset to the de-fection of Gresham, Cooley and Mac-Veagh?" was asked. "Oh, no; our changes are all among the common people," was the response, followed by the remark that the changes of the gentlemen did not amount to so very much, after all, in view of at-tending a simulations. tending circumstances." Mr. Clarkson had an interview with Secretary Foster, of the Treasury Department. From the fact that Garrett A. Hobart, Rein blank verse, drawn from the Arthurian legends, restored the poet's waning popu-larity, and was generally accepted as his greatest poetical effort, a verdict confirmed ten years later when the cycle was com-pleted by the publication of the "Holy Grail and Other Poems" (1869). In the in-terval between the publication of the sec-ond parts of his Idyls Tennyson had issued "Enoch Arden" (1864). 'He has since then published the "Window, or the Songs of the Wrens" (1870) and several dramas, lyrics, ballads, etc. publican National Committeeman from New Jersey, is in town, it is probable that matters relating to politics in and around New York City were discussed with Secretary Foster.

FLORIDA SWEPT CLEAN.

The Democrats Capture the Entire Legisla-. ture in Their Victory.

JACKSONVILLE, FLA., Oct. & -- Completed county returns come in very slowly, A London correspondent writes in a re-cent letter: Speaking of Tennyson's prede-cessors and possible successor, I had the rare pleasure of seeing the old poet in Lonand there is nothing in them to warrant a change in last evening's figures. Mitchell has beaten Baskin by a majority that will hardly fall short of 23,500, and may reach 25,000. Out of the precincts heard from not a dozen gave Baskin a majority, and in none of those that did was it more than 50 votes. On the other hand, whole counties went as a unit for Mitchell and the State Demo-men were chatting, when their attention was drawn to two men who were slowly cratic ticket. Baskin's vote cannot possibly go above 8,000, and the latest figures place it below 7,000. Hawley, the Prohibition candidate, has probably polled less than 500 votes in passing on the opposite side of Pall Mail. One of these was a sturdy enough man approaching middle age, but looking young indeed beside the man who walked arm in arm with him, for the latter was a veritable the entire State. So far the returns show an aggregate vote for Mitchell of nearly patriarch in appearance. He was more-over a man who would attract attention in an aggregate vote for Mitchell of nearly 33,000. Reports from 42 out of 45 counties show that their Senators and Representa-tives will all be Democrata. In the re-maining three counties (Liberty, Holmes and Walton) the vote is close, but the in-dications are that these will also send Dem-ocrats to the Legislature. any assemblage. His tall frame was bent with years and covered any assemblage. His tall frame was bent with years and covered with a wondrously ill-fitting suit of some gray material. He wore a hat like, and yet unlike, the American slouch. His boots were wide and stout, almost coarse, his ceilar ill-fitting and his created the stout and stong; it was set off by a great shagy head of white hair, and a beard such as the patriarchs are supposed to have worn. "Picturesque looking old chap that," one of the loungers in the elub window remarked carelessly.

GENERAL STEVENSON AT ELGIN.

The Democratic Candidate Well Received

in His Residence State.

ELGIN, ILL, Oct 5 .- This evening the skating rink was crowded to hear General of the loungers in the state whether had been carelessly. Another of the loungers, who had been watching the pair closely, turned and looked closely and curiously at the speaker. "Perhaps," he said, with just a trifle of sarcasm in his voice, "you don't know who that picturesque old chap is." "Haven't the slightest idea," the other one deswind. Stevenson speak. He confined his remarks almost exclusively to the tariff, denouncing the McKinley bill, which cut off the revenues by its high tax on imports so that the surplus left by Cleveland is now a deficit and the National Treasury is threatened and the National Treasury is threatened with bankruptcy. The Democratic party, the speaker said, is not for free trade, but for a tariff for revenue. The legitimate expenses of the Government must be mot, and import taxes are necessary. He condemned the granting of bounties to the sugar growers as robbery, and demonstrated that on all imports the tariff was paid by the consumera. one drawled. "Well, that picturesque old chap, as you call him, is Alfred Tennyson, and that is his son Hallam with him. Take a good look at the laureste while you have a chance. He doesn't come often to London now, and at his age any of the trips may easily be his last one."

And the group did look at the old man with all their eyes, until he slowly passed beyond their gaze leaning on the arm of his

Mills Again Able to Make Speeches. CORSICANA, TEX., Oct. & —Sensitor Roger Q. Mills has almost entirely recov-ered from his recent indisposition, and ex-pects to leave here the latter part of this week to fill his Illinois appointments in Forman's district. No Fusion in South Dakota. YANETON, S. D., Oct. & —Secretary O'Brien, of the Democratic State Central any other kind for his living, and yet he was poor enough at first. He is living very quietly now. His wife is still with him and spends much of her time in setting her husband's verses to music. And, indeed, these lyrics form the most interesting feature of London drawing-room entertainments nowadays. Meanwhile the glorious old man sits in his quiet study at Headmara surrounded

Witnessed a Bare Sight.

na .

Meanwhile the glorious old man sits in his quiet study at. Haslemere, surrounded by his books, his tobacco jar by his side, his beloved pipe near, where he can look out through his open window over glen and wood and hill to where the sea glustens sil-ver-like in the distance. And, perchance, he may light his pipe and through the clouds of smoke see visions beyond our ken. So let us leave him calmly living out the evening of his life. When it closes, all England may well mourn, for it may be long before hus like may again be seen. The Laurestic's Own Peern on Paeth

The Laureate's Own Poem on Death. As the days of the poet seem to be numbered his admirers recall one of the most beautiful lyrics of the English language, written by the poet in his 80th year, on this very subject of death. It forms a fitting song for his own going out. It is entitled "Crossing the Bar," and is as follows: Sunset and evening star, And one clear call for mel

And may there be no moaning of the bar When I put out to sea; But such a tide as moving seems asleep, Too full for sound and foam, When that which drew from out the bound less deep Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bells, <sup>6</sup> And after that the dark! And may there be no sadness of farewells When I embark;

don recently-rare, for the reason that as he grows older he seems to dislike the city more and more, and he never visits it ex-cept when some important business takes him there. For though from out our bourne of Time and Place The floods may bear me far, I hope to see my Pilot face to face When I have crossed the bar. It was at the Athenseum Club, a group of

THE COOLEYS' SUCCESSORS.

Road Supervisor in Fayette County Turns Detective With Good Results.

UNIONTOWN, Oct. 5.-[Special.]-Hen Sullivan, Bill Hill, W. H. Cunningham, Neff McClellan and William and Newton Lucky were arrested to-day on a charge of Robbing Nat Murphy and Isaac Wood's meat shop last June. When this robbing was done the crime was charged to the Cooley gang, but Mr. Murphy believed that the Cool Spring gang were the guilty parties, and set about to run them down. Murphy and set about to run them down, Murphy is Road Supervisor in . North Union town-ship, and hired three of the suspects to work for him. He managed to get them drunk, and they then revealed all they knew, even oriminating themselves. Murphy immedi-ately had them arrested.

ately had them arrested. Some of the suspects have already earned a reputation at the business and will make worthy successors to the Cooleys. Sullivan has not been long out of the penitentiary, where he served a six-years' sentence for robbing the paymaster at the Beeson works, and Hill was imprisoned for harboring the notorious McClellandtown gang.

Only One Iron Firm a Bidder. WASHINGTON, Oct. 5. -Bids were opened at the Treasury Department to-day for a vessel of the revenue marine service to be vessel of the revenue marine service to be named William Windom, and to be placed on the Chesapeake Bay station. There were seven bids received, but the only bid within the appropriation, 6100,000, was that of the Iowa Iron Works, of Dubuque, at 898,500, and the contract will undoubtedly be awarded to that firm.

Opening Daily New and desirable povelties in fall and win ter dress goods, silks, crepons, s'orm serges, cashmeres, bladds, henriettas and cloth suit-ings. Also laddes' and children's wraps, shawls and fichues in large variety and low H. J. LYNCH'S, Anti-Protection Preamble of the first plank of the Demo-cratic platform. We denounce Re-Whereas, it is necescratic platform. We denounce Re-publican protection sary for the support as a fraud upon of Government, for the labor of the the discharge of the great majority of the the discharge of the debts of the Uni-American people for ted States, and the benefit of a few, the encouragement We declare it to be a and protection of fundamental princi-manufactures, that ple of the Democratic onstitutional power Be it enacted, &c., that to impose and collect from and after the tariff duties, except first day of August for the purpose of tion of such taxes be lid on the following limited to the necessi-goods, wares and mer-al dower meent has no constitutional power Be it enacted, &c., that to impose and collect from and after the tariff duties, except first day of August for the purpose of tion of such taxes be lid on the following limited to the necessi-goods, wares and mer-ties of the Govern-ohandises imported into the United States from any foreign port ministered. Duties Always Protective.

Duties Always Protective.

Requesting my readers to keep this pre-amble before them, I shall, in future com-munications, show that in every instance in munications, show that in every instance in which there were already existing manu-factures with which foreign products came into competition, the duties were so laid as to afford proper encouragement and protec-tion to our own manufactures, and that many duties were laid for the express pur-pose of raising up manufactures and agri-cultural products that did not then exist in the United States. Since the foregoing was written, Mr. Cleveland's letter accepting the Democratic nomination, and planting himself squarely on the anti-Protection plank of the Demo-cratic platform, has been published. I aball speak of it in my next. In the mean-time I remain very truly yours, time I remain very truly yours, GEO. TICKNOR CUETIS.

STOP

Watches Without Apparent Cause. A great many of the best watches are con-tinually stopping or running irregular, to the great annoyance of the persons carrying them. This is caused by the watch becom-ing magnetized from dynamos or electric care cars. To those so annoyed, we wish to say we have secured an instrument by which we can remove the magnetism while you wait. Gro. W. Broes & Co., 601 Smithfield street, Corner Sixth avenue.

SWALL in size, great in results; De Witt's Little Early Risers. Best pill for constipation best for sick headache and sour stomach.

te.

The Parisian Costumer, says:

"I consider the De Long Patent Hook and Eye the best

→ NO. 94 FIFTH AVENUE, →

PITTSBURG.

oc5-141-TTSI

DRESS GOODS Are a study this season, and nowhere else can they be studied better than here. Each and every pattern is a masterpiece. Rich in coloring, design and finish.

Bengaline Poplins LOWEST PRICES.

ALL-WOOL DRESS GOODS.

FINEST

QUALITIES.

DOMESTIC SERGES.

RICH

NOVELTIES.

Will be largely worn this Fall in fancy stripes, but more especially in the solid colors. Our sales are enormous of the 80c, $1 and 42-inch $1.25 grades. We never before attempted to sell such qualities at these low prices.

> Hundreds of pieces of new rich novelties. The delicate, subdued, quiet colorings are in the lead-more stylish than ever. You know we sell cheapest, but to fasten it indelibly on your mind we offer a mammoth line of 75c and 8oc qualities at 50c for one week only.

> Stronger and yet stronger grow these staples in public favor. The Browns, Navy and Myrtles are more popular. We have the most attractive assortment in the two cities at the price.

Stylish ladies crowd our Silk Counters daily. The prices cause much activity. Changeable Silks are more popular than for years, and the sales of corded and striped and the shaded varieties are immense. Anticipating the great demand for these goods we placed orders double those of last season. There's no question about our prices being lower than any other house!

We invite the most critical inspection of our grand stock of New Fall Dress Goods, which, we believe, is the handsomest, and is not equaled anywhere at the prices. ,

T.M.LATIMER 138-140 Federal St., - 45-46 S. Diamond, ALLEGHENY, PA.

OCI-TTS

Bayard on the Floppers. WILMINGTON, DEL, Oct. &-In an interview to-day ex-Secretary Bayard said: "The declarations of men like Judge