

A FRAUD CRY RAISED

By the People's Party Leaders Who Are Chagrined at Results

IN THE FAR TOO SOLID SOUTH, They Still Have Hopes That Florida, Georgia and Alabama

WILL SHOW-UP ALL RIGHT IN NOVEMBER

[FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—To say that the Democrats are pleased at the reported result of the State elections in Georgia and Florida is putting it in a very mild way. They are jubilant and not only are convinced that the bottom has dropped out of the Third party movement, but that the majorities indicate there is no weakening of the Democratic order, and that the old-time victories are but awaiting the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November.

With the Republicans the feeling is quite different. It might be expected that the old parties would be equally pleased by the suggestion of the elections that the new party is about to go the way of the numerous new parties that have sprung to the surface since the war, but that is not the fact with the Republicans so far as the South is concerned. Possibly in Iowa, Kansas, Nevada, Nebraska and other Republican States where the People's party is supposed to have considerable strength that new aspirant for popularity could not be too weak to suit the Republicans, but the South is quite a different matter.

Republicans at the Head of It.

If not known before it has come to be known within the last few weeks, that the cause of the People's party in the South is the cause of the Republicans, so far as the leaders can have anything to do with the shaping of affairs, and though high Republican officials are averse to discussing the question, it is easy to see that they are much disappointed at the outcome of the elections this week in Florida and Georgia. They are aware, however, that the People's party is not a new party, but a party that has been in existence since the war, and that it is a party that has been in existence since the war, and that it is a party that has been in existence since the war.

A Matter of Life and Death.

"They had to carry those States," said Mr. Dunning, "where the Democratic party had been gone against it for such a long time, and where the only way to end the political career of such prominent figures in politics as Crisp, Turner, Gordon, Colquhoun and others, but it would have sounded the death-knell of famous politicians all over the South. They knew they had to carry those States. They gave notice some time ago that they would carry these States in October, one way or another. No matter what means had to be taken, they would win anyway. It is at this time on the surface that they have made good their promise, but it is more than likely that with all the frauds they will not be able to make any such showing of majorities as is reported in the daily press.

You know how it was in Alabama.

The Democrats claimed the State by a majority of 50,000, but the claim rapidly dropped down to 10,000, and a similar result was all the honest men who know anything about the matter that Kolb, the independent candidate, was legally elected. It is absurd—more than absurd—it is a lie to assume that the negroes will vote the Democratic ticket to any appreciable extent. It is possible at this Georgia State election many of them did so on account of the personal popularity of Governor Northcutt with them, but they will not do so at the Congressional elections, nor for Presidential elections.

Colored Membership of the Alliance.

"It is not generally recognized by the members of the old parties that the negroes are closely affiliated with the whites in the Alliance movement. I do not know the extent of the membership at this time, but not far back when I was last informed of the condition of the organization, there were a round million of the negroes in the Alliance. They had their own organization. They did not meet with the whites, who had their own branches, but they were in all other ways treated as brothers in the order, and in business they were advised and protected by the whites as kindly and thoroughly as though there had been no difference of color.

Now, is it not the height of absurdity to assert that in such circumstances these negroes would affiliate with the Democrats rather than with the party that is based on the organization to which they belong, and which gets them a generous and fraternal consideration from the whites of that organization? Whatever may be said of the negro of the towns, whose vote may be controlled by the bottle or the bootle, the agricultural negro with the Alliance, and preference to the Democrats, every time. If the Democrats have, as reported, carried the States of Florida and Georgia by the large majorities claimed, they have done so by tremendous frauds and not by any easily accomplished at the November elections.

Federal Marshals to Be Demanded.

"It is proposed to ask for supervisors and deputy marshals to be at the polls to see that honest elections are held, and we have in defense of this action President Cleveland himself, which is good enough Democratic authority at this time. It is a fact not generally known, and has but now been recalled, that on October 3, 1888, one month previous to the Presidential election, that year, President Cleveland directed Attorney General Garland to take charge of the execution of the statutes of the United States, to use his own words, touching the appointment of supervisors of elections and special deputy marshals. His instructions were general, but they were evidently intended to fit a particular case, for Attorney General Garland immediately sent instructions to S. F. Wilson, United States Marshal at Nashville, the important portion of which reads as follows:

"Sir:—In pursuance of a letter of the 5th inst., from the President, directing the charge of the appointment of special deputy marshals, the performance of their duties and their compensation, together with the compensation of supervisors, at the Congressional election November next, your attention is directed to the provisions of titles 24 and 26, chapter 7, title 50, of the Revised Statutes. Under sections 2022 and 2024, it is your duty to keep the peace, protect supervisors, preserve order, prevent frauds and enforce the law in towns of 20,000 inhabitants and upward.

"You should make yourself familiar with the statutes referred to, and see that they are understood by your deputies, who should be discreet men, impressed with the importance of an honest franchise. The manner of discharging these duties by yourself and your deputies is largely left to your discretion. In matters involving questions of law you are directed to consult the Attorney of the United States for your district for needed information and advice. It is assumed that the duties can be performed without infringing upon the rights of any citizen, in a manner that shall be firm and at the same time free from an unnecessary display of authority. It is not expected that supervisors and deputy marshals will receive compensation for more than five days' service, and they should be so informed. Within this time all can be done, it is thought, that ought to be. You need vigilant men, who are conscientious workers, and no others."

"Now, what was this—this order which was so nearly in harmony with the provisions of the Federal election bill of the last Congress? It was because a certain region in and around Nashville was reported to be inclined dangerously toward Republicanism, and the cry of possible fraud was raised. Marshal Wilson appointed Democratic supervisors and special deputy marshals to prevent Republican frauds in one of the States of the solid South, and the Marshal issued to his deputies the following instructions:

The Instructions to Marshals.

"It will be your duty to attend at the polls in the district, precincts or wards for which you are appointed during the election on to-morrow, the 6th, and to aid and assist the supervisors of the election if required thereby by them in the verification of the lists of persons legally voting thereat. It will be your duty to keep the peace and to support and protect the supervisors of election at all respective voting places in the legal discharge of their duties. It will be your duty to preserve order at the polls and to prevent fraudulent voting thereat, or fraudulent and illegal conduct on the part of any officer of election. Every qualified voter has the right to cast one ballot in the civil district or ward in which he resides, and no more, and at no other place, and no one has the right to prevent him from thus voting, either by threats, menace or otherwise, legitimate argument and persuasion are proper to induce voters to vote for one or another class of candidates. All obstructions or hindrances by one person or set of persons, interposed in the way of another person or set of persons voting as their choice dictates, is a violation of Federal law, and any person or persons guilty of this offense, in your presence you will arrest at once without warrant.

When Warrants Were Necessary.

"You will arrest no persons without a warrant therefor properly sworn out, unless the persons commit a violation of law in your presence or in the presence of supervisors, who in that event, will have to report to the party to you. If any resist or attempt to intimidate you in the discharge of your duties or attempt to intimidate the supervisors in the discharge of their duties, you are authorized to arrest them. Your duties will continue until the polls are closed and the votes are counted and properly certified. As a United States official you will have nothing to do with the legal efforts of the respective party workers to get votes for their candidates. As citizens you are entitled to vote your choice and to use legal means to induce others to do so, but no others.

"I think," continued Mr. Dunning, "that this will be news to both Republicans and Democrats, this order of President Cleveland, and it is our purpose to use it as a means of exposing the frauds of the People's party. Federal Supervisors and Deputy Marshals under those clauses of the revised statutes referred to by Mr. Cleveland's Attorney General, and see if we can't have one vote for one man counted throughout the South. There are places in the South where the People's party will see that a fair count is made, if they have to do it at the point of the pistol, but Federal officers are preferable when they can be appointed from a party opposite to the party of the bulldozing majority, as they can be by the order of President Harrison.

Change of Firm.

The firm of Charles Somers & Co., real estate agents, 121 Fourth avenue, has been reorganized. Charles Somers, retiring and George Piper and Leonard A. Clark assuming full control of the business, under the firm name of Piper & Clark. Messrs. Piper and Clark are both young, energetic business men, and are well known and experienced in the real estate line. They are Pittsburgers, and have a host of friends here who will congratulate them upon their success in their chosen profession. They have been long enough active members of the old firm to become familiar with its extensive clientele and to fully qualify themselves to assume all the responsibilities and discharge punctually all the duties devolving upon them by its reorganization, and those acquainted with them entertain no doubt that they will not only maintain the reputation and retain the patronage of the present firm, but that their courtesy, activity, diligence and fair dealing will quickly assist them to the front rank in the real estate trade.

THE EARLY SEAL Catches the cold and may save doctor's bills. You will surely save dollars at our early seal garment sale, because we are selling at wholesale prices. Our object is to make a good customer of you early in the season. That is about the only profit we get out of "these early seals." They were bought in July at midsummer prices. You get the benefit of that.

The quality of sealskin should be looked at sharply. There is a great difference in seals. As the oldest fur house in Pennsylvania, we have some advantages. People can rely on the genuineness of our furs and our statements. We seldom cry "bargain," but the fact is, you will not find elsewhere in Pittsburg our quality at our prices. They will not be offered in winter. They are for now only.
