A GOOD DAY'S WORK.

How Our Sluggers Trimmed Up the St. Louis Browns Twice.

Our Sluggers got to work again vesterday place, and in that position they mean to stay for the balance of the season. Their victims yesterday afternoon were the Browns from St. Louis. The visitors came here dressed in their new suits of clothes, but they did not put up an article of ball as good as their clothes seemed to be. They are not the Browns of old and there are very few familiar faces among them. They may blossom into a good team, but they were short of an average team standard yesterday. There are some likely youngsters among them, and if rightly looked after they may aid in bringing Von der Abedom once more to the front.

It Wasn't Very Exciting. Although the weather was chilly the sun shone brightly and there couldn't be much to complain about on that score. It was also "Ladies' Day." Still the total attendance did not reach 2,000. Those who saw the two contests hadn't much of an exciting kind to entertain them except the fact of two local victories. The first game was not a bad one, although the visitors never looked like winning it. Young Breitenstein was the pitcher for the visitors and Terry was in the box for the home players. "Breit" pitched a tolerably good game, but Terry pitched a better, and that told the story. The home players took the lead in the second inning and kept it to

In the second inning Miller started with a base on balls and stole second. He got to third on a passed ball. Beckley flied out and Miller scored on Smith's single to left, and Mack's sacrifice and a single by Bierbauer scored Smith.

In the third, after two men were out, Caruthers made a single to center and scored on Brodie's double and Donovan's fumble, A base on balls, Mack's single and a life scored one for the local men in the fourth.

Louis Bierbauer's Timely Crack. In the seventh Bierbauer's double and Werden's numble of Terry's grounder sored another rus. In the eighth Miller's single, a steal, Beckley's sacrifice and Smith's single scored the fifth run.

In the second half of the eighth, after two men were out, Brodie got his base on balls and got second on a passed ball. He scored on Moriarity's double to right. Camp got his base on balls, and a single by Genins score i Moriarity.

The second game was too one-sided to be interesting. Hawley was hit hard and was also wild. Toward the finish Baldwin eased up and the visitors got three runs in the sixth and seventh innings. The support that Hawley received was wretched and it is a wonder he did not collapse. Farrell injured his leg in the first inning and had to retire, Miller going to third and Cargo to short, but darkness caused the game to be called at the end of the seventh.

Where Farrell Hurt His Leg.

In the first inning Donovan made a single to center and got to second on a wild throw by Buckley. Farrell thumped the ball to the left fence, and in trying to make a home run off the hit was nabbed at the plate and he hart his leg. A fumble by Werden allowed Van Haltren to reach first and Mil-ler's sacrifice sent him to third. Beckley got his base on balls, and in stealing second he caused Buckley to make a wild throw, the ball going into center field, both men scor-

In the second inning the visitors got two on a base on balls by Brodie and singles by Camp, Genias and Buckley.

In the third inning Van Haltren's base on balls, two stolen bases and a wild throw by Brodie, Smith's sacrifice hit and Mack's single scored two runs. Two more runs were scored in the fourth on one single and errors by Caruthers, Hawley and Genins. In the fifth two singles and a double, a base on balls, a stolen base and a fumble by Caruthers sent in three runs. In the sixth inning errors by Miller and Mack and a single by Camp gave the visi-tors a run, and in the seventh a muffed fly by Donovan, singles by Brodie and Mori-arity and a tumble by Beckley gave two more runs and the game was called. The CONTRARY to expectations, Cargo was not named on the card to play in yesterday's local gaines. PHILADELPHIA and Brooklyn lead the League clubs in team batting, and they with Chicinnati are tied for the first place in fielding. THE proposed game between the Pittsburg League team and the Uniontowns has been de-clared off on account of several of the Uniontown players being unable to play on that day.

dard Will Fight Peter Vackson. NEW YORK, Oct. 6 .- Tom O'Rourke, mana ger of George Dixon, says that the colored champion would fight Billy Pimmer, of England. The conditions under which Dixon will agree to meet the Englishman are that the men shall weigh in at 112 pounds at 8 o'clock in the afternoon, the fight to be for the bantam weight championship, a stake of $10,000 a side and a purse of $7,500. Plimmer says that if Dixon means Dusiness he will have to weigh 112 pounds at the ring side. Plimmer said: "O'Rourke stated two days ago that Dixon could fight as well at the best ago time bloom could at 118. If he will agree to these conditions I will agree to make the match for $10,00."

It is the intention of the Barrier champion, Joe Goddard, to bring about a meeting with Jim Corbett, or get the championship by default in the attempt. It will be just a month next Monday since Billy Madden, the Australian's manager, deposited $1,000 as a foriest with a sporting paper here to bind a match with the champion for $10,000 a side and the best purse offered; so October II, unless the Californian consents to arrange a fight on the above-mentioned conditions, Goddard will claim the championship and stand ready to defend that title against all comers. "According to all rules," said Madden,

"According to all rules," said Madden, "a champion must be ready to defend his title when there is a necessity for that sort of thing. Goddard is the only man to challenge Corbett who has put up a substantial forfeit, and he claims that Corbett must pay some attention to his proposition or relinquish his hold on the championship."

Goddard says he will also try to arrange a match with Peter Jackson, the colored fighter, on his arrival here.

JOHN L. DENIES IT,

He Says He Has Not Made Any Charge About Being Drugged.

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.-The intimation that Sullivan was drugged on the night of his fight with Jim Corbett in New Orleans, which was generally supposed to have come from the ex-champion's own lips, originated from another source, so John L. says. To a reporter the big Boston pugilist had this to say yesterday: "After Corbett de-leated me in New Orleans, I made no excuses. As I have said, the man who makes excuses is very foolish. Since I returned North nobody has heard me offer any ex-North nobody has heard me offer any explanations of my defeat other than that I had gone into the ring once too o ten. As far as the story of my being drugged is concerned. I never intimated that any such thing had happened. I never before was in better condition than on that occasion. It is not my intention to take one bit of credit away from Mr. Corbett.

"What I shall do in the future is my own affair," Sullivan replied. "I am making considerable money now, and if I choose to fight Corbett again I will back myself. I do not say that I will challenge him again, still if I take a notion to I don't see how anybody can find iault with me."

A CONGRESS OF TRAINED NURSES,

The English Sweating System Condemne by a Lady Fair Commissioner. CHICAGO, Oct. 6.-The lady member of the British Royal Commission to the World's Fair, Mrs. Ethel Gordon Fenwick, wife of a noted English physician, who is here in the interests of all departments of the Commission, especially her own part of the work, that of trained nurses, said to-day:

"I believe that the congresses of the World's Fair will be more beneficial than the exhibits, especially as regards education, philanthropy and hygiene. I wish to open the way for a great Congress of Trained Nurses, the first one of its kind ever held."
While upholding the advantages of the English three-years' course of study, Mrs.
Fenwick thinks American nurses are superior to the English, being more efficient in the art of sick cookery, are very much better paid and are much more justly treated. A great blot, she says, on the English system is that the nurses receive a small, settled salary from the institution to which they are attached, and the middlemen derive great profits from their fees. The lower nurses suffer from this "sweating." the exhibits, especially as regards educa-

MORRIS PARK RACE TRACK, Oct. 6 .-The racing here this afternoon was sensa tional in the extreme. It commenced with victory for Chesapeake, who was backed down from 15 to 1 to 10 to 1, finally closing at 12 to 1. Correction, Taral up, looked a certain winner, and the bookmakers were forced to send her to the post a 7 to 10 chance. She was beaten at the halt mile, leaving Chesapeake to win in a gallop. Jockey Mike Bergen celebrated his return from the West by capturing the second race with Fitzsimmons, 10 to 1, and Milt Young, at odds of from 30 to 1 to 50 to 1, almost cause a panie by making all the running in the third race, winning by a length and a half. May Win and Fred Taral were second and third, respectively. The owners and trainer of Milt Young did not think he had a chance, and not only did not bet on him but advised their friends not to play him. Morello, after a desperate finish with Rainbow, Governor Foraker and Eagle Bird, Ajax and Worsmer, landed the stakes by half a length. Governor Foraker was pocketed in the last sixteenth. He should have been second. Rainbow showed a start-ling reversal in form, coming into the place with 100 to 1 against him. Morello was a 2 to 5 favorite. He won the first part of the Sea and Sound at Sheepshead Bay. Nomad, first choice, took the fith race under punishment, and Strathmeath galloped away from Russell in the last race. Summaries:

THE price paid for a Leslie shoe equals the cost of material and labor and one fair profit. The track was in excellent confence, but at the second, Dobte nodded his head and Nancy was off at her world-beating gait. She was to beat 2:07, and few doubted that she would do it. She went the first quarter in 32.5-5 seconds, and the half in 1:08. In 1:35.2-5 seconds after starting, she flew by the three-quarter flag, never having been touched by the whip. In the stretch Doble tapped the little wonder several times with the whip, and she came under the wire in 2:06 flat. Three other races were trotted during the afternoon, but no sensational time was made.

TRAINER MARVIN'S CONFIDENCE.

He Thinks Sunol Will Trot a Wonderful

Mile at Lexington. New York, Oct. 6.-Last Tuesday Charles Marvin started for Lexington with Miller & Sibley's stable to fill engagements at Lexington, Nashville and Columbia. He has taken Sunol and Arion with him. He hopes to lower the record with Sunol and with Arion he expects to wipe out all 3-year-old records. Arion and Supol have been suffering from colds, but they have fully recovered. Mar-colds, but they have fully recovered. Marvin telegraphed last Monday, after giving Sunol a mile and repeat, that she is, to use his phrase, "O. K."

Mr. Bonner, on a recent visit to Meadville, asked Mr. Marvin how fast he thought Sunol could have trotted half a mile to a bicycle sulky the day that Governor Stanford timed her a quarter in 23½. Marvin's reply was, "About 58 seconds," and then he added: "If she only remains right there is no telling where she will trot a mile to the new sulky." It is thought to be a very easy thing for the great Arion, with his 2-year-old record of 2:10½ to the old style sulky, to wipe it out several seconds when hitched to the bicycle.
